S. C. Shapleigh and William Hill of Eliot have very large beds of muskmelons this season, and the yield has been unusually abundant, the quality of the fruit being also excellent. Muskmelon patches have done well everywhere in Eliot this year.

Parsonsfield will celebrate its centennial on Aug. 29th; on that day the town will give a free dinner to all the sons and daughters of Parsonsfield.

The crop of blueberries at Sturgeon Creek, Eliot, has been immense this year.

HEREDITARY SCROFULA.

ARE you aware that in your blood the taint of scrofula has a prominent place? This is true of every one. It is liable at any time, on the slightest provocation, to develop itself in some insidious disease. Consumption and many other diseases are outgrowths of this impurity of the blood. HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA has a wonderful power over all scrofulous troubles, as the remarkable testimonials we have received unmistakably prove.

"MESSRS. C. I. HOOD & Co.: Gentlemen—* * * My youngest son has always been troubled with Scrofulous Humor; sores in his head discharging from his ears, and a running sore on the back of his ear for two years; his eyelids would fester and ulcerate, discharging so that I was obliged to wash them open every morning, his eyelashes nearly all coming out; he was exceedingly dainty, most of the time eating but two slight meals a day. We were unable to find anything that had the least effect upon him till last spring, 1878, we gave him two bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla. His appetite improved at once. * * The back of his ear healed up without a scar, and not a sore in his head since. Sincerely yours,

MRS. N. C. SANBORN,
No. 108 Merrimack St., Lowell, Mass.

"We do not as a rule allow ourselves to use our editorial columns to speak of any remedy we advertise, but we feel warranted in saying a word for Hood's Sarsaparilla. Sarsaparilla has been known as a remedial agent for centuries and is recognized by all schools of practice as a valuable blood purifier. It is put up in forms of almost infinite variety, but Messrs. Hood & Co., (Lowell, Mass.) who are thoroughly reliable pharmacists, have hit upon a remedy of unusual value. Certainly they have vouchers of cures which we know to be most extraordinary."—Editors Lowell Weekly Journal.

COMPARATIVE WORTH OF BAKING POWDERS.

REPORTS OF GOVERNMENT CHEMISTS

As to Purity and Wholesomeness of the Royal Baking Powder.

"I have tested a package of Royal Baking Powder, which I purchased in the open market, and find it composed of pure and wholesome ingredients. It is a cream of tartar powder of a high degree of merit, and does not contain either alum or phosphates, or other injurious substances. E. G. LOVE, Ph.D."

"It is a scientific fact that the Royal Baking Powder is absolutely pure. "H. A. MOTT, Ph.D."

"I have examined a package of Royal Baking Powder, purchased by myself in the market. I find it entirely free from alum, terra alba, or any other injurious substance. HENRY MORTON, Ph.D., President of Stevens Institute of Technology."

"I have analyzed a package of Royal Baking Powder. The materials of which it is composed are pure and wholesome. S. DANA HAYES, State Assayer, Mass."

The Royal Baking Powder received the highest award over all competitors at the Vienna World's Exposition, 1873; at the Centennial, Philadelphia, 1876; at the American Institute, New York, and at State Fairs throughout the country.

No other article of human food has ever received such high, emphatic, and universal endorsement from eminent chemists, physicians, scientists, and Boards of Health all over the world.

NOTE—The above DIAGRAM illustrates the comparative worth of various Baking Powders, as shown by Chemical Analysis and experiments made by Prof. Schedler. A pound can of each powder was taken, the total leavening power or volume in each can calculated, the result being as indicated. This practical test for worth by Prof. Schedler only proves what every observant consumer of the Royal Baking Powder knows by practical experience, that, while it costs a few cents per pound more than ordinary kinds, it is far more economical, and, besides, affords the advantage of better work. A single trial of the Royal Baking Powder will convince any fair-minded person of these facts.

* While the diagram shows some of the alum powders to be of a higher degree of strength than other powders ranked below them, it is not to be taken as indicating that they have any value. All alum powders, no matter how high their strength, are to be avoided as dangerous.

POLICE COURT -- BATCHELDER J.

Charles Jameson, a transient person, alias tramp, was fined $3, with $6.90 costs, for drunkenness; county farm in default of payment.

John Murphy, another transient person, for an assault on some person not named in the complaint was fined $5, costs $6.90. Mr. Murphy testified in his own behalf that he had just come down from Brentwood in company with one Haley, also a transient person; that the latter, instigated probably by the spirit of sheol and other spirits, suddenly made an unprovoked attack on him, and proceeded to butt, beat, bite, scratch, kick, pull the hair and throw sand in the eyes of him, the said Murphy, to his serious discomfort and peril, he (the assaulted party) acting only on the defensive. Some other testimony did not closely agree with this, so Mr. Murphy will make another sojourn at Brentwood.

KITTERY LIBRARY BUILDING.

Quite a number of people in Kittery think the proposed site for the erection of a public library building is not exactly a proper selection; that the lot is too small and the building will have to be placed too near the street, and that it should stand on a spot removed from other buildings, with less liability to be destroyed by fire. A petition has been presented to the trustees to defer the purchase of a lot on which to erect a library building, and a hearing is to be had on this petition at the Universalist church in Kittery on Friday, Sept. 4th, at two o'clock P. M., when all who are interested can appear and such as desire can be heard.

MARITIME NOTES.

The schooner Bonita, Capt. Clifton Woodbury, arrived here on Tuesday, the 18th inst., to refit. She carried into Portland the previous week, after a trip of three days in the bay of Fundy, six swordfish, all taken in one day's fishing; on the same day she also hauled the irons out of five others. The schooner Albert Woodbury, Downs master, arrived in the lower harbor on Wednesday night, the 19th, and came up on Thursday to repair her seines, which were torn by dragging on the bottom five miles off shore in Wells bay. She took into Boston on the 13th 150 barrels of fresh mackerel and fourteen barrels of salt mackerel.

On Thursday afternoon Mr. Willard A. Fowler, of Seabrook, picked up off the beach a canoe 13 1-2 feet long, having her sail brailed up, and several fish-lines wound round and round her, as though she had been repeatedly rolled over in the surf. The canoe was identified as belonging to Alonzo Winkley of South Lawrence, Mass., who has been stopping at Salisbury beach. His two sons, Charles and Arthur, aged respectively eighteen and twenty-two years, went out in the canoe on Thursday, were capsized by the heavy swell of an "old sea" running in, and were drowned before assistance could be rendered. One of the young men had but one leg.

The big three-masted schooner Nantasket is laid up at Commercial wharf, awaiting freights.

The steamer Stamford will make two excursion trips from this city between the 6th and 10th of September, one to Boston and the other to Plymouth, Mass. The Boston excursionists will have about four hours in that city, giving them time to attend the great cyclorama of the battle of Gettysburg if they wish, returning by moonlight; at Plymouth ample time will be allowed to visit the points of historic interest in the ancient town. With good weather, such as may be expected early in September, these excursions will without doubt be largely patronized.

The Biddeford Journal of Thursday, Aug. 20th, says: "Two young gentlemen, A. Parsons and A. E. Davis, from Portsmouth, N. H., arrived at the Pool on Tuesday noon, in a very small canoe; one side is decked over forward and aft, leaving only just enough room for their paddling; they have two masts rigged upon it, and report a very fine time, so far. They intend to reach their destination, which is Bar Harbor, in two or three days after leaving here."

The schooner Tantamount, of Belfast, Me., which has brought cargoes to this port occasionally for many years past, was totally wrecked on Shovelful shoal, Nantucket sound, about midnight on the night of the 18th inst., all hands being saved. She was bound from Port Johnson, N. J., for Salem, Mass., with coal.

The schooner Lizzie Newton, of Parsboro, Nova Scotia, Capt. James Moore, from the provinces with soft coal for the Newmarket Machine Co., was towed up the river on Friday by the tug Ann, Capt. Moore, though yet in middle age, has been sailing to this port for more than thirty years, having formerly had extensive dealings with the late Major Hooper, and afterward with his son, the late Samuel G. Hooper.

On our second page to-day will be found a striking and instructive illustration of the comparative worth of the various kinds of baking powders now in the market.

The state house of representatives on the 20th inst. passed the senate bill to allow the city of Portsmouth to hire a superintendent of schools.

Wm. H. Smith, guardian of Abby A. Rollins, has sold at auction two acres of woodland on the road to Newington for $110. Daniel Littlefield, owner of the adjoining lots, was the purchaser.

Chas. H. Mendum, Esq., has purchased of Mr. Littleton M. Laighton the wooden store on Daniel street between the Smith mansion and the telegraph office, and will remodel it into a building for a store below and a tenement above stairs.

An undertaker of this city who had two funerals to attend to on Friday, informs us that he searched the city through in an attempt to find a resident clergyman of any denomination to conduct divine service, and finally was glad indeed to secure a travelling minister who happened to be here, to officiate. What a picnic the presiding genius of sheol could have had with the good people of Portsmouth that day, had he only been aware of the condition of affairs.

Mr. Robert B. Adams, formerly of this city and overseer in the Kearsarge Mills, but now connected with a manufacturing establishment in Charleston, S. C., has with his family been spending a few days here.

Postmasters for towns in Rockingham county were appointed on the 18th inst. as follows: At Derry, Jacob S. Couch vice Charles Bartlett; Derry Depot, James F. Colburn vice S. Pillsbury; Candia, Frank P. Brown vice G. C. Lang; Sandown, Alva S. Sanborn vice George Sanborn.

A Washington letter to the New York Sun, in reciting the names of those who are near the president, says: "Frank Jones of New Hampshire got his list accepted and went home content, though he threw dust in the reporter's eyes by affecting to be grouty. Jones does not like to make his neighbors jealous by an ostentatious display of power." The question as to which reporter's eye the mote was cast into is at present unsolved.

Rev. Joseph May of Phiadelphia will preach in the Unitarian church to-morrow.

Elder J. Denton of Newburyport may be expected to supply the desk of the Advent church on Sundays Aug. 22d and 30th; otherwise the services for those two Sundays remain the same as usual.

The Bangor express train, due in this city at four o'clock Friday morning, was about five hours late in arriving, owing to detention on the Maine Central road.

Frank Duntley of Greenland, a freight brakeman on the Boston & Maine railroad, either fell or was knocked from the top of a freight car near East Wakefield on the morning of the 21st inst., and instantly killed. His remains were brought home to Greenland the same day. He was about twenty-five years old, of excellent habits and highly esteemed, and had been in the employ of the Eastern road several years. He was a son of Mr. Lorenzo D. Duntley, of Greenland.

Among the passengers in the steamer Ems, in which Messrs. Jones and Morrison sailed from New York for Bremen, were Mr. and Mrs. Eastman Johnson.

CUCUMBERS AND WATERMELONS.

Cucumbers and watermelons are tabooed by hosands who fear to eat them, not because they have ever experienced a single pang that can be truthfully traced to them, but because some one had pronounced them injurious.

What more appetizing on a hot day than a freshly sliced cucumber, hard, cold, crisp, temptingly served on cracked ice?

Or what more refreshing to the irritated and parched mucous system on a sultry day than a cold, ripe, luscious, black-eyed watermelon?

And that all may enjoy them, as well as all other vegetables and fruits, in their season, we affirm that SANFORD'S GINGER is sure to check every disturbance of the bowels, instantly relieve cramps and pains, prevent indigestion, and destroy disease germs in water drunk. Ask for,

SANFORD'S GINGER

The Delicious Summer Medicine.

SANFORD'S GINGER is prepared with the utmost skill from Imported Ginger, Choice Aromatics and the purest and best of Medicinal French Brandy, from the world-renowned vintners, Messrs. Otard, Dupuy & Co., Cognac, rendering it vastly superior to all other "Gingers," all of which are made with common alcohol, impregnated with fusil oil and strengthened with cayenne pepper.

Unripe fruit, impure water, unhealthy climate, unwholesome food, Malaria, Epidemic and Contagious Diseases, Cholera Morbus, Cramps, Pains, Indigestion, Colds, Chills, Simple Fevers, Exhaustion, Nervousness or Loss of Sleep that beset the traveller or household at this season, are nothing to those protected by SANFORD'S GINGER.

Beware of worthless "Gingers" said to be as good as SANFORD'S. Ask for

SANFORD'S GINGER

Sold by Druggists, Grocers & Dealers.

Above all other earthly ills,
I hate the big, old fash oned pills;
By slow degrees they downward wend,
And often pause, or upward tend;
With such discomfort are they fraught,
Their good effects amount to naught.
Now, Dr. Pierce prepares a pill
That just exactly fills the bill—
A Pellet, rather, that is all—
A Pleasant Purgative, and small;
Just try them as you feel their need,
You'll find that I speak truth, indeed.

Health Regulations.

THE BOARD OF HEALTH OF THE CITY OF PORTSMOUTH call the attention of the public to the following sections of Chapter 10 of the City Ordinances and invite all interested in the preservation of health in the city to aid them in the execution of their duty.

CHAPTER X.

Sec. 3. All waste water of houses, yards, cellars, sinks, pumps, &c., shall be conveyed by their owners or occupiers to the common sewers, or to such places as the health officers may direct.

Sec. 4. No person shall be allowed to throw any vegetable or dead animal substance or any other matter capable of producing infection, into any street, lane, alley or dock, or upon any wharf, but shall bury them or throw them into the river below low-water mark.

Sec. 5. The contents of vaults and privies shall not be permitted to rise within one foot of the surface of the earth. And all owners or occupiers of buildings having such vaults or privies as may require it, shall cause them to be emptied within ten days from the promulgation of this ordinance, and in future on or before the first day of May in each year. And any such owner or occupier neglecting so to do, shall forfeit and pay for every such neglect a sum not less than three nor more than twenty dollars, and a like sum for every week's neglect after the time above specified.

Sec. 6. No vender of meat at the stalls shall be permitted to leave any said meat, heads, feet or offal of any kind about their stalls or stores over night, or suffer them to be thrown into any street, lane or alley of the city. Or shall any seller of fish be permitted to throw any offal of fish into any street, lane or alley of the city, or upon any wharf, but shall either bury them or throw them into the river below low-water mark.

Sec. 7. If any dead animal or decaying vegetable substance, or any other nuisance, shall be found in any part of the city, the owners and occupiers of the premises where such nuisances shall be found, shall, after due notice to be removed within twenty-four hours after being notified so to do by one or more of the health officers.

Sec. 12. When any householder shall know that any person within his family is taken sick of the small pox, or any other disease dangerous to the public health, he shall immediately give notice thereof to the health officers.

Sec. 13. When any physician shall know that any person whom he is called to visit is infected with the small pox, or any other disease dangerous to the public health, such physician shall immediately give notice thereof to the health officers.

Sec. 14. If any such householder or physician shall refuse or neglect to give the notice required in the preceding sections, he shall for each refusal or neglect forfeit the sum of twenty dollars, to be recovered by either of the health officers in the name of the city.

Sec. 16. The health officers may give written notice to the owner or occupier of any building, vessel or enclosure, to remove or destroy any nuisance or other thing deemed by them, on examination, to be injurious to the public health, within a certain time limited therein; and in case such owner or occupier—the said notice having been given to him, or left at his usual place of abode—shall neglect to comply therewith, the said health officers may, by direction of the mayor and accompanied by the city marshal forcibly enter such building, vessel or enclosure, and cause said nuisance or other thing aforesaid to be removed or destroyed.

Sec. 21. No person shall erect, keep or continue or permit to be erected, kept or continued, upon any land occupied by him, any pen for the keeping of swine, or privy, over either of the mill ponds in this city, or so placed that offensive substances therefrom shall be discharged or drained into either of said ponds, or into any creek, or cove or drain leading thereto. And no person shall construct, keep or continue any drain leading from any pen for the keeping of any swine, slaughter-house, privy vault, or other unwholesome or offensive place, into either of said ponds, or to any flat or marsh adjoining the same. And no person shall throw or suffer to be thrown from his land into either of said ponds, or upon any of said flats or marshes, any dead, decaying, unwholesome or offensive animal or vegetable substances.

Mr. M. G. Smith, proprietor of the Marshall House, East Saginaw, Michigan, was cured of a severe cold, which confined him to his bed, by a few doses of Red Star Cough Cure.

Gen. Middleton, of Canada, has recommended that a medal be struck off for the volunteers who took part in the northwest campaign. The recommendation has been approved by the minister of militia, and forwarded to England through the governor general.

"My physician said I could not live. My liver out of order, frequently vomited greenish mucous, skin yellow, small dry humors on face, stomach would not retain food. Burdock Blood Bitters cured me." Mrs. Adelaide O'Brien, 372 Exchange St., Buffalo, N. Y.

Ex-Postmaster General James is summering among the Catskills.

For colds, croup, asthma, bronchitis and sore throat, use Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, and get the genuine.

Capt. Thomas H. Chubb, of Post's Mills, Vt., has just shipped to Europe an invoice of his fine fishing rods, weighing several tons. This shows that our English cousins know a good thing when they see it.

When I Was Sick!

My room looked like a drug store, I had so many bottles in it. The more I dosed, the worse off I was. Finally, I paid my doctor and told him he need n't come any more. I was troubled with Chronic Rheumatism, and couldn't get out of bed alone. Six bottles of Sulphur Bitters cured me.—Benj. Fitch, Adams House, Boston.

Miss Kate Sanborn has got out a work entitled "Wit of woman," which she has dedicated to the memory of "G. W. B.,"—Gordon W. Burnham, whom she was to have married and who left her $50,000.

Destroy that Sign.

One may feel that he's getting old, but he naturally dislikes that anything about his appearance should advise others of the fact. Yet nothing does this so effectually as thin and falling hair. No woman wants to marry a man, and business firms hesitate to employ a man, who shows this fatal sign. Parker's Hair Balsam is worth to you, in this regard, more than its weight in diamonds. Use it, and have plentiful and glossy hair. Many have had every trace of grayness removed and bold spots covered by using a single bottle.

All places of amusement in Montreal are closed, by order of the authorities, on account of the smallpox epidemic.

Lung Troubles Promptly Cured.

Messrs. Editors:—"About three years ago my right lung became affected, and I then commenced taking Dr. Seth Arnold's Cough Killer. I used it about nine months and that lung has never troubled me since. Last summer I had a cold and it settled on my left lung; it got firmly seated, and I began to take Cough Killer again, now I don't cough at all."—H. W. Aldrich, Northbridge Centre, Mass.

Parker & Clough, stable keepers of Concord, are reported to have left the city, having turned all their property into ready money and incurred $12,000 of debt besides.

"I was all run down and Hood's Sarsaparilla proved just the medicine I needed," write hundreds of people. Take it now. 100 Doses One Dollar.

—Col. Bill Snort, editor of the Crosby County Clarion & Farmer's Vindicator, went to New Orleans not long since, and upon being shown his room at the hotel said: "This is a queer hotel. If a guest can pay his bills every week, what use has he got for a fire-escape? And if there is a fire-escape, why should he pay his bills at the end of the week? There is some mystery about this hotel that I can't understand."

Nervous Debilitated Men.

You are allowed a free trial of thirty days of the use of Dr. Dye's Celebrated Voltaic Belt with Electric Suspensory Appliances, for same to be removed within twenty-four hours after being notified so to do by one or more of the health officers.

Sec. 12. When any householder shall know that any person within his family is taken sick of the small pox, or any other disease dangerous to the public health, he shall immediately give notice thereof to the health officers.

Sec. 13. When any physician shall know that any person whom he is called to visit is infected with the small pox, or any other disease dangerous to the public health, such physician shall immediately give notice thereof to the health officers.

Sec. 14. If any such householder or physician shall refuse or neglect to give the notice required in the preceding sections, he shall for each refusal or neglect forfeit the sum of twenty dollars, to be recovered by either of the health officers in the name of the city.

Sec. 16. The health officers may give written notice to the owner or occupier of any building, vessel or enclosure, to remove or destroy any nuisance or other thing deemed by them, on examination, to be injurious to the public health, within a certain time limited therein; and in case such owner or occupier—the said notice having been given to him, or left at his usual place of abode—shall neglect to comply therewith, the said health officers may, by direction of the mayor and accompanied by the city marshal forcibly enter such building, vessel or enclosure, and cause said nuisance or other thing aforesaid to be removed or destroyed.

ECZEMA

And Every Species of Itching and Burning Diseases Positively Cured.

ECZEMA, or Salt Rheum, with its agonizing itching and burning, instantly relieved by a warm bath with CUTICURA SOAP, and a single application of CUTICURA, the great Skin Cure. This repeated daily, with two or three doses of CUTICURA RESOLVENT, the New Blood Purifier, to keep the blood cool, the perspiration pure and unirritating, the bowels open, the liver and kidneys active, will speedily cure Eczema, Tetter, Ringworm, Psoriasis, Lichen Pruritus, Scald Head, Dandruff, and every species of Itching, Scaly, and Pimply Humors of the Scalp and Skin, when the best physicians and all known remedies fail.

Will McDonald, 2542 Dearborn St., Chicago, gratefully acknowledges a cure of Eczema or Salt Rheum on head, neck, face, arms, and legs for seventeen years; not able to walk except on hands and knees for one year; not able to help himself for eight years; tried hundreds of remedies; doctors pronounced his case hopeless; permanently cured by CUTICURA RESOLVENT (blood purifier) internally, and CUTICURA and CUTICURA SOAP (the great skin cures) externally.

Chas. Houghton, Esq., lawyer, 28 State St., Boston, reports a case of Eczema under his observation for ten years, which covered the patient's body and limbs, and to which all known methods of treatment had been applied without benefit, which was completely cured solely by the CUTICURA REMEDIES, leaving a clean and healthy skin.

Mr John Thiel, Wilkesbarre, Pa., writes: "I have suffered from Salt Rheum for over eight years, at times so bad that I could not attend to my business for weeks at a time. Three boxes of CUTICURA and four bottles RESOLVENT have entirely cured me of this dreadful disease."

Sold by all Druggists. Price: CUTICURA, 50c.; RESOLVENT, $1.00; SOAP, 25c. Prepared by the POTTER DRUG AND CHEMICAL CO., Boston, Mass.

BEAUTIFY the Complexion and Skin by using the CUTICURA SOAP.

"TIRED AND ACHING MUSCLES, crying through countless nerves for rest and relief." Like manna to the children of Israel is the CUTICURA PLASTER to the tired, overworked, aching muscles. Do not deny yourself the comfort afforded by this new, original and speedy antidote to pain and inflammation. At druggists, 25c.; five for $1.00. Mailed free. POTTER DRUG AND CHEMICAL CO., Boston

Cholera, Cramps & Chills.

"An ounce of prevention," that is, a dose of SANFORD'S GINGER, "is worth a pound of cure," which, of course, means a doctor. It is undoubtedly certain that Cholera may be prevented, and, in the majority of cases, successfully treated, with SANFORD'S GINGER, a powerful stimulant, composed of Imported Ginger, choice Aromatics, and the best French Brandy; convenient, speedy, and safe; sure to check summer complaints, prevent indigestion, destroy disease germs in water drunk, restore the circulation when suspended by a chill, and ward off malarial, contagious, and epidemic influences. The End of the Day.

The Day in gorgeous traveling dress goes through the Sunset's door;
And many days my eyes may see, but see this Day no more.
It goes to make report to God of all that we have done,
Since first to light it on its way He lit it's lamp, the sun.

It lingers on the threshold still while parting gifts it throws
To all it leaves behind—unto the orient clouds, a rose,
Its purple to the crowding hills, that, hushed in homage stand,
And gold unto the leaping sea and gauze unto the land.

Yes, wait, kind Day, before you go to find the by-gone days,
And, to my Heavenly Father take my love and thanks and praise
For all the blessings that He sent by you anew to me.
The sight of those I love the best, and busy life and glee.
And bee Him day by day to me His best of gifts to send,
A heart to love Him more and more till all my days shall end.

—S. H. Palfrey.

A New Chinese Wonder.

A child who can see what is going on hundreds of miles off is a very useful acquisition, and if the boy at Pekin, alleged to be thus gifted, is only half as clever as he is described, he certainly deserves all the sensation he is creating. He was brought to Pekin from a distant province, and presented to Prince Chun, the father of the youthful emperor, who immediately took him under his protection. His hand serves him as a wonderful mirror, it appears. On the palm of it he sees reflected what is going forward at an enormous distance. One day, for instance, it is related that the child was asked at the palace what was taking place in Anam. He consulted his hand, and replied: "I see fighting; the imperial dragon is victorious; the tri-colored flag is trodden down in the dust." And, of course, three days later a dispatch brought to Pekin the news of a Chinese victory in Tonquin. To be quite sure the boy was not an impostor, Prince Chun, at the first interview he had with him, inquired what the family of a mandarin were doing whose residence was a couple of leagues distant from the palace. "They are all eating macaroni," replied this remarkable child. Immediately the prince sent one of his attendants to the house in question, and on his return he corroborated the boy's statement, the family being, as he said, engaged in the interesting occupation of eating macaroni in honor of the mandarin's birthday. Since then Prince Chun has been a firm believer in the boy's gift of second sight, and makes much of him accordingly.—London Standard.

Porpoise leather is a novelty as yet, especially when used in the manufacture of shoes. It has been largely used, however, in making shoestrings, owing to its great strength and pliability. It has a long, tenacious fibre, and, as it will not crack nor tear, it makes an excellent leather. When made up into shoes it greatly resembles French kid. It wears like iron, and would be suitable for boys' shoes. It is entirely waterproof, and very cooling to the feet, making it excellent for summer wear. The skins cut from five to six pairs of mens' vamps. The leather is hemlock tanned.

Stanley, in his book, tells of finding in the vicinity of about 900 miles inland from Leopoldville, Africa, a band of slave-traders having in their possession 2,300 captives. "Both banks of the river," he says, "showed that 118 villages and forty-three districts had been devastated, out of which was educed 2,300 females and children, and about 2,000 tusks of ivory. To obtain these they must have shot 2,500 people, while 1,300 more died by the wayside. How many are wounded or die in the forest, or droop to death through an overwhelming sense of their calamities, we do not know, but the outcome from the territory, with its million souls, must be 5,000 slaves, obtained at the expense of 33,000 lives."

Detailed accounts are given in Berlin and Paris papers of a monster movable globe, made of copper, the work of a blind clockmaker, and on the construction of which seventeen years were spent. The globe represents the earth, and, like it, turns on its own axis by means of mechanism; an artificial moon moves round the globe in twenty-eight days and six hours, while a movable metal band on which the hours are marked indicates the mean time in different parts of the earth. Round the upper portion of this immense globe which weighs a ton and a half, and whose surface measures 126 feet in diameter, spins a railroad car capable of holding six persons, and which serves to give a better view of the North Pole. The painting of the globe is done in oil, and necessitated the employment of two men during an entire year. The sun is represented by an apparatus lighted by an intense Drummond caldium light, which enables the spectator to watch intelligently the origin and change of the different periods of the day—the early dawn, the twilight, eclipses of the sun and moon, etc.

It Spoiled His Night's Rest.—An Irishman traveling with his friend stopped over Sunday at a hotel, and during the afternoon the friend prepared to take a nap. "Phat air yez about?" asked Pat. "O, I'm just going to snooze awhile. You'd better try it yourself," "Begorra an' Oi will not wan, an' ivery toime Oi've gahn to shlape before Oi went to shlape Oi niver could go to shlape when Oi wint to shlape."—Merchant Traveler.

Supremely Delightful

To the emaciated and debilitated invalid is the sense of returning health and strength produced by Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. When that promoter of vigor is tested by persons in feeble health, its restorative and vitalizing potency soon evinces itself in improved appetite, digestion and nightly repose, the sole conditions under which strength and nerve quietude is vouchsafed to the human system. A gain in flesh of course ensues upon the restoration of digestion and assimilation. As surely as winter follows the fall of the leaf, does the disease shadow the footsteps of declining strength; when the premature decadence of vitality is not arrested, marasmus, consumption and other wasting maladies are prompt to fasten upon the enfeebled. Avert disease, therefore, with this grand enabling tonic, which not only renews failing strength, but mitigates and counteracts the infirmities of age and those of the gentler sex. Rheumatism, malaria, liver and kidney troubles yield to it.

Edward Ryan, an "offensively partisan" young democrat, has received the appointment of mail agent on the Dover & Wianipesoegee railroad from Dover to Alton Bay, vice John W. Rines, removed for "offensive partisanship."

The Terrible Drain

Which scrofula has upon the system must be arrested, and the blood must be purified, or serious consequences will ensue. For purifying and vitalizing effects, Hood's Sarsaparilla has been found superior to any other preparation. It expels every trace of impurity from the blood, and bestows new life and vigor upon every function of the body, enabling it to entirely overcome disease.

The Racing Yachts.

The trial race of the yachts Puritan, Priscilla, Gracie and Bedouin, off New York on Friday of last week, was won by the Puritan. The race was twenty miles to windward and return, and there was all the wind that was wanted. The Puritan's actual sailing time was four hours, fifty-eight minutes and nineteen seconds, she beating the Priscilla nine minutes and fifty-eight seconds, exclusive of her time allowance of one minute and fourteen seconds. The Priscilla was beaten twelve minutes and twenty-seven seconds on the working to windward, but gained two minutes and thirty-nine seconds on the run home before the wind. The Bedouin beat the Gracie, but neither of them were anywhere near the Priscilla at the finish.

The second trial race of the yachts competing for the honor of sailing with the Genesta for the possession of the America's cup, took place Saturday on a triangular course of forty statute miles, off New York harbor. The Puritan outpointed and outsailed the Priscilla, although the wind was light, until near the end of the race, when the New York sloop took a breeze which put her well ahead of her antagonist, and came in five minutes and fourteen seconds ahead of her.

Hard Luck.

The administration seems to be having rather hard luck with the appointments to positions in the pension office at Philadelphia. On Tuesday of last week Capt. T. H. Payne was appointed as successor to Colonel Joseph Barbiere, the "offensive partizan" ex-confederate whose recent appointment to a position in the pension agency in that city caused much discussion. On Wednesday of last week Captain Payne was unceremoniously removed from his new position, on account of the discovery that he had pleaded guilty to a charge of having obtained money by false pretences from certain Grand Army posts.

The schooner Granville, from Rockland with 725 casks of lime to J. Albert Walker, arrived on Saturday.

The Franklin polo club of this city went to Dover on Thursday evening of last week, and played a game at the Garrison hill skating rink with the Dover club, the latter winning in three straight goals.

The old frigate Congress, which occupied a berth in "rotten row" at this navy yard for many years, and was sold about two years ago by Secretary Chandler under an act of Congress, was accidentally destroyed by fire at Port Washington, Long Island, Aug. 21st. The old storeship Guard, which was also hauled up at this navy yard for years, and was sold at the same time as the Congress, was wrecked a year ago on Watch Hill bar, Rhode Island, having broken adrift from a tug which had her in tow.

THE Trustees of the Rice Public Library of Kittery, Me., will give a hearing on the petition of Jere. Hobbs and 57 others and Joseph Langmaid and 29 others, requesting the trustees to defer the purchase of a lot on which to erect a library building, at the Universalist Church in Kittery, on Friday, Sept. 4th, 1885, at two o'clock P. M., where and when all the inhabitants of Kittery interested in the selection of a proper building site for a library are invited to be present and be heard upon this subject.

By order of the Board of Trustees.

WILLIAM H. HACKETT,
Secretary to Trustees.

PORTSMOUTH, Aug. 22d, 1885. td4d11

Capt. Aderton, of the schooner Satellite, was on Saturday reported as being very ill at his residence in Kittery, near Portsmouth bridge.

Mr. Brad. Blaisdell of Beech ridge, York, and another young man, on Friday afternoon last attempted to drive their wagon through the toll-gate at Portsmouth bridge at the same time one of the four-horse York stages was going through, and the wagon was caught between the heavy coach and one of the upright timbers of the gate frame, and ground to pieces. The horse attached to the wagon received only slight injuries, and the men were unharmed.

Mr. Wm. W. Hyde, clerk of the Portsmouth Shoe Co., who has been in the company's employ in one capacity or another since its start, has retired from their service, and is succeeded by Mr. George W. French.

HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA

Is designed to meet the wants of a large portion of our people who are either too poor to employ a physician, or are too far removed to easily call one, and a still larger class who are not sick enough to require medical advice, and yet are out of sorts and need a medicine to build them up, give them an appetite, purify their blood, and oil up the machinery of their bodies so it will do its duty willingly. No other article takes hold of the system and hits exactly the spot like

HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA

It works like magic, reaching every part of the human body through the blood, giving to all renewed life and energy.

My friend, you need not take our word. Ask your neighbor, who has just taken one bottle. He will tell you that "It's the best dollar I ever invested."

LEBANON N. H., Feb. 18, 1879.
MESSRS. C. I. HOOD & CO.: Dear Sirs—Although greatly prejudiced against patent medicines in general, I was induced, from the excellent reports I had heard of your Sarsaparilla, to try a bottle, last December, for dyspepsia and general prostration, and I have received very gratifying results from its use. I am now using the second bottle, and consider it a very valuable remedy for indigestion and its attendant troubles.

Yours truly,
F. C. CHURCHILL,
(Firm of Carter & Churchill.)

POLICE COURT -- BATCHELDER J.

SATURDAY, Aug. 22d.

Jeremiah Murphy, charged with being a common drunkard, was ordered to Brentwood for sixty days, and to pay $5.76 costs.

James Gilchrist, alias "Scotty," for drunkenness was fined $20, costs $6.90. Jail in default of payment.

Another man, a young fellow who does well as long as he lets liquor alone, was before the court on a charge of drunkenness, but was let off on probation.

James Keenan, a tramp, was held in $200 for his appearance at the October term of the supreme court. Jail in default of bail.

James Armstrong, charged with an assault on Estelle L. Rice, was fined $5, costs $9.58. He appealed, and was ordered to recognize in the sum of $100 to prosecute the appeal.

Rufus A. Preble was charged with selling eight lobsters, each less than 10 1-2 inches long, and was fined $80, ($10 for each "illegal lobster,") without costs. Paid. In this case, the first one ever brought in this court under the lobster-protecting law, the complainant was Elliot B. Hodge of Plymouth, one of the state fish commissioners. The eight lobsters complained of were in a barrel containing 153, sent to Boston by Capt. Preble.

TRIPPED UP.

The Newburyport Herald of Aug. 21st suggests that the Lasters' Union have received a decided set-back in their attempt to run a manufacturer's business as might best suit themselves. It says:

It is just three weeks ago to-morrow morning since the Lasters' Union ordered less than thirty lasters to strike at the factory of E. P. Dodge & Co., substantially because the firm refused to shut down their Portsmouth factory, and have all their work done in Newburyport. One hundred and twenty-five men in the bottoming department were thrown out of employment on account of the lasters' strike, and the total loss in wages has been about $4,000, in itself a serious loss to a community like our own. Mr. Dodge has met the lasters more than half way time and again, but when the last strike was ordered, with the only alternative that he should shut down one factory to please a very small portion of the employes in another, he determined to cut loose from further efforts at a compromise, and secure new men.

Mr. Dodge has been instructing new hands as lasters, and procuring experienced non-union lasters from other places, and on the 21st had a force of forty-three lasters at work in his Newburyport factory,—enough to make business boom there. The strikers, by the excess of their demands, have not only lost whatever power they once had of regulating their employer's business, but have worked themselves out of a job at the same time.

THE FIRE ALARM.

Mr. Editor: I am glad that you have taken up this important subject, and see, as well as the majority of our citizens, how inefficient is our new system for arousing the people, compared to the old method; and it seems very strange to us why our present wide-awake city government, who seem ready to bestow upon us many valuable improvements of which we have long stood in need, on this important question of fire alarm should so long delay. The public demands it; and a delay may cost the city ten times the amount of the cost required. In your issue of the 21st your suggestions are excellent. The chime whistles, worked automatically, at the Eldredge and Portsmouth breweries, would be a great improvement, easily heard, and readily distinguished from other whistles; besides, being worked by electricity, no mistake could be made. But as regarding strikers at Christian Shore and the south end, which would involve an expense of about $1100, I would recommend this expense be saved, and gongs be placed in the houses of those who formerly rang the bells, and let them ring the same as before; this would in our estimation be more efficient, and can be done at a trifling expense; and with a ten-inch chime whistle at the east and west ends, the ringing of the bells at the north and south ends, and the old North church pounding out the number of the box, it seems to us that such an alarm would not fail to awaken the weary sleeper, while the expense would not exceed $1300. We have a good fire department, who never were known to be slow in turning out promptly when called; and they, as well as many owners of real estate, demand that this or some other addition to the alarm may be made, for the better protection of our property from the terrible ravages of the "fire fiend," which at any time may come upon us and find us unprepared to meet it. Public opinion favors an improvement, and we ask of the city government, "Why delay?" x.

NAVY YARD APPOINTMENTS.

The following was reported on Saturday evening as a true bill of the appointments of foremen on the navy yard made in accordance with the recent competitive examinations:

Charles W. Stimson, foreman shipwright, vice Wm. F. Noyes, both of this city; Daniel H. Trefethen, Portsmouth, foreman joiner, vice Wm. F. Brooks of Kittery; Stephen T. Raitt, Portsmouth, foreman shipsmith, vice George Muchmore of Kittery; William O'Leary, Dover, foreman moulder, vice Richard H. Waldron of Portsmouth; Robert J. Donnelley, Manchester, foreman plumber, vice Stephen L. Marston of this city; Augustus W. Odiorne, foreman sparmaker, vice Charles A. Wendell, both of this city; Alanson Staples, Eliot, foreman boatbuilder, vice Augustus Stevenson of Kittery; John W. Hayes of Iowa, formerly of Kittery, foreman machinist, vice John H. Flagg of this city; Fred Hoyt, Newington, foreman pattern maker, vice Samuel H. Pillsbury of Kittery; Tobias E. Burke, foreman boiler maker, vice James M. Knapp, both of this city; James Cunningham, Portsmouth, foreman sailmaker, vice Mr. Lovell of Portland.

All the displaced men are republicans, of course; and most of them were entirely competent for the positions they held. Of the alleged appointees we are informed that at least four, namely, Messrs. Stimson, Raitt, Hayes and Burke, formerly held, under republican administrations, the positions to which they have just been appointed, and that then they were all ardent republicans, they having severally and collectively had their eyes opened to the error of their political ways by removal from office; they are said to be first-class mechanics.

THE THEATRE.

This evening, at Music hall, the Floy Crowell dramatic company will appear in "Queen's Evidence." The company recently played a week's engagement in Lynn, and the Item said of this performance:

That a really first-class dramatic performance can be given at low figures was demonstrated for the first time in Lynn, Monday night, by the Floy Crowell dramatic company. Of the play itself, of the company, the scenery and the mounting, no one present can speak but in terms of highest praise, nor will they be inclined to, we think, for a more thoroughly satisfied audience never left Music hall than that which witnessed "Queen's Evidence" Monday evening. Although cast in a part which many stars would consider unworthy of them, Miss Floy Crowell made it the central figure in the play, and proved undeniably that youth, beauty, grace and talent are hers. * * In fact the company is well-balanced, give a thoroughly enjoyable performance, and are deserving the success which they undoubtedly will attain during the week.

Reserved seat tickets at Goodrich's; see advertisement.

Got your appointment yet?

Mr. Harry G. Tanton and daughter arrived home on Saturday from a month's trip to Prince Edward Island, which has been of great advantage to Mr. Tanton's health.

The little steamboat built in the old joiner shop on Noble's island was launched last Friday evening, and on Saturday was steaming about in the cove inside of the Noble's island bridge, trying the working of her engine.

Sunday was a most delightful day, which could not be surpassed in any climate. All the boats on the river were out, and all the livery teams were let. There was an almost continuous line of fine equipages passing to and fro over the Portsmouth bridge between York and Rockingham counties, day and evening. The roads were free of dust, and the temperature was equable.

Mrs. Anna (Upham) Bates, widow of John S. Bates, who died in Orleans, Mass., Aug. 18th, was a daughter of Timothy Upham, who in 1812 was commissioned major in the 12th United States Infantry, was promoted to be lieutenant colonel of the 21st regiment in 1813, and was mustered out with his command in 1815, being afterward collector of customs at this port. Mrs. Charles Ely, another daughter of Lieut. Col. Upham, died in New York on the 11th of May last.

The Boston & Maine wrecking train was on Sunday engaged in removing the freight cars which tumbled down the embankment of the Portsmouth & Dover road near Freeman's point last Thursday morning. There was a large fleet of small boats in the cove inclosed by the embankment, their occupants watching the operations of the wrecking gang.

Capt. George F. Towle, U. S. A., is visiting his parents, Capt. George W. Towle and wife, at Newcastle. Capt. Towle's command is now stationed at Fort Clark, Texas.

A large gang of workmen were employed in making repairs on the railroad portion of the Portsmouth bridge on Sunday.

CUCUMBERS AND WATERMELONS.

Cucumbers and watermelons are tabooed by thousands who fear to eat them, not because they have ever experienced a single pang that can be truthfully traced to them, but because some one had pronounced them injurious.

What more appetizing on a hot day than a freshly sliced cucumber, hard, cold, crisp, temptingly served on cracked ice?

Or what more refreshing to the irritated and parched mucous system on a sultry day than a cold, ripe, luscious, black-eyed watermelon?

And that all may enjoy them, as well as all other vegetables and fruits, in their season, we affirm that SANFORD'S GINGER is sure to check every disturbance of the bowels, instantly relieve cramps and pains, prevent indigestion, and destroy disease germs in water drunk. Ask for

SANFORD'S GINGER

The Delicious Summer Medicine.

SANFORD'S GINGER is prepared with the utmost skill from Imported Ginger, Choice Aromatics, and the purest and best of Medicinal French Brandy, from the world-renowned vintners, Messrs. Otard, Dupuy & Co., Cognac, rendering it vastly superior to all other "Gingers," all of which are made with common alcohol, impregnated with fusil oil and strengthened with cayenne pepper.

Unripe fruit, impure water, unhealthy climate, unwholesome food, Malaria, Epidemic and Contagious Diseases, Cholera Morbus, Cramps, Pains, Indigestion, Colds, Chills, Simple Fevers, Exhaustion, Nervousness or Loss of Sleep that beset the traveller or household at this season, are nothing to those protected by SANFORD'S GINGER.

Beware of worthless "Gingers" said to be as good as SANFORD'S. Ask for

An Offensive Breath

Is most distressing, not only to the person afflicted if he have any pride, but to those with whom he comes in contact. It is a delicate matter to speak of, but it has parted not only friends but lovers. Bad breath and catarrh are inseparable. Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy cures the worst cases as thousands can testify.

Quick, complete cure, all kidney, bladder and urinary diseases, scalding, irritation, stone, gravel, catarrh of the bladder. $1. Druggists.

In Detroit, Mich., early last week, the infant child of Charles Sullivan apparently died, and was prepared for burial. Fifteen hours after the supposed death, while the family and friends were gathered about the casket, the baby began to cry, frightening nearly everyone from the house. The father retained his senses and took the child from the coffin, and it has since been in better health than for some time.

Hay Fever. I have been a great sufferer from hay fever for fifteen years and have tried various things without doing good. I read of the many wondrous cures of Ely's Cream Balm and thought I would try once more. In fifteen minutes after one application I was wonderfully helped. Two weeks ago I commenced using it and now I feel entirely cured. It is the greatest discovery ever known or heard of.—DUHAMEL CLARK, Farmer, Lee, Mass. Price 50 cents.

Albert D. Crowell, seven years old, arrived in Waterville, Me., Aug. 20th, from San Antonio, Texas, having been seven days and nights on the way. He was forwarded to his destination, Vassalboro, the next day. He wore a printed card setting forth that he was a ward of Ivanhoe Commandry of Knights Templar, of San Antonio, and commending him to the care of all good Masons.

They Have Never Failed!

I have been sick more or less for the last ten years, which has cost me many dollars in doctors and druggists' bills. The last two years it only cost me three dollars. Why? Because I used Sulphur Bitters instead of employing doctors. They cured me of Jaundice.—F. F. Boyd, Hoboken.

In Chicago, Aug. 20th, in two separate cases bills for divorce were filed, evidence heard and decrees granted in just thirty minutes apiece for each suit. A decree within thirty minutes of filing the bill is believed to be the fastest time ever made, and beats all previous records. The old newspaper joke about the railway conductors calling out, as their trains stop at Chicago, "Thirty minutes for divorces," may yet be verified.

What You Want to Know.

Everybody wants an honest answer to this simple question:—What is the best medicine to regulate the bowels, cure costiveness and billiousness, help the digestion and give strength to the whole system? People ask us every day. We answer, Parker's Tonic. It is pleasant to the taste. All the children like it. Mothers all praise it. It will save a thousand times its cost in every family.

At Terre Haute, Ind., last week, the elopement of Miss Anna McKeen, daughter of President McKeen of the Vandalia railway, with "Tiny" Shule, her father's horse trainer, caused a sensation. The lady is twenty-five years old, handsome and accomplished; the man thirty, and illiterate.

The great popular remedy of the day for coughs, colds, asthma, and all lung difficulties, is Adamson's Botanic Balsam. Inexpensive, reliable, pleasant to take, cures as by magic, and gives universal satisfaction. A trial is the best testimonial. Price 35 and 75 cents. Trial size 10 cents.

The general superintendent of the life-saving service has directed the superintendents of the several districts on the Atlantic and Gulf coasts to open and man all their stations on the 1st of September.

Scott's Emulsion of Pure Cod Liver Oil, with Hypophosphites

Most Beneficial in Bronchitis.

Dr. J. P. Neede, Harmon Mills, N. C., says: "I used Scott's Emulsion in a case of bronchitis of six months standing and the patient was well in ten days. I must confess my surprise at its healing and strengthening powers."

SULPHUR BITTERS

THE BEST AND GREATEST MEDICINE

It will drive the Humor from your system, and make your skin clean and smooth. Those Pimples and Blotches which mar your beauty are caused by impure blood, and can be removed in a short time, if you are wise and use the great blood purifier,

SULPHUR BITTERS.

Why suffer with boils, why have your face covered with blotches? Why let your blood become so impure that every little trouble, like a pin prick, becomes a festering sore? Why let your nerves get all shattered, your system racked with rheumatism? Why let the disease which your excesses have made, run unchecked? Why let your kidneys become so deranged that you suffer from pain in the back, and your urine be full of pain? Why let your liver become torpid, your bowels costive, your appetite gone, your tongue coated, your breath fetid, your temper irritable, your spirits low, your sleep disturbed, your nerves all shattered, your system racked with rheumatism? Why do you do all these things? Why? Because you are a fool, and will not use a cheap, pleasant, and perfect remedy, such as Sulphur Bitters is, to cure you. Sulphur Bitters is a compound of the choicest medicinal roots and herbs, combined with the choicest tonics and stimulants, in just proportions to cure almost any disease or pain. Sulphur Bitters is not a drink, like other stimulants, but a medicine, and will cure where other medicines fail. Sulphur Bitters is not a cheap, worthless, fusel oil whiskey

Health Regulations.

THE BOARD OF HEALTH OF THE CITY OF PORTSMOUTH call the attention of the public to the following sections of Chapter 10 of the City Ordinances and invite all interested in the preservation of health in the city to aid them in the execution of their duty.

CHAPTER X.

SEC. 3. All waste water of houses, yards, cellars, sinks, pumps, &c., shall be conveyed by their owners or occupiers to the common sewers, or to such places as the health officers may direct.

SEC. 4. No person shall be allowed to throw any vegetable or dead animal substance or any other matter capable of producing infection, into any street, lane, alley or dock, or upon any wharf, but shall bury them or throw them into the river below low-water mark.

SEC. 5. The contents of vaults and privies shall not be permitted to rise within one foot of the surface of the earth. And all owners or occupiers of buildings having such vaults or privies as may require it, shall cause them to be emptied within ten days from the promulgation of this ordinance, and in future on or before the first day of May in each year. And any such owner or occupier neglecting so to do, shall forfeit and pay for every such neglect a sum not less than three nor more than twenty dollars, and a like sum for every week's neglect after the time above specified.

SEC. 6. No vender of meat at the stalls shall be permitted to leave any state meat, heads, feet or offal of any kind about their stalls or stores over night, or suffer them to be thrown into any street, lane or alley of the city. Nor shall any sellers of fish be permitted to throw any offal of fish into any street, lane or alley of the city, or upon any wharf, but shall either bury them or throw them into the river below low-water mark.

SEC. 7. If any dead animal or decaying vegetable substance, or any other nuisance, shall be found in any part of the city, the owners or occupiers of the premises where such nuisances shall be found, shall cause the same to be removed within twenty-four hours after being notified so to do by one or more of the health officers.

SEC. 12. When any householder shall know that any person within his family is taken sick of the small pox, or any other disease dangerous to the public health, he shall immediately give notice thereof to the health officers.

SEC. 13. When any physician shall know that any person whom he is called to visit is infected with the small pox, or any other disease dangerous to the public health, such physician shall immediately give notice thereof to the health officers.

SEC. 14. If any such householder or physician shall refuse or neglect to give the notice required in the preceding sections, he shall for each refusal or neglect forfeit the sum of twenty dollars, to be recovered by either of the health officers in the name of the city.

SEC. 16. The health officers may give written notice to the owner or occupier of any building, vessel or enclosure, to remove or destroy any nuisance or thing deemed by them, on examination, to be injurious to the public health, within a certain time limited therein; and in case such owner or occupier—the said notice having been given to him, or left at his usual place of abode—shall neglect to comply therewith, the said health officers may, by direction of the mayor and accompanied by the city marshal forcibly enter such building, vessel or enclosure, and cause said nuisance or other thing aforesaid to be removed or destroyed.

SEC. 21. No person shall erect, keep or continue or permit to be erected, kept or continued, upon any land occupied by him, any pen for the keeping of swine, or privy, over either of the main streets in this city, or so placed that offensive substances therefrom shall be discharged or drained into either of said ponds, or into any creek, or cove or drain leading thereto. And no person shall construct, keep or continue any drain leading from any pen for the keeping of any swine, slaughter-house, privy vault, or other unwholesome or offensive place, into either of said ponds, or to any flat or marsh adjoining the same. And no person shall throw or suffer to be thrown from his land into either of said ponds, or upon any of said flats or marshes, any dead, decaying, unwholesome or offensive animal or vegetable substances.

The Editor Replies.

W. R. S.—The cure of throat trouble by Red Star Cough Cure which you mention is a remarkable one, but nothing else could be looked for from a medicine which has been endorsed by so many leading chemists and scientists throughout the country.

When I Was Sick!

My room looked like a drug store, I had so many bottles in it. The more I dosed, the worse off I was. Finally, I paid my doctor and told him he need n't come any more. I was troubled with Chronic Rheumatism, and couldn't get out of bed alone. Six bottles of Sulphur Bitters cured me.—Benj. Fitch, Adams House, Boston.

Lung Troubles Promptly Cured.

Messrs. Editors:—"About three years ago my right lung became affected, and I then commenced taking Dr. Seth Arnold's Cough Killer. I used it about nine months and that lung has never troubled me since. Last summer I had a cold and it settled on my left lung; it got firmly seated, and I began to take Cough Killer again, now I don't cough at all."—H. W. Aldrich, Northbridge Centre, Mass.

Destroy that Sign.

One may feel that he's getting old, but he naturally dislikes that anything about his appearance should advise others of the fact. Yet nothing does this so effectually as thin and falling hair. No woman wants to marry a man, and business firms hesitate to employ a man, who shows this fatal sign. Parker's Hair Balsam is worth to you, in this regard, more than its weight in diamonds. Use it, and have plentiful and glossy hair. Many have had every trace of grayness removed and bold spots covered by using a single bottle.

ECZEMA

And Every Species of Itching and Burning Diseases Positively Cured.

ECZEMA, or Salt Rheum, with its agonizing itching and burning, instantly relieved by a warm bath with CUTICURA SOAP, and a single application of CUTICURA, the great Skin Cure. A repeated daily, with two or three doses of CUTICURA RESOLVENT, the New Blood Purifier, to keep the blood cool, the perspiration pure and unirritating, the bowels open, the liver and kidneys active, will speedily cure Eczema, Tetter, Ringworm, Psoriasis, Itchen Pruritus, Scald Head, Dandruff, and every species of Itching, Scaly, and Pimply Humors of the Scalp and Skin, when the best physicians and all known remedies fail.

Will McDonald, 2542 Dearborn St., Chicago, gratefully acknowledges a cure of Eczema or Salt Rheum on head, neck, face, arms, and legs for seventeen years; not able to walk except on hands and knees for one year; not able to help himself for eight years; tried hundreds of remedies; doctors pronounced his case hopeless; permanently cured by CUTICURA RESOLVENT (blood purifier) internally, and CUTICURA and CUTICURA SOAP (the great skin cures) externally.

Chas. Houghton, Esq., lawyer, 28 State St., Boston, reports a case of Eczema under his observation for two years, which covered the patient's body and limbs, and to which all known methods of treatment had been applied without benefit, which was completely cured solely by the CUTICURA REMEDIES, leaving a clean and healthy skin.

Mr John Thiel, Wilkesbarre, Pa., writes: "I have suffered from Salt Rheum for over eight years, at times so bad that I could not attend to my business for weeks at a time. Three boxes of CUTICURA and four bottles RESOLVENT have entirely cured me of this dreadful disease."

The Traditional Darky.

"The old-fashioned darky with a good deal of humor in him has not gone out of style, but the old-fashioned story about the darky has changed color of late." This remark came from a colored man who has lived in the South, in the East, and in the West, and who has made a good record wherever he has lived. "Our people," he continued, "are not as sensitive as they once were about the jokes and odd stories told of them, but they detect the element of ill-nature in a story as quickly as any people in the world. On the other hand they are as quick to see the fun in any story about the traditional darky as any people. I believe they enjoy a good story about a colored man as much as an old soldier enjoys a story told of an old soldier not as fortunate as himself.

"When I was in the South the old-fashioned woods meetings were very popular. Among my friends was a colored preacher who had been very successful in his missionary work at these meetings. I knew he was a very earnest man, but I knew also that he was one of the oddest characters that ever lived, so I was not surprised when he said after reading his text on Sunday that Gabriel's horn might blow at any moment and that he wanted his hearers to be prepared to go at the first blow of the horn. He made a good deal of the probability that the horn might blow in five minutes or in an hour, but whenever it did blow all of the people should be prepared to go.

"The traditional darky fond of a joke was on hand in the shape of a fellow called Bub, and he secured a big dinner-horn and climbed into a tall tree just behind the preacher. He secreted himself and awaited the opportunity. It came as the preacher uttered the words, 'Is you all ready to go at de first blow ob de horn? I am ready to go just as soon as dat horn blows, and you ought to be ready to go wid me.' Just then Bub gave one loud toot on his horn. About half of the congregation took to their heels and fled in terror. The preacher himself was badly frightened, but he shouted, 'Hold on dar, my Christian bredren—wait till it blows again.'

"Believing that his ears deceived him, the minister continued his discourse to the few remaining, and he had just reuttered his previous remark about being ready to go, when Bub gave two vigorous toots on his horn. This settled the business. The remainder of the congregation left on a full run. When the preacher looked about him and saw the camp deserted he raised his voice and said, 'Gabriel, I'se ready; I am coming.' The darky in the tree thereupon tooted his horn vigorously and continuously. This was too much for the minister, and he started down the hill at a run.

"As he ran he called upon Gabriel not to blow any more, as he was coming as fast as he could. At the foot of the hill was a bramble hedge three or four feet high. In trying to get over this the preacher straddled the hedge, and could get no farther. As the horn kept blowing he looked back and said imploringly: 'Don't blow no mob, I's comin'. Upon my soul Gabriel, I knows I's a sinner, but I's comin' just as fast as I can.' As the darky up the tree did not tell his story for a long time, the preacher did not lose influence on account of Gabriel's horn."—Curbstone Crayons in Inter Ocean.

Baggy Trousers.

There never has yet lived a tailor who could make trousers that would not "bag" at the knee. A newspaper correspondent wrote from London some time since that an inventive Englishman has made and patented an article for the relief of "bagging" trousers. The article was described, but that was the last ever heard of it. The only way to keep trousers in shape is by a weekly visit to the tailor and a subsequent application of hot irons. Ex-President Arthur is said to be the only living man who does not bag at the knees. In view of the fact that he was known as the "President of many pants," having something like fifty pairs this is not strange. A fortune awaits the man who will carry out the Britisher's invention, and put a like article on the market. Now that the subject of trousers has been introduced, it may be in good form to see how they are made this season. The world is slowly but surely getting back to the old style of large pantaloons. The legs are a trifle larger this year than last, and are cut straight throughout their entire length. The bottoms hang neatly on the instep. The seams may be plain or with a welt. The trousers made from rough goods are larger than when cut from other varieties. The legs of full-dress trousers are smaller than those of any other kind.

The Fuegians (South America) are the lowest human beings in the scale of existence. Their language contains no word for any number above three; they are unable to distinguish one color from another; they have no religion and no funeral rites, and they possess neither chiefs nor slaves. Their only weapons are bone-pointed spears, and, as they grow neither fruits nor vegetables, and their country is naturally barren, they are obliged to live on animal food. Even these savages possess, however, some social virtues. They are not cannibals; they ill-treat neither women nor the old, and they are monogamous.

The annual sale of Cologne water in the United States is about $2,000,000. The total value of the water exported from Cologne to this country in 1884 was $23,134.48.

Supremely Delightful

To the emaciated and debilitated invalid is the sense of returning health and strength produced by Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. When that promoter of vigor is tested by persons in feeble health, its restorative and vitalizing potency soon evinces itself in improved appetite, digestion and nightly repose, the sole conditions under which strength and nerve quietude is vouchsafed to the human system. A gain in flesh of course ensues upon the restoration of digestion and assimilation. As surely as winter follows the fall of the leaf, does the disease shadow the footsteps of declining strength; when the premature decadence of vitality is not arrested, marasmus, consumption and other wasting maladies are prompt to fasten upon the enfeebled. Avert disease, therefore, with this grand enabling tonic, which not only renews failing strength, but mitigates and counteracts the infirmities of age and those of the gentler sex. Rheumatism, malaria, liver and kidney troubles yield to it.

At Lake, Ill., a suburb of Chicago, on the night of Aug. 22d, Cornelius O'Leary shot dead his mistress, Sarah Snyder, and fatally wounded his sister, Kate O'Leary, with a pistol shot, while they were on a triangular drunk together. The occurrence assumes an historic aspect in that Cornelius O'Leary is a son of the Mrs. O'Leary whose fractious cow kicked over the lamp that started the fire that burned Chicago.

That the sale of Hood's Sarsapasilla continues at such a rapidly increasing rate? It is,—

1st: Because of the positive curative value of Hood's Sarsaparilla itself.

2d: Because of the conclusive evidence of remarkable cures effected by it, unsurpassed and seldom equalled by any other medicine. Send to C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass., for book containing many statements of cures.

A Shrewd Investor.

Isaac England, late publisher of the New York Sun, was in his life-time a shrewd man in money matters. A writer remarks of him:

Away back in the old days I used to admire the "penny wise" policy of Isaac England. And he was no "pound foolish" man either, as the result of his life insurance investments has just shown. His widow was paid last week by the Mutual Life Insurance company, of New York, the handsome sum of $21,356.96 on three policies taken out at various periods of his life. I was curious to know the circumstances of his investments in this way, for I thought him averse to the system of life insurance. Tasked a legal gentleman closely connected with Mr. England as to the facts, and was told that he began to insure at a very early period of his life. The original investment was in 1856, when he was twenty-six years of age, engaged as a reporter on the Tribune, and was for the benefit of his family. It was for only $1,000, but he paid the premiums regularly, and his heirs were paid, on this policy alone, $1,829.50. In 1871, when he was managing editor of the Sun, he took out another policy for $10,000 in favor of his wife; and a year later, when he became publisher of the Sun, he added another policy of $10,000. He let his dividends pay his premiums on these last policies, or nearly so. And the last investments do not show as great an increase in amount as the first, but they were increased all the same as the total shows. If he had paid his premiums in cash and allowed the dividends to accumulate the total claim would have amounted to $26,869.49.

The Cholera.

The returns of Aug. 23d from all over Spain showed a total of 4887 new cases of cholera, and 1798 deaths from the disease. Since the outbreak of the epidemic there have been 156,077 cases reported, and 61,521 deaths.

Advices of the 23d from Marseilles, France, say the cholera is assuming a form with which the doctors are unable to cope. The victims die suddenly without the occurrence of diarrhœa or vomiting. The patient feels a coldness which cannot be counteracted by the use of restoratives or even by the most violent friction, and two hours after death the body becomes black.

A despatch from Marseilles at noon on the 24th reported 200 new cases of cholera admitted to the Pharo hospital, and 200 death within the city limits, also fifty deaths in the suburbs, within the previous twenty-four hours.

The Racing Yachts.

The third and last of the trial races between the Priscilla and Puritan took place on Monday, the Priscilla crossing the starting line at 11:28 A. M., and the Puritan a half second later; the Puritan turned the Sandy Hook lightship at 12:52, the Priscilla at 12:53:15; on passing the Scotland lightship the Puritan was one minute and a quarter ahead, and at the finish the Boston yacht led her New York competitor by three minutes, giving her two of the three races. Three such close races, over such long distances, were never before sailed by two yachts.

HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA

Is designed to meet the wants of a large portion of our people who are either too poor to employ a physician, or are too far removed to easily call one, and a still larger class who are not sick enough to require medical advice, and yet are out of sorts and need a medicine to build them up, give them an appetite, purify their blood, and oil up the machinery of their bodies so it will do its duty willingly. No other article takes hold of the system and hits exactly the spot like

HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA

It works like magic, reaching every part of the human body through the blood, giving to all renewed life and energy.

My friend, you need not take our word. Ask your neighbor, who has just taken one bottle. He will tell you that "It's the best dollar I ever invested."

LEBANON N. H., Feb. 19, 1879.

MESSRS. C. I. HOOD & CO.: Dear Sirs—Although greatly prejudiced against patent medicines in general, I was induced, from the excellent reports I had heard of your Sarsaparilla, to try a bottle, last December, for dyspepsia and general prostration, and I have received very gratifying results from its use. I am now using the second bottle, and consider it a very valuable remedy for indigestion and its attendant troubles.

Yours truly,
J. C. CHURCHILL,
(Firm of Carter & Churchill.)

☞ A gentleman who has been suffering from the Debility and Languor peculiar to this season, says: "HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA is putting new life right into me. I have gained ten pounds since I began to take it." Has taken two bottles.

POLICE COURT -- BATCHELDER J.

MONDAY, Aug. 24th.

David Dillon, for drunkenness, was fined $3, costs $6.90, which he will work out at Brentwood.

Another young man, whose name we omit by request of his relatives, for a similar offence was fined the same amount, which he will board out in jail unless somebody pays it for him.

John Langdon, charged with being a common drunkard, was ordered to the county farm for thirty days, and to pay $6.90 costs.

Mr. James M. Meloon, of Newcastle, was before the court on a complaint under the lobster-protecting law. The catching, or selling, or having in possession eight lobsters of less than 10 1-2 inches in length was involved, but judgment on one lobster was accepted by the prosecution, Mr. Meloon being fined $10, with $5 costs, which was paid.

THE THEATRE.

A large audience assembled in Music hall on Monday evening, hot though it was, to witness the performance of "Queen's Evidence" by Atkinson & Cook's dramatic company, with Miss Floy Crowell, a pleasing young actress, in the principal female character. The leading parts were all taken acceptably to the audience, whose satisfaction was quite liberally expressed; in fact the company is really a well balanced one, and if they play as well the remaining evenings of the week, will deserve crowded houses. This evening the Octoroon will be presented, at the same popular prices. See advertisement.

NEW LIFE-SAVING STATIONS.

Sumner I. Kimball, Esq., chief of the life-saving service, says the plans and specifications are being prepared for the erection of new stations at Cove island and Cape Elizabeth, Me., North Scituate, Mass., and Jerry's point, Portsmouth harbor. The stations may not be built this season, but the work will be pushed as fast as possible. The cost of each station, fully equipped, will be between $5000 and $6000.

NAVY YARD ITEMS.

Commodore Charles H. Loring, chief of the bureau of steam engineering, visited the Brooklyn navy yard on the 22d inst.; it was announced that he would next visit the Portsmouth yard. The wages of employes at the Brooklyn yard have been fixed as follows: Plumbers, $3.50 per day; shipwrights, $2.26 per day; ship joiners, boat builders, caulkers and painters, $3 per day; laborers, $2 and $1.76 per day; foremen, $5 per day.

Commodore John G. Walker, chief of the bureau of navigation and detail, paid an official visit to this navy yard on Monday, and received the usual salute.

A New York paper reports Naval Constructor Pook, of the Brooklyn navy yard, as saying he "hasn't a high opinion of some of the 'reformers' who have applied for work on that yard. He says that many of them are hard to get along with; that they are unable to fill the positions they apply for; and that a man who called himself a shipwright knew as much about building a vessel as he did about a balloon."

It is reported that Ethan A. Locke of Kittery has been appointed quarterman in charge of riggers on the navy yard.

Last Saturday an "offensive partisan," Mr. John H. Flagg, foreman machinist in the department of steam engineering at the navy yard, was removed by order of the secretary of the navy, to make room for Mr. John W. Hayes, of Fort Wayne, Indiana, formerly of Kittery. Notwithstanding Mr. Flagg's offensive partisanship he was reminded on Monday morning that he continued to retain the confidence and esteem of the men under his charge. Soon after roll call Mr. Flagg, in attempting to reach his office, was confronted by the workmen, headed by Mr. Otis, who proceeded in behalf of the men to present Mr. Flagg with a beautiful gold watch-chain and charm.

The city officials have been at work of late in removing the trash from the ancient Point of Graves cemetery, and the place now looks moderately presentable to strangers visiting it.

Mr. Henry W. Taylor, who held the position of superintendent of steam fire engines on the navy yard after E. C. Nealley, Esq., of Kittery, was removed, having been relieved of that charge by Mr. Nathan Whalley of this city has returned to Everett, Mass.

Hon. Josiah G. Peabody, ex-mayor of Lowell, Mass., was in this city last week on a brief visit, with his daughter and grand-daughter. Mr. Peabody is a native of Portsmouth, but left here about forty years ago for Lowell, where he has ever since resided.

The appointment of Henry F. Wendell of Portsmouth as inspector at the custom house in that city is an eminently creditable one. Mr. Wendell is one of the most upright, capable and trustworthy men in the city or state, and the government is to be congratulated upon securing his services, as much as himself in this slight recognition of his worth. —Concord Patriot.

The new store on the corner of Market square and Daniel street is shortly to be occupied by Mr. William D. Grace as an apothecary store; and the store No. 1 Daniel street is being fitted up as an office for the Baltimore & Ohio Telegraph Co.

The brick schooners J. Chester Wood, Satellite, Lillie and Triton, from this port, arrived at Boston on Sunday, the 23d inst.

The steam yacht Ibis, of Boston, was in the lower harbor on Sunday.

MATTERS IN YORK.

YORK CORNER, ME., Aug. 24th.

On Monday, 17th inst., C. L. Grant & Co.'s line of stages handled one hundred and fifty-five paying passengers between York beach, York and Portsmouth, and other teams at minor size conveyed as many more. Monday was the biggest day of the season.

Our old friend Jos. L. Grant again remembers us with a generous armful of nice new corn—full and sweet. Mr. Grant continues to be a successful farmer, and

"Remembers the printer
Before it is winter."

For obesity we have been advised to smoke. Taking such advice in all candor we did smoke a ten-cent cigar the other evening, trusting all the time that we were to lose about fifty pounds of flesh; but imagine our surprise, on weighing after that smoke, we still weighed 227 pounds. Our faith in smoking, as a cure for excessive flesh, is very much shaken, and we shall not smoke any more unless somebody wants to "say the cigars."

We, the denizens of "the Corner," through the courtesy of your esteemed postmaster and of the gentlemanly mail carriers, (the Putnam Bros.) are blessed (if a blessing it be) with two mails a day during the months of July, August and September. Our mail matter since the change, however, has been very irregular; Mr. Freeman, who takes a daily Boston paper, has about concluded to change it for a semi-monthly.

On Saturday morning last the house of Mrs. Acenith Main, near Rice's bridge, was struck by lightning and considerable damage done, though no person was hurt. The house was well covered with improved lightning rods, at a cost of over three hundred dollars, about ten years ago. The moral of this is, get your house covered with rods if you want to get struck by lightning.

One day last week the residence of Mr. Walter E. Trafton was burglarized. His "go-to-meeting" suit was stolen, but nothing else was troubled, except that a gun was removed from its place but was not carried away.

Mr. Wm. H. Lewis came very near drowning a few days ago in what is called "Tonomee pond," but by hard scrabbling saved himself. P.

Hon. Daniel J. Morrell, whose death in Johnstown, Pa., last week, is reported, was born in South Berwick, his father living in that town the whole of his ninety-one years. Daniel went to Philadelphia in 1837, being then sixteen years old, and after making a fortune in the dry goods business, in 1855 became manager of the Cambria Iron Works at Johnstown, and has since been known as one of the great ironmasters of the country. He was prompt and energetic in giving aid to the national government on the breaking out of the rebellion; was sent to congress in 1866 and '68, and served as chairman of the committee on manufactures, and on other important committees. It was largely owing to his able and persistent advocacy while in congress in 1870 that the government decided to aid in the celebration of the centennial anniversary of independence by the great International Exposition of 1876, to which Governor Geary appointed him commissioner for the state of Pennsylvania, while his associates chose him chairman of the executive committee of the commission. In 1878 he was the United States commissioner to the International Exposition at Paris.

The Mount Agamenticus union picnic of the Christian churches in its vicinity, which includes Portsmouth, Rye, Newcastle and other neighboring towns, will be held on Tuesday, Sept. 1st, if the day should be pleasant; if stormy on that date, the picnic will be held the first pleasant day thereafter. It is expected that the gathering will be larger and more interesting than that of last year, which was so well attended, and greatly enjoyed by all present.

CUCUMBERS AND WATERMELONS.

Cucumbers and watermelons are tabooed by housands who fear to eat them, not because they have ever experienced a single pang that can be truthfully traced to them, but because some one had pronounced them injurious.

What more appetizing on a hot day than a freshly sliced cucumber, hard, cold, crisp, temptingly served on cracked ice?

Or what more refreshing to the irritated and parched mucous system on a sultry day than a cold, ripe, luscious, black-eyed watermelon?

And that all may enjoy them, as well as all other vegetables and fruits, in their season, we affirm that SANFORD'S GINGER is sure to check every disturbance of the bowels, instantly relieve cramps and pains, prevent indigestion, and destroy disease germs in water drunk. Ask for

SANFORD'S GINGER

The Delicious Summer Medicine.

SANFORD'S GINGER is prepared with the utmost skill from Imported Ginger, Choice Aromatics, and the purest and best of Medicinal French Brandy, from the world-renowned vintners, Messrs. Otard, Dupuy & Co., Cognac, rendering it vastly superior to all other "Gingers," all of which are made with common alcohol, impregnated with fusil oil and strengthened with cayenne pepper.

Unripe fruit, impure water, unhealthy climate, unwholesome food, Malaria, Epidemic and Contagious Diseases, Cholera Morbus, Cramps, Pains, Indigestion, Colds, Chills, Simple Fevers, Exhaustion, Nervousness or Want of Sleep that beset the traveller or household at this season, are nothing to those protected by SANFORD'S GINGER.

Hay Fever. I have been a great sufferer from hay fever for fifteen years and have tried various things without doing good. I read of the many wondrous cures of Ely's Cream Balm and thought I would try once more. In fifteen minutes after one application I was wonderfully helped. Two weeks ago I commenced using it and now I feel entirely cured. It is the greatest discovery ever known or heard of.—DUHAMEL CLARK, Farmer, Lee, Mass. Price 50 cents.

The British schooner Maggie, McLellan master, from Walton, N. S., with rock plaster for Bowdoinham, Me., went ashore early last Saturday morning on Wood island bar, at the mouth of the Kennebec, and became a total wreck. The crew were saved by the life-saving service, the captain of the station mustering a crew of volunteers to go to the rescue in the surf-boat, which made two perilous trips to the wreck.

They Have Never Failed!

I have been sick more or less for the last ten years, which has cost me many dollars in doctors and druggists' bills. The last two years it only cost me three dollars. Why? Because I used Sulphur Bitters instead of employing docters. They cured me of Jaundice.—F. F. Boyd, Hoboken.

Mrs. Joseph Spencer of Syracuse, N. Y., has eloped with Herbert Barnes. The woman, who has six children and several grandchildren, is forty-five years old. Barnes, who boarded with her, is aged nineteen. Mrs. Spencer took everything of value from the house, and also a sum of money given her by her husband to pay bills with.

What You Want to Know.

Everybody wants an honest answer to this simple question:—What is the best medicine to regulate the bowels, cure costiveness and billiousness, help the digestion and give strength to the whole system? People ask us every day. We answer, Parker's Tonic. It is pleasant to the taste. All the children like it. Mothers all praise it. It will save a thousand times its cost in every family.

At Port Washington, L. I., Aug. 21st, the old steam frigate Colorado was accidentally burned; also the Minnesota, Susquehanna, Congress, South Carolina, Iowa, Lotta Grant, and Fairplay. All these crafts, with the exception of the last two, formerly belonged to the United States navy, but had been condemned and sold to Stannard & Co. The schooners Lotta Grant and Fairplay were anchored close to the old government vessels, and they too were burned and sank. The loss on the schooners will amount to about $25,000, and on the old hulks to about $100,000.

The best washing compound of the day is undoubtedly James Pyle's Pearline. It cleanses the dirtiest and most delicate fabric without injury and with little labor. For sale by grocers.

Isaac W. Springfield & Son's woollen mill at Milton Three Ponds was burned by lightning on Saturday morning, Aug. 22d. It was built in 1881, and equipped with new machinery and latest improvements. The buildings were owned by the Great Falls Manufacturing company and leased by Springfield & Son, who put in the machinery. Fifty hands were employed. Eight thousand dollars' worth of blankets, which were ready for shipment, were partly saved. The storehouse was also saved. The insurance on building, machinery and stock, will nearly cover the loss.

Health Regulations.

THE BOARD OF HEALTH OF THE CITY OF PORTSMOUTH call the attention of the public to the following sections of Chapter 10 of the City Ordinances and invite all interested in the preservation of health in the city to aid them in the execution of their duty.

CHAPTER X.

Sec. 3. All waste water of houses, yards, cellars, sinks, pumps, &c., shall be conveyed by their owners or occupiers to the common sewers, or to such places as the health officers may direct.

Sec. 4. No person shall be allowed to throw any vegetable or animal substance or any other matter capable of producing infection, into any street, lane, alley or dock, or upon any wharf, but shall bury them or throw them into the river below low-water mark.

Sec. 5. The contents of vaults and privies shall not be permitted to rise within one foot of the surface of the earth. And all owners or occupiers of buildings having such vaults or privies as may require it, shall cause them to be emptied within ten days from the promulgation of this ordinance, and in future on or before the first day of May in each year. And any such owner or occupier neglecting so to do, shall forfeit and pay for every such neglect a sum not less than three nor more than twenty dollars, and a like sum for every week's neglect after the time above specified.

Sec. 6. No vender of meat at the stalls shall be permitted to leave any of the meat, heads, feet or offal of any kind about their stalls or stores over night, or suffer them to be thrown into any street, lane or alley of the city. Nor shall any sellers of fish be permitted to throw any offal of fish into any street, lane or alley of the city, or upon any wharf, but shall either bury them or throw them into the river below low-water mark.

Sec. 7. If any dead animal or decaying vegetable substance, or any other nuisance, shall be found in any part of the city, the owners and occupiers of the premises where such nuisances shall be, shall cause the same to be removed within twenty-four hours after being notified so to do by one or more of the health officers.

Sec. 12. When any householder shall know that any person within his family is taken sick of the small pox, or any other disease dangerous to the public health, such physician shall immediately give notice thereof to the health officers.

Sec. 13. When any physician shall know that any person whom he is called to visit is infected with the small pox, or any other disease dangerous to the public health, such physician shall immediately give notice thereof to the health officers.

Sec. 14. If any such householder or physician shall refuse or neglect to give the notice required in the preceding section, he shall for such refusal or neglect forfeit the sum of twenty dollars, to be recovered by either of the health officers in the name of the city.

Sec. 16. The health officers may give written notice to the owner or occupier of any building, vessel or enclosure, to remove or destroy any nuisance or other thing deemed by them, on examination, to be injurious to the public health, within a certain time limited therein; and in case such owner or occupier—the said notice having been given to him, or left at his usual place of abode—shall neglect to comply therewith, the said health officers may, by direction of the mayor and accompanied by the city marshal forcibly enter such building, vessel or enclosure, and cause said nuisance or other thing aforesaid to be removed or destroyed.

Sec. 21. No person shall erect, keep or continue or permit to be erected, kept or continued, upon any land occupied by him, any pen for the keeping of swine, or privy, over either of the mill ponds in this city, or so placed that offensive substances therefrom shall be discharged or drained into either of said ponds, or into any creek, or cove or drain leading thereto. And no person shall construct, keep or continue any drain leading from any pen for the keeping of any swine, slaughter-house, privy vault, or other unwholesome or offensive place, into either of said ponds, or to any flat or marsh adjoining the same. And no person shall throw or suffer to be thrown from his land into either of said ponds, or upon any of said flats or marshes, any dead, decaying, unwholesome or offensive animal or vegetable substances.

Men do not now believe in magic, but millions testify to the magical power of St. Jacobs Oil in banishing the pangs of rheumatism.

The steamship Zaandam, at New York from Amsterdam, brought in eight seamen from the barque Brimega, of Windson, N. S., which was fallen in with waterlogged, and with her main and mizzen masts gone. The captain, two mates and steward of the wreck refused to leave her, thinking they could take her into Halifax.

"My physician said I could not live. My liver out of order, frequently vomited greenish mucous, skin yellow, small dry humors on face, stomach would not retain food. Burdock Blood Bitters cured me." Mrs. Adelaide O'Brien, 372 Exchange St., Buffalo, N. Y.

At Springfield, Ill., Aug. 23d, Leonard Gardner, a saloon keeper who had been in jail for beating his wife, shot two officers named Camp and Gall, who arrested him. Camp fell dead, but Gall put three bullets into the assassin, finishing him off at once. Gall will probably die

When I Was Sick!

My room looked like a drug store, I had so many bottles in it. The more I dosed, the worse off I was. Finally, I paid my doctor and told him he need'n't come any more. I was troubled with Chronic Rheumatism, and couldn't get out of bed alone. Six Bottles of Sulphur Bitters cured me.—Benj. Fitch, Adams House, Boston.

The dead body of a beautiful and nicely dressed young woman was found in the river at Louisville, Ky., last week, and has been recognized as that of Miss Louisa H. Nourse, a niece of Prof. Joseph E. Mourse of the naval observatory at Washington. For the past two years her relatives in Washington had heard nothing from her.

Lung Troubles Promptly Cured.

Messrs. Editors:—"About three years ago my right lung became affected, and I then commenced taking Dr. Seth Arnold's Cough Killer. I used it about nine months and that lung has never troubled me since. Last summer I had a cold and it settled on my left lung; it got firmly seated, and I began to take Cough Killer again, now I don't cough at all."—H. W. Aldrich, Northbridge Centre, Mass.

The dismasted barque Brimega has reached Halifax in charge of her captain, two mates and steward, the crew having been taken off.

ECZEMA

And Every Species of Itching and Burning Diseases Positively Cured.

ECZEMA, or Salt Rheum, with its agonizing itching and burning, instantly relieved by a warm bath with CUTICURA SOAP, and a single application of CUTICURA, the great Skin Cure. This repeated daily, with two or three doses of CUTICURA RESOLVENT, the New Blood Purifier, to keep the blood cool, the perspiration pure and unirritating, the bowels open, the liver and kidneys active, will speedily cure Eczema, Tetter, Ringworm, Psoriasis, Lichen Pruritus, Scald Head, Dandruff, and every species of Itching, Scaly, and Pimply Humors of the Scalp and Skin, when the best physicians and all known remedies fail.

Will McDonald, 242 Dearborn St., Chicago, gratefully acknowledges a cure of Eczema or Salt Rheum on head, neck, face, arms, and legs for seventeen years; not able to walk except on hands and knees for one year; not able to help himself for eight years; tried hundreds of remedies; doctors pronounced his case hopeless; permanently cured by CUTICURA RESOLVENT (blood purifier) internally, and CUTICURA and CUTICURA SOAP (the great skin cures) externally.

Chas. Houghton, Esq., lawyer, 28 State St., Boston, reports a case of Eczema under his observation for ten years, which covered the patient's body and limbs, and to which all known methods of treatment had been applied without benefit, which was completely cured solely by the CUTICURA REMEDIES, leaving a clean and healthy skin.

Mr John Thiel, Wilkesbarre, Pa., writes: "I have suffered from Salt Rheum for over eight years, at times so bad that I could not attend to my business for weeks at a time. Three boxes of CUTICURA and four bottles RESOLVENT have entirely cured me of this dreadful disease."

Sold by all Druggists. Price: CUTICURA, 50c.; RESOLVENT, $1.00; SOAP, 25c. Prepared by the POTTER DRUG AND CHEMICAL CO., Boston, Mass.

BEAUTIFY the Complexion and Skin by using the CUTICURA SOAP.

"TIRED AND ACHING MUSCLES, crying through countless nerves for rest and relief." Like manna to the children of Israel is the CUTICURA PLASTER to the tired, overworked, aching muscles. Do not deny yourself the comfort afforded by this new, original and speedy antidote to pain and inflammation. At druggists, 25c.; five for $1.00. Mailed free. POTTER DRUG AND CHEMICAL CO., Boston

Two Splurgy Persons at Long Branch.

Mrs. Moses Fraley, who has held undisputed sway at Long Branch for the past few years as a leader in fashions, arrived recently and has elegant apartments at one of the hotels. Her diamonds are said to outnumber those of any other American lady. They represent in round numbers $250,000. The principle designs are harp, crescent, arrow, heart, and broken column. The other evening she was dressed in decolette brocaded black silken train, with rich black lace trimmings and diamond ornaments, consisting of a spear about four inches in length and studded with gems of ordinary size, except the center stone, which is of immense value. The solitaires in her ears were each as large as a hazlenut. She wore only one ring—a small, plain gold band on the third finger of her left hand. Her wardrobe fills seventeen Saratoga trunks, and includes all of Worth's latest designs as well as those of leading New York dealers.

It is said that Berry Wall, who is now there, is tired of being dubbed the "Monarch of Dudes." However true this may be, he continues to dress very loudly. At dinner he wears a white and black checked suit, each check being an inch and a quarter square. The top of his collar reaches the lower part of his ears, and is turned in front. His cravat is of a cardinal hue, spotted with hand-painted daisies, and ornamented with a huge diamond fastened with a mixed gold and silver pin, two or three inches of which are exposed. He has a host of gentlemen friends, and is generally liked among them, although they only feebly imitate his style of dress. With the ladies he is not much of a favorite, because they regard him as conceited. He changes his dress three times a day. His wardrobe consists of thirty-five or forty suits in different styles of checks and solid colors. His pantaloons, after the present English fashion, are as baggy as those of a sailor or a circus clown. When asked how long he would likely remain at the Branch, he replied: "Me boy, just as long as the fun holds out."—Long Branch Letter in Baltimore American.

He Didn't Understand.

"Soy, podner, I want ter get a mug pinched," said a man with a black eye this morning, as he expectorated a gill of tobacco spit on the floor of a police court clerk's office.

"Want what?" asked the clerk.

"Wanter get a mug pinched."

"What kind of a mug. What do you want it pinched for?"

"Why, fur nipping some stuff; he collared a couple of cases from me," answered the tough.

"I don't see what I've got to do with him. What kind of cases? Are you a lawyer?"

"Naw, I ain't; can't you tumble to me racket. You see, dis bloke, Jimmy Kelly, wuz a tendin' bar in me joint an' he's bin knockin' down——"

"You ought to get a warrant for assault and battery then. Did he hit you?" asked the bewildered clerk.

"Ah, rats! Soy he didn't sting me. He was dippin' his claws into my boodle. Bin blowin' my rocks agin' the tiger."

"Throwing rocks at a tiger? Where? Out at the zoological garden I suppose?" inquired the now thoroughly dazed clerk as he leaned over the desk.

"Soy, yure de prize chump!" disgustedly answered the bad man. "Where wuz you ejikated? Can't you see dat I want ter get dis mug pulled for bilking me?"

"Say, my friend, I don't want any more foolishness," hotly answered the clerk. "You tell me what you want or get out."

"I ain't monkeyin' podner, on the dead square. I wanter have dat crook jugged. Sposin you wus gettin' your leg pulled by a out and out crook what would you do but get him nabbed—"

He picked the grass out of his ears and mouth, straightened out his hat, and after pulling out a couple of teeth, remarked to the policeman who had picked him up. "Dis ain't right, my friend, they've got a crazy mug in dare, who, because he couldn't tumble to my chalter when I wanted to get a paper to have a crook whose a-bin tuhin' into my roll pinched, fire me out the windy into de park here.—Cincinnati Times-Star.

A Foot of Fifteen Inches.

George Nolte exhibited in the Times office yesterday the sole of an old shoe, which he has kept as a souvenir for many years, and lately received among a number of household effects from the east. The sole originally belonged to a shoe worn by H. D. Kimball of Littleton, Mass. Kimball, at the age of 41, was eight feet one and a half inches in height, and weighed 368 pounds. He was the youngest of twelve children, and in his earliest years was quite puny. When about nineteen years old he had a siege of fever, and, upon recovering, began a most extraordinary growth, which left him the giant that he was. Mr. Nolte says that the man was strong in proportion to his size. For many years he worked at teaming—principally engaged in hauling hay. He was intellectually as bright as men of his calling, and accumulated a competency as he attained mature years. As illustrating Kimball's proportions, it is stated that he would sit on top of a flour barrel as naturally as an ordinary man sits on a chair; it was just the right height for him. The giant died about two years ago.

The old shoe sole which Mr. Nolte exhibited is fifteen inches long and five and a half inches across in the widest part. The shoe was known as No. 21. —Los Angeles Times.

Full of Peril

Are those disorders which, beginning with an apparently trivial inactivity of the kidneys or bladder, terminates in Bright's disease, diabetes and cystitis. The first two not only interrupt the functions of the renal organs, but destroy their structure with as much certainty as tubercular consumption does that of the lungs. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is an excellent diuretic, promoting the activity of these organs without over exciting them, thus averting the deadly maladies in which their inaction or paralysis culminate. The removal from the blood of impurities which the kidneys should, but do not, when inactive, secrete, is another beneficial effect of this incomparable medicinal stimulant and depurent. The Bitters is, in all cases, too, a first restorative of vigor and aid to digestion, remedies malarial disease, and invigorates liver complaint and constipation.

The legislature on Tuesday adopted a joint resolution for a final adjournment on Saturday, Aug. 29th, at nine o'clock A. M.

The annual encampment of the New Hampshire Veteran association opened at Camp O. W. Lull, Weirs, Aug. 25th, the attendance being very large.

"God's Blessing to suffering humanity," is what a clergyman of Clay City, Ind., says of Dr. Graves' Heart Regulator as a cure for heart disease. He recommends it to all sufferers. Mrs. Lloyd's trial size, $1.00 per bottle.

Ed. Ames of Lake Village made three attempts to drown himself Aug. 3rd, but was pulled out each time.

Gen. Hancock is expected to draw to the Weirs on Thursday next more people than have yet gathered there on one day.

Every day adds to the great amount of evidence as to the curative powers of Hood's Sarsaparilla. Letters are continually being received from all sections of the country, telling of benefits derived from this great medicine. It is unequalled for general debility, and as a blood purifier, expelling every trace of scrofula or other impurity. Now is the time to take it. Made by C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass. Sold by all druggists.

The International Yacht Race.

The third and last of the trial races to decide which is the fastest centre-board sloop yacht in America and the one best fitted to do battle with the English cutter Genesta in the early part of September was even closer, than at first reported, for though the course was about thirty-eight miles the Puritan and Priscilla came in only forty-one seconds apart, the Puritan winning by 1m. 52s. corrected time.

Of the three trial races the Puritan won the first in a strong breeze, the Priscilla won the second in extremely light weather; and the Puritan won the third in a moderate breeze and smooth water. While it is not actually decided that she is the yacht that will be chosen to defend the America's cup, it is almost certain that she will be chosen at a meeting of the New York yacht club to be held during this week.

The arrangements for the America's cup races are all complete, and the committee have issued their programmes. The first race, on Sept. 7th, will be over a course twenty miles to windward and return, from Sandy Hook lightship. The second race, on Sept. 9th, is to be over the regular club course; and if a third is necessary it will be sailed over a triangular outside course.

Indignant Spaniards.

A great anti-German demonstration was made in Madrid, Spain, on Sunday, and the action of Germany in annexing the Caroline islands was vigorously denounced. Similar meetings, differing only in size from the one at the capital, were held in every one of the provinces of Spain.

The cause of all this wrath is that Germany, or Prince Bismarck, which is the same thing, has given notice to the other powers that Germany has established a protectorate over the Caroline islands, an insignificant group (and to be 500 or more) lying six or seven hundred miles to the eastward of the Phillipine islands, and having an area of something less than 1000 square miles. Spain claims the Carolines on the ground of discovery, and has always regarded that the Phillipines and Carolines are one group, notwithstanding their wide separation. The Spaniards have had no settlement on the Carolines, nor for many years has there been any trade with those islands except by Spanish adventurers mostly German.

T. B. Severance, proprietor of the Lindsey house at Rockland, Me., was shot, perhaps fatally, by Joseph Clinton, a constable, Aug. 24th.

Coleman S. Adams, ex-treasurer of the Framingham, Mass., savings bank, cut his throat in the bank office on the 25th inst.

The most violent thunder and wind storm of the season prevailed in the eastern part of Massachusetts Aug. 24th. At Lynn a barge full of people was blown over by the wind, and several persons hurt; many buildings were struck by lightning, and one woman was fatally hurt. At Marblehead the cutter yacht Stranger had her topmast splintered, and much damage was done at Nahant.

Capt. D. S. Babcock, vice president and general manager of the New York, Providence & Boston railroad was killed by a train at Stonington, Conn., Aug. 24th.

Among the appointments in fourth-class post-offices in Rockingham county announced this week are the following: Salem Depot, James Ayer; Plaistow, James N. George; Raymond, Aaron G. Whittier; South Newmarket, Thomas L. Kelly, jr.; Dover, Frank D. C. Weeks; Rye, A. D. Hodgdon.

A gentleman who was at Newcastle on Sunday last thought he would like to have a fresh lobster for his dinner, and went to one than after another, from whom he had occasionally procured the crustaceans, in an unavailing search. He found the lobster pots everywhere empty. Jerry and Dave Lawry, on Dent's buoy (except the nun-buoy at Stileman's rock) was visible, between the harbor light and Jerry's point. Said he in telling us of his experience, "I could have got a lobster of any length, from an inch to four feet, for $50; it would have been much easier to have got a baby to make a pickled lobster of, than to have got one for a lobster salad."

Death of J. M. Lovering.

Hon. James M. Lovering of Exeter died at his home in that town, on Monday morning, of disease of the heart, from which he has been a sufferer for several months. The deceased was 67 years and 10 months of age, and was widely known throughout the state as a public man of pathetic nature and generous qualities. Mr. Lovering was born in Hampton, and in his youth removed to Exeter and opened a store, where he continued in business until the establishment of the Exeter bank, of which he became cashier in 1850. This position he held until the closing up of the bank, when he accepted a government position at Washington, releasing it to accept the position of collector of internal revenue for his own district in New Hampshire. Upon the abolishment of that office, he received a responsible position in the Boston Custom House, where he continued until the time of his death. During all years of his daily trips to and from Boston he made many acquaintances, and all loved to hail a genial and staunch friend, and it may be said of him that his duties in public office have been faithfully performed.—Haverhill Bulletin.

DIPHTHERIA!

THE PROSTRATION which follows Diphtheria, and the persistency with which it clings to the patient, are well known to all who have had any experience with this terrible disease.

The following letter, shows how the invigorating and invigorating properties of will overcome all scrofulous and eradicates the poisoned matter from the blood, bringing to the convalescent the color, life and vigor of robust health.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

LOWELL, MASS.

MESSRS. C. I. HOOD & CO.: Gentlemen—My little girl had the diphtheria last August. The disease left her very weak, and she was left with no appetite, and she could not seem to totally from the effects. Hood's Sarsaparilla was recommended to me by a neighbor. After she had been taking it a few days we noticed a change for the better—she began to eat with a relish. It seemed to take out the poison the disease had left in her blood. The change being very noticeable we had her take it two months and future was just her delight. We now recommend Hood's SARSAPARILLA with a great deal of pleasure. Very truly yours,

J. R. SMITH,

POLICE COURT -- BATCHELDER J.

TUESDAY, Aug. 26th.

Daniel Lynch and Cornelius Murphy were examined on a complaint of having robbed James McGrath of $15. After a long hearing the case was dismissed.

Michael Harrington, for drunkenness, was fined $5, with $6.90 costs; paid.

ABOUT SEA TURTLES.

Some people say they don't believe the story about a big school of sea turtles surrounding Zach Randall's boat and trying to climb into it, off the entrance to this harbor, causing that ancient mariner to up kellick and make sail for Portsmouth as fast as possible. They say in the first place that the sea turtle is rare in these waters, and further, that if a school of them wanted to climb into Capt. Zach's boat he would let them do it, and then bring them up town and sell them. These persons forget that he was not fishing for turtles that day, but for cod, and he didn't want any lumbering, clumsy turtles tumbling around in his boat, bruising the codfish, flattening out the baller, knocking the medicine chest off the ribbon under the thwart, and breaking it, and otherwise rendering himself an object of aversion. Besides all this, the turtle is a crustacean, and as Capt. Zach had left his copy of the lobster law at home he could not tell but what the lawyers would make trouble for him if he caught the turtles, which are a sort of second cousins to the lobster.

As to there having been no turtles in these waters on the day referred to, even were Capt. Zach's word not amply sufficient to establish the fact that they were here, there is good corroborative evidence in the statement of Capt. Smith, of the steamer Reading, who on his arrival at this port from Philadelphia last week reported that when in the vicinity of Thatcher's island he saw close to his vessel several large schools of sea turtles, which could of course in a short time make the trip from Thatcher's island to Kitt's rock.

CRUSHED AGAIN.

The British schooner Belvidere, McLeod master, from Sydney, C. B., with bituminous coal to the Concord railroad, in coming up the river about nine o'clock Tuesday forenoon with a flood tide and fair but light wind, ran into the drill platform over Gangway rock, knocked it over, ran on top of the wreck and remained there till the turn of the tide, when she was towed clear by the May Queen, and taken up to the wharf. The schooner's only apparent damage was the staving of her bulwarks and the breaking of one or two stanchions; but the "hand stand" was badly wrecked, one big timber floating away up river, and the rest altogether disappearing from sight. The men who had been on the platform escaped on board the contractor's schooner Yankee on seeing the British schooner approaching, but the drilling machine and other gear went to the bottom. The loss is quite heavy, and will probably fall wholly on the schooner.

THE THEATRE.

The attendance at Music hall on Tuesday evening, when the popular melodrama "The Octoroon" was presented by the Floy Crowell company, was even larger than on Monday, and the approval of the audience was still more liberally expressed by applause. Miss Crowell, the leading lady, though a performer of unusual ability, is not a "star" in the sense in which the term is sometimes used—that is, she is not obliged to carry the whole weight of the play on her own shoulders, for the support is positively good, and some of it excellent. The company will play in Music hall every evening this week, and give a matinee Saturday afternoon.

This evening the piece will be "Little Sunshine," a bright and pleasing light drama.

NAVY YARD ITEMS.

Mr. Joseph B. Locke, late engineer at the Portsmouth Brewing Co.'s brewery, has taken charge of the engine in the blacksmith shop of the construction department at the navy yard, superseding Mr. Charles H. Rowe of this city. Mr. Rowe however does not have to stop wholly out in the cold, he having taken Mr. Locke's late position with the Brewing Co.

The newly-appointed foremen on the navy yard assumed charge of their several departments on Tuesday morning. They "went on" on the previous morning, but the old foremen were not dispissed until Monday evening, being employed during the day in showing their successors around.

Benjamin M. Bailey, Oliver Adams and Benjamin F. Mugridge of this city, and Charles Cole of Eliot, have been "required" in the caulkers' gang at the navy yard.

Commodore T. D. Wilson, U. S. N., chief of the bureau of construction and repair of the navy department, passed through this city on Monday, and met at the railroad station Navy Constructor Mintonye of the Portsmouth navy yard. Commodore Wilson is expected to visit the yard to-day.

The private theatrical entertainment which is offered at Franklin theatre on Friday afternoon and evening, Aug. 29th, promises to be the success of the season. The tickets are selling so rapidly that a good house is already assured. The owners of tickets can be accommodated with reserved seats for fifteen cents on applying at Goodrich's bookstore.

A coach filled with ladies and gentlemen, and well loaded down with baggage, passed through this city Monday afternoon, going toward York. The four handsome horses drawing the coach had their heads decorated with plumes, and on the sides of the vehicle were big labels of black letters on a white ground, "Lowell Tourists."

Capt. John G. Moses arrived home on Tuesday from a trip across the Atlantic.

Milliken's Dieppe Comedy company will appear at Music hall on next Wednesday evening, in a new musical comedy entitled "Nipiche." The play was originally produced in Paris, at the Varieties, with Jude, the famous French actress, in the title role. The play is said to abound in witty dialogue, and to be overflowing with rich musical gems. The company numbers fifteen people, among whom are Madeline Lucette, Mme. Defossez, Miss Kate DeWolf, Miss Lena Cole, Chas. S. Dickson, Daniel Packard, Chas. F. Lang and others; Fred Neopolitz is the musical director. Sale of seats opens on Monday next at Goodrich's.

The dividend due on stock in the Wolfeboro railroad will be paid at the office of Hon. Frank Jones, Market street, on Wednesday, September 2d, from ten to twelve o'clock in the forenoon.

KITTERY, ME., Aug. 24th.

A union grove meeting was held in Government grove, Kittery Point, on Sunday afternoon last at four o'clock. There was a large attendance.

There is in the garden of Mr. James D. Plaisted of North Kittery a Rose of Sharon bush nearly fifteen feet tall, that is at present literally covered with buds and blossoms; the bush is very handsome as seen from the road.

Whipple and Merrill lodges of Good Templars, of this town, elected delegates at their last meeting to attend the district session to be held in Newfield on Wednesday, the 26th inst.

Mr. Charles H. Hayes of the village has growing on his premises a rare plant which originally came from South America, called a "Brockmanzy." It is four feet tall; the leaves resemble beech leaves, and are about ten inches long and five wide, all clustered near the top. Last week it was in blossom, and had six flowers nearly sixteen inches long and two inches through, except at the end of the flower, which is bell-shaped and is fourteen inches across. Mr. Hayes procured the plant three years ago, and got it from a slip; it is said that there are only two or three more like it in this vicinity.

Luther P. Call, formerly of this town, is now engaged in missionary and temperance work in Boston, being superintendent of the Sunday School connected with the World's Tabernacle (Cockerel church or Shiel hall) on Hanover street.

A man from this town who works on the Rockingham house, Portsmouth, recently bought a pair of shoes of a dealer in that city for which he paid seventy cents for one and eighty cents for the other; so he says.

A bicyclist belonging in Newburyport, en route to that city from York beach last Sunday, was so engrossed by two of our North Kittery maidens that it was with great difficulty he tore himself away, and trundled off toward home bearing on his coat lappels a huge sunflower blazing like a locomotive headlight, as a souvenir from the fair ones.

Mrs. M. A. Colburn, mother of Rev. E. E. Colburn, pastor of the 2d Christian church, Kittery Foreside, and her daughter, Mrs. Hattie B. Howes of Hyde Park, Mass., arrived in town this week. Mrs. Colburn is contemplating purchasing a residence here.

Mr. Geo. E. Merrill, of Greenland, N. H., who temporarily supplied the pulpit of the 2d Christian church at the village before the advent of its present pastor, will enter Union college as a student Sept. 1st.

Granville C. Spinney and Chester and Elmer Langton of this town, with several others, will start for the White mountains the last of the present week. We understand that they will drive over the road in a large team, occupying two or three weeks in the trip, and will camp wherever night overtakes them, sort of Gypsey fashion. Mr. Spinney has been working very hard at his business of late, and a little rest will no doubt be beneficial to him.

The fall term of the Free High school commences Monday, Aug. 31st; examination of candidates for admission to the school will take place in Armory hall on Saturday, Aug. 29th, at two o'clock P. M.

Mrs. Fannie R. Kiernan, of Allston, Mass., is visiting at her father's, Dr. Edward S. Appleton's.

Mr. James D. Plaisted of North Kittery has received the contract to furnish forty tons of hay to the navy yard, 2240 lbs. to the ton.

Some of the apprentices in the construction department at the navy yard resumed work on Tuesday, and others expect to soon.

The faithful are all "going on" soon—or rather, the unfaithful; this is evidently not an administration of the faithful.

SUB ROSA.

At Cairo, Egypt, information has been received that a great massacre has taken place at Berber, where the people are said to be starving; and that Dongola has been occupied by 4000 armed dervishes.

Gena F. Smith, a young lady of Rockland, Me., while insane jumped overboard from the steamer Penobscot, between Camden and Rockland; her clothes buoyed her up until a boat reached her.

Assessors' Notice.

THE Assessors of Taxes will be in session at the rooms of the Mayor and Aldermen, City Building, Wednesday, Aug. 26th, at 2:30 o'clock, P. M., for the purpose of hearing all claims for abatements. H. F. WENDELL, Chairman. Saldaw

Notice.

THE Trustees of the Rice Public Library of Kittery, Me., will give a hearing on the petition of Jere. Hobbs and 27 others and Joseph Langton and 29 others, requesting the trustees to defer the purchase of a lot on which to erect a library building, at the Unitarian Church in Kittery, on Friday, Sept. 4th, 1885, at two o'clock, P. M., where and when all the inhabitants of Kittery interested in the selection of a proper building site for a library are invited to be present and be heard upon this subject.

By order of the Board of Trustees.

CUCUMBERS AND WATERMELONS.

Cucumbers and watermelons are tabooed by thousands who fear to eat them, not because they have ever experienced a single pang that can be truthfully traced to them, but because some one had pronounced them injurious.

What more appetizing on a hot day than a freshly sliced cucumber, hard, cold, crisp, temptingly spread on cracked ice?

Or what more refreshing to the irritated and parched mucous system on a sultry day than a cold, ripe, luscious, black-eyed watermelon?

And that all may enjoy them, as well as all other vegetables and fruits, in their season, we affirm that SANFORD'S GINGER is sure to check every disturbance of the bowels, instantly relieve cramps and pains, prevent indigestion, and destroy disease germs in water drunk. Ask for

SANFORD'S GINGER

The Delicious Summer Medicine.

SANFORD'S GINGER is prepared with the utmost skill from Imported Ginger, Choice Aromatics, and the purest and best of Medicinal French Brandy, from the world-renowned vintners, Messrs. Otard, Dupuy & Co., Cognac, rendering it vastly superior to all other "Gingers," all of which are made with common alcohol, impregnated with fusil oil and strengthened with cayenne pepper.

Unripe fruit, impure water, unhealthy climate, unwholesome food, Malaria, Epidemic and Contagious Diseases, Cholera Morbus, Cramps, Pains, Indigestion, Colds, Chills, Simple Fevers, Exhaustion, Nervousness or Loss of Sleep that beset the traveller or household at this season, are nothing to those protected by SANFORD'S GINGER.

An Offensive Breath

Is most distressing, not only to the person afflicted if he have any pride, but to those with whom he comes in contact. It is a delicate matter to speak of, but it has parted not only friends but lovers. Bad breath and catarrh are inseparable. Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy cures the worst cases as thousands can testify.

An immense Mahommedan army is reported to be engaged in "converting" the interior tribes of Africa by the sword.

"Rough on Catarrh"

Corrects offensive odors at once. Complete cure of even worst chronic cases, also unequalled as gargle for diphtheria, sore throat, foul breath. 50c.

The excitement over the Downs-Taber scandal in Boston rivals that over the Beecher-Tilton matter in New York years ago. Parson Downs' church was crowded on Sunday, morning and evening.

The Hope of the Nation.

Children, slow in development, puny, scrawny and delicate, use "Wells' Health Renewer."

J. M. Walkup of Emporia, Kan., died suddenly Saturday, from the effects, it is believed, of poison administered by his wife.

Catarrh of the Bladder.

Stinging, irritation, inflammation, all kidney and urinary complaints, cured by "Buchu-Paiba." $1.

A laborer working at a furnace in the Pennsylvania steel works at Harrisburg, Saturday, fell into the furnace and was instantly burned to ashes.

"Water Bugs, Roaches."

"Rough on Rats" clears them out, also beetles, ants, insects, rats and mice, 15 and 25c. boxes.

At Salem, Ind., Fred Berkey, son of a prominent citizen, while rum crazy on the street wounded several persons and killed one, and then blew out his own brains.

Hay Fever. I have been a great suffer from hay fever for fifteen years and have tried various things without doing good. I read of the many wondrous cures of Ely's Cream Balm and thought I would try once more. In fifteen minutes after one application I was wonderfully helped. Two weeks ago I commenced using it and now I feel entirely cured. It is the greatest discovery ever known or heard of.—DUHAMEL CLARK, Farmer, Lee, Mass. Price 50 cents.

The Cunard steamer Etruria arrived in New York Sunday, having made the trip from Fastnet light to Fire island in six days and two hours, the shortest time on record.

Four unknown children were run down by a freight train on a bridge at Ottawa, Can., Sunday, and two were killed.

They Have Never Failed!

I have been sick more or less for the last ten years, which has cost me many dollars in doctors and druggists' bills. The last two years it only cost me three dollars. Why? Because I used Sulphur Bitters instead of employing doctors. They cured me of Jaundice.—F. F. Boyd, Hoboken.

Prestan, the Colombian revolutionist, has been captured, and will be tried for burning Aspinwall. Gen. Camargo and his principal officers have surrendered, and the revolution is over.

The great popular remedy of the day for coughs, colds, asthma, and all lung difficulties, is Adamson's Botanic Balsam. Inexpensive, reliable, pleasant to take, cures as by magic, and gives universal satisfaction. A trial is the best testimonial. Price 35 and 75 cents. Trial size 10 cents.

Nervous Debilitated Men.

You are allowed a free trial of thirty days of the use of Dr. Dye's Celebrated Voltaic Belt with Electric Suspensory Appliances, for the speedy relief and permanent cure of Nervous Debility, Loss of Vitality and Manhood, and all kindred troubles. Also, for many other diseases. Complete restoration to health, vigor and manhood guaranteed. No risk is incurred. Illustrated pamphlet, with full information, terms, etc., mailed free by addressing Voltaic Belt Co., Marshall, Mich.

When Miss Kalchen Felt Lucky.

S. M. Simpson, the distribution cigar store man, on July 13th, met the Denver agent of The Louisiana State Lottery and bought fifteen tickets from him, and sent ten of them to Leadville to a customer who asked to buy them, that night by mail, took five of them home, gave two to Miss Kalchen, his sister-in-law, who had told him she felt lucky and to purchase for her two fifths for two dollars in The Louisiana Sate Lottery, and retained three himself. Next morning a message came to the effect that No. 6,969 had drawn the capital prize. He told Miss Kalchen to look, and found that she had 8,969. The ticket was sent on and the money collected through the First National Bank of Denver, Col.—Denver (Col.) News, July 23d.

Health Regulations.

THE BOARD OF HEALTH OF THE CITY OF PORTSMOUTH call the attention of the public to the following sections of Chapter 16 of the City Ordinances and invite all interested in the preservation of health in the city to aid them in the execution of their duty.

CHAPTER X.

Sec. 3. All waste water of houses, yards, cellars, sinks, pumps, &c., shall be conveyed by their owners or occupiers to the common sewers, or to such places as the health officers may direct.

Sec. 4. No person shall be allowed to throw any vegetable or dead animal substance or any other matter capable of producing infection, into any street, lane, alley or dock, or upon any wharf, but shall bury them or throw them into the river below low-water mark.

Sec. 5. The contents of vaults and privies shall not be permitted to rise within one foot of the surface of the earth. And all owners or occupiers of buildings having such vaults or privies as may require it, shall cause them to be emptied within ten days from the promulgation of this ordinance, and in future on or before the first day of May in each year. And any such owner or occupier neglecting so to do, shall forfeit and pay for every such neglect a sum not less than three nor more than twenty dollars, and a like sum for every week's neglect after the time above specified.

Sec. 6. No vender of meat at the stalls shall be permitted to leave any such meat, heads, feet or offal of any kind about their stalls or stores over night, or suffer them to be thrown into any street, lane or alley of the city. Nor shall any sellers of fish be permitted to throw any offal of fish into any street, lane or alley of the city, or upon any wharf, but shall either bury them or throw them into the river below low-water mark.

Sec. 7. If any dead animal or decaying vegetable substance, or any other nuisance, shall be found in any part of the city, the owners and occupiers of the premises where such nuisances shall be found, shall cause the same to be removed within twenty-four hours after being notified so to do by one or more of the health officers.

Sec. 12 When any householder shall know that any person within his family is taken sick of the small pox, or any other disease dangerous to the public health, such physician shall immediately give notice thereof to the health officers.

Sec. 13. When any physician shall know that any person whom he is called to visit is infected with the small pox, or any other disease dangerous to the public health, such physician shall immediately give notice thereof to the health officers.

Sec. 14. If any such householder or physician shall refuse or neglect to give the notice required in the preceding sections, he shall for each refusal or neglect forfeit the sum of twenty dollars, to be recovered by either of the health officers in the name of the city.

Sec. 16. The health officers may give written notice to the owner or occupier of any building, vessel or enclosure, to remove or destroy any nuisance or other thing deemed by them, on examination, to be injurious to the public health, within a certain time limited therein; and in case such owner or occupier—the said notice having been given to him, or left at his usual place of abode—shall neglect to comply therewith, the said health officers may, by direction of the mayor and accompanied by the city marshal forcibly enter such building, vessel or enclosure, and cause said nuisance or other thing aforesaid to be removed or destroyed.

Sec. 21. No person shall erect, keep or continue or permit to be erected, kept or continued, upon any land occupied by him, any pen for the keeping of swine, or privy, over either of the mill ponds in this city, or so placed that offensive substances therefrom shall be discharged or drained into either of said ponds, or into any creek, or cove or drain leading thereto. And no person shall construct, keep or continue any drain leading from any pen for the keeping of any swine, slaughter-house, privy vault, or other unwholesome or offensive place, into either of said ponds, or to any flat or marsh, adjoining the same. And no person shall throw or suffer to be thrown from his land into either of said ponds, or upon any of said flats or marshes, any dead, decaying, unwholesome or offensive animal or vegetable substances.

Destroy that Sign.

One may feel that he's getting old, but he naturally dislikes that anything about his appearance should advise others of the fact. Yet nothing does this so effectually as thin and falling hair. No woman wants to marry a man, and business firms hesitate to employ a man, who shows this fatal sign. Parker's Hair Balsam is worth to you, in this regard, more than its weight in diamonds. Use it, and have plentiful and glossy hair. Many have had every trace of grayness removed and bold spots covered by using a single bottle.

Lung Troubles Promptly Cured.

Messrs. Editors:—"About three years ago my right lung became affected, and I then commenced taking Dr Seth Arnold's Cough Killer. I used it about nine months and that lung has never troubled me since. Last summer I had a cold and it settled on my left lung; it got firmly seated, and I began to take Cough Killer again, now I don't cough at all."—H. W. Aldrich, Northbridge Centre, Mass.

Three weeks' loss of time and hundreds of dollars damage was caused by a thousand tons of earth and rock sliding into the pit of the Union soapstone quarry at Chester, Vt., filling it completely.

ECZEMA

And Every Species of Itching and Burning Diseases Positively Cured.

ECZEMA, or Salt Rheum, with its agonizing itching and burning, instantly relieved by a warm bath with CUTICURA SOAP, and a single application of CUTICURA, the great Skin Cure. This repeated daily, with two or three doses of CUTICURA RESOLVENT, the New Blood Purifier, to keep the blood cool, the perspiration pure and untirritating, the bowels open, the liver and kidneys active, will speedily cure Eczema, Tetter, Ringworm, Psoriasis, Itchen Pruritus, Scald Head, Dandruff, and every species of Itching, Scaly, and Pimply Humors of the Scalp and Skin, when the best physicians and all known remedies fail.

Will McDonald, 2542 Dearborn St., Chicago, gratefully acknowledges a cure of Eczema or Salt Rheum on head, neck, face, arms, and legs for seventeen years; the scalp was a mass of sores, hands and knees for one year; not able to help himself for eight years; tried hundreds of remedies; doctors pronounced his case hopeless; permanently cured by CUTICURA RESOLVENT (blood purifier) internally, and CUTICURA and CUTICURA SOAP (the great skin cures) externally.

Chas. Houghton, Esq., lawyer, 23 State St., Boston, reports a case of Eczema under his observation for ten years, which covered the patient's body and limbs, and to which all known methods of treatment had been applied without benefit, which was completely cured solely by the CUTICURA REMEDIES, leaving a clean and healthy skin.

Mr John Thiel, Wilkesbarre, Pa., writes: "I have suffered from Salt Rheum for over eight years, at times so bad that I could not attend to my business for weeks at a time. Three boxes of CUTICURA and four bottles RESOLVENT have entirely cured me of this dreadful disease."

Sold by all Druggists. Price: CUTICURA, 50c.; RESOLVENT, $1.00; SOAP, 25c. Prepared by the POTTER DRUG AND CHEMICAL CO., Boston, Mass.

BEAUTIFY the Complexion and Skin by using the CUTICURA SOAP.

"TIRED AND ACHING MUSCLES, crying through countless nerves for rest and relief." Like manna to the children of Israel is the CUTICURA PLASTER to the tired, overworked, aching muscles. Do not deny yourself the comfort afforded by this new, original and speedy antidote to pain and inflammation. At druggists, 25c.; five for $1.00. Mailed free. POTTER DRUG AND CHEMICAL CO., Boston

Cholera, Cramps & Chills.

"An ounce of prevention," that is, a dose of SANFORD'S GINGER, "is worth a pound of cure," which, of course, means a doctor. It is absolutely certain that Cholera may be prevented, and, in the majority of cases, successfully treated, with SANFORD'S GINGER, a powerful stimulant, composed of Imported Ginger, choice Aromatics, and the best French Brandy; convenient, speedy, and safe; sure to check summer complaints, prevent indigestion, destroy disease germs in water drunk, restore the circulation when suspended by a chill, and ward off malaria, contagious, and epidemic influences. Ask for

SANFORD'S GINGER.

Cramps, Pains, Cholera Morbus, Diarrhœa, and Dysentery, whether produced by unripe fruit, impure water, unwholesome food, or change of climate, food or water, or any little ills of home or travel, such as Colds, Chills, Simple Fevers, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Sea-sickness, Exhaustion, Nervousness, Loss of Sleep, Debility and Dissipation, are instantly relieved by SANFORD'S GINGER, the safest, surest, and best summer medicine and travelling companion.

As a healthful summer drink with water, milk, iced water, lemonade, effervescent draughts and mineral waters, it is the best.

A French-Canadian Bride.

At one of the smaller landings, where the boat did not usually stop unless signaled, a man was seen standing gesticulating wildly. The captain came forward and with an amused expression of countenance informed the passengers that he knew from the excited state the individual was in that a wedding party was coming aboard. And his prognostication was soon verified, for as soon as the boat touched the landing a motley procession came trooping down—old and young and middle-aged, from the infant in arms to the aged couple, who, John Anderson like, were tottering down. The procession was headed by the bride and groom, the latter looking excessively uncomfortable and out of place in the "dressed-up" condition; but the bride presented a great contrast to her new-made lord; her self-satisfaction was supreme. As the captain remarked, "If you really want to see happiness and contentment, you must see a French-Canadian bride from the rural districts. She has attained to the height of her ambition; she is at last decked out in bridal finery." She went straight for the saloon after coming on board, and looked round a little nervously at first, then sat frigidly down on the extreme edge of the nearest bench, and cast down her eyes, as was supposed, in blushing modesty. But no! it was not modesty; it was her shoes upon which her admiring glances were directed.

The rest of her costume was commonplace, consisting of a black dress of some cheap material, which one of the ladies designated as "lustre." She wore a hat trimmed with a wreath of tawdry-looking pink and blue artificial flowers, while bows of yellow and green ribbon relieved the sombre hue of the dress. But it remained for the shoes to give the true bridal character to this somewhat remarkable toilet. They were of white kid, low cut, with huge roses on the instep. Her pedal extremities, which were of rather colossal proportions, were augmented by home-knit woolen stockings, which appeared just a trifle incongruous. Her husband soon joined her, and took a seat beside her, and as he sat speechless, with his wife's hand lying in his own, it was supposed he too was lost in admiration and wonder at the beauty of the slippers. A half hour later found them in the same position, with the bride still casting loving glances at her feet. When the newly wedded pair left the boat they were met by an old man and a young girl, who by the way they embraced the bridegroom, were set down as his father and sister. The former took the bride gently by the hand, who received them with rigid stateliness. The girl timidly ventured to kiss her newly made sister. The caress was passively permitted, not returned, and afterward deliberately wiped off with a blue cotton pocket-handkerchief. The last seen of the kid shoes they were almost invisible as their owner trudged up a steep sandy hill on a hot August afternoon.—Agnes Fraser Grundlam, in Harper's Magazine for August.

A Nice Little Story About Christine Nilsson.

One of the presents she prizes most came from her Majesty, the Queen, who heard Madame Nilsson at Windsor, and with her own hands put a bracelet of rubies and diamonds on her wrist, to which a little story is attached. The fact is that Madame Nilsson had been asked by some nuns who keep a school for poor girls if she would be so extremely kind as to sing once to those little ones, as it would make an impression on them which they would never forget. Mme. Nilsson, too happy to do so much good with so little trouble, promised to come, and fixed a certain evening. But what should happen but a visitor, under the guise of Her Majesty's bandmaster, called on Mme. Nilsson—the bearer of Her Majesty's order for Mme. Nilsson to sing at the court concert at Buckingham Palace. Of course you suppose that she instantly sent to the nuns to express her regret not to be able to sing to the children that night on account of the court concert? Not she! She told Her Majesty's bandmaster that she was very sorry not to be able to accept the Queen's invitation for that evening, as she had an engagement which she could not evade, and that at any future opportunity she would be happy to receive Her Majesty's command, but that she could not sing at court that evening. Not obey the Queen's command? Not sing at court? Why, every artist coming to London, desired, before all, the honor of being invited to court! What was he to do? That 'was his concern,' Madame Nilsson said; she could not break her word. Trembling returned the messenger, revolving in his mind how he would lay before Her Majesty the message that Madame Nilsson had something else to do. However, there was no mincing matters; he had to say it. But what was his astonishment when, instead of the royal frown he expected, he heard the august lady say, 'Oh, I know. I have been told what that engagement is, and a right noble heart she has! Put Madame Nilsson down at once for the next court concert, and ask her what day she can give me the pleasure of singing to me personally at Windsor.' Fleet, like a deer, to Madame Nilsson returned the royal courier to take her orders, and thus Madame Nilsson was invited to Windsor, and by royal hands adorned with the bracelet above mentioned."—Temple Bar, London.

Full of Peril

Are those disorders which, beginning with an apparently trivial inactivity of the kidneys or liver, terminates in Bright's disease, diabetes and cystitis. The first two not only interrupt the functions of the renal organs, but destroy their structure with as much certainty as tubercular consumption does that of the lungs. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is an excellent diuretic, promoting the activity of these organs without over exciting them, thus averting the deadly malalies in which their inaction is so prone to culminate. The removal from the blood of impurities which the kidneys should, but do not, when inactive, secrete, is another beneficent effect of this incomparable medicinal stimulant and depurent. The Bitters is, in all cases, too, a fine restorative of vigor and hid to digestion, renders malarial disease, and banishes liver complaint and constipation.

A God Work.

The Boston Advertiser of a recent date said editorially that "Colonel T. E. O. Marvin is now doing a commendable work among the White mountains in behalf of the New Hampshire Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, of which he is the president. It may be that at other popular resorts no less than at the White mountains the treatment of animals calls for just such vigorous action as Colonel Marvin has begun. Those families with the conditions of life at the summer resorts need not be told of the extent to which the poor horses suffer through the greed of the liverymen, the recklessness of drivers, or the selfish indifference of tourists. It is high time that public sentiment awakened to this state of things. Colonel Marvin is at present carrying on his work in North Conway, and his labors have already been such as to provide against the overloading of excursion wagons and the ill treatment or overuse of horses, to secure measures for the humane care of all animals, and to put to death all deemed for any reason unfit to live. Colonel Marvin is a man enthusiastically devoted to his work, and if the reform, which he has so successfully begun, should have even the effect of preventing a repetition of the recent outrageously cruel attempts to beat the records of fast travel up Mt. Washington, it should claim the heartiest recognition from every right minded person."

A Doubly Good Work.

All people who eat are indebted to the Royal Baking Powder company, not more for having perfected and prepared a leavening agent that is pure and wholesome beyond a question, than for its exposures, so boldly made, of the numerous impure, adulterated and injurious articles that are sold under the name of baking powders, breed preparations, etc., in this community. In making these exposures the company has, of course, made itself obnoxious to all sorts of counter attacks, but the animus of these attacks has been perfectly understood by the general public, and by their very virulence have served to more prominently call attention to the good work of the "Royal" company.

Food frauds of the usual class, such as wooden nutmegs, chicory coffee and watered milk, although they are swindles in a commercial sense, are often tolerated because they do not particularly affect the health of the consumer. But when an article like baking powder that is relied upon for the healthful preparation of almost every meal is so made as to carry highly injurious if not rankly poisonous elements into our daily food, it would seem to be the duty of the press as well of the criminal authorities to take cognizance of it.

In the fight for pure food made by the "Royal" company some time ago, when its gu s were particularly trained against the alum baking powders, it was noticed that the most trustworthy scientific authorities were emphatically upon its side. So in the recent contest with the lime and other impure baking powders the result has proved that every statement made by the Royal Baking Powder company, both as to the purity of its own and the adulteration of other baking powders of the market, was fully authorized by the most competent chemical and medical authorities of the country.

In this contest two facts have been pretty conclusively settled in the minds of the public—the first, that the Royal company has found the means, and uses them, to make a chemically pure article of food, and the other that the average baking powder, no matter how strongly endorsed by "commercial" chemists, is an exceedingly doubtful preparation.

Pure baking powders are one of the chief aids to the cook in preparing perfect and wholesome food. The recent controversy in the press has left it no longer a question with those who desire purity and wholesomeness of food what baking powder they shall use.

HOW THE SLATE STANDS.

It was currently reported on Wednesday evening, the 26th inst., that some of the recently-displaced republican foremen on the navy yard had been provided for as follows:

H. C. Lovell, late foreman sailmaker on the navy yard, as a leader under James Cunningham, the new foreman; Wm. F. Noyes, late foreman shipwright, as a quarterman under Foreman Charles W. Stimson; John H. Flagg, late foreman machinist, as a quarterman under Foreman John W. Hayes. John Howell, late foreman iron-plater, has taken charge of the engine in the "head-house" of the dry-dock railway.

It is now regarded as more than probable that when any large number of mechanics are again taken on the yard, the late republican workmen—that is, the really first-class ones—will very many of them be "required" again.

POLICE COURT -- BATCHELDER J.

WEDNESDAY, Aug. 26th.

George Martin, a drunk, was fined $3, costs $6.90. Bentwood in default of payment.

THE THEATRE.

Another great audience greeted the Atkinson & Cook Dramatic Co. at Music hall on Wednesday evening, and another excellent entertainment was given. Miss Floy Crowell gains in favor with the public each evening, and the conscientious painstaking of her support is evident in every piece they perform. This evening "Divorce" will be presented.

VESSEL LIBELLED.

A libel was filed in the office of the clerk of the United States District court on Wednesday by George W. Townsend and John Olsen, against the British schooner Belvidere, her tackle, freight money, etc., to answer for damages occasioned by collision with the libellants' vessel and property in this harbor on the 25th inst.

THE "DOCKYARD CROW."

The British Admiralty and Horse Guards Gazette thus describes a very important but not officially-recognized personage who is to be found, it asserts, in every well-regulated British navy yard, and is popularly known in those hives of industry as the "dockyard crow:"

He is a sort of picket or sentry placed on the upper deck of a vessel to give notice to those working, or supposed to be working, on board, of the approach of any one in authority. A stranger sauntering over the yard cannot fail to be struck by the stillness that prevails on board the ships being got ready for commission. No clang of hammer or anvil, not even a solitary riveter, is at times to be heard. This state of apparent somnolence obtains only so long as no official can be discerned approaching or to be within hearing. But the moment the "crow" discerns such an official, he, like the sentry in the rookery, at once sounds the note of warning by giving three rapid and heavy strokes of the hammer on the deck. Then in an instant the ship is all alive, swarming with workmen, as busy, apparently, as bees, but who up to that moment had been quietly sleeping or playing cards between decks below.

Rev. I. D. Stewart, agent of the Morning Star corporation, which paper is the Freewill Baptist national organ, has resigned. He will be succeeded by Rev. E. N. Fernald, treasurer of the Freewill Baptist Home and Foreign Missions and Education society. The office of the Star is to be removed from Dover to Shawmut avenue, Boston, where a new building has just been built for it.

The Methodist camp meeting at Claremont Junction opened Monday, Aug. 24th. Owing to it being a rainy day there was a small attendance. The meeting was in charge of Rev. J. E. Robins, presiding elder of the Claremont district, and Rev. A. L. Cooper, presiding elder of the Springfield district. Monday evening the preaching was by Rev. A. L. Cooper, and Tuesday morning the sermon was by Rev. A. B. Truax of Bellows Falls. In the afternoon preaching was by Rev. Mr. Backster of Union, and in the evening by Rev. C. Eaton of Hinsdale and H. F. Reynolds of Barnard, Vermont.

Statesmen and Chuck-A-Luck.

Henry Watterson loves to tell the story of how Hon. A. S. Willis got into congress. It seems that in some bygone day he and Judge Hoke, both of Louisville, were democratic aspirants for congress. The odds were pretty evenly divided, and the democratic mind in the district was in topsy-turvy excitement, when Hoke suggested that the two settle it by the method of the honorable and dignified game of "head and tails." Willis was willing, and, to use the words of H. W., "It was a rare sight. There were two gentlemen, representing all the dignity and intelligence of the great democratic party in this district, getting down to chuck-a-luck in order to show their disinterested devotion to that party, the grave judge placing his ambition on the 'head' of the coin, while the astute congressman uttered 'tail.' Head lost and tail won, and Hoke at once withdrew from the canvass." Watterson made lots of fun about the affair, and perhaps it had something to do with growing the moss on Willis, who always has it in his mind.

"Why yes," he said to me, "it is true. The judge and I had been intimate friends for fifteen years, and in order to settle the contest without unfriendly feeling we determined the candidature by lot, thus saving the expense by convention. That method of settling contests is authorized by the statutes of Kentucky, let me tell you! More than that, it is quite common usage everywhere. Do you know that even the electoral commission in 1876 was determined by lot!"

"No!"

"Yes, sir. You know that only one member from a state could be selected, and two of the Virginia representatives Mr. Tucker and Mr. Hunton, were contending candidates before their democratic friends for the honor of being on that commission. It was a friendly contest, and when Ben Hill declined to act as an umpire the two gentlemen met in one of the committee rooms to determine the matter in a friendly way. They placed their names in a hat, and a blindfolded page drew therefrom the name of the one, whose judgment, differing from the other's for aught I know, might have decided the presidency!"—Albany Times.

The Physicians's Investigator has watched for a number of years the effect of oatmeal on children, and thinks it makes them weak, mentally and physically. As an exclusive diet it impoverishes the blood. The Scotch, though strong, are a dyspeptic race, and, at all events, what may be good for them is not necessarily so for us in this climate.

The bones of Pizarro, the conqueror of Peru, lie in the crypt of the Grand Cathedral at Lima, which he built in 1540, and which is the most imposing ecclesiastical edifice in America. It is said to have cost $9,000,000. The money came from the old Inca temples, which were robbed of their gold and silver ornaments and stripped of their carved timbers by the Spaniards.

MEDICAL NOTICE

DRS. JORDAN & JACQUES,

Principals of the Parisian Scientific Institution and Museum of Anatomy 301 and 305 Washington street Boston, Mass., and authors of the well known medical work, Philosophy of Marriage, wish to inform their patients and those desirous of consultations, that one of the firm is now in Portsmouth, N. CUCUMBERS AND WATERMELONS.

Cucumbers and watermelons are tabooed by hosands who fear to eat them, not because they have ever experienced a single pang that can be truthfully traced to them, but because some one had pronounced them injurious.

What more appetizing on a hot day than a freshly sliced cucumber, hard, cold, crisp, temptingly served on cracked ice?

Or what more refreshing to the irritated and parched mucous system on a sultry day than a cold, ripe, luscious, black-eyed watermelon?

And that all may enjoy them, as well as all other vegetables and fruits, in their season, we affirm that SANFORD'S GINGER is sure to check every disturbance of the bowels, instantly relieve cramps and pains, prevent indigestion, and destroy disease germs in water drunk. Ask for,

SANFORD'S GINGER

The Delicious Summer Medicine.

SANFORD'S GINGER is prepared with the utmost skill from Imported Ginger, Choice Aromatics, and the purest and best of Medicinal French Brandy, from the world-renowned vintners, Messrs. Otard, Dupuy & Co., Cognac, rendering it vastly superior to all other "Gingers," all of which are made with common alcohol, impregnated with fusil oil and strengthened with cayenne pepper.

Unripe fruit, impure water, unhealthy climate, unwholesome food, Malaria, Epidemic and Contagious Diseases, Cholera Morbus, Cramps, Pains, Indigestion, Colds, Chills, Simple Fevers, Exhaustion, Nervousness or Loss of Sleep that beset the traveller or household at this season, are nothing to those protected by SANFORD'S GINGER.

Health Regulations.

THE BOARD OF HEALTH OF THE CITY OF PORTSMOUTH call the attention of the public to the following sections of Chapter 10 of the City Ordinances and invite all interested in the preservation of health in the city to aid them in the execution of their duty.

(CHAPTER X.

Sec. 3. All waste water of houses, yards, cellars, sinks, pumps, &c., shall be conveyed by sight drains or conduits to the common sewers, or to such places as the health officers may direct.

Sec. 4. No person shall be allowed to throw any vegetable or dead animal substance or any other matter capable of producing infection, into any street, lane, alley or dock, or upon any wharf, but shall remove or throw them into the river below low-water mark.

Sec. 5. The contents of vaults and privies shall not be permitted to rise within one foot of the surface of the earth. And all owners or occupiers of buildings having such vaults or privies as may require it, shall cause them to be emptied within ten days from the promulgation of this ordinance, and in future on or before the first day of May in each year. And any such owner or occupier neglecting so to do, shall forfeit and pay for every such neglect a sum not less than three nor more than twenty dollars, and a like sum for every week's neglect after the time above specified.

Sec. 6. No vender of meat at the stalls shall be permitted to leave any such meat, heads, feet or offal of any kind about their stalls or places over night, or suffer them to be thrown into any street, lane or alley of the city. Nor shall any such fish be permitted to throw any offal of such into any street, lane or alley of the city, or upon any wharf, but shall either bury it or throw them into the river below low-water mark.

Sec. 7. If any dead animal or decaying vegetable substance, or any other nuisance, shall be found in any part of the city, the owners or occupiers of the premises where such nuisances shall be found, shall cause the same to be removed within forty-four hours after being notified so to do by one or more of the health officers.

Sec. 12. When any householder shall know that any person within his family is taken sick of the small pox, or any other disease dangerous to the public health, such physician shall immediately give notice thereof to the health officers.

Sec. 13. When any physician shall know that any person whom he is called to visit is infected with the small pox, or any other disease dangerous to the public health, such physician shall immediately give notice thereof to the health officers.

Sec. 14. If any such householder or physician shall refuse or neglect to give the notice required in the preceding sections, he shall for each refusal or neglect forfeit the sum of twenty dollars, to be recovered by either of the health officers in the name of the city.

Sec. 18. The health officers may give written notice to the owner or occupier of any building, vessel or enclosure, to remove or destroy any nuisance or other thing deemed by them, on examination, to be injurious to the public health, within a certain time limited therein; and in case such owner or occupier shall neglect or refuse having been given to him, or left at his usual place of abode—shall neglect to comply therewith, the said health officers may, by direction of the mayor and accompanied by the city marshal forcibly enter such building, vessel or enclosure, and cause said nuisance or other thing aforesaid to be removed or destroyed.

Sec. 21. No person shall erect, keep or continue or permit to be erected, kept or continued, upon any land occupied by him, any pen for the keeping of swine, or privy, over either of the mill ponds in this city, or so place that offensive substances therefrom shall be discharged or drained into either of said ponds, or into any creek, or cove or drain leading thereto. And no person shall construct, keep or continue any drain leading from any pen for the keeping of any swine, slaughter-house, privy vault, or other unwholesome or offensive place, into either of said ponds, or to any flat or marsh adjoining the same. And no person shall throw or suffer to be thrown from his land into either of said ponds, or upon any of said flats or marshes, any dead, decaying, unwholesome or offensive animal or vegetable substances.

Especially to Women.

"Sweet is revenge, especially to women," said the gifted, but naughty, Lord Byron. Surely he was in bad humor when he wrote such words. But there are complaints that only women suffer, that are carrying numbers of them down to early graves. There is hope for those who suffer, no matter how sorely, or severely, in Dr. R. V. Pierce's "Favorite Prescription." Safe in its action it is a blessing, especially to women and to men, too, for when women suffer, the household is askew.

Miss Elizabeth S. Durrell of Dover, prominent in religious circles, died Aug. 25th, in the 82d year of her age. She was a daughter of the late Congressman Durrell, judge of the New Hampshire court of common pleas, and sister of Judge Edward H. Durrell, United States judge in New Orleans during the war of the rebellion. Miss Durrell was a very liberal contributor towards the support of the Unitarian churches in New Hampshire. She enjoyed excellent health up to the morning of her death.

"My physician said I could not live. My liver out of order, frequently vomited greenish mucous, skin yellow, small dry humors on face, stomach would not retain food. Burdock Blood Bitters cured me." Mrs. Adelaide O'Brien, 372 Exchange St., Buffalo, N. Y.

The Trefethen family had a reunion, clambake and chowder at Wallis' sands, Rye, Aug. 27th. The attendance was large, including a number from this city and Kittery.

Lung Troubles Promptly Cured.

Messrs. Editors:—"About three years ago my right lung became affected, and I then commenced taking Dr. Seth Arnold's Cough Killer. I used it about nine months and that lung has never troubled me since. Last summer I had a cold and it settled on my left lung; it got firmly seated, and I began to take Cough Killer again, now I don't cough at all."—H. W. Aldrich, Northbridge Centre, Mass.

The members of the Eastern Yacht club have received an invitation from the New York Yacht club to accept the privileges of their club house and steamer during the races for the America's cup, which occur off New York on Sept. 7th and 9th, and may possibly extend to the 11th. Ample provision has been made for the accommodation of the members, and they will have the best facilities for viewing the contest.

When I Was Sick!

My room looked like a drug store, I had so many bottles in it. The more I dosed, the worse off I was. Finally, I paid my doctor and told him he need n't come any more. I was troubled with Chronic Rheumatism, and couldn't get out of bed alone. Six bottles of Sulphur Bitters cured me.—Benj. Fitch, Adams House, Boston.

Comptroller Dunham has put his knife into the budget of the disbursing clerk of the Court of Commissioners of Alabama Claims, and the result is a disallowance of several salaries and a saving of quite a sum to be added to the amount from which claimants' judgments may be paid. One of the judges had his son on the roll as a clerk at $2000 salary. The offices seemed to have been filled with highly-paid incumbents for whose employment there was no legal provision.

"I have no appetite," complains many a sufferer. Hood's Sarsaparilla gives an appetite and enables the stomach to perform its duty.

ECZEMA

And Every Species of Itching and Burning Diseases Positively Cured.

ECZEMA, or Salt Rheum, with its agonizing itching and burning, instantly relieved by a warm bath with CUTICURA SOAP, and a single application of CUTICURA, the great Skin Cure, and repeated daily, with two or three doses of CUTICURA RESOLVENT, the New Blood Purifier, to keep the blood cool, the perspiration pure and unirritating, the bowels open, the liver and kidneys active, will speedily cure Eczema, Tetter, Ringworm, Psoriasis, Lichen Pruritus, Scald Head, Dandruff, and every species of Itching, Scaly, and Pimply Humors of the Scalp and Skin, when the best physicians and all known remedies fail.

Will McDonald, 2542 Dearborn St., Chicago, gratefully acknowledges a cure of Eczema or Salt Rheum on head, neck, face, arms, and legs for seventeen years; not able to walk except on hands and knees for one year; not able to help himself for eight years; tried hundreds of remedies; doctors pronounced his case hopeless; permanently cured by CUTICURA RESOLVENT (blood purifier) internally, and CUTICURA and CUTICURA SOAP (the great skin cures) externally.

Chas. Houghton, Esq., lawyer, 28 State St., Boston, reports a case of Eczema under his observation for ten years, which covered the patient's body and limbs, and to which all known methods of treatment had been applied without benefit, which was completely cured solely by the CUTICURA REMEDIES, leaving a clean and healthy skin.

Mr John Thiel, Wilkesbarre, Pa., writes: "I have suffered from Salt Rheum for over eight years, at times so bad that I could not attend to my business for weeks at a time. Three boxes of CUTICURA and four bottles RESOLVENT have entirely cured me of this dreadful disease."

Sold by all Druggists. Price: CUTICURA, 50c.; RESOLVENT, $1.00; SOAP, 25c. Prepared by the POTTER DRUG AND CHEMICAL CO., Boston, Mass.

BEAUTIFY the Complexion and Skin by using the CUTICURA SOAP.

"TIRED AND ACHING MUSCLES, crying through countless nerves for rest and relief." Like manna to the children of Israel is the CUTICURA PLASTER to the tired, overworked, aching muscles. Do not deny yourself the comfort afforded by this new, original and speedy antidote to pain and inflammation. At druggists, five for $1.00. Mailed free. POTTER DRUG AND CHEMICAL CO., Boston

Cholera, Cramps & Chills.

"An ounce of prevention," that is, a dose of SANFORD'S GINGER, "is worth a pound of cure," which, of course, means a doctor. It is absolutely certain that Cholera may be prevented, and, in the majority of cases, successfully treated, with SANFORD'S GINGER, a powerful stimulant, composed of Imported Ginger, choice Aromatics, and the best French Brandy; convenient, speedy, and safe; sure to check summer complaints, prevent indigestion, destroy disease germs in water drunk, restore the circulation when suspended by a chill, and ward off malaria, contagious, and epidemic influences. Ask for

SANFORD'S GINGER.

Cramps, Pains, Cholera Morbus, Diarrhœa, and Dysentery, whether produced by sudden exposure, impure water, unwholesome food, or change of climate, food or water, or any little ills of home or travel, such as Colds, Chills, Simple Fevers, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Sea-sickness, Exhaustion, Nervousness, Loss of Sleep, Debility and Dissipation, are instantly relieved by SANFORD'S GINGER, the safest, surest, and best summer medicine and travelling companion.

As a healthful summer drink with water, milk, iced water, lemonade, effervescent draughts and mineral waters, it is delicious.

Beware of worthless "gingers," said to be "as good," or "the same," or "as large," or "cheaper" than SANFORD'S GINGER. Ask for

Secures Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting one dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington. No Agency in the United States possesses superior facilities for obtaining Patents or ascertaining the patentability of inventions. R. H. EDDY, Solicitor of Patents.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHAS. MASON, Commissioner of Patents.

"Inventors cannot employ a person more trustworthy or more capable of securing for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE, late Commissioner of Patents.

BOSTON, October 19, 1870.

R. H. EDDY, Esq.—Dear Sir: You procured for me, in 1846, my first patent. Since then you have acted for and advised me in hundreds of cases, and procured many patents, reissues and extensions. I have occasionally employed the best agencies in New York, Philadelphia and Washington, but I still give you almost the whole of my business, in your line, and advise others to employ you.

Yours truly, GEORGE DRAPER.

Methods of Literary Work.

The public is always interested in the methods of work adopted by literary men. Occasionally Dickens talked confidentially to his readers, telling them how he "set about" his work, and how, during the hard labor of composition, ideas flirted with him, just keeping out of his way, sipping here and there like a humming bird. This is not the exact language which Mr. Dickens employed, but it suits my purpose just as well; and, I have no doubt, the great novelist, were he living, would accept my statement. Trollope was the most systematic of all the English novelists. Sitting down to his desk he would take out his watch and time himself. It was his custom to write so many words per minute. Should an idea caper around beyond his reach, thus causing him to fall behind his usual number of words, he would hastily shut out the idea and put down the words anyway. By following this vigorous method he was, during a long life, enabled to write a great many words. While looking over one of his books the other day I found it to be almost full of words, but remembering how earnestly he had worked, I was not in the least surprised.

Thackeray had no literary system. He only wrote when he felt like it. Sometimes he could not even write, "Please send three bottles of wine and charge them to me." Then, again, he could sit down and write so rapidly that he would keep three sheets in the wind all the time. While he was editor of an agricultural publication—the Cornhill Magazine, if I mistake not—he never succeeded in getting copy enough ahead for more than five issues. In this negligence he fell far behind some of our magazine editors. They always have bundles of copy on hand. My grandfather, when he was quite a young man, wrote an article for a leading American magazine. The other day a letter came for him, and, as he died many years ago, I took the liberty of opening the communication. The letter read as follows:

DEAR SIR—We have accepted your article, "The Romance of a Grindstone; or, the Chicken That Had Two Heads," and we are pleased to inform you that it will appear at an early day.

George Eliot was a hard worker, and like many gifted writers she was often tempted to burn at night the lines she had written during the day.

Carlyle was similarly tempted and it is to be regretted that the great growler, in many instances, did not carry out the design. George Eliot, like Queen Anne, liked to work in the shade of the trees. I will here remark that I know nothing of Queen Anne's habits. It was Elizabeth who was fond of working in the shade; but as this fact has been so often used by writers who are struggling for reputation, I disregard Elizabeth and take up Anne. I would say more of George Eliot's methods, but the truth is I don't know anything to say—that is, I cannot add anything to the elaborate memoirs recently brought out by a man who knew the novelist quite intimately.

Wilkie Collins makes the skeleton of a novel and then proceeds to put the flesh on it. He is the greatest plotter that ever lived. He has never created a truly great character, but his stories are full of thrilling pitfalls into which the reader lunges. I hear that he eats morphine. I do not know of a more unhealthful diet. Corn bread and salt pork form an annoying diet, but morphine is much worse. I have a friend who wanted to write a dreamy article. He took a dose of morphine and went to work. The article was never finished. Collins has doubtless done his best work. If he should, in the future, do better work than he has done in the past, I can very easily revise this assertion.—Opie P. Read, in N. Y., Mercury.

Teeth and Tail.

In the Zoological Gardens there was an otter that had a couple of young ones. One day these young ones got into the pond and were quite unable to climb up the perpendicular sides. The mother appeared anxious to get them out, and made several useless attempts to reach them from the side of the pond. She then plunged into the water, and, after playing with one of them for a short time, she put her head close to its ear, as if to make it understand her intention, and then sprang out of the pond, while the young one clung tightly by its teeth to her tail. And then, having landed it, she forthwith rescued the other one in the same manner.—London Globe.

Fight Between A Man and his Dog.

Mr. Charles Shultas, before leaving his home on Logan street, last night, says a Louisville telegram to the New York Sun, untied his bull-dog and allowed him the freedom of the yard. Between 10 and 11 o'clock he returned. As he entered the gate the dog began to growl at him. Mr. Shultas spoke to the brute, but the dog continued to growl in a menacing manner. His owner then struck him with a light cane. As soon as he did this the dog made a leap at Mr. Shultas' throat, and then seized him by the arm and began tearing the flesh. Man and brute then began a desperate fight. The two had fought for probably ten minutes when Mr. Shultas managed to get his hand into his pocket and draw his knife, the blade being two and a half inches long. He stabbed the dog a number of times in the breast before he showed any signs of weakening. At length he felt the brute's hold on him give way and then let go. The animal dropped to the ground dead. Mr. Shultas then went into the house and awakened the family. He found that he had been bitten badly about the arms and neck and also in the right leg.

Full of Peril

Are those disorders which, beginning with an apparently trivial inactivity of the kidneys or bladder, tending to Bright's disease, diabetes and cystitis. The first two not only interrupt the functions of the renal organs, but destroy their structure with as much certainty as tubercular consumption does that of the lungs. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is an excellent diuretic, promoting the activity of these organs without over exciting them, thus averting the deadly maladies to which their inaction is so prone to culminate. The removal from the blood of impurities which the kidneys should, but do not, when inactive, secrete, is another beneficent effect of this incomparable medicated stimulant and depurent. The Bitters is, in all cases, too, a fine restorative of vigor and aid to digestion, remedies malarial disease, and banishes liver complaint and constipation.

It is said that Walt Whitman's royalties on his publications amounted to less than $50 last year.

Pessimist and Optimist.

How very different conclusions different persons can draw from the same premises is illustrated by the following extracts from two prominent journals in regard to the likelihood of the sloop yacht Puritan defeating the British cutter yacht Genesta, should the Puritan be assigned to that attempt.

The New York Graphic is confident that no American yacht stands a ghost of a chance with the Briton, and expresses itself as follows:

The American yachtsmen will have to do better than they did yesterday if they are to prevent the Englishmen from carrying the American cup home with them. The race of yesterday was sailed by the Puritan under the most favorable conditions. She had just the breeze she wanted, and not an accident happened to her during the race. Her record of yesterday, therefore, may be said to show her best time. Her time for the whole race averaged seven minutes to the mile.

We have carefully computed the speed of the Genesta from the records of races which she won last summer, and find that her average speed is one mile in five minutes. She is, therefore, two minutes faster than the Puritan—a difference so great that no improvement in handling and no alteration to the Puritan can possibly make it up.

Had the Genesta raced yesterday she would have beaten the Puritan one hour and twenty minutes. It is, therefore, impossible to see how the Genesta is to be beaten.

Per contra, the Providence Journal is not a bit afraid, and marches out with the following chip on its shoulder:

If we beat the Genesta the Galatea will offer a challenge for the America's cup. But in the language of the noble Briton, "One down, t'other come on." It will cost more than one spinnaker boom and maintopsail ere the trophy is carried back to England.

Apparently Run Away.

New Hampshire railroad circles are considerably exercised over the action of Ex-President Sherburne of the Northern railroad in his recent apparent effort to avoid making a deposition relative to his connection with the Sullivan County railroad sale, concerning which a suit is now pending. When the commissioners appointed to take the deposition arrived in London as per agreement with Mr. Sherburne, they received a letter from him written at Paris, saying that because of his poor health he would be obliged to start for Switzerland the next day. This peculiar course, just at that time, has very naturally excited very much unfavorable comment, and not a few believe that he knows more about the Sullivan railroad sale than he cares to tell. His friends, on the other hand, while not attempting to explain his conduct, are disposed to believe that he had most excellent reasons therefor, and that the same will in due time be made public by him.

Police Lieutenant Mike Mullen, of Cincinnati, the scoundrel who was recently pardoned out of jail by President Cleveland, has been reinstated in his old position on the Cincinnati police force. He will now be all ready to lock up another hundred or two of republican voters the night before election, and keep them locked up until after the polls are closed, when he can turn them out without trial, or bringing any charge at all against them, being assured that if again convicted he will be again pardoned by our "reform" president.

WE DO NOT CLAIM

that HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA will cure everything, but the fact that on the purity and vitality of the blood depend the vigor and health of the whole system, and that disease of various kinds is often only the sign that nature is trying to remove the disturbing cause, we are naturally led to the conclusion that a remedy that gives life and vigor to the blood, eradicates scrofula and other impurities from it, as HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA undoubtedly does, must be the means of preventing many diseases that would occur without its use; hence the field of its usefulness is quite an extended one, and we are warranted in recommending it for all derangements of the system which are caused by an unnatural state of the blood.

Why Suffer with Salt-Rheum?

MESSRS. C. I. HOOD & Co., Lowell, Mass.

Gentlemen—I was a great sufferer from Salt-Rheum on my limbs, for a dozen years previous to the summer of 1878, at which time I was cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla. The skin would become dry, chap, crack open, bleed and itch intensely, so that I could not help scratching, which of course made them worse. At the time I commenced taking Hood's Sarsaparilla (in the summer of 1878) they were so bad that they discharged, and I was obliged to keep them bandaged with linen cloths. The skin was drawn so tight by the heat of the disease that if I stooped over they would crack open and actually bring tears into my eyes. The first bottle benefited me so much that I continued taking it till I was cured. I used one box of Hood's Olive Ointment, to relieve the itching. Hoping many others may learn the value of Hood's Sarsaparilla and receive as much benefit as I have, I am,

Very truly yours,

Clear.

MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS.

In Board of Mayor and Aldermen, Aug. 27th, Mayor Eldredge in the chair.

Present the full board, except Ald. Magraw.

The records of the last meeting were read and approved.

The Common Council was in session, and the two boards met in convention to decide upon the award of the contract for building the north pond sewer. In accordance with the report and recommendation of the committee having the matter in charge, the bid of Richard D. Shanahan of Portland, Me., for $35,000, was accepted.

On the boards resuming separate sessions, under suspension of the rules a bill was passed providing for raising $18,000 on ten-year four per cent bonds, so much of the same as may be required, to be applied to paying for the sewer.

Charles H. Mendum's requests for permission to encumber Daniel street for building purposes, to remove a tree already partially dead, and for relay of sidewalk, were referred to the committee on streets.

H. F. Eldredge was granted leave to encumber Islington street for building purposes.

Benjamin Russell's request for relay of sidewalk, corner of Washington and Court streets, was referred to the committee on streets, with power.

The telephone company were granted leave to withdraw their request for permission to erect three more poles in the streets, one of them on Market square.

J. H. Morrison's request for relay of sidewalk on Islington street, was referred to the committee on streets, with power.

Herbert L. Cate was appointed special police without pay at the custom house.

Petition of John S. Treat and others for widening and straightening Creek street, was laid on the table.

Committee of police reported revised rules for the department, which were adopted, and Ozro J. Hobbs was elected captain of the night watch under the new rules.

In convention, the councils elected Andrew B. Sherburne, Charles W. Norton and Joseph W. Bell as fish and game commissioners.

In board of aldermen, resumed, James McCarthy was elected police officer to fill the vacancy caused by the promotion of Ozro J. Hobbs.

An ordinance in relation to the removal of night-soil, sent up from the common council, was referred to the committee on bills on their second reading. It prohibits such removal during June, July and August.

Bonds of police officers and city treasurer were accepted.

Ald. Cook reported that complaints were made concerning the manner in which public travel was interfered with at the railroad crossing on Market street, and the matter was referred to the mayor.

Levi Moulton, agent, was granted leave to withdraw his bill of $16.50 for damages done by cattle from city farm.

The mayor reported that the city has no jurisdiction in the matter of the railroad filling in the channel under the Freeman's point bridge, that belonging to the state.

Adjourned for two weeks.

MARITIME NOTES.

The case of Solon S. Andrews of Biddeford against Capt. Josiah M. Aderton of Kittery, master of the schooner Satellite of Bath, and against the owners of the schooner, for damages caused by a collision of the schooner on the morning of April 28th, 1882, with a drill-platform over Gangway rock in Portsmouth harbor, Andrews having at the time a contract for removing a portion of the rock, has been settled. The first suit in this case, by Andrews against Aderton, was tried in the supreme judicial court for York county at Saco last January, and the jury returned a verdict for Aderton; Andrews appealed to the law term, but the case was never argued. Andrews then brought suit in the United States district court against the schooner only, Capt. Aderton not being included; the schooner was seized while at Portsmouth bridge, and bonded by her owners. This time the case was decided in favor of Andrews, and from this decree an appeal was taken to the United States circuit court; but this appeal, like the other, has been dropped, the owners of the Satellite having settled the matter with Andrews out of court.

The schooner J. H. Butler, from Rockland with a cargo of lime ashes, arrived at this port Aug. 26th. The British schooners C. U. Chandler and Berma, from Moncton, N. B., with ties to the Boston & Maine railroad; also the Loella, Amee master, from Rockland with lime for Dover, and the Lizzie Guptill, from Rockland with lime to the Concord railroad, were among the arrivals Aug. 27th.

The United States ship Galena, Comdr. Kane, arrived in the lower harbor and anchored about three o'clock P. M. on Thursday, having left Bar Harbor the day previous. The Tennessee came out of Bar Harbor at the same time, bound to the New York navy yard, where she is to be put in order for the winter cruise; the Alliance proceeded to Norfolk, Va. The Galena is in need of repairs, which will be made at this station.

RAILROAD EXCURSION.

There will be an excursion to Alton Bay campmeeting, via Dover, from Portsmouth on Sunday, August 30th. Train leaves at 8:30 A. M.; fare only $1.85 for the round trip.

NAVY YARD ITEMS.

All the apprentices in the several departments of the navy yard were set to work on Wednesday, Aug. 26th.

We clip the following from the Boston Post: "It is said that the results of the competitive examinations for appointment as foremen of shops at the Washington navy yard show that the present incumbents are in every instance better qualified than the outsiders who applied for the positions."

Remember, this is the day of the grand entertainment at Franklin theatre—Mrs. Jarley's Wax Works, Mother Goose play, and the delightful comedy "No cure, no pay." Curtain rises at three o'clock for the matinee, and at eight for the evening performance.

The Floy Crowell dramatic company will this evening present "Forget-me-not."

Michael McIsaacs, a telephone lineman, fell from a pole at Powderhouse hill on Thursday, and was considerably injured.

The alarm of fire rung in from box No. 26, on Thursday about 1:50 o'clock, was caused by the burning of some rubbish in a garden on Water street, near the south bridge.

The steamer Ems, from New York for Hamburg, passed the Lizard on Thursday, 22d inst. Hon. F. Jones and Mr. Josiah H. Morrison took passage on this steamer.

Mr. Charles F. Shillaber and wife, formerly of this city, now of Little Rock, Ark., are on a visit to their former home.

George Parsons, a dory fisherman of Rockport, Mass., caught a sea turtle that weighed 600 pounds on Wednesday, Aug. 26th. This was very likely one of the school that tried to climb into Capt. Zach Randall's boat.

MEDICAL NOTICE!

DRS. JORDAN & JACQUES,

Principals of the Parisian and Scientific Institution and Museum of Anatomy, 591 and 595 Washington St., Boston, Mass.,

And Authors of the well-known Medical Work

Philosophy of Marriage,

Wish to inform their patients and those desirous of consultations, that one of the firm is now in Portsmouth, N. H., and can be consulted at

20 Congress St., Portsmouth, N. H.,

From August 26th to September 5th only.

Having for many years made a specialty of all diseases of men, cases of Nervous and Physical Debility, Exhausted Vitality and General Functional Arrangements, can ensure those consulting them a speedy, safe and permanent cure.

The Medical Times says:—This system differs from all others in general use, and recommends itself to the sufferer as the only sure source of relief. Many cases pronounced incurable, have yielded successfully to the remedies employed by them.

Drs. Jordan & Jacques' Medical Work,

Philosophy of Marriage,

being eight highly important lectures delivered at the Museum of Anatomy, showing how health is lost and regained, and giving a clear synopsis of the impediments to marriage and the treatment of nervous diseases can be had on application for 25 cents.

☞ Office Hours: 9 A. M. to 1 P. M., and 6 to 8 P. M., at

20 CONGRESS ST.

Portsmouth, N. H., from Aug. 26th to Sept. 5th.

Residence and Office 19 Joy St., Boston, Mass.

The game of base ball at the Plains this afternoon, between the Granite States and the Red Stockings, of this city, will be called at 2:30 o'clock.

Postmaster Gerrish has received notice from the postmaster general that Portsmouth has been made a special delivery office. He also has a list of the special delivery offices of the country, which will be posted shortly for the information of the public. The stamp, however, does not come into use until Oct. 1st.

The Salem Telegram announces, on the authority of General Manager Furber, that the Flying Yankee train is not to be transferred to the Western Division of the Boston & Maine railroad unless the Lynn people get an order from the railroad commissioners requiring all trains to stop at Lynn.

The Portsmouth correspondent of the Manchester Union writes that paper that "The recent prosecutions for the violation of the lobster law seem to have had an extremely salutary effect. The catching of lobsters has ceased, none of the fishermen caring to expose themselves to the heavy penalty provided by the law. It was necessary that some steps should be taken, for the law had been treated most contemptuously, and been continually and openly violated."

During the heavy thunder shower which prevailed throughout Massachusetts, New Hampshire and Maine early in the morning on Saturday, Aug. 22d, the house of Eben Emmons, on the west side of the river at Kennebunkport, was struck by lightning. Besides causing considerable damage to the dwelling, and killing a cat, it struck the bed upon which Mr. Emmons and wife were lying, splitting the head board, and taking a six-inch piece from the foot of a post. Mrs. Emmons was quite seriously stunned by the shock, but her husband was relieved from the irritating and burning feeling which for some time has been attendant upon his much-swollen dropsical legs.

The new Maine law for the protection of lobsters is a source of much annoyance to the rich cottagers of Bar Harbor, Mt. Desert, who consider this crustacean a great luxury. As the law allows each person to catch what he requires for his own use, each cottager there purchases a lobster pot, and thus, with some inconvenience, procures the favorite dish.

CUCUMBERS AND WATERMELONS.

Cucumbers and watermelons are tabooed by thousands who fear to eat them, not because they have ever experienced a single pang that can be truthfully traced to them, but because some one had pronounced them injurious.

What more appetizing on a hot day than a freshly sliced cucumber, hard, cold, crisp, temptingly served on cracked ice?

Or what more refreshing to the irritated and parched mucous system on a sultry day than a cold, ripe, luscious, black-eyed watermelon?

And that all may enjoy them, as well as all other vegetables and fruits, in their season, we affirm that SANFORD'S GINGER is sure to check every disturbance of the bowels, instantly relieve cramps and pains, prevent indigestion, and destroy disease germs in water drunk. Ask for,

SANFORD'S GINGER

The Delicious Summer Medicine.

SANFORD'S GINGER is prepared with the utmost skill from Imported Ginger, Choice Aromatics, and the purest and best of Medicinal French Brandy, from the world-renowned vintners, Messrs. Otard, Dupuy & Co., Cognac, rendering it vastly superior to all other "Gingers," all of which are made with common alcohol, impregnated with fusil oil and strengthened with cayenne pepper.

Unripe fruit, impure water, unhealthy climate, unwholesome food, Malaria, Epidemic and Contagious Diseases, Cholera Morbus, Cramps, Pains, Indigestion, Colds, Chills, Simple Fevers, Exhaustion, Nervousness or Loss of Sleep that beset the traveller or household at this season, are nothing to those protected by SANFORD'S GINGER.

Beware of worthless "Gingers" said to be as good as SANFORD'S. Ask for

The telegraph brings information of a horrible tragedy in Blanco county, Texas, where Al. Lockie, an old citizen of Johnson City, walked about with a Winchester rifle and a bowie knife, and killed seven persons. He then cut his own throat, but was captured, and at last accounts was still alive.

The great popular remedy of the day for coughs, colds, asthma, and all lung difficulties, is Adamson's Botanic Balsam. Inexpensive, reliable, pleasant to take, cures as by magic, and gives universal satisfaction. A trial is the best testimonial. Price 35 and 75 cents. Trial size 10 cents.

Great damage was done at Charleston, S. C., by the cyclone of Aug. 25th, to the wharves and shipping. Most of the church steeples were blown down; churches, schoolhouses and other lofty buildings unroofed; the total loss being estimated at $1,125,000.

They Have Never Failed!

I have been sick more or less for the last ten years, which has cost me many dollars in doctors and druggists' bills. The last two years it only cost me three dollars. Why? Because I used Sulphur Bitters instead of employing doctors. They cured me of Jaundice.—F. F. Boyd, Hoboken.

At Laredo, Texas, Aug. 24th, a company of soldiers brought in five bandits who were captured twelve miles south of that place after a desperate fight. There were eight bandits when attacked, but the soldiers killed three. Two soldiers were dangerously wounded. One of the bandits slain was only eighteen years old, but is said to have killed six persons in his career of robbery.

Advice to Mothers.

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? If so, send at once and get a bottle of Mrs Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers, there is no mistake about it. It cures dysentery and diarrhœa, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures wind colic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female nurses and physicians in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price 25 cents a bottle. cedjan29,85

SULPHUR BITTERS

THE BEST AND GREATEST MEDICINE

It will drive the Humor from your system, and make your skin clean and smooth. Those which mar your beauty are caused by impure blood, and can be removed in a short time, if you are wise and use the great blood purifier.

SULPHUR BITTERS. Pimples and Blotches. Why suffer with Boils? Why have terrible Headaches? Why Rheumatism? Why are you pale and weak? Why Dyspepsia? Why feel dull and sluggish? Because your Blood is not pure. Why are your Nerves so easily unstrung? Because your system is poisoned with the dead matter which should have been expelled by the Bowels. Why are your Bowels so costive? Because your Liver is torpid. Why are you troubled with Fever and Ague? Because your system is filled with Malaria, and needs a gentle stimulant to assist the Liver in expelling the poisonous matter. Why are your Kidneys so weak? Because they are clogged with the dead matter which should have been expelled by the Bowels. Why are you troubled with Dropsy, Rheumatism, Gout, Erysipelas, Salt Rheum, Scaly Skin, Blotches, Boils, Pimples, Tetter, Ringworm, Scald Head, Sore Eyes, Sore Ears, Sore Throat, Mercurial Disease, Old Sores, Ulcers, Mercury in the bones, Syphilitic Blood Poisons, Scrofula, Consumption, Fever and Ague, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Jaundice, Kidney Complaint,

Health Regulations.

THE BOARD OF HEALTH OF THE CITY OF PORTSMOUTH call the attention of the public to the following sections of Chapter 10 of the City Ordinances and invite all interested in the preservation of health in the city to aid them in the execution of their duty.

CHAPTER X.

Sec. 3. All waste water of houses, yards, cellars, sinks, pumps, &c., shall be conveyed by their owners or occupiers to the common sewers, or to such places as the health officers may direct.

Sec. 4. No person shall be allowed to throw any vegetable or dead animal substance or any other matter capable of producing infection, into any street, lane, alley or dock, or upon any wharf, but shall bury them or throw them into the river, below low-water mark.

Sec. 5. The contents of vaults and privies shall not be permitted to rise within one foot of the surface of the earth. And all owners or occupiers of buildings having such vaults or privies as may require it, shall cause them to be emptied within ten days from the promulgation of this ordinance, and in future on or before the first day of May in each year. And any such owner or occupier neglecting so to do, shall forfeit and pay for every such neglect a sum not less than three nor more than twenty dollars, and a like sum for every week's neglect after the time above specified.

Sec. 6. No vender of meat at the stalls shall be permitted to leave any stale meat, heads, feet or offal of any kind about their stalls or stores over night, or suffer them to be thrown into any street, lane or alley of the city. Nor shall any seller of fish be permitted to throw any offal of fish into any street, lane or alley of the city, or upon any wharf, but shall bury them or throw them into the river below low-water mark.

Sec. 7. If any dead animal or decaying vegetable substance, or

Fall of Peril

Are those disorders which, beginning with an apparently trivial inactivity of the kidneys or bladder, terminates in Bright's disease, diabetes and cystitis. The first two not only interrupt the functions of the renal organs, but destroy their structure with as much certainty as tubercular consumption does that of the lungs. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is an excellent diuretic, promoting the activity of these organs without over exciting them, thus averting the deadly maladies in which their inaction is so prone to culminate. The removal from the blood of impurities which the kidneys should, but do not, when inactive, secrete, is another beneficent effect of this incomparable medicated stimulant and depurent. The Bitters is, in all cases, too, a fine restorative of vigor and aid to digestion, remedies malarial disease, and banishes liver complaint and constipation.

At Bradford, Pa., Aug. 27th, an explosion of 3000 pounds of nitro-glycerine at Roberts & Sons' factory completely wrecked the building and shook houses for miles around. Two employes were thrown some distance, but miraculously escaped with a few slight bruises. The loss will reach several thousand dollars.

Are traitors, and make us lose the good we oft might win by fearing to attempt. Let no man therefore suffer from prejudice and refuse to try, when needing it, the G. O. Taylor Bourbon or Pure Rye bottled exclusively by Dr. Graves & Sons, Boston. Their superiority to ordinary brands of whiskies will be found immediately. Grocers and druggists have them.

For sale by the bottle or case by John Laighton, Portsmouth, N. H.

At Toulon, France, all the theatres have closed and the hotels and shops are closing. The people are despondent. Twelve new cases of cholera and six deaths from the disease were reported at Salon, Aug. 27th. Several deaths from cholera have occurred at Lancon, Cornillon, St. Chau, Champa, Graus and Boune. At Boune a member of the chamber of deputies and the mayor of the town have died of the disease.

"God's Blessing to suffering humanity," is what a clergyman of Clay City, Ind., says of Dr. Graves' Heart Regulator as a cure for heart disease; he recommends it to all afflicted. He knows its value. $1.00 per bottle.

The New York newspapers have treated the Puritan and her friends very handsomely, and show not the faintest sign of jealousy because of the choice of the Boston yacht as the Genesta's competitor.

The Voice of the People.

The people, as a whole, seldom make mistakes, and the unanimous voice of praise which comes from those who have used Hood's Sarsaparilla, fully justifies the claims of the proprietors of this great medicine. Indeed, these very claims are based entirely on what the people say Hood's Sarsaparilla has done for them. Read the abundant evidence of its curative powers, and give it a fair, honest trial.

Unreasonable Criticisms.

Some reputable newspapers are inclined to make a little political capital because in a western state a prohibition candidate for governor has been found to have indulged in an occasional tonic known as ale. The papers in question seem to forget that commonly a prohibition candidate is run at the expense of and to consummate the wishes of some ambitious democratic candidate, who needs the help of a third ticket to beat his opponent by drawing off votes from the republicans. It would be utterly unreasonable to require such accomodating candidates as many of these prohibition politicians have proved themselves to be, to practice temperance while they pretend prohibition. They run as prohibition candidates for a purpose, and to ignore the great staple of democracy simply because they are running a prohibition canvass is expecting too much. Men who are in the market with their politics cannot be expected to be above reproach in their morals.

Jacob H. Thompson, Esq., exchange editor of the New York Times, was in this city on Thursday last, and paid a flying visit to the sanctum of the Chronicle, where he formerly wielded the editorial quill before striking out for a wider field of usefulness. We also had a very pleasant call on Friday from Mr. Roscoe E. Collins, editor and publisher of the Merrimack Journal of Franklin Falls, N. H.,—a gentleman who knows how to get out a live paper, and does it. But we wish our brethren would let us into the secret of how they manage to get away from their duties two or three days at a time, every four or five years; we have never been able to compass such frivolity.

There was a frost in the low lands in this vicinity, on both sides of the river, on Thursday night, but no great damage was done to crops.

J. Warren Pryor, formerly quartermaster joiner on the navy yard under the late foreman, Jas. F. Brooks, went on the yard again in the same capacity on Friday, Aug. 28th. Edwin Lowd went on as a blacksmith's helper, Thomas J. F. Varrell as sparmaker, and B. Franklin Martin as a blockmaker. All these gentlemen except the one last-named are, or were not long ago, republicans.

The brick schooners Gold Hunter, G. W. Ralit and Hattie Lewis, from this port, and schooner Gulnare, from York, arrived at Boston on Friday, Aug. 28th.

W. H. Emery, late draughtsman in the construction department at the yard, and who was ordered to Chester, Penn., has resigned his position.

Very many persons want Gen. Grant's book—the real one, written by the death-stricken hero in the last months of his life. Mr. M. E. Batchelder will next week commence the canvass of this city with the work. Subscribers should see that they get the "Personal Memoirs of U. S. Grant," and not one of the many imitations which are now being offered for sale.

Still Increasing.

BOSTON, August 28th.—The extraordinary increase in the circulation of the Boston Sunday Globe still continues, and thousands of people who have just begun to take it pronounce it the best in the country.

E. P. Roe's New Story.

BOSTON, August 28th.—A novel by Rev. E. P. Roe always has an immense sale. His books always run up to 75,000 or 100,000. His last new novel is one of the best. It is entitled "Doing Better," and will be printed complete in the Sunday Globe to-morrow, with handsome illustrations. File your order for the Globe in advance.

CAN SUCH THINGS BE?

A painful story is going around to the effect that a man recently appointed to a position on the navy yard paid the foreman in his department thirty dollars, and a noted democratic politician of Kittery another thirty, to secure the appointment. Reform is necessary.

SCROFULA.

A remedy that can destroy the germs of scrofula, and when once settled has the power to root it out, must be appreciated by those afflicted. The remarkable cures of young children and the more wonderful cures of those of middle age and late in life, as illustrated by our printed testimonials, prove HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA to be a reliable remedy, containing remedial agents which do positively cure scrofula and eradicate it from the blood.

FARMER, N. H., Jan. 21, 1879.

MESSRS. C. I. HOOD & CO., Lowell, Mass.: Gentlemen—For ten years previous to the early part of 1877 I had been a constant sufferer from scrofulous ulcers or sores, which had finally reduced me to a helpless condition, as described in my letter to you in September of that year. The continued excellent health which enables me to keep house for my aged father and to enjoy life, keeps alive my intense personal interest in HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA, and I cannot refrain from expressing my gratitude for the permanent cure this wonderful medicine effected in my case nearly two years ago, while living in Lowell, when all my physicians gave me up as being in an incurable condition. One thing before I close. I have recommended four Sarsaparilla to hundreds, and I think more than a thousand cases, and my faith in its invincibility in curing scrofula has become absolute by the wonderful cures it has effected aside from my own. I trust you will not be slow in making the merits of HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA known everywhere, for it is a duty you owe to mankind. With best wishes I remain very truly yours,

SARAH C. WHITTIEF

THE WEATHER.

For New England to-day:—

Generally fair, slightly warmer weather.

The Thermometer at the CHRONICLE Office, at 4:00 o'clock this morning, indicated 42 degrees above zero.

Clear.

REPAIRS OF NAVAL VESSELS.

The secretary of the navy has discovered that the Tennessee needs extensive repairs before she can be sent on her winter cruise. The machinery must be put in good condition; the tropical heat of the region of Central America has opened her seams and she needs re-caulking, painting, and like the democratic party, an occasional new plank here and there. By a singular circumstance the Tennessee goes to New York for these repairs.

True, there are many vessels now being repaired at the New York navy yard, and work could be done at Boston far more expeditiously, but we presume we disclose no secret when we state that there is no object just now to muster any considerable number of democratic votes in Massachusetts. Even Gen. Butler, who is to be a violent Cleveland man should he desire to run for any office in the Bay State hereafter, seems to see that it is no use to waste time over the Massachusetts election this fall. But in New York a democratic vote means something. If Mr. Kelly is to continue to be in ill health and to take no interest just now in politics; if the democracy of the Empire City are a little off color on account of what they consider an unfortunate deal in regard to the offices, then the navy yard must be worked for all it is worth. New York and Brooklyn elected Mr. Cleveland; why should Kittery and Portsmouth have any patronage just now? Later on we may succeed in being heard from.

The Chronicle told Mr. Whitney the other day, that crowding all the ships into New York on the eve of an election might afford some inquisitive republican like Mr. Reed an opportunity for remark. Acting upon our suggestion the Galena comes to this station, just to keep a few people quiet. But the boys are glad to see even a small ship come to the yard, while the Tennessee and Alliance sail by to be overhauled elsewhere. The boys know that the Chronicle will always be on the look out for a fair divide, and if the democrats who expect to be "taken on" are to have a fair share of work it will be because we shall champion their cause, while the representative of the treasury department who conducts the democratic organ can hardly be expected to make much of a contest with the navy department, as he will have all he can attend to in supporting the administration without firing a single gun in behalf of the navy yard workmen, a species of warfare for which his predecessor was so celebrated in his results.

A SUGGESTION.

The Penny Post complains that persons coming from the Maine side over the Portsmouth bridge are much annoyed by frequent crowding of the railway crossings by engines, blowing off steam, and coal cars backing and filling. There is no doubt that Portsmouth has lost the trade of many who would come here were it not for this annoyance on the trip. It is not unfrequently the case that ladies in from York drive to the ferry in Kittery and have their horses cared for at Bartlett's stable, and cross the river by the boats, rather than take the risks of passing over the bridge. Sometimes we have thought that possibly a police officer stationed at the Market street end of the Noble's island bridge would be of great service to drivers of carriages and heavy teams, unless the guardian would be apt to too frequently step into the adjacent refreshment cafes in that neighborhood "to see a man." There is a chance here for the new mayor to inaugurate a reform,—we mean as to the incumbrance of the streets; not the saloons,—oh! no.

A GOOD SELECTION.

The city fathers did well on Thursday evening last, in selecting Ozro J. Hobbs as captain of the night watch. Mr. Hobbs has always been as efficient an officer as the law-abiding public could demand, striving conscientiously to do his full duty without fear or favor; and believe his appointment as captain of the watch will prove one eminently fit to be made, and of decided advantage to the discipline and efficiency of the force.

BLANEY'S CASE.

At Augusta, Me., Aug. 27th, the governor and council gave a hearing to the petitioners asking for a commutation of the sentence of Oscar E. Blaney of Kittery, under sentence of death with Mrs. Barrows for murdering Thomas E. Barrows in November, 1883. George B. Yeaton of South Berwick appeared for Blaney, and Attorney-General Baker and County Solicitor Higgins of York county for the state. Mr. Yeaton first urged the plea that Blaney was weak-minded; but did not take the position that he was sufficiently weak-minded to warrant acquittal. Blaney, he asserted, inherited his weak mind. The attorney general in reply stated that if the man had been weak-minded to such an extent it would have made an impression at the trial. But the chief and most telling point made by Mr. Yeaton was that Blaney had testified freely and fully in regard to the commission of the crime, and convicted Mrs. Barrows thereby, and that he is entitled by all principles of law to a mitigation of sentence or to a pardon. Many autorities were cited to show this. It had been implied in law for centuries that those giving evidence for the state should be rewarded. Mr. Baker in reply cited authorities showing that prosecuting officers of the government courts in other states had power when a prisoner gave state's evidence to suspend proceedings against him, and that in this case the court and Attorney-General Cleaves ought to have done so. A letter was received from Mr. Cleaves favoring clemency. No vote was taken by the council.

RAILROAD ACCIDENT.

At Dover, Aug. 28th, the Eastern Division passenger train leaving this city at 9:45 A. M. was struck at the third street crossing by a train from Boston over the Western Division. Both trains were late, the Portsmouth train ten minutes and the Boston eight. The Boston train struck the rear end of the Eastern smoker, breaking the pin connecting the smoker and the passenger cars, and throwing the latter from the track on their sides. All the passengers were rescued immediately, only one, a woman, getting any bruises. The locomotive had steam chest and valve broken. The flagman says the Western train was flagged, and the Eastern train had the right of way. Engineer Corey of the Eastern says the Western was flagged until his train got in.

BASE BALL.

The game of base ball between the reassembled Granite State club of 1879 and the Red Stocking club of to-day, at the Plains on Friday afternoon, was won by the Red Stockings by a score of twenty-four to eight. The former catcher of the Granite States was not present, and none of the other members could "hold" McGlinchy, the pitcher; and then Red Stockings play good ball, too, so Granite States say.

SUNDAY SERVICES.

There will be services at the North church to-morrow, Rev. E. W. Allen of Haverhill, Mass., supplying the pulpit.

Elder J. Denten of Newburyport will preach in the Advent church on Sunday.

Rev. C. D. Haines will preach in the Christian church to-morrow.

MEDICAL NOTICE!

DRS. JORDAN & JACQUES,

Principals of the Parisian and Scientific Institution and Museum of Anatomy, 591 and 593 Washington St., Boston, Mass.,

And Authors of the well-known Medical Work

Philosophy of Marriage,

Wish to inform their patients and those desirous of consultation, that one of the firm is now in Portsmouth, N. H., and can be consulted at

20 Congress St., Portsmouth, N. H.,

From August 20th to September 5th only.

Having for many years made a specialty of all diseases of men, cases of Nervous and Physical Debility, Exhausted Vitality and General Functional Arrangements, can ensure those consulting them a speedy, safe and permanent cure.

The Medical Times says:—This system differs from all others in general use, and recommends itself to the sufferer as the only sure source of relief. Many cases pronounced incurable, have yielded successfully to the remedies employed by them.

Drs. Jordan & Jacques' Medical Work,

Philosophy of Marriage,

Being eight highly important lectures delivered at the Museum of Anatomy, showing how health is lost and regained, and giving a clear synopsis of the impediments to marriage and the treatment of nervous diseases can be had on application for 25 cents.

MUSIC HALL.

Friday evening, by special request, the Atkinson & Cook Dramatic Co. repeated "Queen's Evidence," the play presented by them an Monday evening. The leading lady, Miss Floy Crowell, won the approval of the audience on her first appearance, and has steadily gained in favor ever since. This afternoon the sparkling comedy, "Child of the Regiment," will be given, and "Oliver Twist" this evening.

The enterprising manager has also made arrangements with Edward C. Stickney of this city, champion dumbbell lifter of the world, to give to-night an exhibition of his wonderful strength and skill in putting up heavy dumbbells on the stage, as an extra feature of the entertainment which the popular and successful company will offer for the entertainment of their patrons on this, the last evening of their present visit to Portsmouth.

There will be an excursion to Alton Bay campmeeting, via Dover, from Portsmouth on Sunday, August 30th. Train leaves at 8:50 A. M.; fare only $1.35 for the round trip.

Mrs. Frank Jones, Mrs. Leavitt, Mrs. J. Albert Walker, Misses Mabel Walker and Grace Sinclair were registered among the arrivals at the Strawberry Hill house at Bethlehem this week.

Mr. J. Herbert Seavey, of Dover, has purchased of A. L. Small and Charles C. Bearse of Barnstable, Mass., one thirty-second of the schooner B. Frank Nealley, of the Dover Navigation Co.'s fleet.

Among the Clouds informs us that Mr. Arthur G. Stedman ascended Mount Washington on Wednesday, Aug. 26th, walking up through Tuckerman's ravine.

Why Do We Eat Beans?

BOSTON, August 28th. — Thousands have always wondered why Boston and New England people always eat beans. The origin of this healthy custom will be given in a humorous way with illustrations in the Sunday Globe to-morrow. Do not fail to read it.

CUCUMBERS AND WATERMELONS.

Cucumbers and watermelons are tabooed by hosands who fear to eat them, not because they have ever experienced a single pang that can be truthfully traced to them, but because some one had pronounced them injurious.

What more appetizing on a hot day than a freshly sliced cucumber, hard, cold, crisp, temptingly served on cracked ice?

Or what more refreshing to the irritated and parched mucous system on a sultry day than a cold, ripe, luscious, black-eyed watermelon?

And that all may enjoy them, as well as all other vegetables and fruits, in their season, we affirm that SANFORD'S GINGER is sure to check every disturbance of the bowels, instantly relieve cramps and pains, prevent indigestion, and destroy disease germs in water drunk. Ask for

SANFORD'S GINGER

The Delicious Summer Medicine.

SANFORD'S GINGER is prepared with the utmost skill from Imported Ginger, Choice Aromatics, and the purest and best of Medicinal French Brandy, from the world-renowned vintners, Messrs. Otard, Dupuy & Co., Cognac, rendering it vastly superior to all other "Gingers," all of which are made with common alcohol, impregnated with fusil oil and strengthened with cayenne pepper.

Unripe fruit, impure water, unhealthy climate, unwholesome food, Malaria, Epidemic and Contagious Diseases, Cholera Morbus, Cramps, Pains, Indigestion, Colds, Chills, Simple Fevers, Exhaustion, Nervousness or Loss of Sleep that beset the traveller or household at this season, are nothing to those protected by SANFORD'S GINGER.

Health Regulations.

THE BOARD OF HEALTH OF THE CITY OF PORTSMOUTH call the attention of the public to the following sections of Chapter 10 of the City Ordinances and invite all interested in the preservation of health in the city to aid them in the execution of their duty.

CHAPTER X.

Sec. 3. All waste water of houses, yards, cellars, sinks, pumps, &c., shall be conveyed by their owners or occupiers to the common sewers, or to such places as the health officers may direct.

Sec. 4. No person shall be allowed to throw any vegetable or dead animal substance or any other matter capable of producing infection, into any street, lane, alley or dock, or upon any wharf, but shall bury them or throw them into the river below low-water mark.

Sec. 5. The contents of vaults and privies shall not be permitted to rise within one foot of the surface of the earth. And all owners or occupiers of buildings having such vaults or privies as may require it, shall cause them to be emptied within ten days from the promulgation of this ordinance, and in future on or before the first day of May in each year. And any such owner or occupier neglecting so to do, shall forfeit and pay for every such neglect a sum not less than three nor more than twenty dollars, and a like sum for every week's neglect after the time above specified.

Sec. 6. No vender of meat at the stalls shall be permitted to leave any stale meat, heads, feet or offal of any kind about their stalls or stores over night, or suffer them to be thrown into any street, lane or alley of the city. Nor shall any sellers of fish be permitted to throw any offal of fish into any street, lane or alley of the city, or upon any wharf, but shall either bury them or throw them into the river below low-water mark.

Sec. 7. If any dead animal or decaying vegetable substance, or any other nuisance, shall be found in any part of the city, the owners and occupiers of the premises where such nuisance shall be found, shall cause the same to be removed within twenty-four hours after being notified so to do by one or more of the health officers.

Sec. 12. When any householder shall know that any person within his family is taken sick of the small pox, or any other disease dangerous to the public health, he shall immediately give notice thereof to the health officers.

Sec. 13. When any physician shall know that any person whom he is called to visit is infected with the small pox, or any other disease dangerous to the public health, such physician shall immediately give notice thereof to the health officers.

Sec. 14. If any such householder or physician shall refuse or neglect to give the notice required in the preceding sections, he shall for each refusal or neglect forfeit the sum of twenty dollars, to be recovered by either of the health officers in the name of the city.

Sec. 16. The health officers may give written notice to the owner or occupier of any building, vessel or enclosure, to remove or destroy any nuisance or other thing deemed by them, on examination, to be injurious to the public health, within a certain time limited therein; and in case such owner or occupier—the said notice having been given to him, or left at his usual place of abode—shall neglect to comply therewith, the said health officers may, by direction of the mayor and accompanied by the city marshal forcibly enter such building, vessel or enclosure, and cause the nuisance or other thing aforesaid to be removed or destroyed.

Sec. 21. No person shall erect, keep or continue or permit to be erected, kept or continued, upon any land occupied by him, any pen for the keeping of swine, or privy, over either of the mill ponds in this city, or so placed that offensive substances therefrom shall be discharged or drained into either of said ponds, or into any creek, or cove or drain leading thereto. And no person shall construct, keep or continue any drain leading from any pen for the keeping of any swine, slaughter-house, privy vault, or other unwholesome or offensive place, into either of said ponds, or to any flat or marsh adjoining the same. And no person shall throw or suffer to be thrown from his land into either of said ponds, or upon any of said flats or marshes, any dead, decaying, unwholesome or offensive animal or vegetable substances.

We Caution All Against Them. The unprecedented success and merit of Ely's Cream Balm—a real cure for catarrh, hay fever and cold in the head—has induced many adventurers to place catarrh medicines bearing some resemblance in appearance, style or name upon the market, in order to trade upon the reputation of Ely's Cream Balm. Many in your immediate locality will testify in highest commendation of it. Don't be deceived. Buy only Ely's Cream Balm. A particle is applied into each nostril; no pain; agreeable to use. Price fifty cents, of druggists.

ECZEMA

And Every Species of Itching and Burning Diseases Positively Cured.

ECZEMA, or Salt Rheum, with its agonizing itching and burning, instantly relieved by a warm bath with CUTICURA SOAP, and a single application of CUTICURA, the great Skin Cure. This repeated daily, with two or three doses of CUTICURA RESOLVENT, the New Blood Purifier, to keep the blood cool, the perspiration pure and unirritating, the bowels open, the liver and kidneys active, will speedily cure Eczema, Tetter, Ringworm, Psoriasis, Itches Prurigo, Scald Head, Dandruff, and every species of Itching, Scaly, and Pimply Humors of the Blood and Skin, when the best physicians and all known remedies fail.

Will McDonald, 2542 Dearborn St., Chicago, gratefully acknowledges a cure of Eczema or Salt Rheum on head, neck, face, arms, and legs for seventeen years; not able to walk except on hands and knees for two years; not able to help himself for eight years; tried hundreds of remedies; doctors pronounced his case hopeless; permanently cured by CUTICURA RESOLVENT (blood purifier) internally, and CUTICURA and CUTICURA SOAP (the great skin cure) externally.

Chas. Houghton, Esq., lawyer, 28 State St., Boston, reports a case of Eczema under his observation for ten years, which covered the patient's body and limbs, and to which all known methods of treatment had been applied without benefit, which was completely cured solely by the CUTICURA REMEDIES, leaving a clean and healthy skin.

Mr John Thiel, Wilkesbarre, Pa., writes: "I have suffered from Salt Rheum for over eight years, at times so bad that I could not attend to my business for weeks at a time. Three boxes of CUTICURA and four bottles RESOLVENT have entirely cured me of this dreadful disease."

Sold by all Druggists. Price: CUTICURA, 50c.; RESOLVENT, $1.00; SOAP, 25c. Prepared by the POTTER DRUG AND CHEMICAL CO., Boston, Mass.

BEAUTIFY the Complexion and Skin by using the CUTICURA SOAP.

Don't Kiss in the Street.

An important new principle of law has just been established, says the San Francisco Chronicle, and that is that you must not kiss your girl in the street. For so doing, old John Mowatt, a white-haired septuagenarian, has just been fined $10 by a police judge in New York, and a similar fine was imposed on the lady he kissed. It appears that the kissing was in broad daylight, in Fourteenth street, and was actually repeated, until a virtuous policeman, shocked at such depravity, carried off both parties to the stationhouse and charged them with disorderly conduct. It was proved that the lady was a willing participant in the offense, and said that she let the old man kiss her "because she liked it." Old John Mowatt said she was his servant, and he loved her, and took that way of showing his affection. But the stern magistrate declared that Fourteenth street in daylight was no place for osculatory demonstrations, that such proceedings were calculated to inflame the passions of spectators, and that he could not tolerate them. The aged Lothario was accordingly compelled to pay his $20 and costs.

It is to be regretted that the full text of the judge's decision has not been given to the public. If all kissing in daylight in the street is disorderly it is well we should know it. Suppose John Mowatt had kissed his wife instead of his servant, would he have been liable all the same to arrest and fine? We all know that in the early days of Connecticut it was unlawful for a man to kiss his wife on Sunday, and there are cases in the early records of sentences for the offense—though, by the way, there is no case on record of a Connecticut Yankee being punished for kissing another man's wife, which, according to Palfrey, was a not uncommon incident. We take it for granted that at the present day a man may kiss his wife on Sunday, in the privacy of the nuptial chamber; but under the ruling of the Mowatt case, if the desire to indulge in such conjugal endearments seizes a man when he is out of doors, he had better retire into an alleyway to gratify it. The public morals must and shall be preserved. There is much, however, in this New York decision which will suggest that it be a pity it is not to be reviewed by some court of high jurisdiction. Can kissing—when no violence is used and the kissee is willing—be said to be "disorderly?" Sure all is not Rosalind knew of kissing that was "as full of sanctity as the touch of holy bread." How can we know that John Mowatt's was not of this kind? Then, again, don't kisses come pretty high in New York at $10 apiece? Zealous young ladies at fancy fairs for Sunday-school purposes have been known to sell a few kisses to a select circle of buyers, but the price seldom exceeds $5 apiece, with a round discount for taking a quantity. Would it not have been in order for Mowatt's counsel to move for a new trial on the ground of excessive damages, especially in view of the exceeding annoyance which the policeman's interruption of his flirtation must have caused him? We must say that New York ruling seems to us unnecessarily harsh. When Pyramus says to Thisbe: "Oh, kiss me through the hole in the vile wall!" and the blushing maiden standing on her tiptoes, replies: "I kiss the wall's hole, not your lips at all," no one but a coarse-minded person sees anything disorderly in the proceeding. On the contrary, the feeling among the audience always is that Wall should give the young lovers a better chance. Had there been a New York policeman around they would both have been arrested for disorderly conduct.

Men and Their Curiosity.

"In my room," relates Mr. Joly, the Canadian liberal, who was the guest of the duke of Westminster, "was a curious old-fashioned Swiss clock. Below it was a printed notice: 'Please do not touch.' The longer I looked at the clock the more I wondered at the reason for the strange request. Next day I ventured to ask my hostess the reason for the prohibition.

"'You are about the twentieth gentleman who has put the same question, and I find that you are just like the rest of your sex. Women are said to be proverbially curious. That label was put there to test the extent of the same weakness in men, and my experience is that men are just as curious as women. I keep a list of all the gentlemen who ask me the same question you have just put, and I find there is only one exception.'

"'Indeed,' I replied, 'and may I be permitted to ask who he was?'

"'He was Mr. Fawcett, the late postmaster general, and he, poor man, was blind.'"—New York Star.

Origin of the Fan.

The following pretty story gives the Chinese legend about the origin of the fan: "One evening, when the beautiful Kau Si, daughter of a powerful Chinese mandarin, was assisting at the great feast of lanterns, she was so overcome by the heat that she was obliged to take off her mask. But to expose her face to the eyes of the profane and vulgar was a serious offense against the law, so, holding the mask as closely as possible to her features, she rapidly fluttered it to give herself air, and the rapidity of the movement still concealed her. The other ladies present, witnessing this hardy but charming innovation, imitated it, and at once 10,000 hands were fluttering 10,000 masks. Thus the fan was evoked and took the place of the mask."

Thirty six persons died in London last year from starvation.

The Terrible Drain

Which scrofula has upon the system must be arrested, and the blood must be purified, or serious consequences will ensue. For purifying and vitalizing effects, Hood's Sarsaparilla has been found superior to any other preparation. It expels every trace of impurity from the blood, and bestows new life and vigor upon every function of the body, enabling it to entirely overcome disease.

Rev. Kinsman Atkinson, a Methodist minister living two miles out of Biddeford, went into his barn last Thursday morning to burn cobwebs off the flooring above the tie-up. The loft overhead was full of hay, which caught fire, and the barn and two-story house attached were entirely consumed. Mr. Atkinson barely escaped with his life, being badly burned about the head, shoulders and back. Loss, $2000; no insurance. The cobwebs were destroyed.

Any bad case of heart disease yields to the use of Dr. Graves' Heart Regulator. It has proved itself a cure for all forms. Give it a trial, it will do as well for you. $1.00 per bottle. Free pamphlet of F. E. Ingalls, Cambridge, Mass.

Dr. H. C. Lynch, of Sturgis, Dakota, was shot dead last week in his office by Coporal Ross Holts, of Company A, 25th United States Infantry, stationed at Fort Mead. The murderer was lynched next day by a mob.

Adjourned.

The New Hampshire house of representatives on Thursday last passed a bill providing for the taxation to mortgagees of the amount loaned on a mortgage of real estate, the owner to pay on the rest of the value. This will bring the western farm loans into market, and cause very many mortgage loans in the state to be called in. A more impolitic law, as far as relates to persons desirous of obtaining loans on their real estate, could not be devised. It will not work satisfactorily. All mortgages will now be made with a clause providing that the mortgagor pay the tax to the mortgagee if the latter is made to pay it. At least, capital will not be likely to be caught by this mode of taxation.

"Sweet Auburn" is not to be, at least for two years, a suburban ward of Manchester, the senate having postponed to the next session the bill to disannex the town from Rockingham county and make it a part of Manchester. The townspeople were nearly unanimously opposed to the plan of annexation, and only wanted to be let alone. The Manchester lobby carried the measure through the house, but the opposition seems to have had a solid thing in the senate. The alleged object of Manchester was that it might by its ordinances have a more efficient police control of the shores of Massabesic pond, whence Manchester obtains its drinking water.

The session of the legislature was brought to a close on the evening of Aug. 28th. A joint resolution was passed giving each legislative reporter $50. Speaker Aldrich was presented with a gold watch by the members of the house, and in addition the democratic members presented him with a gold-headed cane. The sergeant-at-arms, doorkeepers, clerks and pages were also remembered by handsome gifts.

At 10:44 A. M. on the 29th Gov. Currier sent a message adjourning both branches of the legislature till the last Wednesday of May, 1887. During the session just closed 215 bills and joint resolutions were passed and approved by the governor.

FISHING AT THE SHOALS.

The fishing at the Isles of Shoals,—the amateur fishing, that is,—was never better than this season, and is at its best now; cunners can be taken ad lib., and cod and other fish are unusually numerous and of large size. A guest at Appledore hauled in a forty-five pound cod one day last week, and brought to the surface a halibut which "must have weighed 200 lbs.," but which broke out the hook before a gaff could be driven into him. [Everyone must have remarked how big the fish are that get away.] The Appledore house will be kept open until Sept. 20th, and a liberal reduction in rates will be made.

The North church, which has been closed for several weeks, was opened last Sunday with preaching by Rev. Ephraim W. Allen of Haverhill, Mass. The church has been put in order during the recess. The auditory has been much improved by placing the commandments on the wall on the right of the pulpit, and the Lord's prayer on the other side. The work was done in a tasteful and ornamental manner by Capt. Edw. D. Coffin.

The estate at the corner of State and Summer streets, occupied as a parsonage by Rev. W. A. McGinley, has been enclosed with a handsome granite curb, the gift of a lady member of the North church.

Mrs. Annie P. Pruyn has requested permission to place a stained glass window in St. John's church, as a memorial of some of her relatives who were formerly members of St. John's parish. Mrs. Bruyn is now in England, and the asked-for permission has been sent to her at London. Several other persons, residents of this city, have also expressed a desire to put memorial windows in the church.

Conductor Robert A. Stott, of the Portsmouth & Dover railroad, was thrown ten feet and quite seriously hurt on Friday morning last, when his train was ran into at the junction in Dover by a train from Boston over the Western Division of the Boston & Maine road. Mr. Stott was on Saturday confined to his home under medical care, suffering considerably, and it was feared the full extent of his injuries had not been developed.

Commodore Charles H. Loring, chief of the bureau of steam engineering, was at the navy yard on Thursday of last week, and Commodore T. D. Wilson, chief of the bureau of construction, on Saturday.

The U. S. S. Galena came up from the lower harbor on Saturday forenoon, and took up a berth under the shears. Her crew will be transferred to the Constitution, while the needed repairs are being made.

Three schooners from York, Me., namely, the Gulnare, Nautilus, and John & Frank, arrived at Boston on Friday of last week.

The brick schooners Triton and Satellite arrived from Boston on Friday of last week, light, and the J. Chester Wood, G. W. Raitt, Estella, and Hattie Lewis on Saturday; and all proceeded up river to load.

Caleb B. Lord, Esq., formerly clerk of courts of York county, is dangerously ill at his residence in Alfred with Bright's disease.

Hon. Ichabod Cole has assumed the duties of a writer in the department of construction and repair on the navy yard, under Mr. J. E. Colcord, store clerk.

M. A. CAVANAUGH, Auctioneer.

While Mr. Hendricks thinks that Cleveland is not big enough for the presidency, he does not hesitate to say that he has the power to split the party and serve his own ambitious end in the management of the patronage. It is a great pity that these fellow democrats cannot have a proper Catholic spirit, and concede the honesty of the president and endorse his efforts to benefit the country even at the expense of the party. But such is not their idea of a president.

The Portland Advertiser says: "From appearances it is believed that a majority of the executive council are opposed to the commutation of Blaney's sentence. The members are divided. Judge Virgin has written a letter in which he advises clemency for Blaney, and asserts that he will give an opinion in the matter if the governor asks for it. The judge will probably be requested to furnish the opinion."

Mr. Nathaniel Dixon, who died quite suddenly in Kittery last week, had for over twenty years had charge of the cattle barn on the navy yard, and was as faithful an employe as the government ever had, always going on the yard at least twice a day, including Sundays, and in all sorts of weather, to attend to the needs of the dumb creatures under his care.

THE WONDER

Is becoming universal as to how such an immense sale could be created in Lowell for HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA. But, my friend, if you could stand behind our counter a week and hear what those say who are using it, the reason would appear as clear as the noon-day sun. The real curative power of HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA demonstrates itself in every case where our directions are faithfully regarded. We would that we might get before the people a fractional part of the confidence that is expressed to us every day in this medicine by those who have carefully noted (without prejudice) its effects upon the blood and through that upon the whole system, stimulating all the functions of the body to perform the duties nature requires of them. Try a bottle and satisfy yourself.

Cold Hands and Feet.

LOWELL, Feb. 3, 1879.

MESSRS. C. I. HOOD & CO.: Gentlemen—About one year ago my daughter commenced taking your Sarsaparilla. At that time she had very little appetite; could take no long walks, and her face was badly broken out with a humor. She was low-spirited; troubled with cold hands and feet; her blood seemed to be poor, and she was in a condition which caused us great anxiety. After taking one bottle of your Sarsaparilla she began to improve; and she now has a good appetite and can take much longer walks. Her humor is nothing compared with what it was one year ago. She is in better spirits, is not troubled with cold hands and feet as previously. All I attribute this improvement in her condition largely to your Sarsaparilla. She has taken six bottles, and intends to continue its use. I was inclined to oppose the trial of it at first. I now have great faith in it as a blood purifier. Very truly yours,

A. L. HINCKLEY,

THE WEATHER.

The Thermometer at the CHRONICLE Office, at 4:00 o'clock this morning, indicated 50 degrees above zero.

Cloudy.

A TRICKY GAS-LIGHT.

A couple of citizens were amused for half an hour or so on Saturday night about midnight, by the persistent but unavailing endeavors of a police officer to extinguish a gas-light by turning it off with a staff supplied for the purpose. He could get the staff pointed all right for the thumb-screw, but the moment he made a jab at it the lamp would jump out one side and he wouldn't come within two feet of it. Fortunately the lamp was on the corner of a building, with a fence underneath, and the efficient guardian of the public welfare at length laid down his staff, climbed up on the fence, and steadying himself by the iron braces of the lamp, managed to entinguish the light by hand.

THE BIG SEWER.

A meeting of the sewer committee was held this forenoon at the city rooms when the contract for building the sewer, awarded to Shanehan of Portland, was signed. Mr. Joseph R. Holmes was appointed by the committee to be superintendent of the work, in the interest of the city. Mr. Shanehan went to Eliot this afternoon to make arrangements for brick. It is his intention to go to work as soon as possible, probably next Tuesday morning, employing Portsmouth laborers as far as possible. Several gangs will be set to work at different points of the route, and the work pushed as rapidly as possible.—Times, Aug. 30th.

THE FIRE ALARM.

It is suggested that the school committee make arrangements to have the children of the public schools notified by means of the fire alarm whenever the weather shall be so unfavorable, during the fall and winter, that the omission of the school sessions is considered advisable. The plan proposed is, at 7:30 o'clock A. M., on such stormy days, to sound the bell and whistle twice, pause ten seconds, and repeat twice, this signal to signify "no morning session of the schools;" when sounded at 11:30, "no afternoon session;" and the times of signalling to be those specified, and no other, so that in case of a stormy day both pupils and teachers would be listening at the stated times for the signals, and there would be no danger of an alarm being raised by mistake.

Mr. Editor: I like to see the fire alarm question agitated, and think some of the suggestions made in your columns good ones. But they don't say anything about more alarm boxes, which are needed equally as much as more strikers. Suppose a fire breaks out at or near the Boston & Maine railroad station; box No. 14, at the corner of Market and Russell streets, is the nearest one, and if that is pulled, nine times out of ten the department will run up Market street, which would cause a delay of two or three minutes in reaching the actual scene of the fire. Again, take it on Church hill, another bad place; box No. 19, the nearest box, is at the corner of Court and Water streets, some distance out of the way. There should be boxes put up on or near Downs & Co.'s store at Spring hill, at the corner of Hanover and Vaughan streets, at Miss Morgan's seminary, at the corner of Austin & Summer streets, at the Universalist church, at the corner of Cass and State streets, and other places; I think with about ten additional boxes, one or two more strikers and two whistles, the alarm would be complete, and effective under any circumstances.

But there should also be some better arrangements about horses, as it is useless to arouse the firemen and "locate" the fire, if means are lacking to transport the apparatus promptly. At the alarm on Thursday, Aug. 27th, steamer No. 3 arrived at the south bridge some three minutes before being ordered back; and while returning, met their hose carriage near the Universalist church, on its way to the fire! There is no use to keep a horse in the stable in the day time, without a man to drive him whenever he may be needed; the hose should be laid before the steamer arrives, as it is handy to play through. The department will get "left" one of these days, and then I suppose the management will wake up; that they may wake up before that, and do something, is the earnest wish of

AN OLD FIREMAN.

SUPERINTENDING THE DRAIN.

Editor of Chronicle: I see by the Times that the committee on the new sewer have appointed Mr. Joseph R. Holmes to superintend the building of the new north pond sewer, in the interest of the city; and I learn from another source that he is to receive a lump sum of $500 for his services.

This may be all right; but it has a very ugly look, to me. I make no question as to Mr. Holmes being a capable man for the position, nor as to his trustworthiness; but why should any private citizen be appointed to that position? Our street commissioner, Mr. Marshall, is a trained civil engineer, and is certainly competent to do all the duty in this connection that will be required of Mr. Holmes; either this, or he is unfit for the position of street commissioner.

It may be said in answer that Mr. Marshall has enough to attend to without acting as city inspector of work at the new sewer. But is his time any more taken up with his public duties than Mr. Holmes' time is with his private engagements? Mr. Holmes has to-day a good many more men under his charge than Mr. Marshall has; he is putting up a large building for the gas company, and overseeing and directing the labors of a hundred or more men for Hon. Frank Jones, in a distant part of the city; these duties he must attend to, while Mr. Marshall can "let well enough alone" whenever he chooses.

The specifications for the sewer cite that the work must be completed in three months from the date of signing the contract; it was signed Aug. 29th, and between that date and Nov. 29th are seventy-eight working days, which at $500 for the term allows Mr. Holmes within a few cents of six dollars and a half a day, for doing work which the street commissioner is abundantly able to perform and has plenty of time to attend to!

How do the tax-payers like this, as a "reform" city government?

A CLEVELAND REPUBLICAN.

THE NEW TELEGRAPH CO.

The Atlantic Telegraph Co. open for business this morning at their office in Daniel street, in the rear of Grace's new drug story. How long we are to enjoy the benefit of competition with the Western Union Co., and what reductions of rates or increased accomodations may enure to the benefit of the public before the new rival is bought out, we know not. We can only satisfactorily enjoy the chances while they last, or until the new line becomes, like its predecessors, absorbed in the old, and then wait till some new enterprise shall in turn seek business as a rival, to be in like manner purchased, and so on ad infinitum.

The steamer Mystic will make trips between this city and Kittery Point today and to-morrow, as follows: Leave this city at 8:55 A. M. and 2:05 and 6:15 P. M.; leave Kittery Point at 9:15 A. M., and 2:20 and 6:45 P. M.

Mr. J. H. Randlett of Dover announces his second annual clearing out sale of carriages, to take place Sept. 4th, at his repository in Dover. The advertisement giving a list of carriages for sale may be found in another column.

MEDICAL NOTICE!

DRS. JORDAN & JACQUES,

Principals of the Parisian and Scientific Institution and Museum of Anatomy, 591 and 595 Washington St., Boston, Mass.,

And Authors of the well-known Medical Work

Philosophy of Marriage,

Wish to inform their patients and those desirous of consultations, that one of the firm is now in Portsmouth, N. H., and can be consulted at

20 Congress St., Portsmouth, N. H.,

From August 26th to September 5th only.

Having for many years made a specialty of all diseases of men, cases of Nervous and Physical Debility, Exhausted Vitality and General Functional Arrangements, can ensure those consulting them a speedy, safe and permanent cure.

The Medical Times says:—This system differs from all others in general use, and recommends itself to the sufferer as the only sure source of relief. Many cases pronounced incurable, have yielded successfully to the remedies employed by them.

Drs. Jordan & Jacques' Medical Work,

Philosophy of Marriage,

Being eight highly important lectures delivered at the Museum of Anatomy, showing how health is lost and regained, and giving a clear synopsis of the impediments to marriage and the treatment of nervous diseases can be had on application for 25 cents.

☞ Office Hours: 9 A. M. to 1 P. M., and 6 to 8 P. M., at

20 CONGRESS ST.

Portsmouth, N. H., from Aug. 26th to Sept. 5th.

Residence and Office 19 Joy St., Boston, Mass.

MUSIC HALL.

At Music hall, on Wednesday evening next, Milliken's Operatic Comedy Co. will appear in the musical comedy "Ninioche," an adaptation from the French, with Madeline Lucette in the title role, supported by a strong cast and skilled orchestra. Reserved seats on sale at Goodrich's to-day.

On Thursday evening, Sept. 3d, Murray & Murphy will appear at Music hall in their original production, "Our Irish Visitors," under the management of J. M. Hill. Mr. Hill's connection with this company is a sufficient endorsement of its merit.

CUCUMBERS AND WATERMELONS.

Cucumbers and watermelons are tabooed by thousands who fear to eat them, not because some they have ever experienced a single pang that can be truthfully traced to them, but because some one had pronounced them injurious.

What more appetizing on a hot day than a freshly sliced cucumber, hard, cold, crisp, temptingly served on cracked ice?

Or what more refreshing to the irritated and parched mucous system on a sultry day than a cold, ripe, luscious, black-eyed watermelon?

And that all may enjoy them, as well as all other vegetables and fruits, in their season, we affirm that SANFORD'S GINGER is sure to check every disturbance of the bowels, instantly relieve cramps and pains, prevent indigestion, and destroy disease germs in water drunk. Ask for

SANFORD'S GINGER

The Delicious Summer Medicine.

SANFORD'S GINGER is prepared with the utmost skill from Imported Ginger, Choice Aromatics, and the purest and best of Medicinal French Brandy, from the world-renowned vintners, Messrs. Otard, Dupuy & Co., Cognac, rendering it vastly superior to all other "Gingers," all of which are made with common alcohol, impregnated with fusil oil and strengthened with cayenne pepper.

Unripe fruit, impure water, unhealthy climate, unwholesome food, Malaria, Epidemic and Contagious Diseases, Cholera Morbus, Cramps, Pains, Indigestion, Colds, Chills, Simple Fevers, Exhaustion, Nervousness or Loss of Sleep that beset the traveller or household at this season, are nothing to those protected by SANFORD'S GINGER.

Beware of worthless "Gingers" said to be as good as SANFORD'S. Ask for Crops in New Hampshire.

The August report of the department of agriculture as to the condition of the growing crops, contains a few items from New Hampshire correspondents, who say of corn in Cheshire county that it is injured some by cut-worms; in Belknap, it never looked better; in Coos, there is a large increase of acreage for green fodder, and in Rockingham, the crop is somewhat late, but looking well. Oats in Cheshire are "very promising; straw standing well and heads very large," and the New England average is above the standard of a full crop. Potatoes are reported "promising" in Cheshire; "never looked better" in Belknap and "very promising" in Coos. Hay shows some decrease in New Hampshire, Vermont and Rhode Island. In the table of averages New Hampshire stands as follows: Corn, 97; spring wheat, 98; spring rye, 101; oats, 102; barley, 101; buckwheat, 100; potatoes, 100; timothy, 91; clover, 97; apples, 91.

"Why should the spirit of mortal be proud," and lead people to baths in Europe, which claim to cure rheumatism, when fifty cents will buy a bottle of St. Jacobs Oil?

Six hundred weavers at Prague, Austria, are on a strike. The authorities have forbidden a meeting of dissatisfied workmen, and a repetition of the Brunn riots is feared.

Advice to Mothers.

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? If so, send at once and get a bottle of Mrs Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers, there is no mistake about it. It cures dysentery and diarrhœa, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures wind colic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female nurses and physicians in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Health Regulations.

THE BOARD OF HEALTH OF THE CITY OF PORTSMOUTH call the attention of the public to the following sections of Chapter 26 of the City Ordinances and invite all interested in the preservation of health in the city to aid them in the execution of their duty.

CHAPTER X.

Sec. 3. All waste water of houses, yards, cellars, sinks, pumps, &c., shall be conveyed by their owners or occupiers to the common sewers, or to such places as the health officers may direct.

Sec. 4. No person shall be allowed to throw any vegetable or dead animal substance or any other matter capable of producing infection, into any street, lane, alley or dock, or upon any wharf, but shall carry them or throw them into the river below low-water mark.

Sec. 5. The contents of vaults and privies shall not be permitted to rise within one foot of the surface of the ground, and all owners or occupiers of buildings having such vaults or privies as may require it, shall cause them to be emptied within ten days from the promulgation of this ordinance, and in future on or before the first day of May in each year. And any such owner or occupier neglecting so to do, shall forfeit and pay for every such neglect a sum not less than three nor more than twenty dollars, and a like sum for every week's neglect after the time above specified.

Sec. 6. No vender of meat at the stalls shall be permitted to leave any stale meat, heads, feet or offal of any kind about their stalls or stores over night, or suffer them to be thrown into any street, lane or alley of the city. Nor shall any sellers of fish be permitted to throw any offal of fish into any street, lane or alley, or upon any wharf, but shall either bury them or throw them into the river below low-water mark.

Sec. 7. If any dead animal or decaying vegetable substance, or any other nuisance shall be found in any part of the city, the owners and occupiers of the premises where such nuisances shall be found, shall cause the same to be removed within twenty-four hours after being notified so to do by one or more of the health officers.

Sec. 12. When any householder shall know that any person within his family is taken sick of the small pox, or any other disease dangerous to the public health, he shall immediately give notice thereof to the health officers.

Sec. 13. When any physician shall know that any person whom he is called to visit is infected with the small pox, or any other disease dangerous to the public health, such physician shall immediately give notice thereof to the health officers.

Sec. 14. If any such householder or physician shall refuse or neglect to give the notice required in the preceding sections, he shall for each refusal or neglect forfeit the sum of twenty dollars, to be recovered by either of the health officers in the name of the city.

Sec. 16. The health officers may give written notice to the owner or occupier of any building, vessel or enclosure, to remove or destroy any nuisance or other thing deemed by them, on examination, to be injurious to the public health, within a certain time limited therein; and in case such owner or occupier—the said notice having been given to him, or left at his usual place of abode, shall neglect to comply therewith, the said health officers may, by direction of the mayor and accompanied by the city marshal forcibly enter the building, vessel or enclosure, and cause said nuisance or other thing aforesaid to be removed or destroyed.

Sec. 21. No person shall erect, keep or continue or permit to be erected, kept or continued, upon any land occupied by him, any pen for the keeping of swine, or privy, over either of the mill ponds in this city, or so placed that offensive substances therefrom shall be discharged or drained into either of said ponds, or into any creek, or cove or drain leading thereto. And no person shall construct, keep or continue any drain leading from any pen for the keeping of any swine, slaughter-house, privy vault, or other unwholesome or offensive place, into either of said ponds, or to any flat or marsh adjoining the same. And no person shall throw or suffer to be thrown from his land into either of said ponds, or upon any of said flats or marshes, any dead, decaying, unwholesome or offensive animal or vegetable substances.

Full of Peril

Are those disorders which, beginning with an apparently trivial inactivity of the kidneys or bladder, terminates in Bright's disease, diabetes and cystitis. The first two not only interrupt the functions of the renal organs, but destroy their structure with as much certainty as tubercular consumption does that of the lungs. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is an excellent diuretic, promoting the activity of these organs without over exciting them, thus averting the deadly maladies to which their inaction is so prone to culminate. The removal from the blood of impurities which the kidneys should, but do not, when inactive, secrete, is another beneficent effect of this incomparable medicated stimulant and depurent. The Bitters is, in all cases, too, a fine restorative of vigor and aid to digestion, remedies malarial disease, and banishes liver complaint and constipation.

ECZEMA

And Every Species of Itching and Burning Diseases Positively Cured.

ECZEMA, or Salt Rheum, with its agonizing Itching and burning, instantly relieved by a warm bath with CUTICURA SOAP, and a single application of CUTICURA, the great Skin Cure. This repeated daily, with two or three doses of CUTICURA RESOLVENT, the New Blood Purifier, to keep the blood cool, the perspiration pure and unirritating, the bowels open, the liver and kidneys active, will speedily cure Eczema, Tetter, Ringworm, Psoriasis, Lichen Pruritus, Scald Head, Dandruff, and every species of Itching, Scaly, and Pimply Humors of the Scalp and Skin, when the best physicians and all known remedies fail.

Will McDonald, 242 Dearborn St., Chicago, gratefully acknowledges a cure of Eczema or Salt Rheum on head, neck, face, arms, and legs for seventeen years; not able to walk except on hands and knees for one year; not able to help himself for eight years; tried hundreds of remedies; doctors pronounced his case hopeless; permanently cured by CUTICURA RESOLVENT (blood purifier) internally, and CUTICURA and CUTICURA SOAP (the great skin cures) externally.

Chas. Houghton, Esq., lawyer, 28 State St., Boston, reports a case of Eczema under his observation for twenty years, which covered the patient's body and limbs, and to which all known methods of treatment had been applied without benefit, which was completely cured solely by the CUTICURA REMEDIES, leaving a clean and healthy skin.

Mr John Thiel, Wilkesbarre, Pa., writes: "I have suffered from Salt Rheum for over eight years, at times so bad that I could not attend to my business for weeks at a time. Three boxes of CUTICURA and four bottles RESOLVENT have entirely cured me of this dreadful disease."

Sold by all Druggists. Price: CUTICURA, 50c.; RESOLVENT, $1.00; SOAP, 25c. Prepared by the POTTER DRUG AND CHEMICAL CO., Boston, Mass.

BEAUTIFY the Complexion and Skin by using the CUTICURA SOAP.

CAJEME, THE YAQUI CHIEF.

Career of the Sonora Outlaw Who Defies the Mexican Republic.

While the world is wondering at the singular success which has placed El Mehdi on the barbaric throne of the Soudan, Mexico has apparently found her mehdi in the person of Jose Marie Cajeme, who holds a scepter of terror over Sonora as the Mohammedan chieftain does over the Soudan. Cajeme; chief of the Yaqui and Moyo Indians, was born in 1842, in the tiny town of Torin, on the banks of the silent Yaqui river, which creeps to the Pacific from Sonora's heart of forests. His parents were Juan Leivas Leiva, Cajeme and Hilaria Buitemea, the latter, his mother, being known yet through that country as the Sibyl. The baptismal waters of Catholicism from the hands of an adventurous Italian missionary, Father Romanani, rested on his head when a boy in the town of Navajoa. From earliest boyhood Cajeme took to the chase, and refused to work on a farm when he could scour the deep forests with his bow and arrows. When 13 years of age he ran away from home, and from that day his life was a constant, restless march, a bohemian existence. He entered the service of Mr. J. R. Bourse, an American miner at Alamos, a town on the projected Alamos and Mazatlan railroad. Wine and women soon drew their chains about him, and fired by jealousy and drink he drew his first human blood by stabbing Abraham Jollman, who was Mr. Bourse's steward. He then fled.

In 1872, when the governor of Sonora, Ignacio Pesqueri, started out to assist the governor of the neighboring state of Sinaloa against the revolution headed by the bloody Marquez, Cajeme joined the state troops. During the campaign he gave proofs of great valor and of uncommon military skill, and was made a colonel in the Mexican army. During leisure moments of the campaign he learned to read and write, for, as he never would go to school, he did not even know the alphabet when he entered on this exciting period of his life. When peace was established Cajeme returned to his home, preceded by an uncommon fame. At that time Julio Moroyoqui, nicknamed the Jaguar, was chief of the Yaquis. He was one of the most sanguinary caciques of Mexican history, and known as the American Nero. Moroyoqui confirmed the rank of colonel earned by Cajeme in the government army, and the latter soon bent his extraordinary talents to repressing disorders in the government of the former. Little by little Cajeme acquired popularity, and the Indian camps soon became too narrow a theater for two such men. One day Cajeme with ten picked men surrounded the palace of the Jaguar, and going in assassinated him, and was immediately proclaimed his successor, a place he has since held.

While in Navajoa he solicited in marriage the hand of a dark-eyed belle of that town, the daughter of a rich planter. His suit refused, Cajeme "retreated in good order," and went back to the Yaqui river, thinking that time would ameliorate his suffering. Afterward he made up his mind to see the girl, Juana Narvaez, and he started on a dark night and in disguise to visit her. On the way he was ambushed by R. J. Castro, a brother chief, who was his rival for the possession of this Mexican Helen. Cajeme proved to be a successful Paris. Single-handed he killed Castro and three of his men, besides wounding another, and arrived, bleeding from several wounds, at the feet of Juana Narvaez. She fled from her home in his company. Since that time Cajeme has led a fugitive life, with his band of Indian warriors, and has defied the power of the Mexican republic, among the mountains and marshes of Sonora.

Cajeme is well built, has herculean muscles, regular features with a savage air impressed upon them, and has a brusque, abrupt manner. He is a splendid horseman; has saved his life on several occasions by his fleet running and excellent swimming qualities. He has an unconquerable will, a presence of mind which never deserts him, and a courage which borders on temerity.—City of Mexico Two Republics.

When it comes to toughness, Texas beef is entitled to the blue ribbon. The average Texas landlord usually manages to secure the toughest beef in the market.

"Is there a carpet beating establishment next door?" asked a newly arrived guest at an Austin hotel.

"Not that I ever heard of."

"Well, then, you must have a blacksmith's shop in the cellar. Do you shoe horses down in the cellar?"

"Why, no, stranger. What makes you think so?"

"What's all that pounding, as if there was a boiler factory in full blast, or some coopers were driving down the hoops of a wooden cistern?"

"Oh, that! Why, that's the cook pounding the beefsteak for breakfast."—Texas Siftings.

The discovery of a rich vein of white marble on the farm of John O'Rourke of West Rutland, Vt., has advanced the value of the property several times beyond the original cost price. He had recently purchased it for $7500.

Every day adds to the great amount of evidence as to the curative powers of Hood's Sarsaparilla. Letters are constantly being received from all sections of the country, telling of benefits derived from this great medicine. It is unequalled for general debility, and as a blood purifier, expelling every trace of scrofula or other impurity. Now is the time to take it. Made by C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass. Sold by all druggists.

The Congregational church in Wiscasset, Me., is 110 years old, and the inhabitants say the old bell on the edifice has tolled for the death of every president since Washington. According to an inscription on it, the bell was cast by the famous Paul Revere.

Retrospection.

The Manchester Union and the Concord People and Patriot are at difference as to who discovered Franklin Pierce, the Union claiming that Mr. Campbell, the former partner of Bro. Hanscom of the Times, is entitled to this honor, while the P. & P. maintains that Pierce's fame was abroad in the land from Quoddy Head to the halls of the Montezumas long before Campbell wrote up the New Hampshire politician. This as a matter of antiquarian lore may interest a few moss-backs, but the democrat of to-day is not as much concerned as to the result of this question as in the solution of the problem who has discovered Cleveland. Before the democratic political vision there arise constantly clouds of doubts as to which is to be on top, the party or the president. The retrospection of the single purpose of Pierce to conform to the behests of the party leaders, is to the democrats in striking contrast with that exhibition of firmness in the present chief magistrate, who will be run by no one, who has his ideas of official duty, and the more he is abused the more persistently will he be likely to exercise the prerogatives of his office. In this connection it is singular what a peculiar conception the expectants have of Mr. Cleveland's ideas of civil service reform. As we understand it, Mr. Cleveland was not an advocate of this species of legislation, nor would he incline to engraft it upon the laws of the statute book; but he assumes the office of president and takes his oath to execute the laws. He finds among these laws that concerning the civil service. He believes the president should properly execute the laws, if he undertakes to be president. If the law is not such as the people desire, then let it be repealed; but as long as it is the law, it must be obeyed. Therefore we just hint to the framers of democratic resolutions that they should not direct their guns at him over the civil service laws, but strike at the real cause of all the trouble, which is an enactment brought about in the first instance by democratic legislators.

New Hampshire Patents.

The following list of patents granted Aug. 25th to citizens of New Hampshire, is specially reported by Franklin H. Hough, solicitor of American and foreign patents, No. 925 F street, N. W., Washington, D. C.:

No. 324,795. W. F. Aiken, Franklin, knitting-machine.

No. 324,797. W. Aiken, Franklin Falls, transferring device for knitting-machines.

No. 324,796. W. Aiken, Franklin Falls, knitting-machine.

No. 325,050. D. A. Brown, Concord, carriage-axle.

The Cholera.

The cholera has broken out in Nagasaki, Japan, and the port has been declared infected. The disease is terribly fatal.

In Spain, Aug. 29th, 3617 new cases of cholera were reported, and 1171 deaths from the disease.

In a riot at Madrid, Spain, growing out of the cholera epidemic, eight persons were killed and twelve wounded.

In Toulon and Marseilles, France, the cholera is increasing; typhoid fever is also becoming prevalent and deadly. Twenty fatal cases of cholera have occurred at Salons. Seven thousand persons have fled from Toulon, and 1000 shops are closed.

There were 3833 new cases and 1548 deaths in Spain on Aug. 30th.

The disease has appeared in Italy, in Turin and the province of Powzone, a number of deaths having occurred.

A twelve-years-old son of George Hartford and a six-years-old son of Hiram Goodwin fell from a raft in the river at East Rochester on Monday, and were drowned.

The Alaska Commercial company's steamer St. Paul, from Ounalaska, Alaska, which arrived at San Francisco Aug. 29th, brought 99,996 seal skins, valued at over $1,000,000. Dr. Willis E. Everett of the Smithsonian Institute, Washington, was among the passengers on board.

The peasanty of South Germany have been thrown into a state of consternation over the sudden and inexplicable departure from the country of the rooks, which for centuries have made their abode there. The flocks of rooks which nested in the spire of the Ratisbon, Bavaria, cathedral, recently departed and have not returned. This general evacuation by the rooks is regarded by the people as heralding the approach of an epidemic of cholera.

The Gordon fund, now swollen to $120,000, is to be used to found a boys' home in London.

Lieut. Comdr. Louis Kingsley, Lieutenant Charles A. Foster, and Ensigns S. Dana Greene and J. B. Cahoon are detached from the torpedo class, and ordered to an advanced course of torpedo instruction.

Lieutenants James M. Miller and J. O. Nicholson are ordered from torpedo instruction to the naval academy.

Stickney's Gymnasium, No. 8 Ladd street, opens to-day. Edward C. Stickney, the champion dumbbell lifter, will handle heavy weights, and will also make a new record on dumbbells during the evening. A gold medal will be presented to the pupil who first elevates the champion's heavy dumbbell in one trial, and instruction in self defence will have special attention. Visitors will be welcomed.

Hon. Francis Thompson, one of the best known citizens of Charlestown, Mass., died suddenly Sunday evening. Mr. Thompson was long engaged in the iron, steel and hemp business, and made his entry into public life in 1870, being elected state senator. In 1876 he was elected an alderman. He was re-elected in the following year. In 1879 Mayor Prince nominated him a member of the Boston water board, and he served his term of three years. Mr. Thompson has for several years past served as one of the directors of the Eastern railroad in New Hampshire, and has for many years been an annual guest of the Farragut house, Rye beach. His age was fifty-nine years.

Prof. Moses T. Farmer of Eliot has had a well dug on his place, just beside the road line, and has struck a spring of nice water. The well is ten feet square and twelve deep, and Prof. Farmer will maintain a commodious drinking trough for horses and cattle beside the road.

It required an extra baggage car to contain the luggage of the passengers who took the eleven o'clock A. M. train from this city for Boston on Monday. The steamer from the Shoals, the York stages and numerous private teams from York brought in large numbers of passengers, bound for their homes. Crowds also came in from Rye beach.

A delegation of about forty good democrats came down from South Berwick to the navy yard on Monday, to pick out jobs for themselves.

Timothy Renan, Jr., twenty-one years old, an oiler on the Boston & Maine railroad, fell from an engine in Portland, Me., on Monday, and was cut in two.

"NINICHE."

The Providence Journal is one of the most cautious and reliable, not to say unimpressionable, papers in New England, and is especially guarded in its commendations of shows, which makes its commendation of especial value. In its issue of Aug. 25th it says:

The audience at the Sans Souci Garden, last evening, was not a very large one, owing principally to the unfavorable weather conditions. The Milliken Operatic Comedy company made its first appearance in this city, appearing in the musical comedy "Niniche," with Madeline Lucette in the title role. The piece is bright, interesting and amusing, with many laughable situations, sparkling dialogue and pleasing music. It has all the sprightliness of the French vaudeville, with few of its questionable features, and it proved one of the most pleasing pieces seen here this season. The company is a thoroughly competent one, and Miss Lucette especially made a most favorable impression; her singing and dancing were excellent, and her vivacity and abandon at once created a most favorable impression. The other members of the cast were more than satisfactory.

At Music hall to-morrow evening. Reserved seats now procurable at Goodrich's bookstore.

FIRE ALARM TEST.

The regular monthly inspection of the fire alarm apparatus will take place this afternoon between the hours of one and four o'clock. One round each from boxes 38, 46, 7, 17 and 24 will be pulled in, while a single blow will be struck from the remaining boxes. The whistle will not be blown.

BIG FISHING.

Last Saturday two of the guests at the Appledore house, Isles of Shoals, Mr. B. E. Morse and Dr. F. R. Sturgis of Boston, caught 3000 lbs. of cod and pollock off the islands; and on the same day Mr. Hazelhurst of Brooklyn, N. Y., and Mr. C. H. Clark, Jr., of New York city, caught 800 lbs. of cod, one of the fish taken by the latter weighing fifty pounds.

THE KITTERY LIBRARY.

We copy from the Times the following lucid and weighty statement of the reasons why some of the trustees of the Kittery public library prefer the "Rice lot," so-called, to the Traipp lot, as a site for the proposed public-library building:

Mr. Editor:—My attention has been called to a communication from this town printed in your paper recently, concerning the public library, in which it is asserted that one of the trustees is not satisfied with the proposed location of the building. On the question of adopting the Rice lot two voted in the affirmative and three in the negative. The reasons for preferring the Rice lot seemed to me to have the greatest weight. First, because an acre of land and even more if desired was offered free of cost, the generosity of the widow of the late Geo. William Rice who was a relative of the founder of the library; the lot was away from buildings, which might endanger it from fire, while that in the village was more exposed to the chances of such destruction. The Rice lot is well graded, high, and midway between the navy yard and the railroad depot, upon a prominent thoroughfare, with space enough to have the building stand a good distance from the highway. The Traipp lot will cost a large sum to properly grade it, and the cost of the lot one-quarter the size of the Rice lot will be $1200. The settled part of the village will undoubtedly increase towards the railroad station. Such is the case in all towns similarly situated, for instance, Biddeford, and North Berwick. Again, if an academy is to be built in the future in connection with the library building, this will be a location more convenient for scholars who may come by rail. Pupils from Eliot now are able to reach South Berwick academy at about 11 a. m. when the train would enable them to reach Kittery a few minutes past 8 a. m. The Rice location, sufficiently removed from the centre of the village to afford a quiet resort with plenty of light and air, seemed to me, and another of the trustees, to be the best place for the building or library, when we consider that it is to be built with a proper regard to the growth of the town. How there can be any job out of the selection when the lot is freely given, seems difficult to understand. The trustees of course can have but one desire: the selection of the best lot to be obtained and the erection of a suitable building which shall be free from risks by fire from surrounding buildings, have plenty of space around it and accommodate the inhabitants who have occasion to visit it. The lot which your correspondent says is to fall to the town at some time, if taken must be paid in cash, thus diminishing to the extent of the price paid the fund available for building. The selection of a proper lot is not a thing simply for to-day. We should consider that posterity is to have the enjoyment of a properly located building. And all personal considerations and all motives save those which are enlisted for the public good will of course be lost sight of in this duty, while the voice of the people in regard to it will have an opportunity to be heard.

E. C. SPINNEY.

KITTERY, Aug. 27, 1885.

Murray and Murphy began an engagement at White's last night in the farcical comedy, "Our Irish Visitors." They drew an enormous audience and raised more laughter than any performers who have preceded them there this season. From the popular point of view the show was an extraordinary hit.—Detroit Free Press.

At Music hall on Thursday evening, Sept. 3d; tickets at Goodrich's.

Hett Brothers have just received from New York an elegant baggage wagon of unique design, built by Henry Hett, and putting one in mind of one of Barnum's chariots. Mr. George Brown of Christian Shore will have the driving of the new wagon, and it is said has ordered a white plug hat of the most startling pattern to wear on the box.

Mr. Editor: "A Cleveland republican" is right as far as he goes in reference to the superintendency of the sewer; if the money to be expended in that work is not to be thrown away, not only a competent superintendent and engineer should be appointed, but every hour of his time must be given to it.

The steamer chartered by the New York yacht club to convey its members, invited guests and ladies over the course of the races between the British cutter Genesia and the American sloop Puritan, Sept. 7th and 9th, and Sept. 11th if the first two races are not decisive as to the possession of the America's cup, is our old acquaintance the Taurus, which two years ago was run as a daily excursion boat between Boston and this city by the Iron Steamboat Co. of New York, and used to make the trip in about four hours each way, right along. If the contesting yachts manage to run away from the Taurus they will do well.

Over 2000 tons of coal arrived to J. Albert Walker in two schooners from Philadelphia on Sunday last, the Rose Esterbrook bringing 1024 tons, and the Lucinda G. Potter 1018 tons.

Do not for a moment let your confidence betray you into supposing yourself incapable of mistake. It is indeed a serious blunder to refuse to take Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup when you even suspect you have taken cold.

Commander Alfred T. Mahan, Lieutenant Commander A. H. Vail, Lieutenants Benj. S. Richards, Wm. Little, Jesse M. Roper and Daniel Delehanty, Surgeon Wm. H. Jones and Assistant Engineer C. C. Kleckner, are detached from the Wachusett, and placed on waiting orders. Chief Engr. Ezra J. Whittaker, Passed Asst. Engr. N. H. Lambdin and Ensign Charles F. Pond are ordered from the Wachusett to the Mare Island navy yard. Ensign George F. Ormsby and Carpenter A. C. Burroughs are ordered from the Wachusett to the receiving ship Independence.

We Caution All Against Them.

The unprecedented success and merit of Ely's Cream Balm—a real cure for catarrh, hay fever and cold in the head—has induced many adventurers to place catarrh medicines bearing some resemblance in appearance, style or name upon the market, in order to trade upon the reputation of Ely's Cream Balm. Many in your immediate locality will testify in highest commendation of it. Don't be deceived. Buy only Ely's Cream Balm. A particle is applied into each nostril; no pain; agreeable to use. Price fifty cents, of druggists.

Naval Constructor George F. Mallett, U. S. N., chief of the department of construction and repair at the Norfolk navy yard, is reported to be lying critically ill at his residence on that yard.

"Rough on Catarrh"

Corrects offensive odors at once. Complete cure of even worst chronic cases, also unequalled as gargle for diphtheria, sore throat, foul breath. 50c.

Lieutenants Charles H. Judd and C. B. T. Moore are detached from the Galena, and placed on sick leave.

The Hope of the Nation.

Children, slow in development, puny, scrawny and delicate, use "Wells' Health Renewer."

Capt. John Irwin and Chief Engr. Montgomery Fletcher are ordered to continue on duty at San Francisco until July 1st, 1886.

Catarrh of the Bladder.

Stinging, irritation, inflammation, all kidney and urinary complaints, cured by "Buchu-Paiba." $1.

Lieut. B. F. Tilley is ordered from the Tennessee, Lieut. Burns T. Walling from the Vermont, and Ensign John H. Gibbons from the naval observatory, to the naval academy.

"Water Bugs, Roaches."

"Rough on Rats" clears them out, also beetles, ants, insects, rats and mice, 15 and 25c. boxes.

Capt. Byron Wilson is detached from torpedo instruction, and placed on waiting orders.

What You Want to Know.

Everybody wants an honest answer to this simple question:—What is the best medicine to regulate the bowels, cure costiveness and billiousness, help the digestion and give strength to the whole system? People ask us every day. We answer, Parker's Tonic. It is pleasant to the taste. All the children like it. Mothers all praise it. It will save a thousand times its cost in every family.

Carpenter Herbert M. Griffiths is detached from the Pensacola navy yard, and placed on waiting orders.

Forty Years Solid Record.

Dr. Seth Arnold's Cough Killer gives immediate relief, and cures severest coughs, colds and malignant fevers, sore throat, asthma, etc. 25c, 50c, and $1 sizes.

Col. John H. George is to deliver the address at the Belknap county fair at Laconia, Sept. 16th.

They Have Never Failed!

I have been sick more or less for the last ten years, which has cost me many dollars in doctors and druggists' bills. The last two years it only cost me three dollars. Why? Because I used Sulphur Bitters instead of employing doctors. They cured me of Jaundice.—F. F. Boyd, Hoboken.

Nervous Debilitated Men.

You are allowed a free trial of thirty days of the use of Dr. Dye's Celebrated Voltaic Belt with Electric Suspensory Appliances, for the speedy relief and permanent cure of Nervous Debility, loss of Vitality and Manhood, and all kindred troubles. Also, for many other diseases. Complete restoration to health, vigor and manhood guaranteed. No risk is incurred. Illustrated pamphlet, with full information, terms, etc., mailed free by addressing Voltaic Belt Co., Marshall, Mich.

FITS.—All Fits stopped free by Dr. Kline's Great Nerve Restorer. No Fits after first day's use. Marvellous cures. Treatise and $2.00 trial bottle free to Fit cases. Send to Dr. Kline, 931 Arch Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

London Hair Restorer—Great English Toilet Article. Restores growth, color, gloss, and softness. Removes dandruff. Aristocratic families of Great Britain endorse it. Elegant dressing. Fragrantly perfumed. The favorite of fashion. At Druggists for 3s 1½d, or 75 Cts. in U. S. money.

Sale's Honey the great Cough cure, 25c., 50c. & $1. Glenn's Sulphur Soap heals & beautifies, 25c. German Corn Remover kills Corns & Bunions. Hill's Hair and Whisker Dye—Black and Brown, 50c. Pike's Toothache Drops cure in 1 Minute, 25c. Dunn's Rheumatic Pills are a sure cure, 50c.

Advice to Mothers.

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? If so, send at once and get a bottle of Mrs Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething. Its value is incalculable. We believe from little sufferer is immediately. Depend upon it, mothers, there is no mistake about it. It cures dysentery and diarrhœa, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures wind colic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female nurses and physicians in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price 25 cents a bottle. cod1m29,95

Cuticura

A POSITIVE CURE FOR EVERY FORM OF BLOOD AND SKIN DISEASE FROM PIMPLES TO SCROFULA.

DISFIGURING HUMORS, Humiliating Eruptions, Itching and Burning Skin Tortures, Loathsome Sores, and every species of Itching, Scaly, Pimply, Inherited, Scrofulous, and Contagious Diseases of the Blood, Skin, and Scalp, with Loss of Hair, from infancy to old age, are positively cured by CUTICURA RESOLVENT, the New Blood Purifier, internally, and CUTICURA, the Great Skin Cure, and CUTICURA SOAP, an exquisite Skin Beautifier, externally.

ECZEMA CURED.

I was afflicted with Eczema on the Scalp, Face, Ears and Neck, which the Druggist, where I get your remedies, pronounced one of the worst cases that had come under his notice. He advised me to try your CUTICURA REMEDIES, and after five days use, my scalp and part of my face were entirely cured, and I hope in another week to have my ears, neck, and the other part of my face cured. HERMAN SLADE, 120 E. 4th St., New York.

SCABS AND SORES.

I have been afflicted since last March with a Skin disease the doctors called Eczema. My face was covered with scabs and sores, and the itching and burning were almost unbearable. Seeing your CUTICURA REMEDIES so highly recommended, concluded to give them a trial, using the CUTICURA and CUTICURA SOAP externally, and RESOLVENT internally, for four months. I call myself cured, in gratitude for which I make this public statement. MRS. CLARA A. FREDERICK, Broad Brook, Conn.

CUTICURA REMEDIES are sold everywhere. Price CUTICURA, 50c.; RESOLVENT, $1.00; SOAP, 35c. Prepared by the POTTER DRUG AND CHEMICAL CO., Boston, Mass.

Great Dangers.

Three great dangers menace the traveller at every turn. They are climate, food and water. To guard against them requires judgment, abstinence and SANFORD'S GINGER.

This unrivalled household panacea and travelling companion is sure to check any disturbance of the bowels, instantly relieve cramps and pains, prevent indigestion, destroy disease germs in water drank, restore the circulation when suspended by a chill, a frequent cause of cholera morbus, breaks up colds and fevers, and ward off malarial conditions, and epidemic influences.

SANFORD'S GINGER is a delicious combination of Imported Ginger, Choice Aromatics, and French Brandy, and is the finest extract of ginger ever compounded in the history of medicine. Ask for

SANFORD'S GINGER.

Cholera morbus, cramps, pains, diarrhœa, dysentery, indigestion, colds, chills, simple fevers, exhaustion, nervousness or loss of sleep, whether caused by unripe fruit, impure water, unhealthy climate, unwholesome food, malaria, epidemic or contagious diseases that beset the traveller or household at this season, can have no serious influence on those protected by a timely use of SANFORD'S GINGER.

As a summer drink, with hot or cold water, sweetened, or hot or cold milk, or added to ice water, lemonade, effervescent draughts or mineral waters, SANFORD'S GINGER forms a refreshing and invigorating beverage, unequalled in simplicity and purity, while free from alcoholic reaction. A little should be added to every glass of water drank.

Do not be imposed upon. Insist upon having

Bill Nye's Fourth-of-July Oration.

FELLOW-CITIZENS: One hundred and nine years have now passed since our forefathers declared all men to be free and equal, and began to hold out inducements for the oppressed of other climes to come here and help us kill off the Indians.

It has been a great success. It has been fully demonstrated to the dying world that all men are fully equal to all other men, if not more so. We point with pride to-day to our broad lands, our luxuriant National debt, and our steadily-increasing Mormons. We have only a few more Indians to wipe out, and then the oppressed foreigner will have it all his own way.

The men who declared themselves free and independent 109 years ago are now no more. Yielding to the great nervous strain incident to a red-hot campaign, they finally pined away and died. As forefathers we can never successfully supply their places, and their untimely death has cast a pall over this otherwise joyous occasion.

To-day from ocean to ocean America rejoices. From the humid Atlantic to the moist Pacific the mighty cannon thunders forth a Nation's exultation, and the smaller cannon is gathering in its harvest of thumbs. This is an annual holiday and great National thumb carnival.

We rejoice that the idea of freedom suggested itself to our forefathers. Otherwise we would all be in Canada to-day. Now, only a part of us are there.

Let us not speak lightly of Canada, for some of our largest moneyed men are there. While we would not care to be a part of Canada, it is a good province to smuggle into or smuggle out of. It is a good place to stroll into after banking hours, while the Board of Directors are in session.

One hundred and nine years ago the King of Great Britain made the great mistake of his life. I only regret that he did not live to see it as we see it to-day. Had he been less overbearing toward the infant colony, the young men of America would have been drinking alkali water in Egypt to-day. We could have fought the heathen all over the globe, and left our shoulder-blades to bleach in any clime which we might select. Had the royal tyrant softened a little toward the struggling settlements in America 109 years ago, he could have borrowed our navy to-day, if he would agree to take good care of the worms and return them in as good order as he found them.

But he decided to do differently, and to-day he must take the bitter consequences. Kings are not always right. They frequently get left. Of all the many Kings whom I have known personally, and with whom I have been thrown more or less, there are only four or five upon whose judgment I could rely during a great crisis.

That is the reason I very rarely go to a crowned head when I am in trouble.

I seek out some tender-hearted and unselfish pawnbroker, and tell him all.

There is one cloud, fellow-citizens, which I see with my prophetic eye, just climbing the distant horizon of our National existence. Sooner or later it will darken the brightest day. Is it the leprous Chinaman or the great unlaundried Mormon? I hear you ask. Is it the spoils system under which one-half of the people will always be happy and the other half accursed? Is it the kiln-dried, tire-and-burglar proof, wormless American dried-apple pie which is now invading our happy homes? Is it the baleful simoon breath of New England rum, which would eat out the vitals of a stone quarry and go back the next day to inquire for the old nitro-glycerine cans?

Ah! no, fellow-citizens; a thousand times nay. It is this: If our republican form of government holds together for ninety-one years more, we will have to celebrate again, and it makes my head ache to think of it. If the feeling of remorse which shows itself the succeeding day after a centennial celebration becomes intensified with each succeeding century, I hope that the 5th day of July, 1976, I shall be out of town.

I cannot close this brief oration, fellow citizens, without an earnest appeal to you all to be nobler and better men. Of course if you are women this will not be expected; but we can all be good citizens by that time, perhaps, and I earnestly exhort all those within the sound of my voice to be loyal and law-abiding. By all means be industrious. Do not wait for me, but form habits of industry at once which will cling to you through life. I am convinced by what I have seen of its effects that it is a good thing. Rise early and go about your duties joyously, and, when the morning meal is prepared and all are gathered about the festive board, come and rap gently, and in a low tone of voice, on the door of my boudoir.—Bill Nye in Tid-Bits.

The Clangor of an Alarm Bell

Close by, in the stillness of the night, could scarcely startle the ordinary individual more than do trifling noises the nervous invalid. But once the nerves are braced and the system invigorated with Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, this abnormal sensitiveness is succeeded by a tranquility not to be disturbed by trivial causes. Impaired digestion is a fertile cause of nerve weakness and unnatural mental gloom, and a vigorous renewal of the action of the stomach is one of the surest means of the invigorating and quieting the nerves. Insomnia, or sleeplessness, a form of nervous disease, is unquestionably benefitted by sedatives, when it is prolonged, or of frequent occurrence, but its permanent removal is more effectually achieved with the Bitters. This medicine is also signally efficacious for malaria, rheumatism, constipation, liver and bladder, and torpidity of the kidneys and bladder.

WHAT IS DYSPEPSIA?

Among the many symptoms of Dyspepsia or indigestion the most prominent are: Variable appetite; faint, gnawing feeling at pit of the stomach, with unsatisfied craving for food; heartburn, feeling of weight and wind in the stomach, bad breath, bad taste in the mouth, low spirits, general prostration, headache, and constipation. There is no form of disease more prevalent than Dyspepsia, and none so peculiar to the high-living and rapid-eating American people. Alcohol and tobacco produce Dyspepsia; also, bad air, rapid eating, etc. BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS will cure the worst case, by regulating the bowels and toning up the digestive organs. Sold everywhere.

The Rival Yachts.

Sir Richard Sutton, owner of the British cutter Genesta, and the representatives of the American sloop Puritan, were on Monday formally notified that the Puritan had been selected to represent America in the contest for the possession of the America's cup. No yacht race of recent years has awakened such interest as this one, and a few particulars concerning the two champions will no doubt be acceptable to our readers.

The cutter Genesta was built on the river Clyde by Henderson Bros., with steel frame and elm and teak planking. She was launched in May, 1884. Her owner is Sir Richard Sutton, of the Royal Yacht club. She has an excellent record. Out of thirty-four races last year, she won seven first, eight second, and two third prizes, her success varying apparently with the character of the breeze, her best chance being a gale of wind.

The Puritan is a centre-board sloop, of wood, designed by Edward Burgess, of Burgess Brothers, Boston, and built by George Lawley & Son at their yard in South Boston. She is the property of members of the Eastern Yacht club, and was designed and built on purpose to race the Genesta. The Puritan's racing record shows her to be the fastest sloop owned on this side of the water, she and the Priscella, a centre-board iron sloop built by Harlan & Hollingsworth at Wilmington, Del., for the commodore of the New York Yacht club, having beaten everything else which has competed with them, and the Puritan having beaten the Priscella. In the race for the Gelet cup the Puritan not only beat all the vessels in her class, but actually ran away from all the big schooner yachts that were in the race.

What the Puritan can do in a stiff breeze and a heavy sea, as well as in a light wind, is pretty well known to both the American and British yachtsmen. Meanwhile, the Genesta has been keeping very quiet, taking care not to let her sailing qualities be gauged. She has been cruising to the eastward of New York, but whenever her abilities have had a chance to be seen, has invariably run along with short sail, towing her boat astern. In the coming races, however, we predict that she will find it necessary to clap on all sail, and do as little towing as possible. How it can be of any especial advantage to one yacht to know what another can do, while her own capacity is unknown, we cannot perceive. Each one will do her best, regardless of the other.

The dimensions of the two yachts which just now are attracting the attention of the whole yachting world, and a good many other people too, are as follows:

	Genesta.		Puritan.
Length over all	90	feet	93	feet
Water line	80	"	89	"
Extreme beam	15	"	22 7-12	"
Depth of hold	11¾	"	....
Draught	13½	"	8¾	"

The Insurance Law.

The following is the full text of the insurance bill, which passed both houses of the legislature in the closing hours of the session, was signed by the governor and is now the law of the state to take effect on the "statute-day," Sept. 15:

An act in regard to foreign insurance companies and duties of the insurance commissioner.

SECTION 1. Should any insurance company not organized under the laws, but doing an insurance business within this state, make an application to remove any suit or action to which it is a party, heretofore or hereafter commenced in any court of this State, to the United States district or circuit court, or shall enter into any compact or combination with other insurance companies for the purpose of governing or controlling the rates charged for fire insurance on any property within this state, the insurance commissioner shall forthwith revoke the license or authority of said company to transact business, and no renewal of said license or authority shall be granted for the period of three years from the date of such revocation.

SECT. 2. In any suit that may be brought in this state against an insurance company, to recover for a total loss sustained by fire or other casualty to real estate or buildings on the land of another, the amount of damage shall be the amount expressed in the contract as the sum insured, and no other evidence shall be admitted on trial as to the value of the property insured; provided, whenever there is a partial destruction or damage to the property insured, it shall be the duty of the company to pay the assured a sum of money equal to the damage done to the property. And provided further, that nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent the admission of testimony to prove over-insurance fraudulently obtained.

SECT. 3. The insurance commissioner shall provide a standard form of policy and contract for companies insuring property in this state, and no license shall be granted and no company allowed to do an insurance business unless it shall conform to the regulations of the insurance commissioner.

SECT. 4. All acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

Now is the time for anybody who wants to participate in a whooping old campaign next year to move into Maine. There's going to be a terrific set-to down among the pines, and the democrats are going to win, whether they get Joe Manley out of the Augusta postoffice or not. —Boston Post.

Certainly; move right in. Fill up the Kittery navy yard at once, and locate a few "colonists" at convenient points over the state to be ready to roll up a big vote for reform.—Biddeford Journal.

The law of Maine relating to the capture and sale of the succulent lobster does not seem to be very generally understood in all its intricacies. From August 15th to October 1st, no lobster can be sold or exposed for sale, under penalty of $50 fine for violating the law and $1 for each lobster so exposed or sold. They may be taken lawfully by any individual for the sole use of himself and family, and this applies to the hotel keeper as well as to the private resident or cottager.

—At a socialist picnic in Chicago a banner was displayed bearing the device, "Our children cry for bread." As the picnickers managed to get away with 300 kegs of beer, there was no occasion to doubt the statement.

It may be true that there are two sides to most questions, but there can only be one to the questions as to the efficacy of St. Jacobs Oil.

PURE IS THE ABSOLUTE NECESSITY OF HEALTH. BLOOD

THE marvellous results of HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA upon all humors and low conditions of the blood (as proven by the cures effected) prove it the best BLOOD MEDICINE. Such has been the success of this article at home that nearly every family in wholeneighborhoods have been taking it. The same time. It eradicates scrofula, vitalizes the blood, and renovates the whole system. Hood's SARSAPARILLA purifies the blood. Hood's SARSAPARILLA cures dyspepsia. Hood's SARSAPARILLA cures biliousness. A peculiar point in Hood's SARSAPARILLA is that it builds up and strengthens the system, while it eradicates disease, and as nature's great assistant proves itself invaluable as a protection from diseases that originate in changes of the seasons, of climate and of life.

HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA

Philosophy of Marriage,

Wish to inform their patients and those desirous of consultations, that one of the firm is now in Portsmouth, N. H., and can be consulted at

20 Congress St., Portsmouth, N. H.,

From August 20th to September 5th only.

Having for many years made a specialty of all diseases of men, cases of Nervous and Physical Debility, Exhausted Vitality and Genital Functional Arrangements, can ensure those consulting them a speedy, safe and permanent cure.

The Medical Times says:—This system differs from all others in general use, and recommends itself to the sufferer as the only sure source of relief. Many cases pronounced incurable, have yielded successfully to the remedies employed by them.

Drs. Jordan & Jacques' Medical Work,

Philosophy of Marriage,

Being eight highly important lectures delivered at the Museum of Anatomy, showing how health is lost and regained, and giving a clear synopsis of the impediments to marriage and the treatment of nervous diseases can be had on application for 25 cents.

THE WEATHER.

For New England to-day:—

Slightly cooler, generally fair weather, stationary or slightly rising barometer.

The Thermometer at the CHRONICLE Office, at 4:00 o'clock this morning, indicated 50 degrees above zero.

Clear.

NAVY YARD ITEMS.

Hon. John S. Treat and Mr. Simon H. Mills went on the navy yard on Tuesday.

The foreman sailmaker on the yard received orders on Tuesday to proceed with the repairs of the Galena's sails, and the making of what new ones are required.

MARITIME NOTES.

There was a large fleet of coasters and fishermen in the lower harbor on Sunday and Monday, awaiting suitable weather to get under weigh.

The steamer Mystic is running between this city and Kittery Point, in absence of the May Queen. The James Sampson's new boiler will soon be finished, when she will resume her trips.

The schooners Triton, Lillie and Satellite sailed for Boston on Monday, the 31st ult., with cargoes of bricks. The J. Chester Wood, Hattie Lewis and Estella sailed on Tuesday.

Schooner Loella of Portsmouth, commanded by Capt. Amee of Kittery, sailed on Tuesday of last week from Rockland, Me., loaded with lime for Dover; arrived in the lower harbor on the following Wednesday, and on Thursday was towed to Dover by the tug Ann, where she discharged her cargo the same day. On Friday she was towed down to Chauncy's creek; on Saturday she commenced loading with hay from the Jennison farm, and sailed on Tuesday morning for Boston.

Mr. John J. Hardy, Jr., of Boston, returned from the Marshall house, York harbor, on Monday, with the yacht boat Ripple, belonging to Lewis Holmes, in which he has been cruising, as in the previous year. He said he intended to return next season, as he was much pleased with his trip.

This evening, at Music hall, Madeline Lucette as "Niniche" in the sparkling musical comedy of the same name, adapted from the French.

Deacon Jesse Knowles of Hampton, whose death in that town on the 28th ult. is announced, in the 89th year of his age, was the last of a large family connection of that generation, and died on the place where he was born in 1797, and where his father and his grandfather lived before him.

Milliken's Operatic Comedy Co. at Music hall to-night, in "Niniche."

The monthly test of the fire alarm, Tuesday afternoon, was satisfactory, the apparatus being found in good working order.

The life-saving station at Rye beach was manned for the season on Tuesday, the 1st inst.

On account of moving the central telephone exchange from one building to another, the telephone service will be interrupted somewhat this forenoon, but will be in order later in the day.

The farcical comedy "Our Irish Visitors," by Murray & Murphy, under the managment of J. M. Hill, is said to be a wonderful power for raising laughter, and the hit of the season. At Music hall to-morrow evening.

It is estimated that over a thousand persons visited the Stickney Gymnasium during the day and evening on Tuesday, the opening day. In the evening Mr. Stickney made a new record in dumbbell lifting, elevating with one hand to arm's length above his head a 133-lb. bell, holding it there sixty-five seconds, and then lowering it with the same hand, this feat being witnessed by over a hundred people. Harry J. Goodwin and Frederick Knowlton were time-keepers.

Mr. A. Sydney Carroll is well accomplished in the art of blasting with dynamite. He is now engaged in levelling the ledge in front of C. E. Walker's new house on Middle street in preparation for a fine lawn, and approaches within fifteen feet of the front of the building in the explosions without causing any damages.

The auction sale of carriages at Randlett's carriage manufactory in Dover, on Friday, Sept. 4th, will afford a fine opportunity for any to secure a new or second-hand carriage at a reasonable price.

The new insurance law, known as "the valued policy bill," is printed in full in another column. As a result of the passage of this law, it is intimated that many if not all of the outside companies doing business in New Hampshire will withdraw; but the promoters of the bill do not believe this.

The Penny Post says that "at the last meeting of the board of aldermen Mr. Wm. W. Palfrey's name was mentioned as a suitable person to superintend the building of the drain, on the part of the city; when an alderman bluffly blurted out that if the navy yard was a haven for mugwumps, held be blanked if the city was going into that kind of business."

Harry Keegins and Benning Moore, two well known master stevedores of this city, with their families, visited Chauncy's creek on Sunday. The day proving to be very rainy, they took refuge on board the schooner Loella, where the ladies prepared a fine chowder. The latter must have had considerable courage to venture through the rain, although they were well provided with umbrellas instead of oil-cloth suits.

Several boys and girls were landing at the wharf of Goodrich's tan-yard, Tuesday afternoon, when a girl ten or twelve years old fell into the water; one of the boys caught hold of her, and held on until help arrived to pull her out. Not long afterward a man was trying to get his boat out through the millpond gates while the tide was running in, and his hand slipping from a rock he went backward over the gunwale, and he and the boat were carried back into the pond by the current.

John Griffin of Portsmouth has served thirty consecutive years in the marine corps of the United States, as an enlisted man. He joined the service at Washington city in the year 1855. He is said to be the only man who has so continuously served without intermission, in proof of which he wears the chevrons. On the 27th day of January next he will go on the retired list, without discharge. He came to this city Tuesday on a leave of absence from the "Wabash."

The Nonpareil club have placed in their hall a new Mason & Hamlin organ, to the accompaniment of which they sing with marked vigor and satisfaction.

1	"	Goddard Style Open.
5	"	Poers Style Open.
3	"	Elliptic Spring Open.
1	"	light Chaise.
2	"	Elliptic Spring Piano Box.

I offer this Sale of Carriages at this time, as

I AM OBLIGED TO HAVE THE ROOM

— FOR MY —

Stock of Sleighs.

☞ This is the best lot of Second-hand Carriages that I have ever had in stock, as many of them are my own manufacture, and some but little worn, and ALL of them in perfect repair.

M. A. CAVANAUGH, Auctioneer.

The boys of the P. S. H. & F. club are now encamped at Chauncy's creek, Kittery Point, in a modern tent with fine accommodations, constructed by Mr. Grover of this city. They have with them some of the instruments of the former Portsmouth Naval band, upon which they render good music. They will break camp on Saturday, because their vacations being mostly finished they have to return to work.

There was a boat race off Long beach, York, last week, between the boats of Lewis Meade, Dr. Clements and the Ellis brothers. Mr. Meade, of Manchester, was the winner, in fifty-one minutes and three seconds; Dr. Clements came in second, in fifty-two minutes and twenty seconds; and the Ellises were last, in fifty-seven minutes and twenty-five seconds.

Mr. Nathaniel B. Dame, formerly an active business mechanic of this city, is now residing at Kittery point. When questioned as to his age he says he is eighty-eight years. He is fresh and fair-looking, and moves about quickly. His recollection both of old and recent occurrences in his native city is perfect.

Action has been brought against Luke H. Roberts of Alfred, a deputy sheriff of York county, in the sum of $2000, for arresting and detaining John S. Wood of Dover, N. H., at South Waterboro, Me., depot, July 30, on the supposition that he was bringing liquor into the state for illegal sale. Wood had no liquor in his possession, and alleges that he was going to Waterboro to spend the fourth with relatives. Roberts mistook Wood for one Hill. The case is of considerable interest, as it involves important legal questions.

John Bellamy, of Kittery Point, at his workshop in the rear of the old Pepperell mansion is busily engaged in carving wooden eagles. He has recently executed 500 effigies of this proud bird for Frank Jones.

The Pepperell house at Kittery Point, Landlord Safford, has had a very successful season. Of late the visitors have been leaving, as usual, but still there are some sixty remaining.

CHOLERA CRAMPS CHILLS

"An ounce of prevention," that is, a dose of SANFORD'S GINGER, "is worth a pound of cure," which, of course, means a doctor. It is absolute. by certain that Cholera may be prevented, and, in the majority of cases, successfully treated, with SANFORD'S GINGER, a powerful stimulant, composed of Imported Ginger, choice Aromatics, and the best French Brandy; convenient, speedy and safe; sure to check summer complaint, prevent indigestion, destroy disease germs in water drank, restore the circulation when suspended by a chill, and ward off malarial, contagious, and epidemic influences.

Avoid mercenary dealers who for a few cents extra profit try to force upon you their own or others' when you call for

SANFORD'S GINGER

The Delicious Summer Medicine.

Cramps, Pains, Cholera Morbus, Diarrhœa, and Dysentery, whether produced by unripe fruit, impure water, unwholesome food, or change of climate, food or water, or any little ills of home or travel, such as Colds, Chills, Simple Fevers, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Sea-sickness, Exhaustion, Nervousness, Loss of Sleep, Debility and Dissipation, are instantly relieved by SANFORD'S GINGER, the safest, surest, and best summer medicine and travelling companion.

As a healthful summer drink with water, milk, iced water, lemonade, effervescent draughts and mineral waters, it is the best.

Beware of worthless "gingers," said to be "as good," or "the same," or "as larger," or "cheaper" than SANFORD'S GINGER. Ask for Health Regulations.

THE BOARD OF HEALTH OF THE CITY OF PORTSMOUTH call the attention of the public to the following sections of Chapter 10 of the City Ordinances and invite all interested in the preservation of health in the city to aid them in the execution of their duty.

CHAPTER X.

Sec. 3. All waste water of houses, yards, cellars, sinks, pumps, &c., shall be conveyed by their owners or occupiers to the common sewers, or to such places as the health officers may direct.

Sec. 4. No person shall be allowed to throw any vegetable or animal substance or any other matter capable of producing infection, into any street, lane, alley or dock, or upon any wharf, but shall be required to throw them into the river below low-water mark.

Sec. 5. The contents of vaults and privies shall not be permitted to rise within one foot of the surface of the earth. And all owners or occupiers of buildings having such vaults or privies as may require it, shall cause them to be emptied within ten days from the promulgation of this ordinance, and in future on or before the first day of May in each year. And any such owner or occupier neglecting so to do, shall forfeit and pay for every such neglect a sum not less than three nor more than twenty dollars, and a like sum for every week's neglect after the time above specified.

Sec. 6. No vendor of meat at the stalls shall be permitted to have any stale meat, heads, feet or offal of any kind about their stalls or stores over night, or suffer them to be thrown into any street, lane or alley of the city. Nor shall any sellers of fish be permitted to throw any offal of fish into any street, lane or alley of the city, or upon any wharf, but shall either bury them or throw them into the river below low-water mark.

Sec. 7. If any dead animal or decaying vegetable substance, or any other nuisance, shall be found in any part of the city, the owners and occupiers of the premises where such nuisances shall be found, shall cause the same to be removed within twenty-four hours after being notified so to do by one or more of the health officers.

Sec. 12. When any householder shall know that any person in his family is taken sick of the small pox, or any other disease dangerous to the public health, he shall immediately give notice thereof to the health officers.

Sec. 13. When any physician shall know that any person whom he is called to visit is infected with the small pox, or any other disease dangerous to the public health, such physician shall immediately give notice thereof to the health officers.

Sec. 14. If any such householder or physician shall refuse or neglect to give the notice required in the preceding sections, he shall for each refusal or neglect forfeit the sum of twenty dollars, to be recovered by either of the health officers in the name of the city.

Sec. 16. The health officers may give written notice to the owner or occupier of any building, yard or enclosure, to remove or destroy any nuisance or other thing deemed by them, on examination, to be injurious to the public health, within a time limited therein; and if the same such owner or occupier—the said notice having been given to him, or left at his usual place of abode, or addressed to him at his last abode, and said health officers may, by direction of the mayor also accompanied by the city marshal forcibly enter any building, vessel or enclosure, and cause said nuisance or other thing aforesaid to be removed or destroyed.

Sec. 21. No person shall erect, keep or continue or permit to be erected, kept or continued, upon any land occupied by him, any pen for the keeping of swine, or privy, over either of the mill ponds in this city, or so placed that offensive substances therefrom shall be discharged or drained into either of said ponds, or into any creek, or cove or drain leading thereto. And no person shall construct, keep or continue any drain leading from any pen for the keeping of any swine, slaughter-house, privy vault, or other unwholesome or offensive place, into either of said ponds, or to any land bordering upon the same. And no person shall throw or suffer to be thrown from his land into either of said ponds, or upon any of said flats or marshes, any dead, decaying, unwholesome or offensive animal or vegetable substances.

They Have Never Failed!

I have been sick more or less for the last ten years, which has cost me many dollars in doctors and druggists' bills. The last two years it only cost me three dollars. Why? Because I used Sulphur Bitters instead of employing doctors. They cured me of Jaundice.—F. F. Boyd, Hoboken.

Germany has agreed to apply the tariff less rigorously toward Austria than toward other nations.

We Caution All Against Them.

The unprecedented success and merit of Ely's Cream Balm—a real cure for catarrh, hay fever and cold in the head—has induced many adventurers to place catarrh medicines bearing some resemblance in appearance, style or name upon the market, in order to trade upon the reputation of Ely's Cream Balm. Many in your immediate locality will testify in highest commendation of it. Don't be deceived. Buy only Ely's Cream Balm. A particle is applied into each nostril; no pain; agreeable to use. Price fifty cents, of druggists.

—An Albany paper tells of a woman in that city who woke her husband during a storm the other night and said: "I do wish you would stop snoring, for I want to hear it thunder."

—"Few men have honest convictions," says some one. This is not so serious as the fact that so many men have dishonest acquittals.

—"You have lived a life of good deeds. Why should you fear death?" "Because," says the dying alderman, "the papers publish such villainous pictures of public men.

—There are two sides to every question, and as sure as you're born the other man, by some blundering fatality, always takes the wrong side.

—A girl should marry for protection, instead of for revenue only.

The Uncertainty of Mundane Affairs.

The world would go on very much the same if we should be away as if we were here. One man leaves, another takes his place; but Gen'ls G. T. Beauregard of La., and Jubal A. Early of Va., are faithful to their engagement, to conduct in person the grand monthly drawings of The Louisiana State Lottery at New Orleans, La. Their presence and entire supervision are a sure guarantee of the honesty of the management. The next (the 184th grand monthly) will take place on September 8th, and any information can be had on application to M. A. Dauphin, New Orleans, La.

Bill Nye's War Sketch.

While the people of this country are showing such an interest in our war history I am surprised that something has not been said about Bunker Hill. On that occasion the Federal forces from Roxbury to Cambridge were under command of Gen. Artemus Ward, the great American humorist. When the American humorist really puts on his war paint and sounds the tocsin, he can organize a great deal of mourning.

Gen. Ward was assisted by Putnam, Starke, Prescott, Gridley and Pomeroy. Col. William Prescott was sent over from Cambridge to Charleston for the purpose of fortifying Bunker Hill. At a council of war it was decided to fortify Breeds Hill, not so high but nearer to Boston than Bunker Hill. So a redoubt was thrown up during the night on the ground where the monument now stands.

The British landed a large force under Gens. Howe and Pigot, and at 2 p. m. the Americans were reinforced by Gens. Warren and Pomeroy. Gen. Warren was of a literary turn of mind and during the battle took his hat off and recited a little poem beginning:

Stand, the ground's your own, my braves!
Will ye give it up to slaves?

A man who could deliver an impromptu and extemporaneous address like that in public, and while there was such a bitter feeling of hostility on the part of the audience, must have been a good scholar. In our great fratricidal strife twenty years ago, the inferiority of our generals in this respect was noticeable. We did not have a commander who could address his troops in rhyme to save his neck. Several of them were pretty good in blank verse, but it was so blank that it was not just the thing to speak in school afterward.

Col. Prescott's statue now stands where he is supposed to have stood when he told his men to reserve their fire till they saw the whites of the enemy's eyes. Those who have examined the cast-iron flint-lock weapon used in those days will admit that the order was wise. Those guns were injurious to health, of course, when used to excess, but not necessary fatal.

At the time of the third attack by the British the Americans were out of ammunition, but they met the enemy with clubbed muskets, and it was found that one end of the rebel flint-lock was about as fatal as the other, if not more so.

Boston still meets the invader with its club. The Mayor says to the citizens of Boston: "Wait till you can see the whites of your visitor's eyes, and then go for him with your clubs." Then the visitor surrenders.

I hope that many years will pass before it will again be necessary for us to soak this fair land in British blood. The boundaries of our land are now more extended, and so it would take more blood to soak it.

Bunker Hill is dear to every American heart, and there are none of us who would not have cheerfully gone into the battle then if we had known about it in time.—Boston Globe.

There is a process of "carving" wood by softening it and then pressing it in molds. In a Parisian process, known as Xylopbasty, the wood is softened by steam and imbued with certain ingredients, which impart to it sufficient ductility to enable it to receive bas-relief impressions from four to five millimetres in height. For medallions, bosses, etc., mastic is forced into the hollows, so that all tendency in the compressed wood to split or open is completely overcome. For bookbinding purposes, much seems expected from this process, as it is applicable to the scented or odoriferous woods—cedar, teak, cypress, rosewood, etc. which repel worms.

T. B. Aldrich's price for a poem of a few verses, we are told, is from $300 to $400. This will explain why his poems never appear originally in the "poet's corner" of our rural exchanges. We havent' seen a new poem from the pen of Mr. Aldrich for more than a year. A country editor would as soon pay $300 for a fat mackerel as for a short poem.—Norristown Herald.

A gentleman informed us yesterday that on one occasion he was out fishing at Barrow's Pond when the pond was so low that it was impossible to run the mill. After looking around the pond for some time it was discovered that all of the snakes had crawled out of the water and had caused it to fall several feet. To remedy this they drove them back into the pond, when the grinding at the mill was resumed without further trouble.—Jackson, (Ga.) News.

The Clangor of an Alarm Bell

Close by, in the stillness of the night, could scarcely startle the ordinary individual more than do trifling noises the nervous invalid. But once the nerves are braced and the system invigorated with Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, this abnormal sensitiveness is succeeded by a tranquility not to be disturbed by trivial causes. Impaired digestion is a fertile cause of nerve weakness and unnatural mental gloom, and a vigorous renewal of the action of the stomach is one of the surest means of the invigorating and quieting the nerves. Insomnia, or sleeplessness, a form of nervous disease, is unquestionably benefitted by sedatives, when it is prolonged, or of frequent occurrence, but its permanent removal is more effectually achieved with the Bitters. This medicine is also signally efficacious for malaria, rheumatism, constipation, liver complaint, and torpidity of the kidneys and bladder.

Circumstances After Cases.

John E. Russell, secretary of the state board of agriculture in Massachusetts, declines an invitation to preside at the coming democratic state convention in the Bay state. In a long letter he reminds the democrats of their resolutions concerning civil service when the other fellows filled the offices, and calls upon them to sustain the excellent theory in practice. The letter shows clearly that the committee invited the wrong man. While the democrats wish to endorse the president until they learn just what the outcome is to be in regard to the offices, they are not prepared to commit the party further in the direction of civil service reform. Resolutions when a party is in a minority are one thing, but quite another when the offices are wanted.

The Alabama Claims Court.

A rumor has reached Washington to the effect that Solicitor McCue has prepared an opinion in which he takes the ground that the present Court of Alabama Claims has no legal existence whatever, because, as he is informed, the judges and officers thereof were not given new commissions when the functions of the court were extended by the act of June, 1884. The first section of that act provides "that the existence of the Court of Commissioners of Alabama Claims re-established by the act * * approved June 5, 1882 be and the same is hereby continued and extended to the 31st day of December in the year 1885, with the same effect and no other as if said last named day had been named in said act for the termination of the powers of said court."

The story seems incredible, and yet it must be remembered that Solicitor McCue's superior officer has officially expressed the opinion that no contracts for the construction of the steel cruisers, which are nearly finished, are in existence. It should also be remembered that when the act of June, 1884, was under discussion in the senate the only senators who opposed the extension by speeches were Messrs. Bayard and Garland. The only democratic senators who voted for the extension were Messrs. Jonas and Maxey, and no republican senator voted against it. So that the measure seems to have been considered by the democrats as a party one, perhaps because it provided for the honest payment of claims out of money then in the treasury of the United States.

If this doctrine is sound claimants must go over the ground again, and seek new judgments before a newly constituted court the members of which will be appointed by the president, and great delays will of course ensue.

Alexander H. Donley of Windham, Conn., aged eighty-one years, took paris green Aug. 30th. Cause, temporary insanity.

AFFAIRS IN KITTERY.

KITTERY, ME., Sept. 1st.

Mrs. Nancy Wilson, wife of the late Gowen Wilson of North Kittery, who has been confined to her bed with a dangerous sickness for several months past, has so far recovered as to be about the house again.

Morrill Lodge of Good Templars at North Kittery are making arrangements to have a harvest supper about the middle of September.

Archie Boardman, a son of James Boardman, who has been employed in the boiler shop on the navy yard for some time past, left the yard on Friday last, and started for San Francisco.

Edward R. Fuller and wife of North Kittery, have returned from North Warren, Me., where they have spent a portion of their vacation.

Mr. Samuel Taylor, late gas-maker at the navy yard, has moved with his family to North Kittery.

Granville C. Spinney's White mountain party started Saturday afternoon last. Two large horses belonging to Ephraim C. Spinney, Esq., were attached to the barge used to transport the company and their baggage, and all left in fine spirits. They will go up on the New Hampshire and down on the Maine side of the mountain, occupying two or three weeks in the trip.

Misses Bertha Hayes and Fannie Remick return to their studies at the Gorham Normal school on Wednesday, Sept. 2d.

Mr. Sumner Paul of Boston, is passing his vacation at his home in West Kittery. This week he is, with his sister, Miss Nellie, making a short visit with friends in Wolfeboro, N. H.

Harry Remick returned to his duties in Lynn, Mass., last week, after passing several weeks very pleasantly at his home, feeling much refreshed.

Leonard Foster of Eliot is teaching the fall term of school in district No. 2, at North Kittery, which commenced Aug. 31st.

A club of amateur base ball players of North Kittery went to York one day last week to play the base ball club there. When well under way with the game the Kittery boys discovered that they were not playing the York boys, but several professional players, strangers, who were boarding at the Marshall house, were their competitors. The North Kittery boys do not consider themselves beaten by the York boys, and are willing to try them again with a fair deal.

The railroad company have built a new and substantial fence on the top of the abutment in front of H. B. Parker's store at Kittery Depot, the old one being much out of repair and very rotten, and has not been considered safe for several years past.

Miss Emma Berry and Jennie Lafayette, of Dorchester, Mass., are passing a few days very pleasantly at Moses G. Berry's Kittery Point.

Mr. Oliver Berry, seventy years old, of Kittery Point, almost miraculously escaped being killed to-day, the 1st inst., by falling through some flooring in his barn, the distance being sixteen feet; he sustained several bruises, but got off without the breaking of any bones. His granddaughter Lizzie, aged seven, stood directly underneath, but fortunately was not touched, she escaping entirely.

SUB ROSA.

"'When we two parted,' after lingering late at the gate, I felt as though I had taken cold," said Thomas Takeintime, "and next morning I was hoarse indeed. But a bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup fixed me up, and there's enough left for next time."

Warren Colburn, sixty years of age, was knocked senseless at the door of his house at Needham plains, Mass., on the evening of Aug. 31st, with a cart stake, and next morning was found lying where he fell. He was robbed of $60.

We Caution All Against Them.

The unprecedented success and merit of Ely's Cream Balm—a real cure for catarrh, hay fever and cold in the head—has induced many adventurers to place catarrh medicines bearing some resemblance in appearance, style or name upon the market, in order to trade upon the reputation of Ely's Cream Balm. Many in your immediate locality will testify in highest commendation of it. Don't be deceived. Buy only Ely's Cream Balm. A particle is applied into each nostril; no pain; agreeable to use. Price fifty cents, of druggists.

THE WEATHER.

For New England to-day:—

The Thermometer at the CHRONICLE Office, at 4:00 o'clock this morning, indicated 40 degrees above zero.

Clear.

THE COMPANIES HIT BACK.

A press despatch of the 1st inst. from Hartford, Conn., says:

All the fire insuaance companies of Hartford, with a single exception, and all the fire insurance companies having general agencies in this city, have withdrawn their agencies and discontinued business in the state of New Hampshire on account of the passage of "the valued policy bill."

The following despatch was sent from New York city on the same date:

The recent action of the New Hampshire legislature in passing a law which has had the effect to compel all fire insurance companies to withdraw their agencies from the state has created considerable excitement in mercantile circles in this city. The leading companies of New York and Hartford notified their agents in New Hampshire to cease doing business and consider their commissions suspended while the new law is in operation. The matter interests financially not only the merchants and property owners of New Hampshire, but in other states all who have pecuniary interests in that state.

Many of the companies having agencies in this city have ordered their agents to cease doing business, and the advertisements of some of the agents have been taken out of the papers. We have heard nothing said as to the cancelling of exisiting policies, and are not aware whether or no any such movement is contemplated.

It was doubtless anticipadon of this action on the part of the insurance companies which led to the chartering of three new fire insurance companies by the legislature at its late session.

MARITIME NOTES.

The schooner A. R. Weeks, from Philadelphia for this port with coal, put back to Philadelphia on the 1st inst., having had her port rail and seven stanchions carried away amidships, also her port main rigging, by collision off Brandywine shoals, Delaware bay, with the barque Ephrussi, which also put back with loss of jibboom, bobstays and cutwater.

The steamer Mystic on the 2d inst. finished running on the route between this city and Kittery Point, and will make no more trips to the Point, unless for picnic parties by special arrangement made with Capt. Trefethen.

The British schooner Alaska, Bishop master, which sailed from this port for Moncton, New Brunswick, the latter part of last month, went ashore on Cross island, not far from her destination, in a dense fog; the rocks where she struck were steep, and she immediately slipped off, and after running twenty minutes she again struck, two or three times in succession, at short intervals. She finally got clear of the rocks with her port bow badly stove and both anchors and fifteen fathoms of chain lost, and in that condition arrived at Moncton.

The steamer Luke Hoyt, belonging to Mr. Symonds, proprietor of the dredging flotilla which has done so much work on the upper Piscataqua during the past six or eight years, was on Wednesday, the 2d inst., reported ready to leave the railway at Kittery, her repairs having been completed. While on the ways her bottom planking has been renewed, she has been refastened throughout, and all has been done that was needed to put her in good condition. Capt. Symonds was expecting the flotilla down from up river on Saturday, the 5th, when all would proceed to Salem, Mass., where there is about ten days' dredging to do, after which the flotilla will haul up there for the winter, should no further business offer.

This evening, at Music hall, the fun will be fast and furious, the occasion being Murray & Murphy's appearance in their "side-splitting absurdity, 'Our Irish Visitors,'" under the management of Mr. J. M. Hill. See advertisement in another column.

"Ninioche," the comic opera presented at Music hall by the Milliken Operatic Comedy Co. on the evening of the 2d inst., is full of fun, sparkling humor and ridiculously amusing situations, and the acting is noticeably good throughout. The audience was nothing near what was merited, in point of numbers, but managed to express a good deal of satisfaction at the excellent performance.

When the fire alarm was sounded on the afternoon of the 28th ult., the circumstances were favorable for it to be heard a long distance; but it was not heard on the navy yard, and members of the fire department working there were not aware until they came across the river in the evening that there had been any alarm given.

On Wednesday, the 2d inst., nine caulkers were "required" on the navy yard, to commence work Thursday morning on the Vandalia; six of them are Portsmouth men, the other three being from Maine; and several of the number are republicans.

It is reported that Mr. Joseph Hett, of Hett Brothers; the energetic and enterprising firm of city expressmen, has bought the house at the elbow of Elm street from Mr. Hadley.

Mr. Daniel Littlefield, at the Green street wood yard, has just landed forty cords of very nice walnut wood from Durham, than which there can be nothing better to burn in open grates or airtight stoves. He has also a full supply of oak and maple, as well as soft woods.

Mr. C. F. Staples, of Eliot neck, one day during the latter part of August caught forty mackerel averaging 1 1-2 lbs. weight each, off Boiling rock.

The brick schooner Satellite, during the illness of Capt. Josiah M. Aderton, is being sailed by his oldest son; his second son, Capt. Sewall Aderton, is master of the big sloop Stephen Orr.

HAMPTON JOTTINGS.

Sept. 1st. We are not scenting the "Last Rose of Summer," this splendid summer morning, though it be the dawn of autumn, as saith the almanac. But, nevertheless, the summer guests took their flight, yesterday, in crowds from the ocean side, as if they feared an equinoxial storm might wreck them on their homeward way.

One of our oldest, most respected and venerable citizens, Dea. Jesse Knowles, was gently laid by the loving hands of his surviving children, to sleep in the cemetery yesterday. He was a Christian gentleman of the olden times, with the courteous manners which by example and precept parents delighted to teach their children in those good old earlier days, when a "handsome bow," a "graceful courtesy" and a respectful answer, were, at once, the sign and passport of good family blood and breeding, in such regretful contrast with the "hollo," "yeah," and Noah nod, of modern gentility and civilization, much vaunted as the era of progress and polite etiquette.

Dea. Knowles has had a somewhat varied and singular experience. A single incident only, have we time to mention. Many years ago he lost his sight, and for several years was entirely blind. In the meantime his boy grew up to strong and well developed manhood. One morning sight was suddenly recovered, and his first question was, "Who are you?" to be answered, "Father, it is I." The good man did not recognize his manly son! *

Maggie Tallon of Taunton, Mass., aged eleven years, was drowned in Mill river Monday afternoon, 31st ult.

GRANITE STATE FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY.

THE Grantees of the Granite State Fire Insurance Company of Portsmouth, N. H., incorporated by an act of the Legislature of New Hampshire at its recent session, are notified that the first meeting of said Corporation will be held at No. 87 Merrk. Street, in said Portsmouth, on Monday, Sept. 7th, at three o'clock, P. M., for the purpose of organizing said Corporation under its charter, and the transaction of any business therewith pertaining. JOHN W. SANBORN,
FRANK JONES,
Authorized to call said meeting.
PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Aug. 31st, 1885.

Glasses Lost.

ON Tuesday, 1st inst., probably between Call's Lumber Yard and Portsmouth Bridge, a pair of GOLD-BOWED SPECTACLES. The finder will be suitably rewarded on returning them to this office. *

The Marysville, Montana, mail coach was stopped by two highwaymen about eight miles out of Helena, Aug. 29th, and the treasure box, containing about $12,000 in bullion from the Drumlummon mine, taken. The passengers were relieved of their valuables. One of the robbers had "given the plot away" to officers, and when the treasure box was being broken open the sheriff and a posse captured the robbers and recovered the booty.

Advices of the 1st inst. from the cholera-infected districts of Europe are not encouraging. At Toulon the disease was advancing, and the government had sent four physicians from Paris. More cases of cholera had occurred at Gibraltar, and the disease had appeared at three places in the province of Genoa.

William E. Brockway, a young farmer of Waterford, Conn., shot his wife and then himself, Aug. 31st. Jealousy was the cause. Brockway will probably recover, but his wife will die. He is under arrest.

Albert E. Bosworth of Fall River, Mass., who was arrested several weeks ago for sending obscene matter through the mails to a respectable woman, was tried in the United States district court at Providence, found not guilty, and discharged.

Depositors at the Framingham, Mass., Savings bank are surrendering their bank books to hasten the official examination now in progress. The safe where valuable books and papers are stored will be forced open.

The Portland, Me., Press contradicts the report of a contract between the city and the electric light company, and also says it will cost about $5000 more a year for electricity than gas.

Jennie Reynolds, an abandoned woman of Boston, is under arrest on a charge of murdering a sailor with a knife, in a low boarding house kept by her reputed husband, one Hennessey.

The New York Telegram says the Western Union telegraphers will strike Sept. 15th.

CHOLERA CRAMPS CHILLS

"An ounce of prevention," that is, a dose of SANFORD'S GINGER, "is worth a pound of cure," which, of course, means a doctor. It is absolutely certain that Cholera may be prevented, and, in the majority of cases, successfully treated, with SANFORD'S GINGER, a powerful stimulant, composed of Imported Ginger, choice Aromatics, and the best French Brandy; convenient, speedy and safe; sure to check summer complaint, prevent indigestion, destroy disease germs in water drank, restore the circulation when suspended by a chill, and ward off malarial, contagious, and epidemic influences.

Avoid mercenary dealers who for a few cents extra profit try to force upon you their own or others' when you call for

SANFORD'S GINGER

The Delicious Summer Medicine.

Cramps, Pains, Cholera Morbus, Diarrhœa, and Dysentery, whether produced by unripe fruit, impure water, unwholesome food, or change of climate, food or water, or any little ills of home or travel, such as Colds, Chills, Simple Fevers, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Sea-sickness, Exhaustion, Nervousness, Loss of Sleep, Debility and Dissipation, are instantly relieved by SANFORD'S GINGER, the safest, surest, and best summer medicine and travelling companion.

As a healthful summer drink with water, milk, iced water, lemonade, effervescent draughts and mineral waters, it is the best.

Beware of worthless "gingers," said to be "as good," or "the same," or "as larger," or "cheaper" than SANFORD'S GINGER. Ask for

SANFORD'S GINGER

Health Regulations.

THE BOARD OF HEALTH OF THE CITY OF PORTSMOUTH call the attention of the public to the following sections of Chapter 10 of the City Ordinances and invite all interested in the preservation of health in the city to aid them in the execution of their duty.

CHAPTER X.

Sec. 3. All waste water of houses, yards, cellars, sinks, pumps, &c., shall be conveyed by their owners or occupiers to the common sewers or to such places as the health officers may direct.

Sec. 4. No person shall be allowed to throw any vegetable or dead animal substance or any other matter capable of producing infection, into any street, lane, alley or dock, or upon any wharf, but shall bury them or throw them into the river below low-water mark.

Sec. 5. The contents of vaults and privies shall not be permitted to rise within one foot of the surface of the ground. And all owners or occupiers of buildings having such vaults or privies as may require it, shall cause them to be emptied within ten days from the promulgation of this ordinance, and in future on or before the first day of May in each year. And any such owner or occupier neglecting so to do, shall forfeit and pay for every such neglect a sum not less than three nor more than twenty dollars, and a like sum for every week's neglect after the time above specified.

Sec. 6. No vender of meat at the stalls shall be permitted to leave any stale meat, heads, feet or offal of any kind about their stalls or stores over night, or suffer them to be thrown into any street, lane or alley of the city. Nor shall any sellers of fish be permitted to throw any offal of fish into any street, lane or alley of the city, or upon any wharf, but shall either bury them or throw them into the river below low-water mark.

Sec. 7. If any dead animal or decaying vegetable substance, or any other nuisance, shall be found in any part of the city, the owners and occupiers of the premises where such nuisances shall be found, shall cause the same to be removed within twenty-four hours after being notified so to do by one or more of the health officers.

Sec. 12. When any householder shall know that any person within his family is taken sick of the small pox, or any other disease dangerous to the public health, he shall immediately give notice thereof to the health officers.

Sec. 13. When any physician shall know that any person whom he is called to visit is infected with the small pox, or any other disease dangerous to the public health, such physician shall immediately give notice thereof to the health officers.

Sec. 14. If any such householder or physician shall refuse or neglect to give the notice required in the preceding sections, he shall for each refusal or neglect forfeit not less than twenty dollars; and be recovered by either of the health officers in the name of the city.

Sec. 15. The health officers may give written notice to the owner or occupier of any building, vessel or enclosure, to remove or destroy any nuisance or obstruction found therein on examination, to be injurious to the public health, within a certain time limited therein; and in case such owner or occupier shall neglect, or having been given to him, or left at his usual place of abode shall neglect to comply therewith, the said health officers may, by direction of the mayor and be accompanied by the city marshal for, entry enter such building, vessel or enclosure, and cause said nuisance or other thing aforesaid to be removed or destroyed.

Sec. 21. No person shall erect, keep or continue or permit to be erected, kept or continued, upon any land occupied by him, any pen for the keeping of swine, or privy, over either of the mill ponds in the city, or so placed that offensive substances therefrom shall be discharged or drained into either of said ponds, or into any creek, or cove or drain leading thereto. And no person shall construct, keep or continue any drain leading from any pen for the keeping of any swine, any privy vault, or other unwholesome or offensive place, into either of said ponds, or to any flat or marsh adjoining the same. And no person shall throw or suffer to be thrown from his land into either of said ponds, or upon any of said flats or marshes, any dead, decaying, unwholesome or offensive animal or vegetable substances.

Use the great specific for "cold in the head" and catarrh—Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy.

An unsuccessful attempt was made by a gang of masked men early Sunday morning, Aug. 30th, to burn a bridge on the Indianapolis, Bloomington & Western railroad near Danvers, Iowa. The bridge was eighty-four feet long and fifteen feet high. It had been saturated with kerosene and was badly burned.

Notes!

Not the promissory, but facts about Welcome Soap, an article that does not contain one particle of the adulterations used to reduce the cost of "Pure goods," but does possess the full value of legitimate washing qualities, the demand for which proves the advantage gained by the use of the genuine over soaps of doubtful character. None should be deceived even by red and yellow wrappers, or any of the imitations of the "Welcome," as a pair of clasped hands is stamped on every bar. Made by Curtis Davis & Co.

Merrick T. Hitchcock was arrested in New Haven by Middletown officers, for passing worthless checks. Hitchcock was in the employ of Manning & Co., the Alabama claim lawyers of Boston, and was looking up evidence for them.

Destroy that Sign.

One may feel that he's getting old, but he naturally dislikes that anything about his appearance should advise others of the fact. Yet nothing does this so effectually as thin and falling hair. No woman wants to marry a man, and business firms hesitate to employ a man, who shows this fatal sign. Parker's Hair Balsam is worth to you, in this regard, more than its weight in diamonds. Use it, and have plentiful and glossy hair. Many have had every trace of grayness removed and bold spots covered by using a single bottle.

Two daughters of Charles F. Holtz, a wealthy merchant of Brooklyn, N. Y., were poisoned Aug. 30th by morphine, put up by mistake for quinine by a druggist. Gretchen, aged nineteen, died that day, and Ella, aged sixteen, the next day. The druggist, N. M. Ende, on learning of the case took a fatal dose of the same drug himself. Gretchen, the deceased girl, was engaged to be married to Dr. August Lowenthol, a young physician, and great preparations were being made for a fashionable wedding.

Advice to Mothers.

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? If so, send at once and get a bottle of Mrs Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers, there is no mistake about it. It cures dysentery and diarrhœa, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures wind colic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female nurses and physicians in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price 25 cents a bottle. eodjan8,85

Portsmouth MARBLE WORKS !

JOHN S. TREAT

THE OLDEST IN NEW ENGLAND.

COR. DEER AND VAUGHAN STS

NEAR B. & R. R. DEPOT.

Having on hand the largest and best selected stock of this side of Boston, I would respectfully call your attention to the same, believing that in most cases it is better for persons about purchasing to see what they are buying than to buy of irresponsible agents with nice looking Photographs of Monumental work. Having a thorough knowledge of the business gained in the principal cities of the Union and still giving my personal attention, all will be satisfied who will give me a call, as to quality of work and prices.

Particular attention given to fencing cemetery lots with marble or granite posts or curbs.

LOWELL JENNESS, Agent.

PATENTS.

R. H. EDDY,

No. 168 State St., opposite Kilby St., Boston.

Secures Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting one dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington. No Agency in the United States possesses superior facilities for obtaining Patents or ascertaining the patentability of inventions. R. H. EDDY, Solicitor of Patents.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practioners with whom I have had official intercourse."

CHAS. MASON, Commissioner of Patents.

"Inventors cannot employ a person more trustworthy or more capable of securing for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office." EDMUND BURKE, late Commissioner of Patents.

BOSTON, October 19, 1870.

R. H. EDDY, Esq.—Dear Sir: You procured for me, in 1846, my first patent. Since then you have acted for and advised me in hundreds of cases, and procured many patents, reissues and extensions. I have occasionally employed the best agencies in New York, Philadelphia and Washington, but I still give you almost the whole of my business, in your line, and advise others to employ you.

Yours truly, GEORGE DRAPER.

WIT AND HUMOR.

If the Milwaukee youth had known it would be so hard to raise a dollar he wouldn't have swallowed one.—Graphic.

God won't keep a young lady pious who has her waist encircled seven times a week by the arms of a spider-legged dude.

A little Boston boy being asked why Lot's wife was turned into a pillar of salt replied: "Because she was too fresh, I guess."

It was the summer concert Thomas cat who remarked: "If I can sing the midnight songs for the people, I do not care who gets the applause."

Fond Mother—"You are very sick, my child; I will send for Dr. Jones." Daughter (quickly)—"Not Dr. Jones, mother dear; he is engaged already."

The Yale student charged with having assaulted a policeman has been discharged. New Haven policemen ought to be careful about going out at night. —Boston Post.

"Can you tell me the difference between an egg and a cabbage?" asked young Mr. Badger. "I can," responded Mr. Rauter. "I have been on the stage ten years."—Puck.

Mr. Smiley: "Better let me carry the poodle, my dear, and you carry the baby." Mrs. Smiley: "No, my; you carry the baby; I can not trust you with Gyp; you might drop him."

In an Ohio town the other day a woman went about insisting that she was Mayor of the place. She declared, also, that she wanted to resign, and then everybody knew she was insane.

There is one place in this country—away down in Maine—where the people are so polite that they never speak of unmarried ladies as old maids. They simply call them ladies-in-waiting.

If these personal memories continue to be a feature of the leading magazines we will be led after awhile to believe that there wasn't an inferior General in the country.—Philadelphia Call.

Succotash was a new dish at Charlie's house, but one that pleased him immensely. He passed his plate to his mamma earnestly asking for "a little more of the sacred hash."—Harper's Bazar.

It is stated in a Southern exchange that one of the best sugar plantations in Louisiana is run by a dentist. There is a fitness in a dentist devoting himself to sorghums.—Pittsburg Chronicle-Telegraph.

Boston will have to look out for its esthetic laurels. Down in Biddeford, Me., people are so high-toned that instead of saying bath-room they speak of "ablutionary studios."—Burlington Free Press.

Addison says, "Nature delights in the most plain and simple diet." This is the reason Nature never has the gout or has to call in a doctor. Nature, we may remark, has a large head.—N. Y., Graphic.

A rough pine board attached to the outermost walls of a Michigan avenue place of business contains the following unique announcement: "Langwidges taught, Fortunes told, Seed pertaters." —Detroit Free Press.

Parnellite to friend in a whisper: "There's a head coming up above the crowd." Friend—"Whist! whose is it?" "Faith, I think it's Salisbury's." "Never mind whose it is, hit it."—Pittsburg Chronicle-Telegraph.

It should be remembered to the everlasting credit of Nebuchadnezzar that though he cast Shadrach, Meshach, and Abedugo into the fiery furnace he did not ask them: "Well, is this hot enough for you?"—Philadelphia Record.

Smith to Jones (the latter but recently married)—"Well, it wasn't so hard to get married after all, was it?" Jones—"There's something harder than getting married." Smith—"Getting a divorce, I suppose." Jones—"No; getting the furniture."

"Scientifically speaking," says Webster, "the negro is not a colored man." It is in this stilted manner that the great lexicographer endeavors to spring upon us the ancient chestnut about the negro not being colored because he was "born so." Such artful work is unworthy of Noah.

Prof. Proctor says that at least 450,000 meteors fall from the heavens and strike the earth every hour during the year. And yet when a man goes home with a black eye and a damaged tile and tells his wife that he was struck by a meteor she will not believe him.—Norristown Herald.

A man claiming to be a scientist wants some one to bore the earth to prevent its bursting. We have a friend who we think would be able to do it. Up to this time he has devoted all his boring energies to us, and we would be glad to see him try it on the rest of the earth.—Boston Post.

The Clangor of an Alarm Bell

Close by, in the stillness of the night, could scarcely startle the ordinary individual more than do trifling noises the nervous invalid. But once the nerves are braced and the system invigorated with Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, this abnormal sensitiveness is succeeded by a tranquility not to be disturbed by trivial causes. Impaired digestion is a fertile cause of nerve weakness and unnatural mental gloom, and a vigorous renewal of the action of the stomach is one of the surest means of the invigorating and quieting the nerves. Insomnia, or sleeplessness, a form of nervous disease, is unquestionably benefitted by sedatives, when it is prolonged, or of frequent occurrence, but its permanent removal is more effectually achieved with the Bitters. This medicine is also signally efficacious for malaria, rheumatism, constipation, liver complaint, and torpidity of the kidneys and bladder.

Cuticura

A POSITIVE CURE FOR EVERY FORM OF BLOOD AND SKIN DISEASE FROM PIMPLES TO SCROFULA.

DISFIGURING HUMORS, Humiliating Eruptions, Itching and Burning Skin Tortures, Loathsome Sores, and every species of Itching, Scaly, Pimply, Inherited or Scrofulous, and Contagious Diseases of the Blood, Skin, and Scalp, with Loss of Hair, from infancy to old age, are positively cured by CUTICURA RESOLVENT, the New Blood Purifier, internally, and CUTICURA, the Great Skin Cure, and CUTICURA SOAP, an exquisite Skin Beautifier, externally.

ECZEMA CURED.

I was afflicted with Eczema on the Scalp, Face, Ears and Neck, which the Druggist, where I got your remedies, pronounced one of the worst cases that had come under his notice. He advised me to try your CUTICURA REMEDIES, and after five days use, my scalp and part of my face were entirely cured, and I hope in another week to have my ears, neck, and the other part of my face cured. HERMAN SLADE,

120 E. 4th St., New York.

SCABS AND SORES.

I have been afflicted since last March with a Skin disease the doctors called Eczema. My face was covered with scabs and sores, and the itching and burning were almost unbearable. Seeing your CUTICURA REMEDIES so highly recommended, concluded to give them a trial, using the CUTICURA and CUTICURA SOAP externally, and RESOLVENT internally, for four months. I call myself cured, in gratitude for which I make this public statement.

Great Dangers.

Three great dangers menace the traveller at every turn. They are climate, food and water. To guard against them requires judgment, abstinence and SANFORD'S GINGER.

This unrivalled household panacea and travelling companion is sure to check any disturbance of the bowels, instantly relieve cramps and pains, prevent indigestion, destroy disease germs in water drank, restore the circulation when suspended by a chill, a frequent cause of cholera morbus, breaks up colds and fevers, and ward off malarial, contagious, and epidemic influences.

SANFORD'S GINGER is a delicious combination of imported Ginger, Choice Aromatics, and French Brandy, and is the finest extract of ginger ever compounded in the history of medicine. Ask for

SANFORD'S GINGER.

Cholera morbus, cramps, pains, diarrhœa, dysentery, indigestion, colds, chills, simple fevers, exhaustion, nervousness or loss of sleep, whether caused by unripe fruit, impure water, unhealthy climate, unwholesome food, malaria, epidemic or contagious diseases that beset the traveller or household at this season, can have no serious influence on those protected by a timely use of SANFORD'S GINGER.

As a summer drink, with hot or cold water, sweetened, or hot or cold milk, or added to ice water, lemonade, effervescent draughts or mineral waters, SANFORD'S GINGER forms a refreshing and invigorating beverage, unequalled in simplicity and purity, while free from alcoholic reaction. A little should be added to every glass of water drank.

Dyspepsia.

GENTS:—I feel it my duty to say respecting Burdock Blood Bitters, that it is the best medicine I ever took. I suffered two or three years from stomach troubles and dyspepsia as well as from liver and kidney complaint. I was not able to attend to my business. My wife was afflicted in much the same way. We read of your Bitters in the papers and made up our minds that we would try them. The result is my wife and I began to improve at once, and I am now able to do more hard work than before in ten years. It relieved my kidney troubles as well. We both wish you, the makers of it. Godspeed.

MATTERS IN YORK.

YORK CORNER, Me., Sept. 2d.

Mr. Editor: With all due respect and reverence to the ministry and the cause they espouse, and with good and grateful feelings toward the picnic and its cause, of yesterday, on Mt. Agamenticus, I beg leave to say, being an interested party and having to bear the stigma that Elder Goss of your city placed upon a little proper and legitimate business of which I claim the honor of being the instigator and prime mover, that in my candid opinion as a man, unbiased and unprejudiced, Eld. Goss' remarks to my clerk were out of order, uncalled for, and without good effect.

I claim as a matter of sound common sense, that the natural idea of a jury would be one of two things;—that Eld. Goss was a fool or that the party who sold the goods was a fool. Does any man, with a fair degree of sense, suppose for a moment that any other person, with common sense, would expose for sale, in public, and in the presence of eight hundred honorable and respectable people, any goods subject to penal laws? He says the goods were "in Boynton's lager cases, and so marked, and it must be lager." A witness in a liquor case before a Biddeford court said that "J. Smith's name was on the barrel, but he knew that Smith was not in the barrel."

With personal respect to Rev. Mr. Goss, I submit to him whether he made a mistake? If he did, let him acknowledge it like a man. And as a suggestion: New Hampshire needs more labor in the temperance direction than do the people of this ancient and honored town of York, and the labors of such temperance patriots as Mr. Goss had better be placed where they will do the most good.

The Record Beaten.

Boston, September 3. — Every newsdealer in New England is astonished at the great boom which the Boston Daily Globe is enjoying just now. Thousands of people are taking the Daily Globe every day who never have read it. All are commending its news and brightness, and is particularly popular with the ladies and young people. The boom beats all previous records.

In Burnside, Conn., Aug. 31st, two well known citizens of the place undertook to pound each other, and were separated by a woman who happened to come along. She got the whiskey flask from one and broke it on the ground, and started the other toward home.

A Perfect Baking Powder.

The great success of the Royal Baking Powder is due to the extreme care exercised by its manufacturers to make it entirely pure, uniform in quality, and of the highest leavening power. All the scientific knowledge, care and skill attained by a twenty years' practical experience are contributed toward this end, and no pharmaceutical preparation can be dispensed with a greater accuracy, precision and exactness. Every article used is absolutely pure. A number of chemists are employed to test the strength of each ingredient, so that its exact power and effect in combination with its co-ingredients, is definitely known. Nothing is trusted to chance, and no person is employed in the preparation of the materials used or the manufacture of the powder, who is not an expert in his particular branch of the business. As a consequence, the Royal Baking Powder is of the highest grade of excellence, always pure, wholesome and uniform in quality. Each box is exactly like every other, and will retain its powers and produce the same and the highest leavening effect in any climate, at any time. The government chemists, after having analyzed all the principal brands in the market, in their reports placed the Royal Baking Powder at the head of the list for strength, purity, and wholesomeness, and thousands of tests all over the country have further demonstrated the fact that its qualities are, in every respect, unrivaled.

RAYNHAM, MASS., Aug. 12, 1878.

C. I. Hood & Co.: Gentlemen—* * * * I have had ringworm humor and salt-rheum so badly that my body was covered with raw sores; so, also, my head and face. I have had any number of doctors in the last seven years, and none of them could cure me. One day my mother was in the city of Taunton, and found one of your cook books, and in reading it I found many people testifying to cures from the use of your Sarsaparilla and Olive Ointment. I felt forced to try it, although I had seen many things advertised that never did me any good. I have now taken two small bottles and one large one of Sarsaparilla, and used three boxes of Ointment. I now call myself cured. Nothing can be seen of the humor but the dim outlines of the sores. I shall take two more bottles, and then the cure will be complete.

I am gratefully yours,
EDGAR F. WHITMAN.

Biliousness, Sick Headache.

PITTSFIELD, MASS.

MESSRS. C. I. HOOD & CO.: Gents—Please send me by express two bottles HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA and a few Cook Books for distribution. Your preparation has worked wonders in the case of my wife, who has been troubled with sick headache and biliousness for years. She only took one-half teaspoonful at a dose, and has not been so well for five years as now. She found that within a week after taking it she felt very much better, and is now entirely free from those severe headaches. She has not taken any of any description since last spring, and what little she had is lent to do some others some good, and we must have it in the house.

Yours truly,
HOMER B. NASH.

HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA

Is sold by all druggists. Price $1, or six large bottles for $5. Prepared only by C. I. HOOD & CO., Apothecaries, Lowell, Mass.

MUSIC HALL

The Theatrical Event of the Season.

C. R. GARDINER'S

DRAMATIC COMBINATION

Composed entirely of the finest artists, will commence a limited engagement of 6 nights and Saturday Matinee at Music Hall on MONDAY EVE. SEPT. 7.

A change of bill nightly. No old, worn out plays, but all new successful dramas. The repertoire of this talented company comprises:

Only a Farmer's Daughter,
A Strange Love,
Only a Woman's Heart,
The Deserted Daughter,
The Lost and Gray,
The Regent's Diamond.

A chance of a lifetime to witness these great dramas as they will be performed by this superb company. The strength of the organization permits of an entire change of characters in the plays that will be presented. A different leading lady appears in each separate play, thus permitting a person to enjoy the whole repetoire without being bored by seeing the same star in the principal roles nightly. Every play will be produced under the immediate supervision of

Mr. Elliott Barnes.

Notwithstanding the expense attending this great production, POPULAR PRICES will prevail. Reserved seats 20 and 30 cents on sale at Goodrich's Book Store, Friday, Sept. 4th. Gallery 10 cents.

C. R. GARDINER, Proprietor. S. H. COHEN, Manager.

RAILROAD EXCURSION.

The Boston & Maine railroad will run a cheap excursion to the White mountains on Tuesday, the 8th inst., leaving the station in this city at seven o'clock A. M., arriving at Fabyans about one o'clock; returning, will leave Fabyans at four o'clock P. M. Tickets for the round trip, good only for the special train, going, but for any regular train until the 15th to return on, will be sold at $2 each; and holders of these tickets will be able to buy, on the special train, tickets from Fabyans to the summit of Mt. Washington and return at $3 each for the round trip. See advertisement.

MARITIME NOTES.

The schooner J. D. Robinson, from Port Johnson with 680 tons coal to E. F. Sise & Co., arrived on the 2d inst.

The brick schooners J. Chester Wood, Lillie, Satellite, Triton, Hattie Lewis and Estella, from this port, arrived at Boston on Wednesday, the 2d inst.

The steamer Three Brothers, Upton master, which has been engaged as a pleasure boat in Salem harbor, Mass., during the summer, arrived at this port on the 3d inst., and proceeded up river.

The steamer Williamsport, from Philadelphia with 1660 tons coal to J. Albert Walker, and the schooner Mary Willey, Williams master, from Bangor with lumber to John H. Broughton, arrived on Thursday evening.

C. R. Gardiner's Dramatic Combination will play in Music hall every evening next week, and give a matinee Saturday, at popular prices.

Mr. Nathaniel L. Meloon has gone on the navy yard as upholsterer, and Mr. James M. Goodrich as foreman ironplater.

On the 2d inst. while two small boys, a son of Mrs. Mary A. Rose and a son of Dennis Shea, were burning near little harbor, the Rose boy was accidentally shot in the fleshy part of the left leg, receiving a painful but not dangerous hurt.

Boston Commandry of Knights Templar, with ladies, to the number of nearly 400 in all, arrived in this city about noon on the 3d inst., by special train, and proceeded direct to Appledore wharf, where they embarked on the U. S. S. Leyden for the Oceanic hotel, Isles of Shoals, to remain over night.

The treasurer of the Old Ladies' Home acknowledges the receipt of twenty-five dollars from a benevolent lady of this city. It is hoped that other friends will not forget this deserving charity; the winter is coming, when fuel and other comforts are needed. All favors thankfully received.

The house on Chapel street owned and occupied by Mr. John H. Cheever, has been purchased by Mr. Albert Jenkins, who with his family will occupy it as soon as Mr. Cheever vacates.

Mrs. Kate Sheehy of South Newmarket is one hundred and three years old, and on Sunday last she walked from her home in that town in a funeral procession to the Catholic cemetery at Newmarket Junction, a distance of three miles, and back. Monday last she had her photograph taken for the first time in her life. She never wore glasses in her life, and can now knit and sew as well as a women of fifty. She was born in Ireland, and well remembers the scenes of the insurrection in that country in 1798.—Dover Democrat.

The Methodist Episcopal society of York are building a parsonage, on the lot recently given to the society by Henry Moulton, Esq.

Mr. John Rogers of Kittery raised the present season a cucumber twenty inches long and eight inches in diameter.

The work of repairing the steeple of the Congregational church at York village, struck by lightning a few weeks ago, and badly damaged, has been completed.

The farmers of Eliot and upper York are hauling their potatoes to Eliot Depot, where they are purchased by Boston parties who ship them to that city.

At the Rogers nursery, in Kittery, are to be seen several beds of the gladiolus in full bloom, there being thousands of the plants, and twenty-five varieties.

William Creelman, a graduate of Bangor seminary, June, 1885, was ordained to the work of the gospel ministry by the Second Congregational church of York, Aug. 20th. The sermon and charge to the pastor were delivered by Rev. John S. Sewall, D. D., of Bangor seminary; the ordaining prayer by Rev. J. E. Adams, secretary of the Maine Missionary Society; right hand of fellowship by Rev. William W. Dow, of Kittery Point; address to the people by Rev. D. B. Sewall of the First church, York.

A Question Settled.

The New York Sun is authority for stating that Richard Olney and a few progressive democrats fixed up the New England member of President Cleveland's cabinet. It says:

The first thing to do was to settle who should go into the cabinet. By the strenuous exertions of the democrats of New Jersey and Connecticut those states had been carried for Cleveland, but no man fit to be a cabinet officer could be found there. The coterie first passed on the name of Frank Jones. He was not exactly the sort of man they liked, not a Harvard man nor a club man—still, he was the leading spirit in the whole New England delegation at Chicago, and he gave $50,000 to the campaign fund. He was personally liked by the president, too. The coterie decided to support him. The mugwumps said that they were indifferent. So the navy department was offered to Frank Jones, and Frank Jones flatly declined it.

This would seem to settle a question very much mooted, and we are glad to learn the solution from such eminent democratic authority. But to the men who want to be taken on, there comes very frequently the unpleasant reminder that "it might have been."

Fred Sherburne of Barre, Vt., recently rode 112 miles in one day on a bicycle.

Mrs. Grace, wife of the mayor of New York, has been visiting in St. George, Me., her native place.

The revenue cutter Richard Rush, built at Boston in 1876, was sold at San Francisco, Sept. 1st, at auction for $5000. The machinery of the vessel was not sold.

In Congress the eminent speakah,
Found his voice getting gradually weakah;
But 'twas not for long,
Red Star Cough Cure made it strong,
You can hear him now far as Topekah.

CHOLERA CRAMPS CHILLS

"An ounce of prevention," that is, a dose of SANFORD'S GINGER, "is worth a pound of cure," which, of course, means a doctor. It is absolutely certain that Cholera may be prevented, and, in the majority of cases, successfully treated, with SANFORD'S GINGER, a powerful stimulant, composed of Imported Ginger, choice Aromatics, and the best French Brandy; convenient, speedy and safe; sure to check summer complaint, prevent indigestion, destroy disease germs in water drank, restore the circulation when suspended by a chill, and ward off malarial, contagious, and epidemic influences.

Avoid mercenary dealers who for a few cents extra profit try to force upon you their own or others' when you call for

SANFORD'S GINGER

The Delicious Summer Medicine.

Cramps, Pains, Cholera Morbus, Diarrhœa, and Dysentery, whether produced by unripe fruit, impure water, unwholesome food, or change of climate, food or water, or any little ills of home or travel, such as Colds, Chills, Simple Fevers, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Sen-sicknes.s, Exhaustion, Nervousness, Loss of Sleep, Debility and Dissipation, are instantly relieved by SANFORD'S GINGER, the safest, surest, as best summer medicine and travelling companion.

As a healthful summer drink with water, milk, iced water, lemonade, effervescent draughts and mineral waters, it is the best.

"Beware of worthless "gingers," said to be "as good," or "the same," or "as larger," or "cheaper" than SANFORD'S GINGER. Ask for

Health Regulations.

THE BOARD OF HEALTH OF THE CITY OF PORTSMOUTH call the attention of the public to the following sections of Chapter 16 of the City Ordinances and invite all interested in the preservation of health in the city to aid them in the execution of their duties.

CHAPTER X.

Sec. 3. All waste water of houses, yards, cellars, sinks, pumps, &c., shall be conveyed by their owners or occupiers to the common sewers, or to such places as the health officers may direct.

Sec. 4. No person shall be allowed to throw any vegetable or dead animal substance or any other matter capable of producing infection, into any street, lane, alley or dock, or upon any wharf, but shall bury them or throw them into the river below low water mark.

Sec. 5. The contents of vaults and privies shall not be permitted to rise within one foot of the surface of the earth. And all owners or occupiers of vaults having such vaults or privies as may require it, shall cause them to be emptied within ten days from the promulgation of this ordinance, and in future on or before the first day of May in each year. And any such owner or occupier neglecting so to do, shall forfeit and pay for every such neglect a sum not less than three nor more than twenty dollars, and like sum for every week's neglect after the time above specified.

Sec. 6. No vender of meat at the stalls shall be permitted to leave any stale meat, heads, feet or offal of any kind about their stalls or shove over night, or suffer them to be thrown into any street, lane or alley of the city. Nor shall any sellers of fish be permitted to throw any offal of fish into any street, lane or alley of the city, or upon any wharf, but shall either bury them or throw them into the river below low-water mark.

Sec. 7. If any dead animal or decaying vegetable substance, or any other nuisance, shall be found in any part of the city, the owners and occupiers of the premises where such nuisances shall be found, shall cause the same to be removed within twenty-four hours after being notified so to do by one or more of the health officers.

Sec. 12. When any householder shall know that any person within his family is taken sick of the small pox, or any other disease dangerous to the public health, he shall immediately give notice thereof to the health officers.

Sec. 13. When any physician shall know that any person whom he is called to visit is infected with the small pox, or any other disease dangerous to the public health, such physician shall immediately give notice thereof to the health officers.

Sec. 14. If any such householder or physician shall refuse or neglect to give the notice required in the preceding sections, he shall for each refusal or neglect forfeit the sum of twenty dollars, to be recovered by either of the health officers in the name of the city.

Sec. 16. The health officers may give written notice to the owner or occupier of any building, vessel or enclosure, to remove or destroy any nuisance or other thing deemed by them, on examination, to be injurious to the public health, within a certain time limited therein; and in case such owner or occupier—the said notice having been given to him at his usual place of abode—shall neglect to comply therewith, the said health officers may, by direction of the mayor and concurred by the city marshal forcibly enter such building, vessel or enclosure, and cause said nuisance or other thing aforesaid to be removed or destroyed.

Sec. 21. No person shall erect, keep or continue or permit to be erected, kept or continued, upon any land occupied by him, any pen for the keeping of swine, or privy, over either of the mill ponds in this city, or so placed that offensive substances therefrom shall be discharged or drained into either of said ponds, or into any creek, or cove or drain leading thereto. And no person shall construct, keep or continue any drain leading from any pen for the keeping of any swine, slaughter-house, privy vault, or other unwholesome or offensive place, into either of said ponds, or to any flat or marsh adjoining the same. And no person shall throw or suffer to be thrown from his land into either of said ponds, or upon any of said flats or marshes, any dead, decaying, unwholesome or offensive animal or vegetable substances.

It is announced that the republicans of Massachusetts will soon establish in Boston a new party organ to be called The State, similar in form and size to The Nation. It will be under the patronage of the republican leaders, and in the first number will be articles by Ex-Governor Long, Henry Cabot Lodge and Hon. A. E. Pillsbury.

Forty Years Solid Record.

Dr. Seth Arnold's Cough Killer gives immediate relief, and cures severest coughs, colds and malignant fevers, sore throat, asthma, etc. 25c, 50c, and $1 sizes.

It is announced that Secretary Bayard has not encouraged Ex-Consul General Van Bokkelen to come to Washington to complain of his treatment in Hayti, or to formulate any claim against the Haytien government. The statements made at the state department in reference to this case are not very complimentary to Mr. Van Bokkelen. They say that, although thoroughly acquainted with the laws of Hayti, of which he is a native, it was for a violation of its statutes that he was imprisoned, partly on the complaint of American citizens; and that his release was purely a matter of courtesy to the United States government.

They Have Never Failed!

I have been sick more or less for the last ten years, which has cost me many dollars in doctors and druggists' bills. The last two years it only cost me three dollars. Why? Because I used Sulphur Bitters instead of employing doctors. They cured me of Jaundice.—F. F. Boyd, Hoboken.

"She tried her prentice hand on man,
And then she formed the lasses, O!"

"What is woman's worth?" asked a fair damsel of a crusty old bachelor. He did not know, so she said: W. O. man (double you O man.) But a woman feels worth little if disease has invaded her system and is daily sapping her strength. For all female weaknesses, Dr. R. V. Pierce's "Favorite Prescription" stands unrivalled. It cures the complaint and builds up the system. Send two letter stamps for pamphlet to World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y.

Sister Mary Joseph of the visitation nuns died at the Convent Monte Maria, in Richmond, Va., Wednesday, Sept. 2d. Before entering the convent the deceased's name was Nora Kelley, and she was the younger sister of A. M. Keiley, United States minister to Austria, also of Rev. Benjamin Keiley of Wilmington, Del., and John D. Keiley of Brooklyn. She entered the convent in 1876, and took religious vows in 1879.

Mrs. Langtry and Freddie Gebhard have been in Boulogne. By day they visited the gambling tables of the Casino, and by night the public dancing room of this resort. As they were waltzing together Freddie's feet slipped from under him, and he fell prostrate. His partner went tumbling after. A correspondent says that the Casino has since been densely packed with an expectant multitude.

What You Want to Know.

Everybody wants an honest answer to this simple question:—What is the best medicine to regulate the bowels, cure costiveness and billiousness, help the digestion and give strength to the whole system? People ask us every day. We answer, Parker's Tonic. It is pleasant to the taste. All the children like it. Mothers all praise it. It will save a thousand times its cost in every family.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHAS. MASON, Commissioner of Patents.

"Inventors cannot employ a person more trustworthy or more capable of securing for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office." EDMUND BURKE, late Commissioner of Patents.

BOSTON, October 19, 1879.
R. H. EDDY, Esq.—Dear Sir: You procured for me, in 1846, my first patent. Since then you have acted for and advised me in hundreds of cases, and procured many patents, reissues and extensions. I have occasionally employed the best agencies in New York, Philadelphia and Washington, but I still give you almost the whole of my business, in your line, and advise others to employ you.
Yours truly, GEORGE DRAPER.

How to Buy Books.

A well-known author recently commended the following rules to be observed by youthful readers who are beginning the collecting of books:

1. Set apart a fixed sum weekly or monthly, as the case may be, in proportion to your income, and spend that and no more for books.

2. Always devote a portion of your money to acquiring works of reference.

3. Never buy a worthless work or edition.

4. Take care not to buy too many books of one class.

5. Do not, at least until you have a fair show of books, be deluded into buying sets of an author.

6. Do not spend too much on magazines.

7. Be particular as to the binding of your books.

8. Keep a catalogue of your books, entering inside each the date of purchase and the cost, and in the catalogue all particulars as to loans.

9. Take care to read what you buy and buy only what you will read.

Professor Huxley asserts that the proper weight of man is 154 pounds, made up as follows: Muscles and their appurtenances, 68 pounds; skeleton, 24 pounds; skin, 10½ pounds, fat, 28 pounds; brain, 3 pounds; abdominal viscera, 11 pounds; blood which would drain from the body, 7 pounds. The heart of such a man should beat 75 times a minute, and he should breathe 15 times a minute. In 24 hours he should vitiate 1,750 cubic feet of pure air to the extent of one per cent.—a man, therefore, of the weight mentioned, should have 800 cubit feet of well-ventilated space. He would throw off the skin 18 ounces of water, 300 grains of solid matter, and 400 grains of carbonic acid every 24 hours, and his total loss during that period would be six pounds of water and a little more than two pounds of other matter.

When Mgr. Goddard celebrated his silver jubilee at St. Mary's Church, Chiselhurst, the other day, poor ex-Empress Eugenie, one of his parishioners wrote him a note in which she said: "I am left alone, the sole remnant of a shipwreck which proves how fragile and vain are the grandeurs of this world."

"My daughter, what made you look around in Trinity Church so much this morning? It disturbed me. What could you have been thinking of?" "Well, I happened to think what a nice skating rink it would make if all the pews were taken out. Don't you think it would be just elegant?"

The occasion of his marriage was celebrated by a Big Rapids Pennsylvanian by presenting to his bride his teething-ring, the first lock of hair cut from his head, and the first tooth he cut, and receiving in exchange one-half interest in a prosperous grocery store, the other half belonging to his wife's "old man."

"Oh, say, ma!" exclaimed a bright little girl at a hotel while at dinner, "hasn't that man over there got awful big ears?" "Hush, child; the gentleman might hear you," cautioned the mother. "Well, ma," returned the precocious youngster, "if he couldn't hear me with those ears he ought to haul them down."

It is stated that a plot of ground set out in black-walnut and allowed to remain twenty-five years will yield a larger profit than any other mode of investment of a farm. Farmers of 60 years and upward who are plodding along without laying by a cent for a rainy day should try the black-walnut speculation.—Norristown Herald.

Why he believed him: Stretchit was telling Gawley about an alligator he saw in Florida. "That alligator measured 68 feet 5 inches from the end of his nose to the tip of his tail. What do you think of that, Gawley? An alligator 68 feet 5 inches long. Doesn't that astonish you?" "No," said Gawley, quietly, "I'm a liar myself."

Little Girl from Chicago—"Our family is a more aristocratic family than yours."

Little Girl from Boston—"No, it isn't. My mother can boast of her forefathers for the last two centuries."

Little Girl from Chicago—"O, that is nothing. My mother can boast of four husbands in the last two years."

The Reno Gazette came out the other day with this strong hint: "If the property-holders expect the boys to turn out at the next fire they had better show them some cigars, as they feel very sore over not getting a 'thank you' from anybody." The editor has since explained that he wrote "signs" where the compositor set "cigars."—Sacramento (Cal.) Bee.

The Clangor of an Alarm Bell

Close by, in the stillness of the night, could scarcely startle the ordinary individual more than do trifling noises the nervous invalid. But once the nerves are braced and the system invigorated with Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, this abnormal sensitiveness is succeeded by a tranquility not to be disturbed by trivial causes. Impaired digestion is a fertile cause of nerve weakness and unnatural mental gloom, and a vigorous renewal of the action of the stomach is one of the surest means of the invigorating and quieting the nerves. Insomnia, or sleeplessness, a form of nervous disease, is unquestionably benefitted by sedatives, when it is prolonged, or of frequent occurrence, but its permanent removal is more effectually achieved with the Bitters. This medicine is also signally efficacious for malaria, rheumatism, constipation, liver complaint, and torpidity of the kidneys and bladder.

Cuticura

A POSITIVE CURE FOR EVERY FORM OF BLOOD AND SKIN DISEASE FROM PIMPLES TO SCROFULA.

DISFIGURING HUMORS, Humiliating Eruptions, Itching and Burning Skin Tortures, Loathsome Sores, and every species of Itching, Scaly, Pimply, Inherited, Scrofulous, and Contagious Diseases of the Blood, Skin, and Scalp, with Loss of Hair, from infancy to old age, are positively cured by CUTICURA RESOLVENT, the New Blood Purifier, internally, and CUTICURA, the Great Skin Cure, and CUTICURA SOAP, an exquisite Skin Beautifier, externally.

ECZEMA CURED.

I was afflicted with Eczema on the Scalp, Face, Ears and Neck, which the Druggist, where I got your remedies, pronounced one of the worst cases that had come under his notice. He advised me to try your CUTICURA REMEDIES, and after five days use, my scalp and part of my face were entirely cured, and I hope in another week to have my ears, neck, and the other part of my face cured.
HERMAN SLADE,
120 E. 4th St., New York.

SCABS AND SORES.

I have been afflicted since last March with a Skin disease the doctors called Eczema. My face was covered with scabs and sores, and the itching and burning were almost unbearable. Seeing your CUTICURA REMEDIES so highly recommended, concluded to give them a trial, using the CUTICURA AND CUTICURA SOAP externally, and RESOLVENT internally, for four months. I call myself cured, in gratitude for which I make this public statement.
MRS. CLARA A. FREDERICK,

Great Dangers.

Three great dangers menace the traveller at every turn. They are climate, food and water. To guard against them requires judgment, abstinence and SANFORD'S GINGER.

This unrivalled household panacea and travelling companion is sure to check any disturbance of the bowels, instantly relieve cramps and pains, prevent indigestion, destroy disease germs in water drank, restore the circulation when suspended by a chill, a frequent cause of cholera morbus, breaks up colds and fevers, and ward off malarial, contagious and epidemic influences.

SANFORD'S GINGER is a delicious combination of Imported Ginger, Choice Aromatics, and French Brandy, and is the finest extract of ginger ever compounded in the history of medicine. Ask for

SANFORD'S GINGER.

Cholera morbus, cramps, pains, diarrhœa, dysentery, indigestion, colds, chills, simple fever, exhaustion, nervousness or loss of sleep, whether caused by unripe fruit, impure water, unhealthy climate, unwholesome food, malaria, epidemic or contagious diseases that beset the traveller or household at this season, can have no serious influence on those protected by a timely use of SANFORD'S GINGER.

As a summer drink, with hot or cold water, sweetened, or hot or cold milk, or added to ice water, lemonade, effervescent draughts or mineral waters, SANFORD'S GINGER forms a refreshing and invigorating beverage, unequalled in delicacy and purity, while free from alcoholic reaction. A little should be added to every glass of water drank.

Do not be imposed upon. Insist upon having

Advice to Mothers.

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? If so, send at once and get a bottle of Mrs Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers, there is no mistake about it. It cures dysentery and diarrhœa, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures wind colic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female nurses and physicians in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price 25 cents a bottle. eodsu&w

Read what the people say, concerning the ability of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil to cure coughs, catarrh, croup, colds, etc. Mrs. Dora Koch of Buffalo, says: "For croup it is decidedly efficacious." [Mrs.] Jacob Mellinger of Marion, Ohio, says the same thing.] S. S. Graves, Akron, N. Y., writes: "I had asthma of the worst kind, took one dose of Thomas' Eclectric Oil and was relieved in a few minutes. Would walk five miles for this medicine and pay $1 a bottle for it." Druggist C. R. Hall, Cerrydale, Ill., says: "Cured an ulcerated throat for me in twenty-four hours." "Sat up in bed and coughed till the clothing was wet with perspiration. My wife insisted that I use Thomas' Eclectric Oil. The first teaspoonful relieved me." E. H. Perkins, Creek Centre, N. Y. Thomas' Eclectric Oil is also a Tip-Top external application for rheumatism, cuts, scalds, burns, bites, bruises, etc. When visiting the druggist, ask him what he knows of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil; if he has been long in the drug trade, he sure he will speak highly of it.

Worked Wonders.

"My daughter was very bad off on account of a cold and pain in her lungs. Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil cured her in twenty-four hours. One of the boys was cured of sore throat. This medicine has worked wonders in our family." Abab Pinckney, Lake Mohopac, N. Y.

"The baby is sleeping"—at last, yes! But she would not have slept, nor would her mother, had not that fond parent been induced to try Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup. It cures the croupy cough that sounds so like nails being driven into the child's coffin.

Mrs. "H. H." Jackson's death is now attributed to her wearing of high-heeled French boots, causing her to stumble on the stairs, fall and break her leg.

Why Is It

That the sale of Hood's Sarsapasilla continues at such a rapidly increasing rate? It is,—

1st: Because of the positive curative value of Hood's Sarsaparilla itself.

2d: Because of the conclusive evidence of remarkable cures effected by it, unsurpassed and seldom equalled by any other medicine. Send to C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass., for book containing many statements of cures.

John Goodwin died a few days ago in Dayton, Ohio. Before he died he confessed to murdering a man named McNamee in Waltham, Mass., ten years ago. McNamee was found dying in the street from a knife wound.

Any bad case of heart disease yields to the use of Dr. Graves' Heart Regulator. It has proved itself a cure for all forms. Give it a trial, it will do as well for you. $1.00 per bottle. Free pamphlet of F. E. Ingalls, Cambridge, Mass.

Wednesday morning, the 2d inst., the body of a young man was washed ashore at the lower end of Salisbury beach. It is probably that of Charles or Arthur Winkley, who were drowned on Aug. 20th while fishing in a canoe.

"Have used Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil for croup and colds, and declare it a positive cure." Contributed by Wm. Kay, 570 Plymouth Ave., Buffalo, N. Y.

The Massachusetts prohibitionists will hold their State convention in Worcester, September 10th.

We Caution All Against Them.

The unprecedented success and merit of Ely's Cream Balm—a real cure for catarrh, hay fever and cold in the head—has induced many adventurers to place catarrh medicines bearing some resemblance in appearance, style or name upon the market, in order to trade upon the reputation of Ely's Cream Balm. Many in your immediate locality will testify in highest commendation of it. Don't be deceived. Buy only Ely's Cream Balm. A particle is applied into each nostril; no pain; agreeable to use. Price fifty cents, of druggists.

Portsmouth Chronicle.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 5, 1885.

An Awkward Situation.

When the president catches all the fish he desires, he will return to Washington and beat the drum recalling the scattered members of his cabinet to duty.

Heretofore all has been smooth with Grover. Nothing unpleasant save an occasional grumble from a dissatisfied office seeker has reached his ears. But now when the returning excursionist settles down to business he will have to meet and settle the difficulty with the cattlemen. Seven-eighths of the lessees of the lands occupied by this formidable force were democrats, who secured their lots through the aid of democratic senators and representatives in Congress.

Just exactly how the president is to navigate his craft against this combination remains to be seen. The outlook seems to indicate that notwithstanding the rush of the office seekers, the first six months of this administration will prove the happiest part of Mr. Cleveland's term.

A Pleasure Excursion.

An excursion steamer from Halifax, with 200 people on board, nearly half of them women, broke down on her return when nine miles from the city, and commenced drifting to sea. A panic resulted, over twenty women fainting. The anchor was let go, but the end of the cable not being properly secured that was "let go" too, and anchor and chain were lost. Finally a boat pulled ashore, and a lot of fishing vessels went out and towed the disabled steamer into Herring Cove.

Rev. Dr. Stephen H. Tyng died at Irvington, N. Y., Sept. 2d, aged eighty-five years.

In Warfield, Ky., John Hawkes and John Stinchcomb ended an old feud by killing each other as they rode along the road. Hawkes leaves eleven children.

Charles G. Am Ende, the druggist who put up the morphine which killed the two daughters of Charles F. Holtz in New York, has had a warrant issued for his arrest.

Capt. Wm. E. Lakeman and Mrs. Olivia Bell were arrested in Gloucester, Mass., Sept. 2d, they having eloped together two years ago from Lubec, Me., the man leaving a wife and five children in destitute circumstances, and the woman leaving a husband and two children. Mrs. Bell when she eloped took all the money she could find, and her husband's gold watch and chain, which latter Lakeman was wearing when arrested. Mr. Bell chased the elopers to New York and Cuba, back to New York, then to Philadelphia, Boston and Gloucester, at which latter place they were finally arrested.

Gov. Warren of Wyoming territory has called on the president for military aid in putting down the anti-Chinese outbreak.

Ex-Senator Gwin of California, "Duke" Gwin, died at noon Thursday, at the New York hotel, New York city. Senator Call of California was with him at the time of death. The dead man's son had been telegraphed, and was on his way, but no member of his family was present.

A reception was tendered to President Cleveland at Lake Placid, N. Y., on the evening of the 1st inst., and next day he returned to Saranac lake.

Jesse Grant and wife sailed for England with Mrs. Sartoris, Sept. 2d.

The democratic state executive committee of Ohio have declined, in behalf of Governor Hoadly, the challenge from the prohibition committee for a joint debate with their candidate, Rev. A. B. Leonard.

Dr. Frank E. Carpenter, a physician of Brooklyn, aged twenty-eight years, and married, eloped with a patient, Mrs. Drier, aged thirty-three, and is now in trouble, Mrs. Carpenter having stopped in the same hotel at Poughkeepsie with the runaways, and had them arrested next day.

Thomas Boyd, the first white man to cross the Murray river in Australia, and the last survivor of the Hume & Howell exploring expedition, has just died at Sydney, New South Wales, at the age of eighty-eight years, and in poverty.

A despatch from Rawlins, W. T., says the results of the war on the Chinese at Rock Springs turn out to have been more serious than at first supposed. Thus far fifteen dead Chinamen have been discovered, and there are probably as many more dead bodies in the ruins. Fifty houses belonging to the railroad company, and fifty more owned by Chinamen, were burned. The Chinamen are yet in the hills west of the town. They are without food and are afraid to go to Green River city, about ten miles distant. Gov. Warren is now at Rock Springs with General Superintendent Dickinson and Superintendent Wartell of the western division of the Union Pacific railroad. No more disturbance is anticipated. Food will be sent by the authorities to the starving Chinamen in the hills.

Judge Colt in the circuit court has decided that the assessments made upon the stockholders of the Pacific bank are valid, and must be paid. An appeal has been taken to the supreme court of the United States at Washington.

The annual meeting of the Maine State Grange commenced at Old Orchard on the morning of the 2d inst.; Seward B. Gunnison of Scarboro presided, and Gov. Frederick Robie delivered the annual address.

The Fall Fashions.

BOSTON, September 4th.—Last Sunday there were 95,970 copies of the Boston Sunday Globe sold. The average circulation for August was 95,162, a gain of 20,000 over last year. The circulation is still increasing everywhere, as your newsdealer will tell you. Next Sunday the Globe will have lots of gossip and cuts about fall fashions for ladies and girls and men and boys. Also an illustrated humorous account of the New England fair, Howard's letter, Bill Nye's funny colum, etc., etc., etc. Order the Sunday Globe of your newsdealer today, if you do not take it regularly.

The Boston Traveller, in its report of the pilgrimage of Boston Commandry of Knights Templar, says of the train: "The first stop was made at Newburyport, where several more excursionists were taken aboard, and the train continued thence through Portsmouth to Oceanic." This was undoubtedly the first railroad train that ever ran to the Isles of Shoals.

Notwithstanding the lateness of the season, a considerable company still remains at York beach. Capt. Fred Frisbee continues to sail the yacht May on fishing excursions from Concordville.

HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA

Works through the blood, regulating, toning and invigorating all the functions of the body.

Ringworm Humor and Salt-Rheum.

RAYNHAM, MASS., Aug. 12, 1878.
C. I. HOOD & CO.: Gentlemen— * * * * I have had ringworm humor and salt-rheum so badly that my body was covered with raw sores; so, also, my head and face. I have had any number of doctors in the last seven years, and none of them could cure me. One day my mother was in the city of Taunton, and found one of your cook books, and in reading it I found many people testifying to cures from the use of your Sarsaparilla and Olive Ointment. I felt forced to try it, although I had seen many things advertised that never did me any good. I have now taken two small bottles and one large one of Sarsaparilla, and used three boxes of Ointment. I now call myself cured. Nothing can be seen of the humor but the dim outlines of the sores. I shall take two more bottles, and then the cure will be complete.
I am gratefully yours,
EDGAR F. WHITMAN.

Biliousness, Sick Headache.

PITTSFIELD, MASS.
MESSRS. C. I. HOOD & CO.: Gents—Please send me by express two bottles HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA and a few Cook Books for distribution. Your preparation has worked wonders in the case of my wife, who has been troubled with sick headache and biliousness for years. She only took one-half teaspoonful at a dose, and has not been so well for five years as now. She found that within a week after taking it she felt very much better, and is now entirely free from those severe headaches. She has not taken any of any account since last spring, and what little she had is lent to do some others some good, and we must have it in the house.
Yours truly,
HOMER B. NASH.

For New England to-day:—

Stationary or slightly higher temperature, occasional local rains.

The Thermometer at the CHRONICLE Office, at 4:00 o'clock this morning, indicated 60 degrees above zero.

Clear.

POLICE COURT--BATCHELDER J.

FRIDAY, Sept. 4th.

Mary Grace, a vagrant, was sent to Brentwood for six months, and ordered to pay $5.76 costs.

John Connors, John McDonald, John McCue and Harry Carroll, a quartette of drunks, were ordered to Brentwood in default of payment of $9.90 each.

Timothy Falvey, charged with an assault on Mary Golden, was discharged.

A young man accused of drunkenness, was sentenced to thirty days at Brentwood and to pay $8.04 costs. He appealed, and gave bonds in the sum of $100 to prosecute the appeal.

NAVY YARD ITEMS.

Mr. Lyman P. Broughton has been reappointed to his former position in the construction department store on the navy yard.

Mr. Nathaniel Campbell of Newcastle, republican, has been called on the navy yard as galvanizer.

Mr. John A. Cornelius, although disappointed in being appointed a boss, is called to work upoh the navy yard. Mr. Cornelius is an accomplished plumber.

There is no little dissatisfaction expressed by the democrats at Norfolk, Va, because the recent examinations for appointments of foremen at the navy yard shew some of the present incumbents much better qualified for their positions than are some of their democratic competitors for places. The local democracy have sent a protest to Secretary Whitney, which means that he should have indicated to the board of examiners that only democratic applicants were to be found competent. The secretary of the navy, unfortunately for these men, has an idea that efficiency in results of navy yard work can be better attained by having the judgment of competent naval officers in affairs of this kind rather than the conclusions of the corner saloons, which though a power in politics are not an aid in administering the affairs of a department.

MARITIME NOTES.

The schooner Loella, Amee master, with hay, and the sloop Stephen Orr, Aderton master, with bricks, both from this port; also the schooner Emily A. Staples, Coleman master, with bricks from Saco, and the schooner Rockaway, from York, arrived at Boston on the 3d inst.

The brick schooners Triton, Hattie Lewis, Lillie and J. Chester Wood, from Boston, light, and the Chilion, with lumber to Thomas E. Call & Son from Bangor, arrived on the 4th inst.

We are to have another week of low-priced dramatic entertainments, commencing in Music hall next Monday evening. The plays to be rendered are such as "Only a Farmer's Daughter," "A Strange Love," "Only a Woman's Heart," "The Deserted Daughter," "The Blue and the Gray," and "The Regent's Diamond."

A friend requests us to call the attention of the committee on burying grounds to the fact that the blackberry and wild cherry crops in the old North burying ground are unusually abundant, and about ready to harvest.

The board of health have received a communication from the secretary of the state board of health in regard to the smallpox in Montreal, and the extreme likelihood of the disease appearing in this state. There were 170 deaths in Montreal from that cause last week, and it is hardly possible that the winter can pass without serious trouble in many of the places having railroad connection with that city. Local boards of health are uged to take special precautions against it.

Col. William S. Hadley, who for the past four years has carried the mails between the postoffice in this city and the railroad station, has tendered his resignation, to take effect on the 30th inst. Postmaster Gerrish has been instructed to receive bids for this service, the same to close on the 15th of the present month.

The contractor's bond was submitted and approved on Friday evening, and the contract signed; and work on the big sewer will commence on Monday.

Mr. John J. Hill has purchased all the rights of James Kehoe in the fish market at the Spring, and will hereafter carry on the fish business there at wholesale and retail. Mr. Kehoe is expecting a lucrative position on the navy yard, which we hope he will get. Mr. Timothy Hennessey is engaged in the transportation of the material from Mr. Hill; as he is a young man very much liked, he will undobtedly prove successful.

The Portsmouth polo club went to Dover on Thursday evening last, and played a game in the Garrison hill rink with the Dover club, the Portsmouths winning in three straight goals; they also won two other goals before play was given up, the Dovers failing to make a goal. This was a "rubber" game, the clubs having previously won a game each, at the Ocean Wave rink at York beach.

There was a raid of York county officials upon the hotels in York, the last of August, in seach of intoxicating liquors, but they were unable to discover anything amiss, and left contented.

CHOLERA CRAMPS CHILLS

"An ounce of prevention," that is, a dose of SANFORD'S GINGER, "is worth a pound of cure," which, of course, means a doctor. It is absolutely certain that Cholera may be prevented, and, in the majority of cases, successfully treated, with SANFORD'S GINGER, a powerful stimulant, composed of Imported Ginger, choice Aromatics, and the best French[Brandy; convenient,speedy and safe; sure to check summer complaint, prevent indigestion, destroy disease germs in water drank, restore the circulation when suspended by a chill, and ward off malarial, contagious, and epidemic influences.

Avoid mercenary dealers who for a few cents extra profit try to force upon you their own or others' when you call for

SANFORD'S GINGER

The Delicious Summer Medicine.

Cramps, Pains, Cholera Morbus, Diarrhœa, and Dysentery, whether produced by unripe fruit, impure water, unwholesome food, or change of climate, food or water, or any little ills of home or travel, such as Colds, Chills, Simple Fevers, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Sea-sickness, Exhaustion, Nervousness, Loss of Sleep, Debility and Dissipation, are instantly relieved by SANFORD'S GINGER, the safest, surest, as best summer medicine and travelling companion.

As a healthful summer drink with water, milk, iced water, lemonade, effervescent draughts and mineral waters, it is the best.

Beware of worthless "gingers," said to be "as good," or "the same," or "as larger," or "cheaper" than SANFORD'S GINGER. Ask for Health Regulations.

THE BOARD OF HEALTH OF THE CITY OF PORTSMOUTH call the attention of the public to the following sections of Chapter 10 of the City Ordinances, and invite all interested in the preservation of health in the city to aid them in the execution of their duty.

CHAPTER X.

Sec. 3. All waste water of houses, yards, cellars, sinks, pumps, etc., shall be conveyed by their owners or occupiers to the common sewers, or to such places as the health officers may direct.

Sec. 4. No person shall be allowed to throw any vegetable or animal substance or any other matter capable of producing infection, into any street, lane, alley or dock, or upon any wharf, but shall carry them or throw them into the river below low-water mark.

Sec. 5. The contents of vaults and privies shall not be permitted to rise within one foot of the surface of the earth. And all owners or occupiers of buildings having such vaults or privies as may require it, shall cause the same to be emptied within ten days from the promulgation of this ordinance, and in future on or before the first day of May in each year. And any such owner or occupier neglecting so to do, shall forfeit and pay for every such neglect a sum not less than three dollars nor more than twenty dollars, and a like sum for every week's neglect after the time above specified.

Sec. 6. No reserved offal of meat at the stalls shall be permitted to leave any stale meat, heads, feet or offal of any kind about their stalls or stores over night, or suffer them to be thrown into any street, lane or alley of the city. Nor shall any sellers of fish be permitted to throw any offal of fish into any street or alley of the city, or upon any wharf, but shall either bury them or throw them into the river below low-water mark.

Sec. 7. If any dead animal or decaying vegetable substance, or any other nuisance, shall be found in any part of the city, the owners and occupiers of the premises where such nuisances shall be found, shall cause the same to be removed within twenty-four hours after being notified so to do by one or more of the health officers.

Sec. 12. When any householder shall know that any person within his family is taken sick or the small pox, or any other disease dangerous to the public health, he shall immediately give notice thereof to the health officers.

Sec. 13. When any physician shall know that any person whom he is called to visit is infected with the small pox, or any other disease dangerous to the public health, he shall immediately give notice thereof to the health officers.

Sec. 14. If any such householder or physician shall refuse or neglect to give the notice required in the preceding sections, he shall for each refusal or neglect forfeit the sum of twenty dollars, to be recovered by either of the health officers in the name of the city.

Sec. 15. The health officers may give written notice to the owner or occupier of any building, vessel or enclosure, to remove or destroy any nuisance or other thing deemed by them, on examination, to be injurious to the public health, within such time limited therein; and in case such owner or occupier—the said notice having been given to him, or left at his usual place of abode, shall neglect to comply therewith, the said health officers may, by direction of the mayor and concurring with the city marshal forcibly enter, in building, yard or enclosure, and cause said nuisance or other thing aforesaid to be removed or destroyed.

Sec. 21. No person shall erect, keep or continue or permit to be erected, kept or continued, upon any land occupied by him, any pen for the keeping of swine, or privy, over either of the mill ponds in this city, or so placed that offensive substances therefrom shall be discharged or drained into either of said ponds, or into any creek, or cove or drain leading thereto. And no person shall construct, keep or continue any drain leading from any pen for the keeping of any swine, slaughter-house, privy vault, or other unwholesome or offensive place, into either of said ponds, or into any cove adjoining the same. And no person shall throw or suffer to be thrown from his land into either of said ponds, or upon any of said flats or marshes, any dead, decaying, unwholesome or offensive animal or vegetable substances.

Destroy that Sign.

One may feel that he's getting old, but he naturally dislikes that anything about his appearance should advise others of the fact. Yet nothing does this so effectually as thin and falling hair. No woman wants to marry a man, and business firms hesitate to employ a man, who shows this fatal sign. Parker's Hair Balsam is worth to you, in this regard, more than its weight in diamonds. Use it, and have plentiful and glossy hair. Many have had every trace of grayness removed and bold spots covered by using a single bottle.

Looks Warlike.

Spain is boiling with rage. Several Spanish gunboats were sent to Yap, one of the largest islands of the Caroline group, to hoist the Spanish flag and land a body of men to take formal possession. These ships arrived at Yap on the 21st of August, and found no German vessels there; but they delayed landing any force, and on the evening of the 24th a German gunboat ran in at seven o'clock, and instantly landed a body of sailors and marines and hoisted the German flag. The Spanish commander protested, but the German refused to recede. On the receipt of the news in Madrid, Sept. 5th, a mob attacked the German embassy, tore down the German coat of arms and burned it. A German squadron has sailed from China to the Carolines.

Best French brandy, Smart-Weed, Jamaica Ginger and Camphor Water, as combined in Dr. Pierce's Extract of Smart-Weed, is the best remedy for colic, diarrhœa, cholera morbus, dysentery or bloody-flux; also, to break up cold s, fevers and inflammatory attacks if used early.

Thursday afternoon of last week Messrs. Benning Moore and George Woods, with their wives and a little nephew of Mr. Woods, were fishing for cunners near the Noble's Island end of the Portsmouth bridge, with their boat made fast fore and aft to the piling of the bridge. After catching all the fish they wanted one of the party stood up in the boat, and slipping struck upon the gunwale, instantly capsizing the boat, which was a small dory, and dumping all hands and the fare of fish into the water. The people caught hold of the boat and the piling, and cried for assistance. Mrs. Moore and the little boy sank below the surface twice before help arrived, but all were finally rescued from their perilous situation by Mr. William Rotherly of Eliot, and Mr. Samuel Cottle in the bridge boat. The escape of all members of the party from drowning was a very fortunate, as the tide was running quite rapidly at the time.

—"Poor John was so fond of gambling," said a bereaved widow. "His last bet was $50 that he could eat 300 clams in twenty minutes." "Did he win the bet?" "Yes, he won the bet," sighed the widow, "but the money didn't do us any good. It took every cent of it to bury him."

His Ignorance Cost Me $150!

I was sick abed for three months. The doctor said I had Prolapsus Uteri, which was untrue. He didn't try to cure me but wanted to make a $1.50 every day. My uncle is a druggist, and he told me to turn the doctor off, and try Sulphur Bitters. I did so and five dollars worth of Sulphur Bitters cured me of general weakness and debility.—Mrs. S.——, New Haven.

—A stranger recently stepped into a church in Indianapolis, and, after being permitted to stand in the aisle for some time, was approached by a good brother, when he inquired: "What church is this?" "Christ's church," was the reply. "Is he in?" was quietly asked. The hint was taken and the stranger shown a seat.

Better than She Expected.

"Your letter received. In reply I am happy to say that Parker's Hair Balsam did much more for me than you said it would, or than I expected. My hair has not only stopped falling out, but the bald spots are all covered, and all my hair has grown thicker, softer and more lively than it was before my sickness a year ago. Thank you again and again." Extract from letters of Mrs. R. W. T., West Fifty-third street, New York.

TRAIN TALK.

"Well, Johnny, my little man," said the Sunday-school teacher, as he put a small boy on his lap in a crowded car, "did you have a nice time at the picnic?"

"Naw," replied Johnny, with a look of disgust mingling with the pre-stains upon his innocent face.

"Did some one act rudely to you?" inquired the teacher, "or were you sick, because your poor little sick sister had to stay at home?"

"Naw," Johnny replied again; "didn't have no fun at all. Me an' Tommy Jones climbed inter a tree an' cut the rope of a swing so Bill Wilson an' his girl would kerflop inter the mud, but Bill he got onto us in time to save hisself. That spoiled de hull proceedin's for me. Never had no kind o' luck at all at them picnics."

"I see," observed a traveler from Minnesota, "that farmers down East are beginning to put up lots of barbed wire fences. I can't see what they want of wire fences in a country where there is so many timber?"

"Well, you just go down to New York and try farming and you'll find out," spoke up a farmer from the East. "I spent $430 last year putting barbed wire fences on my farm, and I calculate that I've saved the whole amount this season."

"Saved it—how?"

"Why, in time of bired men. A hired man will sit down on a rail fence to rest every time he comes to the end of a furrow, but a barbed wire fence—well, I guess not."

"Yes, sah," said a colored passenger in the smoking car, "I argue dat a black man can git 'long jus' as well as er white man if he'll only work and 'tend to business. Now, dere's me and my wife. We live in Inyunnapolis, an' make money an' save it, too, ebry yeah. Fo' yeahs ago we started up in bnsiness, an' by close 'tention we've built it up so's we now run it day an' night, sah, an' we's doin' right well."

"What is your business, uncle?"

"Laundry business, sah. My wife she takes in washin' in de daytime, an' —an'—"

"Well?"

"An' I—I takes in washin' durin' de night."

"Yes," said a red-faced man in the smoking-car, "I'm a temperance lecturer. If I do say it myself I've made a good reputation down in Kentucky, where I live. By the way, I heard the breakman say the next stop was for dinner. Will you take a drink with me?"

Certainly. But I thought you said you were a temperance man?"

"So I am. I always take a drink before meals and one before going to bed; but if a man don't do worse than that he is a good temperance man down where I live. Here's looking at you!"

"Fast trains are getting to be all the rage," observed the conductor to an acquaintance, "but I guess our 'limited' is still the fastest one in the business."

"Oh, no," said the passenger, "nearly every day I take a train that runs so fast your 'limited' couldn't keep up with it five seconds."

"What train is that?"

"A train of thought."

"Waiter," said a gentleman in the dining car, "have you any gooseberry pie?"

"No, sah, hain't carryin' any this yeah, sah."

"Why is that?"

"Well, you see, sah, they's sca's this seasum. Las' winter was so cole an' stormy that it was mighty tough on de geese."

"Hi, there!" exclaimed a country passenger to the train boy, "come here."

"What do you want?"

"Bring me one o' them ere Pa and Ma Gazetses we read so much about." —Wellman in Chicago Herald.

According to Bill Nye, the sign of distress for a Maine man in search of a drink is, close your right eye, hook your right foot around and back of your left leg, with the left hand execute the celebrated gesture of Sam'l of Posen, and place the right hand on the stomach.

The Clanger of an Alarm Bell

Close by, in the stillness of the night, could scarcely startle the ordinary individual more than do trifling noises the nervous invalid. But once the nerves are braced and the system invigorated with Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, this abnormal sensitiveness is succeeded by a tranquility not to be disturbed by trivial causes. Impaired digestion is a fertile cause of nerve weakness and unnatural mental gloom, and a vigorous renewal of the action of the stomach is one of the surest means of the invigorating and quieting the nerves. Insomnia, or sleeplessness, a form of nervous disease, is unquestionably benefitted by sedatives, when it is prolonged, or of frequent occurrence, but its permanent removal is more effectually achieved with the Bitters. This medicine is also signally efficacious for malaria, rheumatism, constipation, liver complaint, and torpidity of the kidneys and bladder.

Cuticura

A POSITIVE CURE FOR EVERY FORM OF BLOOD AND SKIN DISEASE FROM PIMPLES TO SCROFULA.

DISFIGURING HUMORS, Humiliating Eruptions, Itching and Burning Skin Tortures, Loathsome Sores, and every species of Itching, Scaly, Pimply, Inherited, Scrofulous, and Contagious Diseases of the Blood, Skin, and Scalp, with Loss of Hair, from infancy to old age, are positively cured by CUTICURA RESOLVENT, the New Blood Purifier, internally, and CUTICURA, the Great Skin Cure, and CUTICURA SOAP, an exquisite Skin Beautifier, externally.

ECZEMA CURED.

I was afflicted with Eczema on the Scalp, Face, Ears and Neck, which the Druggist, where I got your remedies, pronounced one of the worst cases that had come under his notice. He advised me to try your CUTICURA REMEDIES, and after five days use, my scalp and part of my face were entirely cured, and I hope in another week to have my ears, neck, and the other part of my face cured. HERMAN SLADE,

139 E. 4th St., New York.

SCABS AND SORES.

I have been afflicted since last March with a Skin disease the doctors called Eczema. My face was covered with scabs and sores, and the itching and burning were almost intolerable. Seeing CUTICURA REMEDIES so highly recommended, cd. decided to give them a trial, using the CUTICURA and CUTICURA SOAP externally, and RESOLVENT internally, for four months. I call myself cured, in gratitude for which I make this public statement.

Great Dangers.

Three great dangers menace the traveller at every turn, are climate, food and water. To guard against them requires judgment, abstinence and SANFORD'S GINGER.

This unrivalled household panacea and travelling companion is sure to check any disturbance of the bowels, instantly relieve cramps and pains, prevent indigestion, destroy disease germs in water drank, restore the circulation when suspended by a chill, a frequent cause of cholera morbus, breaks up colds and fevers, and is a ward of malarial, contagious, and epidemic influences.

SANFORD'S GINGER is a delicious combination of Imported Ginger, Choice Aromatics, and French Brandy, and is the finest extract of ginger ever compounded in the history of medicine. Ask for

SANFORD'S GINGER.

Cholera morbus, cramps, pains, diarrhœa, dysentery, indigestion, colds, chills, simple fevers, exhaustion, nervousness or loss of sleep, whether caused by unripe fruit, impure water, unhealthy climate, unwholesome food, malaria, epidemic or contagious diseases that beset the traveller or household at this season, can have no serious influence on those protected by a timely use of SANFORD'S GINGER.

As a summer drink, with hot or cold water, sweetened, or hot or cold milk, or added to ice water, lemonade, effervescent drinks or mineral waters, SANFORD'S GINGER forms a refreshing and invigorating beverage, unequalled in simplicity and purity, while free from alcoholic reaction. A little should be added to every glass of water drank.

Do not be imposed upon. Insist upon having

SANFORD'S GINGER,

Sold by all Druggists and Grocers.

CONSTIPATION!

There is no medium through which disease so often attacks the system as by Constipation, and there is no other ill flesh is heir to more apt to be neglected, from the fact material inconvenience may not be immediately felt from irregular action of the bowels. When there is not regular action the retention of decayed and effete matter, with its poisonous gases, soon poisons the whole system by being absorbed into it, causing piles, fistula, headache, impure blood and many other serious affections. BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS will immediately relieve, and one bottle positively cure or relieve any case of Constipation.

"Was troubled for a year with torpid liver and indigestion, and after trying everything imaginable used BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS. The benefit I use and the second bottle."—J. S. Williamson.

Insurance Companies Indignant.

The insurance companies are incensed over the recent law passed in New Hampshire. A despatch to the Tribune yesterday stated that thirty-one companies had withdrawn their business from the state. The dispatch was shown to a representative of the Home Insurance company, at No. 119 Broadway, yesterday. "The New Hampshire legislature," said he, "passed the 'Valued Policy Law,' which the governor has signed. The law requires that insurance companies shall pay the amount of their policies whether the loss equals it or not; that the amount shall be their liability in all cases, and that there shall be no appeal. The result is that the state will be uninsured in a little while. The companies having withdrawn are already considering the feasibility of cancelling all policies now existing there. The licenses of nearly all the state agencies have been revoked, and instructions have been sent out to issue no more policies. This has thrown thousands of people out of employment. I think the law was passed out of revenge by some people who failed to receive what they thought they were entitled to—but principally as a blackmailing scheme by the lobby."—New York Tribune.

It is very natural for the officers of the insurance companies to feel indignant, and if their statement is to be credited, the insurance business of foreign companies transacted in this state has been without a margin of profit. Still the companies, who are corporations with good souls, have kindly consented, lo! there many years, to care for us. But the trouble has been, not because leading companies with honorable agents and honest adjusters have been at fault, but because as in all other systems of money-getting, there have been cheap insurance organizations that have of course been unable to secure the services of responsible and reputable agents, but have been represented by a set of men whose whole purpose seems to have been to cause the assured to have risks upon their property greater than the actual cash value. It was a game of diamonds cut diamonds. The assured fondly hoped that he would be paid, in case of loss, a good round sum for his buildings, etc., while the agent collected a liberal sum in premiums, for which he secured an increased commission, knowing all the time that the assured never would be paid at the rate mentioned in the policy, but only as the contract read, have his loss made good.

Then followed the inevitable result of this cheating. The companies stood upon their rights, and would pay, not the sum nominated in the bond, but offered only the actual cash value of the property as found by a referee. Suits followed. The companies, as they were lawfully entitled, offered their technical defence. Occasionally there were cases of extreme hardship. There were men sent into the state to adjust the losses who crossed the state line full of the idea that in a majority of the cases they were called upon to investigate, the losses were fraudulent. Now, when a question of this character came before the legislature it did not take long for the advocates of the bill to cite numerous instances of great hardships suffered by different policy holders in the state, at the hands of the representatives of the underwriters. We recall no instances of the kind in our part of the state, but we are informed that in the back towns there have been scores of complaints of unfair and ungenerous treatment of men who deserved better at the hands of the companies. The trouble has been foreseen since men have been going about the state drumming for insurance risks.

The question presents itself, will the entire fire insurance business of this great country maintain a combination to lose the business of New Hampshire, and all of the participating companies stand firm to the compact, or will here and there a few shrewdly managed concerns which are willing to insure at a low estimate, take the immense business which the other companies threaten to throw up?

Should the companies, in utter disregard for their own interests, seek to punish the people of New Hampshire for the alleged fault of their legislators, whom the companies had every opportunity to convince of the impropriety of the passage of the law, it will cause similar enactments in every state in the union, and the "valued policy law" will be in the statutes of every commonwealth. We have no faith in anything but the threats of the combination. It will not be able to control for any length of time certain companies of acknowledged soundness, whose management is guided by tact in lieu of an obstinate desire for revenge.

If there has been a remissness on both sides, the people have begun a reform with the insurance companies. The substantial concerns which have for many years been regarded as safe, sound and honorable in their dealings, need have no fears of the result of the new law upon their business, unless they in an unguarded moment join the strikers, and get barred out.

In the meantime, real estate holders should not be alarmed at rumors in the newspapers. When the insurance companies withdraw from New Hampshire they arouse a feeling of distrust as to their wisdom and strength, throughout all New England. Our relations with other states are too intimate to have the companies "draw the line at that," and property owners instead of begging the offended companies to continue to do business at the old stand, will seek some new concern with whom their risks will be placed.

Beer trains are now run regularly from Munich, the result of having a lively railroad man like Frank Jones in the old country. He has had beer trains run from his brewery for a long time.

If we would have powerful minds, we must think; if faithful hearts, we must love; if powerful muscles, we must labor; if we would get rid of a bad cough, we must take Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup.

WHAT WILL convince you of the wonderful curative properties combined in HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA, if the remarkable cures that have been effected by its use fail to impress upon your mind this repeatedly proven fact? Thousands are using it, and all declare that it is a medicine possessing all and even more than we claim for it. My friend, if you are sick or in bad condition that you cannot call yourself either sick or well, go and get a bottle of HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA, and realize yourself how this medicine WILL hits the right spot, and puts all the machinery of your body into working order. CONVINCE

LOWELL, MASS.

MESSRS. C. I. HOOD & CO.: Gentlemen—It affords me much pleasure to recommend HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA. My health has been such that for some years past I have been obliged to take a tonic of some kind in the spring, and have never found anything that hit my wants as your Sarsaparilla. It tones up my system, purifies my blood, sharpens my appetite, and seems to make me over. Respectfully yours,

J. F. THOMPSON.

One of our prominent business men said to us the other day: "In the spring my wife got all run down and could not eat anything; passing your store I saw a pile of HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA in the window, and I got a bottle. After she had been taking it a week she had a roaring appetite, and it did her everything. She took three bottles, and it was the best three dollars I ever invested."

THE THEATRE.

This evening, at Music hall, C. R. Gardiner's Dramatic Combination will commence a week's engagement with the presentation of Elliott Barnes' great American drama "Only a Farmer's Daughter," produced under the immediate supervision of Mr. Barnes. This play ran 225 successive nights at Haverly's 14th street theatre in New York. Tickets at Goodrich's; popular prices—see advertisement.

STEAMBOAT EXCURSIONS.

Opportunity is to be afforded all who wish, to make either one—or both—of two very enjoyable excursions, and at a trifling expense. The fine ocean-going steamer Stamford will arrive at Rollins' wharf, foot of Court street, about noon to-day, and can be inspected there during the afternoon. To-morrow (Tuesday) morning at 8:30 she will start for Plymouth, Mass., and after a stop of several hours in that historic town, will return in the evening; on Wednesday she will start at 8:30 for Boston, returning in the evening. The fare for the round trip, either excursion, is but a dollar, with half fare for children.

AFFAIRS IN KITTERY.

KITTERY, ME., Sept. 5th.

The public hearing upon the question of a site for the public library building, held in the Universalist church on Friday, did not attract a very large crowd. Remarks were made by Joseph Langton, in opposition to the selection of the Traip lot. Andrew J. Stimson spoke very much to the point in favor of the Traip lot, Alonzo A. Hayes advocated the "Tabernacle" lot, and Alexander Dennett, Esq., spoke in favor of accepting the offer of the Rice lot. The meeting was only called to listen to remarks, and no action was taken by the trustees at that time.

The library trustees held a meeting at the president's office on Saturday afternoon, at which all the board were present. Elder Wilson offered votes authorizing the treasurer to pay over the purchase money for the Traip lot when the deeds were delivered from the owners; that the trustees erect, as soon as may be, a library building; that plans and specifications be procured for the building; that they advertise, as soon as may be, for proposals for erecting and completing the building, and for the foundation and basement, together with the necessary grading around the building. They also passed votes as to time to be allowed in which contracts should be completed, and appointed the members of the board a building committee with the usual authority of such committees. The committee will doubtless ere long have suitable plans prepared for the building, and invite proposals for its erection.

A draft of eight marines left the navy yard this afternoon to join the practice-ship squadron at Newport, R. I., at which place the training ships Jamestown, Saratoga and Portsmouth arrived on the 4th to participate in the Perry monument dedication on the 10th inst.

The Rice public library will be closed from the 9th to 17th insts., to readers of books, in order to allow Miss Goodsoe an opportunity for a much-needed vacation. O. K.

THE SIR KNIGHTS AT THE ISLES OF SHOALS.

Not in many years has there been a more lively scene at the Isles of Shoals than that of the entertainment of the Boston Commandry of Knights Templar, which took place on Thursday and Friday of last week. At one o'clock P. M., Thursday, the United States steamer Leyden arrived at Star island, having on board about three hundred Sir Knights and ladies, who thronged up the walk to the flag-draped entrance of the Oceanic, where they were welcomed by the host, Mr. O. L. Frisbee. For their reception the house was very beautifully decorated with flags and flowers, and Japanese lanterns which extended the length of the piazzas. The central part of the decorations was a great arch surmounting the steps, bearing words of welcome to the knights, while around and above this were artistically draped flags and pennants, with long lines of bunting extending to the roof; and over all, from the flagstaff on the cupola, waved the flag borne by the commandry across the continent to California, three years ago. Over the doorway and holding in place the folds of the draped flag beneath, was a large star of wild flowers, made by one of the lady guests, and great vases of flowers adorned the balustrades of the entrance. The whole was a perfect picture, and when the Japanese lanterns were lighted for the evening, thus brightening the crowded piazzas, it formed a scene such as has been rarely witnessed at the Shoals. There was a fine display of fireworks, the last piece being a Maltese cross formed of many little lights, which was loudly applauded. Music and dancing followed, and "all went merry as a marriage bell" till the small hours.

On Friday at one o'clock P. M. occurred the grand banquet, a bounteous repast, given by the California pilgrims to their brother Sir Knights and the ladies, and to which all did justice. Many enjoyable speeches followed, and the exercises closed with the singing of "Auld Lang Lyne." A pretty feature of the repast was a pyramid of flowers, composed of many small boquets, which at the close of the banquet were graciously bestowed upon the wives of the Sir Knights by Mrs. R. H. Kemp of Boston, the originator of the little plan. At four o'clock the party started for Portsmouth, expressing satisfaction and pleasure with their visit, and an intention to come again some other day. At the pier the steamer halted a moment, after all were on board, while three hearty cheers were given to the Oceanic.

This was the third annual trip of the kind made by the commandry, on the anniversary of the arrival home from the California pilgrimage in 1882, the first having been made to the Vendome, Boston, in 1883, the second to the Hotel Wentworth, Newcastle, in 1884, and this one to the Oceanic.

PRECAUTION--NOTICE.

In view of the fact that an epidemic of smallpox is now prevailing in Montreal and that the disease has already been conveyed to one or two manufacturing towns of New England, we beg leave to call the attention of the public to Chap. 91, Sec. 2, of the General Laws of this state:

"No child, unless he has been duly vaccinated or has had the smallpox, is entitled to attend any public school; and the prudential committees of the several districts, and those who exercise the powers of such committees, shall not allow any such child to be admitted to or connected with any such school."

It is urgently requested that not only children, but all those who have not been vaccinated for many years, will make use of this method of prevention at an early date. J. J. BERRY, M. D.,
Chairman Board of Health.

James Berry's house in Kittery, near the Portsmouth bridge, was robbed on Sunday of a revolver and $1 by two men, who were described to the Portsmouth police by a boy in the evening.

Henry S. Place of Portland, Me., went violently insane on Friday morning, and was locked up. He is a native of this city.

Private School.

MISS C. J. HAM will re-open her School at No. 4 Summer Street, Monday, September 7th.

A large party of ladies and gentlemen from Epping, among them Ex-Governor Prescott and wife, visited the Ocean Wave at Rye beach on Saturday, coming in private carriages, and returning on Sunday afternoon.

Judge Alphonso Taft, ex-minister to Russia, who since his return has been visiting his son, Henry W. Taft, of New York, is to spend a few days at his cottage at Little Boar's Head this week.

The schooner Mary Willey, Williams master, dropped down to Kittery Point on the 5th inst. to discharge 16,000 feet of lumber for a Mr. Mitchell, and intending to sail Monday morning for Bangor via Portland. Mr. Edward J. Moulton goes in the Mary Willey this trip, on his 13th annual excursion in the schooner.

The steamer Mystic on the 6th inst. made what was supposed to be her last Sunday trip to the Isles of Shoals for this season with the United States mails and Sunday papers. She had a considerable number of passengers both on her outward and inward runs. The weather was very fine, and her company enjoyed themselves very much. There were only ripples on the sea. About a score of coasters were lying at anchor in Pepperell's cove; and a great number of small boats, with many ladies on board, were sailing and fishing at the mouth of the Piscataqua. A goodly number of visitors still remain at the Shoals hotels.

A New World.

The startling announcement was recently made by one of the world's great astronomers, that a star-like formation was showing itself in the great nebula of Andromeda. At Phelps, N. Y., on the night of the 1st inst. and the morning of the 2d, Prof. Brooks of the Red House observatory secured observations of the wonderful new star, and a marked increase of light was discovered between the observations. The star is now of the sixth magnitude, and easily visible to the naked eye. A small telescope or opera glass shows it well. Prof. Brooks believes it may yet attain great brilliancy, and regards it as one of the most remarkable phenomena in the annals of astronomy. Nothing like it is on record as having ever been observed before.

CHOLERA CRAMPS CHILLS

"An ounce of prevention," that is, a dose of SANFORD'S GINGER, "is worth a pound of cure," which, of course, means a doctor. It is absolutely certain that Cholera may be prevented, and, in the majority of cases, successfully treated, with SANFORD'S GINGER, a powerful stimulant, composed of Imported Ginger, choice Aromatics, and the best French Brandy; convenient, speedy and safe; sure to check summer complaint, prevent indigestion, destroy disease germs in water drank, restore the circulation when suspended by a chill, and ward off malarial, contagious, and epidemic influences.

Avoid mercenary dealers who for a few cents extra profit try to force upon you their own or others' when you call for

SANFORD'S GINGER

The Delicious Summer Medicine.

Cramps, Pains, Cholera Morbus, Diarrhœa, and Dysentery, whether produced by unripe fruit, impure water, unwholesome food, or change of climate, food or water, or any little ills of home or travel, such as Colds, Chills, Simple Fevers, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Sea-sickness, Exhaustion, Nervousness, Loss of Sleep, Debility and Dissipation, are instantly relieved by SANFORD'S GINGER, the safest, surest, as best summer medicine and travelling companion.

As a healthful summer drink with water, milk, iced water, lemonade, effervescent draughts and mineral waters, it is the best.

Beware of worthless "gingers," said to be "as good," or "the same," or "as larger," or "cheaper" than SANFORD'S GINGER. Ask for

At a meeting of St. John's Lodge, No. 1, A. F. & A. M., on the evening of the 2d inst., a committee of seven was appointed to act with the master of the lodge in appointing a committee to make arrangements for the observance of the 150th anniversary of the organization of the lodge in this city, next June, the full committee consisting of W. G. Billings, Edward W. Riley, Albert R. Jenkins, John H. Cheever, Michael Crowley, Calvin Page, Howe Call and Washington Freeman. The early action was necessary as the party selected as historian for the occasion will require time to prepare his work. There are two lodges in the United States whose charters antedate St. John's, but none that have done continuous work and have complete and uninterrupted records.

His Loss was Her Gain.

"Well madam," said a fashionable physician to a wealthy lady patient, "if you don't like my prescriptions, perhaps you had better try Parker's Tonic, or some other quack stuff." "You don't mean it, Docter," she answered, "but your advice may be good for all that. Sometimes what you call 'quack stuff' is the best and most scientific medicine, after all." She got a bottle of Parker's Tonic and it cured her of neuralgia arising from disordered stomach and nerves. She told her friends, and now they all keep a doctor at home in the form of Parker's Tonic.

"Fools Rush in, Where Angels Fear to Tread"

So impetuous youth is often given to folly and indiscretions; and, as a result, nervous, mental and organic debility follow, memory is impaired, self-confidence is lacking; at night bad dreams occur, premature old age seems setting in, ruin is in the track. In confidence, you can, and should write to Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., the author of a treatise for the benefit of that class of patients, and describe your symptoms and sufferings. He can cure you at your home, and will send you full particulars by mail.

Which, strange to tell, gave me an answer, as here translated:
I am the Poem of Earth, said the voice of the rain,
Eternal I rise impalpable out of the land and the bottomless sea,
Upward to heaven, whence, vaguely formed, altogether changed, and yet the same,
I descend to lave the drouths, atomies, dust layers of the globe,
And all that in them without me were seeds only, latent, unborn,
And forever, by day and night, I give back life to my own origin, and make pure and beautify it;
(For song, issuing from its birth-place, after fulfillment, wandering, Recked or unrecked, duly with love returns.)
—Walt Whitman, in Outing (August.)

DR. SPENCER'S CRIME.

I was sitting in my office, half-dozing over an interminable article on nutrition in the last medical review.

The fire in the grate was low, the night was stormy and the clock was on the stroke of eleven. I was just about to turn off the gas and retire, for, being a bachelor, I sleep in the room connected with my office, when there was a pull at the bell.

I started up suddenly, for this was something new. Middlebury was a decorous sort of a place and the people usually managed to be taken sick at seasonable hours.

Old Mrs. Jerome had been threatening to die for the past five years, and every time I visited her she solemnly informed me that when the decisive moment did come she desired me present. But as nothing ailed the old lady beyond now and then an indigestion from too much high living, I had never yet been called upon to be present at her death.

Now, I thought, it must be old Mrs. Jerome is going.

I took up my night lamp and went to the door. A strong gust of damp, sleet wind nearly extinguished the light, but, shading it with my hand, I discerned the face of a woman.

"Come in," said I, holding open the door, but she declined with a gesture of impatience.

"You must come out," she said, in a sharp, incisive voice, "and be quick about it."

I put on my overcoat without demur, locked the surgery door and stepped into the storm. As I did so the woman laid a firm hand on my arm and putting her face close to mine said:

"Dr. Lockwood, can you keep a secret?"

"I think so, madame."

"Swear it."

"Is this secret of yours of a professional character? That is, is it anything you wish to confide in me as a medical man?"

"It is."

"Very well, then, I swear it."

"That is right."

A man respects an oath, though why he should is a mystery, since men's mouths are running over with them.

"Whither are you taking me and for what purpose?"

"To the Clifton house to see my mistress." I started.

Clifton house was the old mansion recently taken by Dr. Spencer, a stranger to every one in Middlebury. Spencer was a tall, dark, rather distinguished looking person, who had hung out his sign in the village only a few doors above mine, but as yet he had no practice.

He was unsocial in the extreme, avoiding his neighbors persistently, and when he did speak it was in such a curt, half-savage way that no one was likely to prolong a conversation.

The doctor had a wife, it was said, but no one had ever seen her. She was an invalid and Miss Melrose, a friend of the family, presided over the family and sat at the head of the table.

Miss Melrose was yet beautiful, and won the admiration of all who visited Clifton house by her ease of manner and fascinating conversation.

"As we walk along," said my companion, "let me explain to you just what is necessary for you to know. My mistress is very sick."

"I beg your pardon, is it Mrs. Spencer or Miss Melrose?"

She laughed bitterly.

"Miss Melrose! I would stab her to the heart sooner than own her for a mistress. My mistress is a lady—noble, royal and of gentle birth. It is an honor to serve my mistress."

"And is she ill? How long since?"

"Ever since she married him—curse him!" she muttered in a fierce tone; but I must not get excited. I must tell my story, or rather hers. Two years ago, through the desire of a dying father, Alice Herdon became James Spencer's wife. Before that she was a healthy, blooming girl; immediately after their marriage she began to fail. Do you see anything strange in that?"

"Not necessarily."

"Let me enlighten you further. Dr. Spencer was at one time engaged to Miss Lucille Melrose, but he broke the engagement and married my mistress instead. Miss Melrose was as poor as Job's turkey. Miss Herdon was an heiress, and Dr. Spencer was deep in debt and hard pressed by his creditors. Do you see anything strange in that?"

"Perhaps so. Go on."

"When my mistress married Spencer she was only seventeen and had been taught to obey her father in everything. She was a gentle, affectionate child, and it would have been easy for Spencer to have won her love. But he did not care for that. It was her money he wanted. It paid his debts and bought him fast horses; it set his table with nice and costly dishes, and put it in his power to keep Miss Melrose robed like a queen. All this time my mistress had been slowly but surely sinking, and look you, Dr. Lockwood, I believe she is not dying of disease, but of"—she lowered her voice to a whisper as she spoke the word—"poison."

"Impossible! this is a grave charge."

"Of poison given her by her husband who, at her death, will have sole control of her property and be free to marry Miss Melrose. There is no time to explain the details of the thousand and one circumstances which have led me to believe it, for we are almost at the door. It is never the case that Miss Melrose and Spencer are out at the same time, or I should have called a physician before; but to-night they are both called away by the death of Miss Melrose's sister and will not be back until to-morrow. With the consent of my mistress I came for you, and oh, Dr. Lockwood, I pray you to save my dear mistress. I nursed her when her mother died and left her a helpless infant; all through her innocent youth she was like an own child to me; and now to see her fading hour by hour before my eyes. Good heavens! If I knew beyond a doubt that he was guilty, his life should pay the forfeit."

I was already beginning to feel a deep interest in Mrs. Spencer, although I had never seen her, and like her own nurse I was beginning to feel a great animosity for Dr. Spencer.

Mrs. Spencer received me in her bed chamber. It was on the second floor, and was furnished with exquisite elegance.

Everything in the room bespoke the delicacy and taste of the occupant. The warm air was fragrant with the faint odor of heliotrope; and glancing around I saw the purple blossoms and green leaves in an alabaster case on the edge of the south window.

She was a woman who, when once seen, could never be forgotten. I have met in my life many beautiful women, but never one so lovely.

She was tall and straight, with a purely oval face, liquid brown eyes, and a dash of hectic in her cheek, which is never seen in perfect health.

She received me, as I know she did everyone, gracefully, and though there was a slight embarrassment in her manner when I spoke of her illness, she answered my professional inquiries without hesitation.

As for myself, I laid aside all false delicacy and questioned her plainly as to her symptoms. Mrs. Hurd, her nurse, remained in the room, and added many important little items of information.

Concluded in next issue.

Cuticura

A POSITIVE CURE FOR EVERY FORM OF BLOOD AND SKIN DISEASE FROM PIMPLES TO SCROFULA.

DISFIGURING HUMORS, Humiliating Eruptions, Itching and Burning Skin Tortures, Loathsome Sores, and every species of Itching, Scaly, Pimply, Inherited, Scrofulous, and Contagious Diseases of the Blood, Skin, and Scalp, with Loss of Hair, from Infancy to old age, are positively cured by CUTICURA RESOLVENT, the New Blood Purifier, internally, and CUTICURA, the Great Skin Cure, and CUTICURA SOAP, an exquisite Skin Beautifier, externally.

ECZEMA CURED.

I was afflicted with Eczema on the Scalp, Face, Ears and Neck, which the Druggist, where I got your remedies, pronounced one of the worst cases that he had seen under his notice. He advised me to try your CUTICURA REMEDIES, and after five days use, my scalp and part of my face were entirely cured, and I hope in another week to have my ears, neck, and the other part of my face cured. HERMAN SLADE,

120 E. 4th St., New York.

SCABS AND SORES.

I have been afflicted since last March with a Skin disease the doctors called Eczema. My face was covered with scabs and sores, and the itching and burning were almost unbearable. Seeing your CUTICURA REMEDIES so highly recommended, concluded to give them a trial, using the CUTICURA and CUTICURA SOAP externally, and RESOLVENT internally, for four months. I call myself cured, in gratitude for which I make this public statement.

Great Dangers.

Three great dangers menace the traveller at every turn. They are climate, food and water. To guard against them requires judgment, abstinence and SANFORD'S GINGER.

This unrivalled household panacea and travelling companion is sure to check any disturbance of the bowels, instantly relieve cramps and pains, prevent indigestion, destroy disease germs in water drank, restore the circulation when suspended by a chill, a frequent cause of cholera morbus, breaks up colds and fevers, and ward off malarial, contagious, and epidemic influences.

SANFORD'S GINGER is a delicious combination of Imported Ginger, Choice Aromatics, and French Brandy, and is the finest extract of ginger ever compounded in the history of medicine. Ask for

SANFORD'S GINGER.

Cholera morbus, cramps, pains, diarrhœa, dysentery, indigestion, colds, chills, simple fevers, exhaustion, nervousness or loss of sleep, whether caused by unripe fruit, impure water, unhealthy climate, unwholesome food, malaria, epidemic or contagious diseases that beset the traveller or household at this season, can have no serious influence on those protected by a timely use of SANFORD'S GINGER.

As a summer drink, with hot or cold water, lemonade, sherbet, or mixed with milk, or milner, al waters, SANFORD'S GINGER forms a refreshing and invigorating beverage, unequalled in simplicity and purity, while free from alcoholic reaction. A little should be added to every glass of water drank.

Naval Economy.

The "sham" economy which the present administration delights in is well illustrated in the case of Admiral Jouett. This commander attended the opening of the New Orleans exposition as a representative of the navy, and entertained the governor of Louisiana and some other officials on board his ship, the Tennessee. Secretary Chandler had informed him that $400 would be allowed for the expenses of such courtesy out of the contingency fund of the navy department. But now the democratic officials of the treasury department refuse to allow the bill, and order the $400 to be deducted from the admiral's pay. We are not sure that the treasury officers are right, even from a legal point of view. At any rate, to send our naval or army officers on official errands, and then punish them in this way for being decently civil to persons whom they meet in an official capacity, is mightily small business for the government of the United States to be caught at.—Tribune.

The new democratic officials are, of course, decidedly more fresh in regard to many matters pertaining to the administration of the affairs of this great and glorious country than they will necessarily be found hereafter, when they have learned, each for himself, that there are very many outlays a government employee or a representative is compelled to make, and very many services he is obliged to perform, for the reimbursement of which there may be no provision by any especial enactment.

The admiral in command of a fleet or squadron in the English navy, has by law an ample provision added to his salary, for the express purpose of his being enabled to properly entertain official visitors. In our navy, the officers on foreign stations are compelled to return all civilities and to maintain the rites of hospitality at their personal cost. It is said that a distinguished admiral of our navy, on a famous cruise toward which were directed the eyes of the civilized world, expended of his own fortune twenty-five thousand dollars in this kind of entertainment, from which he could have no more shrank than he could have dodged the shot and shell while lashed to the rigging in passing the forts at the entrance of Mobile bay!

It is well known that while the Tennessee was at New Orleans, during the exposition, she was visited by immense throngs of people. Some of these, as a rule of official etiquette, which officers of the navy never for one moment lose sight of, were entitled to be entertained. There was no avoiding this duty, had the admiral, whose hospitality is proverbial, been inclined for a single moment so to do. But when occur the visits of governors and their staffs, and like officials, for the general government to insist that the admiral shall entertain such guests from his private funds, because later on some treasury official can find "no law for these expenditures," seems quite absurd.

The departments at Washington are constantly causing expenditures for which there is no express statute law. In the appropriation bills every contingency cannot be anticipated, but there is commonly a contingent fund from which can be ordered payment of bills under the approval of the head of a department. The government could not be carried on in any other mode.

Let us hope that these spasms of economic virtue on the part of the administration will not be simply for effect, to be succeeded by some colossal cheating in another direction, but that the proper outlay of this nature by a naval officer may be allowed; and if the new comptroller can find no law for such expenditures, let some hospitable dinner-giver at Washington invite Judge Holman out some day while the house of representatives enacts such a statute. The respectability of the administration should not be compromised while gentlemen like Endicott and Whitney hold the forts and plough the waters, as its representatives.

NO RACE MONDAY.

Monday was the day appointed for the first of the three races between the British cutter yacht Genesta and the American sloop yacht Puritan, for the possession of the famous cup won by the American schooner yacht America over thirty years ago in a race open to all the yachts of all the world, and without any time allowance.

The two representative yachts, and many scores of others of all rigs and sizes, rendezvoused on Sunday in the Horseshoe on the Jersey coast, in readiness for the race of Monday. Previous to starting, the Puritan was remeasured by the official measurer of the New York yacht club, and it was found she would have to give the Genesta thirty-one seconds in the first race, twenty miles to windward and return.

Monday the wind was light, the sea smooth and the weather hazy, and at 10:30 o'clock, the time set for the start, the prospect looked poor for a race. At 1:15 P. M. the breeze freshened, and it was decided to start the race; the Puritan crossed the line at 1:35, the Genesta one minute and ten seconds later. At 3:40 the Puritan was reported as well to windward of the Genesta and about half a mile ahead; but the yachts evidently failed to get over the course within the limited time, seven hours, for a despatch received by us in the evening announced:

"Race between Puritan and Genesta postponed until to-morrow."

The drill-stand which was knocked over by a schooner at Gangway rock some days ago, having been repaired was again placed in position on the 7th inst., —and it also came very near being knocked over again by another schooner, the same day.

THE WEATHER.

For New England to-day:—

Partly cloudy, slightly warmer weather, occasional light local rains.

The Thermometer at the CHRONICLE Office, at 4:00 o'clock this morning, indicated 46 degrees above zero.

Clear.

THE THEATRE.

C. R. Gardiner's Dramatic Combination had a very large audience at Music hall on Monday evening to see "Only a Farmer's Daughter," and gave a highly satisfactory entertainment, which was generously acknowledge by the throng. The company is really a superior one, though the tickets are moderate in price. Change of programme for this evening.

STEAMBOAT EXCURSIONS.

The excursion steamer Stamford arrived from Boston on Monday, and took a berth at Rollins' wharf, where she was visited during the afternoon by many persons. She carries a band.

This morning she starts at 8:30 o'clock for Plymouth, Mass., and to-morrow morning at the same hour for Boston. See advertisement.

A HINT.

The urgent request of City Physician Berry that not only children, but adults who have not been vaccinated for a long time, resort at once to that only effective method known of preventing smallpox, is emphasized by the news that the disease has reached Manchester from Montreal, in which latter-named city it has reached the dimensions of an epidemic owing to the ignorant prejudice of a large part of the French Canadian population against vaccination. There were three cases of the disease in the Manchester pest-house on Sunday, and much alarm exists; the afflicted family came from Montreal two weeks ago, and many persons have been exposed to infection. Portsmouth has not such a percentage of Canadians in its population as Dover or Manchester, to travel back and forth, but the smallpox is about as likely to show itself here as in those places, and no precautions should be neglected.

THE AGAMENTICUS PICNIC.

HAVERHILL, MASS., Sept. 5th.

Mr. Editor: Through the kindness of some friend I received a copy of your valuable paper of the 4th inst., in which I find a communication, in language more forcible than polite, from George F. Plaisted of York Corner, Me., in regard to a circumstance which occurred at the recent union picnic of Christian Sabbath schools at Mount Agamenticus, which circumstance was as follows:

On arriving at the foot of the mountain, I saw a gentleman selling from bottles something to drink. Being interested in the picnic, and one of the committee, I asked him what he was selling? He replied, "tonic." I said, "It looks and smells like lager beer. If it is lager, I advise you not to sell it, as the law of the state forbids it, and the committee will not allow it."

No one wished to harm Mr. Plaisted, or his clerk; but I submit that it is no place at a Sabbath school picnic to offer even "tonic" for sale. If Mr. Plaisted was doing a "proper and legitimate business," as he says, why does he get angry, and feel that I placed a stigma upon it, by my asking his clerk what he was selling. If Mr. Plaisted says his clerk was not selling "lager," or "beer," I take his word for it; but let me suggest that next year when the Christian churches of York county hold their annual picnic, that Mr. Plaisted leave his "tonic" at home, and that will avoid having his feelings ruffled up by any remarks from me.

With love for everything good, I subscribe myself, JOHN A. GOSS.

PRECAUTION--NOTICE.

In view of the fact that an epidemic of smallpox is now prevailing in Montreal and that the disease has already been conveyed to one or two manufacturing towns of New England, we beg leave to call the attention of the public to Chap. 91, Sec. 2, of the General Laws of this state:

"No child, unless he has been duly vaccinated or has had the smallpox, is entitled to attend any public school; and the prudential committees of the several districts, and those who exercise the powers of such committees, shall not allow any such child to be admitted to or connected with any such school."

It is urgently requested that not only children, but all those who have not been vaccinated for many years, will make use of this method of prevention at an early date. J. J. BERRY, M. D.,
Chairman Board of Health.

BODY PICKED UP.

Comdr. Thomas H. Eastman, U. S. N., while cruising off the harbor on Monday afternoon in his yacht, found floating on the water the body of a man very much disfigured, and towed it to the Kitt's rock bell buoy, where he made it fast, and then notified the authorities of Newcastle, who took charge of the remains. From the body being attired in a base ball suit, it was supposed to be that of one of the Winckley brothers, drowned off Salisbury beach some weeks ago by the capsizing of their canoe while they were fishing.

Before going to Boston or elsewhere to purchase fall and winter goods, the ladies will do well to read the advertisement of Ayers & Locke, and then call at their store, examine their immense and varied stock of new goods, and learn their prices.

Rev. Wm. H. Alden, D. D., pastor of the Middle street Baptist church, and Rev. W. A. McGinley, pastor of the North church, having returned from their vacations, occupied their respective pulpits on Sunday last, though Rev. Mr. Cutter of Boston preached for Mr. McGinley. Rev. Joseph May of Philadelphia preached for the South parish, and Rev. C. P. Smith for the Court street Christian society. Mr. Smith, who has accepted a call to the Christian church at Suffolk, Va., will sail Tuesday from Boston for Norfolk, Va., on his way to assume the duties of his new pastorate. The Sunday school connected with the Unitarian church will resume its sessions next Sunday afternoon, at the usual hour.

The attention of pupils in the public schools, and parents of pupils, is invited to the advertisement of Mercer Goodrich.

CHOLERA CRAMPS CHILLS

"An ounce of prevention," that is, a dose of SANFORD'S GINGER, "is worth a pound of cure," which, of course, means a doctor. It is absolutely certain that Cholera may be prevented, and, in the majority of cases, successfully treated, with SANFORD'S GINGER, a powerful stimulant, composed of Imported Ginger, choice Aromatics, and the best French Brandy; convenient, speedy and safe; sure to check summer complaints, prevent indigestion, destroy disease germs in water drank, restore the circulation when suspended by a chill, and ward off malarial, contagious, and epidemic influences.

Avoid mercenary dealers who for a few cents extra profit try to force upon you their own or others' when you call for

SANFORD'S GINGER

The Delicious Summer Medicine.

Cramps, Pains, Cholera Morbus, Diarrhœa, and Dysentery, whether produced by unripe fruit, impure water, unwholesome food, or change of climate, food or water, or any little ills of home or travel, such as Colds, Chills, Simple Fevers, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Sea-sickness, Exhaustion, Nervousness, Loss of Sleep, Debility and Distraction, are instantly relieved by SANFORD'S GINGER, the safest, surest, as best summer medicine and travelling companion.

As a healthful summer drink with water, milk, iced water, lemonade, effervescent draughts and mineral waters, it is the best.

☞ Beware of worthless "ginger," said to be "as good," or "the same," or "as larger," or "cheaper" than SANFORD'S GINGER. Ask for Advice to Mothers.

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? If so, send at once and get a bottle of Mrs Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers, there is no mistake about it. It cures dysentery and diarrhœa, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures wind colic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female nurses and physicians in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price 25 cents a bottle. eod&wsp,e5

The Present Generation

Lives at telegraphic speed—eats too fast, retires too late, does not rise betimes, smokes and (alas, that we should have to say it!) chews too much tobacco. The consequences are dyspepsia, a general absence of that robust and manly vigor, which characterized our ancestors, and a manifest proneness to early decay. Regular hours, a due allowance of time for meals, the disuse of excessive smoking, and altogether of chewing tobacco, in connection with a course of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, will in nine cases out of ten efface consequences of the abuses of the laws of health indicated above. A want of stamina, dyspepsia, nervousness and biliousness are among these consequences, and they are bodily ills to the removal of which the Bitters is especially adapted. Nor is the Bitters less fitted to overcome and prevent fever and ague, kidney and bladder troubles and rheumatic ailments. It is also a fine appetizer and promoter of convalescence.

At Chattanooga, Tenn., Sept. 6th, Charles Williams, a disreputable negro, shot dead Polk Mitchell, a horse-car conductor. Williams was jailed, but the mob hung him before morning.

John Horan, a Bridgeport, Conn., saloon keeper, broke his neck Sept. 6th by tumbling down stairs.

In many localities Hood's Sarsaparilla is in such general demand that it is the recognized family medicine. People write that "the whole neighborhood is taking it," etc. Particularly is this true of Lowell, Mass., where it is made, and where more of Hood's Sarsaparilla is sold than of any other sarsaparilla or blood purifier. It is the great remedy for debility, scrofula, dyspepsia, biliousness, or any disease caused by impure state or low condition of the blood. Give it a trial.

DR. SPENCER'S CRIME.

When she spoke of her husband, it was with a sort of hopeless sadness which distressed me greatly.

Not a breath of suspicion against him in her answers to my questions, and I felt sure that at present she knew nothing of what Mrs. Hurd had such serious apprehensions. I was glad it was so, for with her finely strung organization, it might have produced serious results. I made my examination of the patient as closely as I could, and drew my own conclusions. I could have sworn that Mrs. Spencer daily swallowed arsenic in small quantities, and the deadly drug was telling fearfully on her constitution.

She said, answering my questions, that she had no physician except her husband. He thought himself better acquainted with her case, and therefore better qualified to treat her. He never left medicine with her to take; he always brought it fresh from his office, and administered it promptly.

There was little enough I could do in such a case. Anxious to do everything, the very circumstances of the affair left me nearly powerless.

A charge of such nature of course I could not make out against Dr. Spencer, without the amplest proof. If I hinted a suspicion, everyone would set it down to my professional prejudice; and if I could not substantiate my statement, the doctor could make me pay dearly for such slander uttered against him.

The only dependence seemed to be in Mrs. Hurd. To her I unbosomed myself freely. I told her without reserve that I thought Dr. Spencer was killing his wife by slow poison, and I besought her to constantly watch to save the victim, and discover some proof by which we could fasten the guilt upon him.

She smiled grimly and promised obedience, and I gave her a powerful antidote for the poison I suspected, and went home perturbed and anxious in mind. I did not sleep that night and all the next day I was in a high fever of excitement. A ring at the bell made me tremble—a step on the gravel outside my office stopped my breath, and I hardly knew what I expected to hear. I felt sure before I slept I should hear something.

And now I must tell the story as it was told me.

Dr. Spencer returned home the morning after my visit to the Clifton house. He looked wretchedly, the nurse said; appeared gloomy and depressed. Miss Melrose came with him and looked decorously sad over the death of her sister. Women of her stamp always do mourn to perfection. They neither overdo nor underdo the thing, as women of feeling are likely to do.

Dr. Spencer came at once to his wife's chamber. He thought she looked ill, and prescribed a cordial at once, saying he would go and fetch it.

"You are always ordering cordials for her," said Mrs. Hurd, musingly. "Why not take something yourself? You look like a ghost!"

He eyed her keenly, but replied composedly:

"I think I will take some of the cordial myself, for I do not feel quite well. Alice, dear, shall I bring it here and drink your health?"

Mrs. Spencer smiled sadly in assent—she never disputed her husband—and he went out. Presently he returned with two glasses. Both contained liquor colorless and odorless. Mrs. Hurd was watching him with her heart in her throat, for she told me that she felt the decisive moment had come. There was something in the gray pallor of the doctor's rigid face told her of a desperate purpose in the man's soul.

He lifted the glass to the right of the tray and gave it to his wife.

"Drink it, dear," he said. "It's a panacea for all evils. I am also going to take a glass of it," and he pointed to the glass still on the tray.

Mrs. Spencer accepted it and was putting it to her lips, when Mrs. Hurd interrupted.

"If you will bring her a tumbler of water, doctor. Mrs. Spencer complains that the cordial leaves a bad taste in her mouth, and my old bones are so full of rheumatism that it nearly kills me to go down stairs."

The doctor turned and bent on her a look as though he meant to read her through. But she kept her face passive. If he had any suspicions her manner quieted them, and putting down the glass he left the room. Then Mrs. Hurd changed the position of the glasses.

When he came back—and he was gone but a moment—the nurse stood exactly where he had left her, and Mrs. Spencer was lying back in her chair with her eyes closed.

Again he lifted the glass, this time it was the one intended for himself, and placed it to the lips of his wife. She swallowed the contents, drank a little of the water he brought her, and thanked him in her sad, sweet way.

"Now for my own cordial," he said, with affected gayety. "I indulge in something a little stronger," as he spoke he tossed off the mixture.

"It made me stone cold to my fingers' ends to see him do it," said Mrs. Hurd, relating the circumstances to me, "but as heaven is my witness I felt no conscience. I argued like this: 'If it was simply cordial, it would do no harm; if it was poison, his blood would be on his own sinful head.'"

He went to bed half an hour afterwards, complaining of fatigue. In the morning they found him dead.

I was called to the post-mortem examination, and we discovered in the stomach of the deceased a sufficient quantity of the deadly poison known to modern science to kill half-a-dozen men.

My brother physicians agreed that the man was insane, and had probably taken the dose in one of his unsettled fits of mind. I did not dispute them, but even before Mrs. Hurd told her story, I had my own theory as to the cause of his death.

There was no public exposure, however, Mrs. Hurd and I agreed that it would profit no one to make the wretched affair public, and so we kept our own counsel.

Miss Melrose, in spite of my conviction that she had an active part in the conspiracy against Mrs. Spencer's life, I could not help pitying. Such a miserable, worn and haggard face as hers I have never seen, and when they buried Dr. Spencer she was confined to her bed with brain fever.

I attended her in her illness, but though she recovered in health, she was never herself again. She was a harmless maniac, whose delight was in gathering flowers and decorating the doctor's grave with them.

She is living still, and still gathers flowers and lays them on that grave, singing to herself a low incantation, which no one ever pretends to understand.

Not until Mrs. Spencer had many years been my wife, and the faithful Mrs. Hurd slept under the violets, did I too ever know the perfidy of her former husband.

And when I told her, after the first shock was over, she crept into my arms and whispered:

"But if it had not been for James' crime I should not have found you, Herbert. So good does sometimes come out of evil."

Cuticura

A POSITIVE CURE FOR EVERY FORM OF BLOOD AND SKIN DISEASE FROM PIMPLES TO SCROFULA.

DISFIGURING HUMORS, Humiliating Eruptions, Itching and Burning Skin Tortures, Loathsome Scurfs, and every species of Itching, Scaly, Pimply, Inherited, Scrofulous, and Contagious Diseases of the Blood, Skin, and Scalp, with Loss of Hair, from infancy to old age, are positively cured by CUTICURA RESOLVENT, the New Blood Purifier, internally, and CUTICURA, the Great Skin Cure, and CUTICURA SOAP, an exquisite Skin Beautifier, externally.

ECZEMA CURED.

I was afflicted with Eczema on the Scalp, Face, Ears and Neck, which the Druggist, where I got your remedies, pronounced one of the worst cases that had come under his notice. He advised me to try your CUTICURA REMEDIES, and after five days use, my scalp and part of my face were entirely cured, and I hope in another week to have my ears, neck, and the other part of my face cured. HERMAN SCADE,

SCABS AND SORES.

I have been afflicted since last March with a Skin disease the doctors called Eczema. My face was covered with scabs and sores, and the itching and burning were almost unbearable. Seeing your CUTICURA REMEDIES so highly recommended, concluded to give them a trial, using the CUTICURA and CUTICURA SOAP externally, and RESOLVENT internally, for four months. I call myself cured, in gratitude for which I make this public statement.

Great Dangers.

Three great dangers menace the traveller at every turn. They are climate, food and water. To guard against them requires judgment, abstinence and SANFORD'S GINGER.

This unrivalled household panacea and travelling companion is sure to check any disturbance of the bowels, instantly relieve cramps and pains, prevent indigestion, destroy disease germs in water and food, and prevent malaria when exposed by a chill, a frequent cause of cholera morbus, breaks up colds and fevers, and ward off malarial, miasmatic and epidemic influences.

SANFORD'S GINGER is a delicious combination of Imported Ginger, Choice Aromatics, and French Brandy, and is the finest extract of ginger ever compounded in the history of medicine. Ask for

SANFORD'S GINGER.

Cholera morbus, cramps, pains, diarrhœa, dysentery, indigestion, colds, chills, sleeplessness, exhaustion, nervousness or loss of sleep, whether caused by unripe fruit, impure water, unhealthy climate, unwholesome food, malaria, epidemic or contagious diseases that beset the traveller or household at this season, can have no serious influence on those protected by a timely use of SANFORD'S GINGER.

As a summer drink, with hot or cold water, sweetened, or hot or cold milk, or added to ice water, lemonade, effervescent draughts or mineral waters, SANFORD'S GINGER forms a refreshing and invigorating beverage, unequalled in simplicity and purity, while free from alcoholic reaction. A little should be added to every glass of water drank.

Katie Laughlin, of Dover, two years old, was fatally poisoned, and her father and two other persons seriously, by eating bologna sausage on the 7th inst.

Emma Prescott was fatally burned in Belmont, Sept. 6th, by her bedclothes taking fire.

Tired, Languid, Dull,

Exactly expresses the condition of thousands of people at this season. The depressive effects of warm weather, and the weak condition of the body, can only be corrected by the use of a reliable tonic and blood purifier like Hood's Sarsaparilla. Why suffer longer when a remedy is so close at hand? Take Hood's Sarsaparilla now. It will give you untold wealth in health, strength, and energy.

No Race Yet.

The race set for Tuesday failed to come off; at 10:45 there was a good prospect of plenty of wind, but about 11:30 the Puritan fouled the Genesta, breaking the latter's bowsprit and having her own mainsail badly torn. Both yachts were towed in. There was very little betting. Tuesday forenoon, but what there was done was at two to one on the Puritan.

Base Ball Record.

The following was the standing of the League clubs on the 8th inst.:

	Won.	Lost.	Played.
Chicago	73	18	91
New York	70	21	91
Providence	46	42	88
Philadelphia	43	48	91
Boston	38	54	92
Buffalo	33	58	91
Detroit	30	58	88
St. Louis	27	61	88

It is said that Mr. William Tetherly, of Eliot neck, who materially aided in rescuing several persons who were in peril of drowning at Portsmouth bridge last Thursday, has performed similar services so many times that he cannot count them on his fingers.

It is announced that a summer hotel, forty feet by eighty on the ground and three stories high, is to be built on Pocahontas point, Gerrish's island, Kittery, not far from where the Sea-Side Lodge used to stand.

The Harmon house at York harbor will remain open during the month of September. More summer guests are remaining in York, at the harbor and beaches, than ever before so late in the season. All the occupants of private cottages at the harbor will remain through the present month.

Quite a little excitement was caused on Sunday last at the Marshall house, York harbor, by the chimney of the laundry taking fire, and sparks from it setting fire to the roof of the main building. The damage was soon averted and the fire extinguished by the fire brigade of the hotel.

The old Frisbee house on Gerrish's island, fronting the lower harbor, has been remodelled and improved by Mr. McClure of Boston as a summer residence, and now looks very different from the weather-beaten structure of recent years. The house and outbuildings have been painted yellow with olive trimmings, and the roofs red; and they show up clearly against the dark background of pine woods. Mr. McClure's family, who have been at the Pepperell house during the summer, have moved into their new seaside home.

York county officials made a visit to the hotels and saloons at York beach last week, looking after contraband beverages. Mr. S. F. Shorey, proprietor of the Eagle saloon, was taken to Saco and bound over to the next term of the supreme judicial court for York county.

Mr. T. Jefferson Lewis of North Kittery has purchased at Greenland, N. H., a cider mill, which he will set up on his premises to make cider this fall.

Two houses are being built on Eastern point, York harbor, for John D. Washburn and John C. Ropes of Boston; and the erection of several others is contemplated.

Mr. Henry Hammond, of Eliot, raised and marketed over 1800 boxes of strawberries this season, besides other small fruits, and found ready sale for the whole in Portsmouth.

The sword-fishermen have given up the business for this season, and gone into market fishing. They have generally made good catches during the run of the fish, but their fares have been sold at very low prices.

The regular lobster fishermen complain that while they do not dare to capture any of the crustaceans under the present features of the law, irregular fishermen are unlawfully taking them, very much to the disadvantage of the real "toilers of the sea." What the regular fishermen should do is to make an example of some irregular practioner—one case would be found sufficient to stop the practice.

Mackerel are moderately plentiful off the coast at the present time, and they are very large and fat, but they bring only low prices just now, and the catchers are salting them down and inclined to hold them for better terms.

At Greenfield, Mass., Sept. 6th, a four-years-old daughter of Rev. Mr. Scharf found a revolver in a guest's room, and shot her two-years-old brother through the head with it.

PROBABLY NEVER

In the history of proprietary medicines has any article met success at home equal to that which has been poured upon HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA. Why, such has been the success of this article, that nearly every family in whole neighborhoods have been taking it at the same time. Every week brings new evidence of the wonderful curative properties of this medicine.

Hood's Sarsaparilla Combines the FIRST Remedies of the vegetable kingdom, and in such proportion as to derive their greatest medicinal effects with the least disturbance to the whole system. Its fact this preparation is so well balanced in its action upon the alimentary canal, the liver, the kidneys, the stomach, the bowels and the circulation of the blood, that it brings about a healthy action of the entire human organism, that can hardly be credited by those who have not seen the remarkable results that have followed its use. If the Sarsaparilla does not prove sufficiently laxative, take a few doses of HOOD'S VEGETABLE PILLS. It is well in all cases of biliousness to take these pills in connection with the Sarsaparilla for the first ten days. That dull, sleepy, sick feeling can be wholly overcome by the use of these remedies. Will you give them a trial and be yourself again?

An ex-alderman of this city says of Hood's Sarsaparilla, "It is the strongest Sarsaparilla I ever saw."

Each dollar bottle contains one hundred (averages) doses. Sold by all druggists.

Price one dollar, or six for five dollars. Hood's Sarsaparilla, prepared only by C. I. HOOD & CO., Apothecaries, Lowell, Mass.

MUSIC HALL.

Tuesday evening Music hall was again filled almost to its utmost capacity, and the great audience was delighted with the manner in which "The Deserted Daughter" was presented, for the first time in this city. The play is a strong one, the pathetic and humorous being well mingled, the situations effective, the plot ingenious and the fun clean.

The Gardiner combination has captured the theatre-going public, and will have big houses through the week. Change of programme each evening, and at the Saturday matinee.

This (Wednesday) evening "A Strange Love" will be presented.

The steamer Stamford had a fair party Tuesday on the trip to Plymouth, Mass., and return.

This morning at 8:30 she starts for Boston, tickets being $1 each for the round trip.

The brick schooner Triton arrived from Boston on the 6th inst., the Estella, G. W. Reitt and Satellite on the 7th, and the Hattie Lewis on the 8th.

Mr. Alfred J. McCourt, head waiter at the Hotel Wentworth, Newcastle, was last week presented by the hotel girls with a handsomely engraved onyx and gold ring.

Mrs. W. H. Wingate, finding the large house No. 96 State street insufficient to accommodate her business, has taken the Tucker house, No. 43 State street, and will open that in connection with the other.

A large number of people started on the railroad excursion to the mountains on Tuesday.

On Sunday last Mrs. Niles, wife of Lieut. Nathan E. Niles, U. S. N., missed a pocketbook containing about $125, and suspecting it had been stolen by a nurse girl of ten or twelve years, named Mary Lynch, Officers Hurley and McCartny were called in, and it is alleged searched the girl, and detained her in custody at the police station. The purse was subsequently found in a clothes-press, where it had apparently fallen from the pocket of a dress hanging there. The girl has sued Mrs. Niles, who was on Tuesday required to give bail in $2000 to answer in an action of tort, Capt. C. C. Carpenter, U. S. N., and Capt. W. H. Treadwell, becoming her sureties.

Mr. H. M. Sullivan, for two seasons clerk at the Rockingham house in this city, and this season at the Summit house, Mount Washington, will manage the Hamilton house, Bermuda, the coming winter. He was at the same hotel last season. Mr. G. A. Lambert, a son of Mr. J. H. Lambert of Kittery, and barber at the Rockingham house and the Wentworth for some years, will accompany him and take charge of the barber shop in the Bermuda hotel.

The moist weather of the past summer, and the absence of frosts, have caused the Isles of Shoals to be "in verdure clad" and present a very pleasing picture seen from an approaching or passing vessel.

Mr. Samuel Lamprey, the veteran teacher of dancing, announces that he will commence his school for young ladies, master and misses at Franklin hall on Saturday afternoon next at three o'clock, and continue on Wednesday and Saturday afternoons for a course of twenty lessons. No commendation of Mr. Lamprey's ability is needed in this region, and we will only remark that he will teach the minuet and german this term, and a ball will be given at the close.

The regular monthly false alarm on the navy yard was given on Tuesday forenoon, and the yard fire department turned out; the practice was satisfactory.

Mr. John W. Young has removed from No. 12 Hanover street to the Telephone building in the rear of the city hall, where he will be pleased to see all of his old friends, and as many more as wish to have their boots and shoes repaired in a first-class manner at moderate rates. As in years past, he will continue to keep sole leather by the side, cut stock, nails and all sorts of shoemaker's findings in store, and for sale at Boston prices; the country trade will find it to their interest to look at his stock when needing anything in that line.

Mr. Daniel A. Leary of this city, who has been taking a prominent character in the "Bandit King," is at home recuperating, having been obliged to leave the company at Lancaster, Pa., on account of an attack of fever and ague. He will probably rejoin the Bandit King combination on the restoration of his health.

George E. Eaton of Candia, who was re-appointed a deputy sheriff of Rockingham county last July, has just been sworn in, having previously been too ill to assume the duties of the position.

We understand that many farmers in the suburbs and surrounding towns have quanties of corn they wish to have ground, and that Mr. Alexander L. Rand would like to grind it for them, but cannot, on account of the city having prohibited his further use of the north mill, so they have to go to Newmarket to get their grinding done. We would suggest that Mr. Rand could be allowed to use the mill, and the water whenever it would serve, without cost to or interference with the arrangements of the city, and to the convenience of many persons

Conductor Robert A. Stott of the Portsmouth & Dover railroad, who was roughly shaken up some days ago by being knocked from his train and against a telegraph pole ten feet away, by a collision at Dover, is now able to move about quite actively with the aid of a cane, and hopes soon to be able to resume his duties.

Capt. Joseph C. Muchmore has sent his tackle and falls to the Laighton Bros. at the Shoals, for the purpose of hauling up their numerous boats and yachts during the suspension of "the season" there.

The streets along the course of the new brewery sewer present a very lively appearance. An irruption was made on Tuesday morning upon that part of Deer lying between Vaughan and Market streets. The work is progressing very rapidly.

Robert Harris, Esq., of New York city, has made a second donation of $100 to the Cottage Hospital fund.

CHOLERA CRAMPS CHILLS

"An ounce of prevention," that is, a dose of SANFORD'S GINGER, "is worth a pound of cure," which, of course, means a doctor. It is absolutely certain that Cholera may be prevented, and, in the majority of cases, successfully treated, with SANFORD'S GINGER, a powerful stimulant, composed of Imported Ginger, choice Aromatics, and the best French Brandy; convenient, speedy and safe; sure to check sudden summer complaint, prevent indigestion, destroy disease germs in water drank, restore the circulation when suspended by a chill, and ward off malarial, contagious, and epidemic influences.

Avoid necessary dealers who for a few cents extra profit try to force upon you their own or others' when you call for

SANFORD'S GINGER

The Delicious Summer Medicine.

Cramps, Pains, Cholera Morbus, Diarrhœa, and Dysentery, whether produced by unripe fruit, impure water, unwholesome food, or change of climate, food or water, or any little ills of home or travel, such as Colds, Chills, Simple Fevers, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Sea-sickness, Exhaustion, Nervousness, Loss of Sleep, Debility and Depletion, are instantly relieved by SANFORD'S GINGER, the safest, surest, as best summer medicine and travelling companion.

As a healthful summer drink with water, milk, iced water, lemonade, effervescent draughts and mineral waters, it is the best.

Beware of worthless "gingers," said to be "as good," or "the same," or "as larger," or "cheaper" than SANFORD'S GINGER. Ask for

BOY WANTED!

AT THIS OFFICE, to learn the Printer's Trade. Must have a good common school education, be of suitable age and have a desire to learn the business.

Some of our most prominent citizens have been cured of rheumatism of years standing by that wonderful pain-banisher, Salvation Oil. Sold by all druggists for twenty-five cents a bottle.

Thos. H. Brown of Chicago was instantly killed at Putney, Vt., Thursday, by falling in a revolving water wheel.

Life Preserver.

If you are losing your grip on life try "Well's Health Renewer." Goes direct to weak spots.

Mrs. E. O. Reed, employed in Harper's mill at Sabattis, Me., caught her dress in the machinery Friday morning, and was instantly killed.

"Rough on Piles"

Cures piles or hemorrhoids, itching, protruding, bleeding, internal or other. Internal and external remedy in each package. Sure cure, 50c. Druggists.

Two of the three smallpox patients at Fall River, Mass., have died, but the third will recover. The city physician does not expect any more cases to occur.

Pretty Women.

Ladies who would retain freshness and vivacity. Don't fail to try "Well's Health Renewer."

Parson Downs, of the Bowdoin square Baptist church, Boston, preached in a big tent at Cottage City, Mass., Sept. 6th.

At St. Louis, Mo., Sept. 5th, a murdered woman was buried, and her murderer, Michael Devanney, attended her funeral in custody of deputy sheriffs. His feelings were greatly affected.

"Rough on Itch."

"Rough on Itch" cures humors, eruptions, ringworm, tetter, salt rheum, frost ed feet, chilblains.

Addison Carter of Bristol, Me., who with his family has been camping at Ragged island, in Penobscot bay, for several weeks, went to Matinicus, one mile distant, Thursday last, to purchase provisions. He left Matinicus at noon in a small sail boat, since which time nothing has been heard from him.

His Loss was Her Gain.

"Well madam," said a fashionable physician to a wealthy lady patient, "if you don't like my prescriptions, perhaps you had better try Parker's Tonic, or some other quack stuff." "You don't mean it, Docter," she answered, "but your advice may be good for all that. Sometimes what you call 'quack stuff' is the best and most scientific medicine, after all." She got a bottle of Parker's Tonic and it cured her of neuralgia arising from disordered stomach and nerves. She told her friends, and now they all keep a doctor at home in the form of Parker's Tonic.

Mr. Frederick J. Taber of Boston, who charges Rev. Mr. Downs with undue intimacy with Mrs. Taber, has been expelled from the Bowdoin square Baptist church.

Col. Herring of the Dominion Cattle company, just in at Dallas, Tex., from the Indian territory, says that all cattle have been removed from the territory in conformity with President Cleveland's proclamation, except a few that have strayed off during the round up.

His Ignorance Cost Me $150!

I was sick abed for three months. The doctor said I had Prolapsus Uteri, which was untrue. He didn't try to cure me but wanted to make a $1.50 every day. My uncle is a druggist, and he told me to turn the doctor off, and try Sulphur Bitters. I did so and five dollars worth of Sulphur Bitters cured me of general weakness and debility.—T. S.——, New Haven.

J. Shean, roadmaster of the Mexican Central railway, was murdered at Paso del Norte, Mex., Thursday night, Sept. 3d, by a cut-throat named Davis. Shean leaves a young wife and an aged mother in Massachusetts.

The Burdock Plant is one of the best diuretics or kidney regulators in the vegetable world, and the compound known as Burdock Blood Bitters, is unsurpassed in all diseases of the kidneys, liver and blood.

In the United States district court, at Bath, Me., Sept. 5th, Judge Webb rendered a decision that the liquor sellers who carry on their business on the grounds of the national soldiers home at Togus are amenable to the laws of the state of Maine.

Scott's Emulsion of Pure Cod Liver Oil, with Hypophosphites In Loss of Appetite and General Debility.

Messrs. Ramsey & Co., of Sharpsburg, Pa., makes the following report: "That they recommended a friend suffering from loss of appetite and general debility, Scott's Emulsion, that after taking half dozen bottles, he reported, that he ate well, feels well, and is in fact a new man, and recommends it highly."

Spain and Germany are looking very black at each other. Germany is reported as determined to stick to the Carolines, and to have ample apology and reparation for the acts of the Madrid mob.

Disastrous Tornado.

Washington Court House, Ohio, a town of 4000 inhabitants twenty-five miles west of Cleveland, was struck by a tornado on the night of Sept. 8th, and almost destroyed, fully four hundred buildings going down, including about fifty business blocks, three churches, four railroad stations, etc. The wind lasted about ten minutes, and was followed by a drenching rain. Fifteen dead bodies were soon found, and many more were supposed to be under the ruins.

Twenty-two of the murderous rioters at Rock Springs, Wyoming, have been arrested. About fifty Chinamen were murdered.

Best French brandy, Smart-Weed, Jamaica Ginger and Camphor Water, as combined in Dr. Pierce's Extract of Smart-Weed, is the best remedy for colic, diarrhœa, cholera morbus, dysentery or bloody-flux; also, to break up colds, fevers and inflammmatory attacks if used early.

In Brooklyn, N. Y., on the 8th inst., while excavating for a new building on Adams street, the workmen discovered nine complete skeletons. The lot was occupied some forty years by Gothic hall, a notorious dance and sporting house, and it is believed that the skeletons are those of persons who were murdered in the house.

His Ignorance Cost Me $150!

I was sick abed for three months. The doctor said I had Prolapsus Uteri, which was untrue. He didn't try to cure me but wanted to make a $1.50 every day. My uncle is a druggist, and he told me to turn the doctor off, and try Sulphur Bitters. I did so and five dollars worth of Sulphur Bitters cured me of general weakness and debility.—Mrs. S.——, New Haven.

A disastrous hailstorm occurred in Maryland on the 5th inst., doing damage to the amount of $100,000 in Charles county alone.

I have been a periodical sufferer from Hay Fever (a most annoying and loathsome affliction,) since the summer of 1879, and until I used Ely's Cream Balm was never able to find any relief until cold weather. I can truthfully say that Cream Balm cured me. I regard it as of great value and would not be without it during the Hay Fever season.

MORALS OF HORSE-RACING.

A Lurid Picture by a Lurid Preacher—A Call on Heaven For Annihilation.

Those farms in Kentucky and in different parts of the North where the horse is trained to perfection in fleetness, and beauty, and in majesty, are well set apart. There is no more virtue in driving slow than in driving fast any more than a freight-train going ten miles the hour is better than an express-train going fifty. There is a delusion abroad in the world that a thing must be necessarily good and Christian if it is slow, and dull, and plodding. There are very good people who seem to imagine it is humbly pious to drive a spavined, galled, glandered, spring-halted, blind-staggered jade. There is not so much virtue in a Rosinante as there is in a Bucephalus. At the way some people drive Elijah, with his horses of fire, would have taken three weeks to get into Heaven. We want swifter horses, and swifter men, and swifter enterprises, and the church of God needs to get off its jog-trot. Quick tempests, quick lightnings, quick streams, why not quick horses?

But we do not think that the beauty or speed of the horse should be cultured at the expense of human degradation. Horse-races in olden times were under the ban of Christian people, and in our day the same institution has come up under fictitious names. And it is called a "summer meeting," almost suggestive of positive religious exercises. And it is called an "agricultural fair," suggestive of everything that is improving in the art of farming. But under these deceptive titles are the same cheating, and the same betting, and the same drunkenness, and the same abominations that were to be found under the old horse-racing system. I never knew a man yet who could give himself to the pleasure of the turf for a long reach of time, and not be battered in morals. They hook up their spanking team, and put on their sporting-cap, and light their cigar, and dash down the road to perdition. The great day at Saratoga, and Long Branch, and Cape May, and nearly all the other watering-places is the day of races. The hotels are thronged, every kind of equipage is taken up at an almost fabulous price, and there are many respectable people mingling with jockies, and gamblers, and libertines, and foul-mouthed men, and flashy women. The bartender stirs up the brandy smash. The bets run high. The greenhorns, supposing all is fair, put in their money, soon enough to lose it. Three weeks before the race takes place the struggle is decided, and the men in the secret know on which steed to bet their money. The two men on the horses riding around long before arranged who shall beat. Leaning from the stand or from the carriage are men and women so absorbed in the struggle of bone and muscle and mettle that they make a grand harvest for the pickpockets, who carry off the pocket-books and portemonnaies. Men looking to see only two horses with two riders flying around the ring, but there is many a man on that stand whose honor and domestic happiness and fortune—white mane, white foot, white flank—are in the ring, racing with inebriety, and with fraud, and with profanity, and with ruin—black neck, black foot, blank flank. Neck and neck they go in that moral Epsom. White horses of honor, black horses of ruin. Death says: "I will bet on the black horse." The white horse of honor is a little way ahead. The black horse of ruin, Satan mounted, all the time gaining on him. Spectator breathless. Put on the lash. Dig in the spurs. There! They are past the stand. Sure. Just as I expected it. The black horse of ruin has won the race, and all the galleries of darkness "huzzah! huzzah!" and the devils come in to pick up their wagers. Ah, my friends, save nothing to do with horse-racing dissipations this summer. Long ago the English government got through looking to the turf for the dragoon and light cavalry horses. They found the turf depreciates the stock; and it is yet worse for men. Thomas Hughes, the member of parliament and the author known all the world over, hearing that a new turf enterprise was being started in this country wrote a letter, in which he said: "Heaven help you, then, for of all the cankers of our old civilization there is nothing in this country approaching in unblushing meanness, in rascality holding its head high, to this belauded institution of the British turf." Another famous sportsman writes: "How many fine domains have been shared among those hosts of rapacious sharks during the last 200 years; and unless the system be altered how many more are doomed to fall into the same gulf!" The Duke of Hamilton, through his horse-racing proclivities, in three years got through his entire fortune of £70,000. And I will say that some of you are being undermined by it. With the bull-fights of Spain and the bear-baitings of the pit may the Lord God annihilate the infamous and accursed horse-racing of England and America.—Rev. T. De Witt Talmage.

In Japan successful experiments have been made in collecting human ammonia from the crematories. Hydrochloric acid is suspended inside the chimneys, where it combines with the ammonia of the evaporating substances. The product is then collected and purified for the market.

A delver in matrimonial statistics has discovered that out of nearly 600 graduates of a prominent college for young women less than 200 have secured husbands, the remaining two-thirds being hopelessly fixed in the single estate.

As Rome Does.

Etiquette in Rome is very strict as to one point. It is not considered proper for a lady to take the arm of a gentleman in a Catholic church. In walking about St. Peter's the guides mention this to the couples who innocently stroll arm in arm looking at the statues, pictures, altars and frescoes of that wonderful interior. Perhaps this is because any idea of its being a promenade should be discouraged. A gentleman remonstrated with the guide on one occasion, saying that the lady with him was his mother, and lame. "Then put your hand under her arm," said the guide; "but do not let her take your arm." A young gentleman always gives his right arm to an elderly lady in walking with her. On being asked why this is done, he answers that it is a "continuation of the carriage etiquette," which always puts the gentleman on the lady's left.

Cuticura

A POSITIVE CURE FOR EVERY FORM OF BLOOD AND SKIN DISEASE FROM PIMPLES TO SCROFULA.

DISFIGURING HUMORS, Humiliating Eruptions, Itching and Burning Skin Tortures, Loathsome Sores, and every species of Itching, Scaly, Pimply, Inherited, Scrofulous, and Contagious Diseases of the Blood, Skin, and Scalp, with Loss of Hair, from Infancy to old age, are positively cured by CUTICURA RESOLVENT, the New Blood Purifier, Internally, and CUTICURA, the Great Skin Cure, and CUTICURA SOAP, an exquisite Skin Beautifier, externally.

ECZEMA CURED.

I was afflicted with Eczema on the Scalp, Face, Ears and Neck, which the Druggist, where I got your remedies, pronounced one of the worst cases that had come under his notice. He advised me to try your CUTICURA REMEDIES, and after five days use, my scalp and part of my face were entirely cured, and I hope in another week to have my ears, neck, and the other part of my face cured.

HERMAN SLADE,
120 E. 4th St., New York.

SCABS AND SORES.

I have been afflicted since last March with a Skin disease the doctors called Eczema. My face was covered with scabs and sores, and the itching and burning were almost unbearable. Seeing your CUTICURA REMEDIES so highly recommended, concluded to give them a trial, using the CUTICURA and CUTICURA SOAP externally, and RESOLVENT internally, for four months. I call myself cured, in gratitude for which I make this public statement.

John Ball, an inmate of the soldiers' home at Togus, Me., blew the top of his head off with a gun in the woods on the 3d inst., and was not found till the 7th. It was a case of suicide.

Better than She Expected.

"Your letter received. In reply I am happy to say that Parker's Hair Balsam did much more for me than you said it would, or than I expected. My hair has not only stopped falling out, but the bald spots are all covered, and all my hair has grown thicker, softer and more lively than it was before my sickness a year ago. Thank you again and again." Extract from letters of Mrs. R. W. T., West Fifty-third street, New York.

The body of Pharoah, the last of the mighty tribe of Montauk Indians, was found in the bay at Port Jefferson, L. I., Sept. 7th, having apparently been murdered and thrown overboard. Two negroes are suspected.

Two brothers named Polk were confined in the jail at Murfreesboro, Ark., for the murder of a pedler a year ago, and were in a boiler-iron cell of the jail. On the 6th inst. a mob attempted to get them out, failing in which they piled wood against the cell, saturated it with coal oil, set the wood on fire, and literally roasted the murderers to death.

Is inseparably connected with Hood's Sarsaparilla, and is true of no other medicine. It is an unanswerable argument as to strength and economy, while thousands testify to its superior blood-purifying and strengthening qualities. A bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla contains 100 doses and will last a month, while others will average to last not over a week. Hence, for economy, buy Hood's Sarsaparilla.

MATTERS IN YORK.

YORK CORNER, ME., Sept. 7th.

S. P. Young, Esq., to-day found dead in his pasture three yearling cattle. From appearances they had been dead two weeks or so, and had evidently been poisoned. Mr. Young thinks it to be the purposed work of some miscreant, and he proposes to offer a heavy reward for the detection and conviction of the guilty party.

The lightning-rod men will finish rodding the Congregational church edifice to-day. They will use about 475 feet of best quality of copper rod, at an expense of about one hundred and seventy-five dollars.

The examination of Mr. Mayben, who is preaching at the Christian church, did not take place on the day appointed, by reason that Rev. C. E. Goodwin, who is chairman of the committee, did not come, having sickness in his family.

The baptism of three young candidates at the Christian church did not take place yesterday as expected, the minister who was to come from Kittery for the purpose being sick, and unable to attend. Quite a number of persons who gathered at the hour appointed were somewhat disappointed. P.

YORK, ME., Sept. 7th.

Editor of Gazette: In regard to the report in your last issue of the recent base ball match between the amateur clubs of North Kittery and York, please allow me space to state the facts of the case. Two weeks ago the York team received a challenge from Kittery, which was accepted, and the day named on which they were to meet on the "York base ball ground" near Marshall's store. That day the York boys were on the spot as they had agreed, but Kittery failed to put in an appearance. Next day we received a postal from them saying that they would be over that afternoon, sure; two of our best players were off, but rather than disappoint Kittery we substituted two in their stead, and these two were from York beach, not "professionals stopping at the Marshall house as reported, Kittery being informed of the fact before the game commenced. At the end of the sixth innings the score stood five to thirty in favor of York; and Kittery, seeing that all hope of retrieving their honor was passed, threw up the sponge and left for home. We are willing to meet them again any time, and at any place they may name. C.

AFFAIRS IN KITTERY.

KITTERY, Me., Sept. 7th.

About fifteen Good Templars from Morrill and Whipple lodges went to Kittery Point in Cottle's barge on Saturday evening last to visit Pepperell lodge, and had a pleasant occasion.

School in district one commenced last week, and is being taught by Mrs. Edward R. Fuller of North Kittery.

We are pleased to announce this week the marriage of Mr. William A. Williams and Miss Edith B. Tucker of this town, and wish them much happiness for the future.

Parker Manson of North Kittery, who has been partially demented, caused it is said by a slight sunstroke several years ago, has become so bad of late that the town authorities have been asked to look out for him. Hitherto he has been kindly cared for by his family.

Sunday last there was the largest attendance at the 1st Methodist church service and Sunday school of any Sunday since Rev. Mr. Chandler has preached there, except on children's day in June.

A grove meeting was held in Government grove, Kittery Point, Sunday afternoon last, with preaching by Rev. Messrs. Dow and Webster.

The Good Templars of North Kittery are to unite with the 1st Methodist society there, and give a harvest supper on Thursday evening, Sept. 24th, in the church vestry. The object is to raise money to make needed improvements on the interior of the vestry.

Miss Florence E. Sanderson did not accept the position lately offered her to teach in Washington, D. C., and is teaching the fall term of school in district seven, primary department.

Frank Trefethen of the Lower Foreside, has missed considerable of a quantity of pork from his cellar at different times lately, and as he cannot account for it he thinks it has been stolen.

Last year Perry C. Moore raised a large potato of the Beauty of Hebron variety, which was given to Mr. Daniel H. Nason. This spring Mr. Nason planted about two-thirds of it, and has raised 47 1-2 lbs., all good sized potatoes.

The old mill-bridge on the post road has lately been replanked with new four inch plank, and is now in thorough repair.

The first social assembly of the season under the management of Adams & Getchell (who ran a successful course last season at Trefethen hall) will occur on Thursday evening, the 10th inst. Music by Turner's quadrille band, of Portsmouth. At intermission visit Adams & Neal's saloon for refreshments.

Mr. Todd, who lately removed from Amesbury, Mass., to the Bryant place in North Kittery, which place he had previously bought, has a building about completed on the premises, which we understand he is to use as a grocery store. Such a store in that part of the town has long been needed, and we trust it will be well patronized. SUB ROSA.

Capt. Symonds on the 8th inst. completed his contract for widening and deepening the Cocheco river, and on the 9th the excavating flotilla was at the railway at Kittery, to receive repairs before going around to Salem, Mass.

OPENING OF THE COTTAGE HOSPITAL.

It is proposed regularly to open the Cottage Hospital early in October. The hospital will accommodate at least ten beds. Patients will be received from any part of the county, without regard to nationality or religious belief. The board of patients will range from five dollars per week upward, according to varying conditions and requirements. Free beds will be furnished as far as the hospital funds will allow.

It may be well to repeat the statement already made in public print, that any person or organization contributing $200 before the first of October of each year will be entitled to representation on the board of directors. Since this charitable work was undertaken the treasurer of the hospital has received the sum of $1597.06. This includes a small amount realized from the board of three patients who were furnished with temporary accommodations. Between three and four hundred dollars have been expended in putting the house in order, furnishings, etc., and at least as much more must be appropriated for a bath room and further furnishings and supplies. But little money will remain to carry forward the enterprise, but we are sure that the public will lend it all needed assistance when it is seen how great relief may be afforded to the suffering within the quiet hospital walls, surrounded by every appliance for comfort and every condition favorable to recovery, and under the care of those who will in every way further the interests of both physicians and patients. The directors desire not only to solicit the sympathy and support of the public in their work, but also to express their appreciation of the assistance already bestowed.

The following is a list of all the contributions received, from $10 upward, up to this date, the first contribution being $100 from a lady of St. John's parish:

POLICE COURT--BATCH ELDER J.

WEDNESDAY, Sept 9th.

Edward Lolley, for drunkenness, was fined $8, costs $6.90, and will work it out at the county farm.

Owing to the stormy weather of Wednesday evening the attendance at Music hall was less than on Monday and Tuesday, but "A Strange Love" furnished an excellent evening's entertainment for all who witnessed it. It is a capital play, played in capital style, and will be repeated this evening.

The Woman's Temperance League will hold a meeting this (Thursday) afternoon at the Methodist vestry; a full attendance is requested, as business of importance is to come before the meeting.

The corpse picked up at sea on Monday of this week by Comdr. Eastman, and made fast to the bell-buoy at Kittery rock, was afterward towed into Newcastle by order of the town authorities, who notified the coroner at Portsmouth. The coroner, considering the fee ($1.50) too small, declined serving. [Why any inquest should be held in such a case is not apparent.] In the meantime the question of jurisdiction was raised, and it was concluded that the body was found a few rods inside the boundary of the state of Maine, so it was floated up to Kittery, and turned over to the custody of somebody there. On the 9th the body was identified, by means of a diary found in one of the pockets of the clothing, as that of Arthur Wiskley of Lawrence, Mass., who with his brother was drowned off Salisbury beach last month, while out in a canoe, fishing.

Officers Hurley and McCarthy deny that they searched the Lynch girl, or used any force in taking her to the police station; her mother accompanied her to the station, and remained with her in the marshal's room till she was dismissed.

The schooner Mary R. Smith, Trask master, from Monhegan for Boston, lost her jib and carried away the jaws of her fore gaff, and put into the lower harbor on the 8th inst. Her cargo of wood will be sold at this port.

Assistant Marshal Daniel J. Hurley on the 9th inst. sued the publishers of the Penny Post for libel, claiming $10,000 damages.

The International Yacht Races.

The accident which prevented the Puritan and Genesta from sailing the first of their series of races on the 8th inst. was clearly the fault of the Puritan. In approaching the starting line the two yachts were sailing on the port tack, the Genesta ahead and to leeward, when the latter came around on the starboard tack, and the yachts commenced to approach each other. The Puritan being still on the port tack, it was her place to keep out of the cutter's way, which she could have done either by coming around, or going under the cutter's stern. Instead of taking either of the safe courses, she kept her luff and crossed the Genesta's bow, but lacked eight or ten feet of going clear altogether, the cutter's big bowsprit going through the clew of the sloop's mainsail, the boltropes of which were strong enough to snap the spar like a pipestem. The race committee ruled the Puritan out of the race, and informed Sir Richard Sutton that the race would be awarded to the Genesta if she sailed over the course, but he promptly refused the offer, saying, "We can't do it; we don't want it that way. We don't want a walk over; we want a race."

Thursday Evening, Sept. 10th,

A STRANGE LOVE.

Special advertisements will be inserted in the newspapers during the week that this engagement is being played, stating the drama that will be represented on each particular evening.

Every play will be produced under the immediate supervision of

MR. ELLIOTT BARNES.

Notwithstanding the expense attending this great production Popular Prices will prevail. Reserved Seats 20 and 30 cents, on sale at Goodrich's Book Store. Gallery 10 cents.

C. R. GARDINER, Proprietor. S. H. COHEN, Manager.

Ex-Alderman Green this year tried the experiment of raising sunflowers, seed for which he sowed broadcast upon the premises adjoining his store at Puddle dock. They grew very luxuriant in the made land there, and he has already sold a quantity of the seed for feeding poultry. He gets two cents a head for the flowers.

The steamer Stamford did not make her advertised trip to Boston and back on the 9th inst., but left for Newburyport instead at about 9:30 o'clock in the forenoon. She had only about sixty paying passengers on her trip to Plymouth, Mass., on the 8th, from which she did not arrive back until one o'clock A. M. on the 9th; and the weather being very threatening, and only a handful of passengers offering, at the time set for her start to Boston, the trip was abandoned.

How It Was!

At the battle of Gettysburg I was shot through the left leg and was sent to the hospital. The army surgeons relieved me but pronounced my case incurable. It discharged pieces of bone, and for years I have suffered with a running sore. I tried everything which my limited means would allow, and experienced no relief until I tried Sulphur Bitters. I am now almost well, and shall continue their use.—Old Soldier.

Daniel Corning, who was engaged in the oil business at Titusville, Pa., has eloped with the wife of Samuel Dietrich. The lady leaves behind a husband and ten-years-old son, while Corning leaves a wife and six small children. Mrs. Dietrich figured in a similar case about a year ago, but on promise of forgiveness returned to her husband.

The Burdock Plant is one of the best diuretics or kidney regulators in the vegetable world, and the compound known as Burdock Blood Bitters, is unsurpassed in all diseases of the kidneys, liver and blood.

"Well madam," said a fashionable physician to a wealthy lady patient, "if you don't like my prescriptions, perhaps you had better try Parker's Tonic, or some other quack stuff." "You don't mean it, Docter," she answered, "but your advice may be good for all that. Sometimes what you call 'quack stuff' is the best and most scientific medicine, after all." She got a bottle of Parker's Tonic and it cured her of neuralgia arising from disordered stomach and nerves. She told her friends, and now they all keep a doctor at home in the form of Parker's Tonic.

A number of township trustees are missing from Indiana, and are supposed to have carried to Canada from $30,000 to $40,000 each, raised on fraudulent township warrants, aggregating three or four hundred thousand dollars. The law of that state seems expressly framed to facilitate and encourage such frauds on the part of township trustees.

The three sisters were mortally wounded. Whitlock and his wife lived unhappily on account of his dissipated habits, and she recently left him.

How It Was!

At the battle of Gettysburg I was shot through the left leg and was sent to the hospital. The army surgeons relieved me but pronounced my case incurable. It discharged pieces of bone, and for years I have suffered with a running sore. I tried everything which my limited means would allow, and experienced no relief until I tried Sulphur Bitters. I am now almost well, and shall continue their use.—Old Soldier.

Afterward.

The path was long, but when she reached the end,
The object of her quest, a grave, was there;
The grave of one who was her dearest friend,
Whose loving thought had lightened every care.

The two together long had journeyed here,
And borne each other's burdens day by day,
Shared every joy, and many a hope and fear;
Nor dreamed they of the parting of the way.

They came almost unconscious to that hour,
They thought their prayer a loving God must hear;
That, in the fulness of His grace and power,
He would spare each to each for many a year.

And so, when the dark shadow fell at last,
And one went on, God holding by the hand,
And one turned back to live but in the past,
Grieving because she could not understand.

There hung a pall upon her earth and sky,
She was so desolate and heaven so far.
But, afterward, the comforter drew nigh;
And her worn soul beyond its prison bar
Saw, as in vision, the dear friend she wept
Rested and comforted before the throne.
No weariness again, no vigils kept;
There pain and death and sorrow are unknown.

Was she resigned to bear this bitter loss,
Since he was spared earth's sorrow and its pain?
Yes; for love's sake she took her heavy cross,
Thinking each day how precious was his gain.

She could not know why they must part so soon,
She must not doubt or question God's dear will;
And so she asked of Him that one great boon—
The sweet submission that could trust him still.

—Every Other Saturday.

HEARTBROKEN.

"That or death!"

"You really love him, then?" I said. I could not see her face, for she had turned from me, and the room was dusky with the lateness of the afternoon. I could tell however, that she was twisting her hands together in a nervous way.

She was a pretty little creature, and I would have been glad to see her happily settled for life. I had tried always, in my own poor fashion, to be her friend—always since the first day I had seen her, seven years before. But she had always had trouble to bear, and why, I could not understand, knowing her life was blameless and of pure motive.

"You really love him?" I repeated reflectively; for I knew her answer without listening to it. "Remember," I continued, striving not to speak unkindly, "remember your experience. Remember all you have passed through. At first your husband, whom you thought you loved, but whose ways—yet let that pass; he is dead and gone, Heaven forgive him! After your husband's death came Ray. You would have crawled upon your knees in the streets for Ray, I believe; he seemed so mild and gentle. He bought you a cheap engagement-ring. Next he absorbed all the money you possessed; then he suddenly disappeared. It was cruel, but you did not lose your mind. Fletcher followed; you would have married Fletcher, but that a wife or two turned up to brand him a bigamist. Do you remember the night you walked the room with that agony? Still you survived. Grafton was a gambler, Carelton a drunkard. And yet you were fated to fix your affections on one, then on another. It is your misfortune, irremediable. I have tried to guard you—but somehow it has been of little use."

She had not interrupted my slow speech; but now that it was ended, she answered with a sigh:

"Yes you have a right to remind me. But I would rather forget the past, its burdens and mistakes. For they were mistakes, and though I suffered so at that time, I even think I could forget them now. There is one thing I must tell you. Until I met Randall Fielding, I never knew the meaning of the word love. And if anything should happen to deprive me of his affections, I shall either die or go mad."

"Tell me about it again," I said dispassionately, seeing that she spoke no idle threat. "Tell me without reserve."

"Yes," she gently acquiesced, "I will tell you. I came to tell you, directly I knew you had returned.

A thrill of pity shot through my heart for the poor creature, still young and frail of body. I almost wished that I could change places with her for a time—that I could plant myself in her poor little parlor, and color the photographs, at which she earned her daily bread, while she should know my placid existence, my strong serenity, my never-ruffled stream of life. I tried to scan her features in the dimness of the room; tried hard to see if the sensitive lips quivered, the deep grey eyes were tear-suffused.

"You have been away a month," she began "and this has all happened in that space. Love comes so suddenly I never knew before. And strangely, too, love comes. It is learned in the twinkling of an eye. Oh, you do not know—you cannot comprehend."

"No," I said fervently. "I do not know, thank God!"

Her voice grew tremulous.

"He loves me; we are to be married very soon. He is much older than I—he is more than forty. He first came to have some work done—a photograph of his daughter——"

"His daughter!" I interrupted sharply. "His daughter! He is a widower? You to be a stepmother?"

"Listen," she answered patiently. "A daughter, who died in infancy. Yes, he is a widower, but he has never loved but me. The woman he married was unworthy. She ran away from him. He is free now—and he loves me."

"He never loved but you," I repeated. "Then why the child? Still, if the child be dead, you run no risk. But let it pass. I hope that he may make you happy. He is not poor?"

"No, he is not poor; we can be very comfortable."

"I am glad to hear it; I suppose I have only to wait for the marriage announcement. Randall Fielding and Adele Bently. Is he handsome?"

She answered with a flash of spirit: "He is handsome in my eyes. What others think, I do not care. I have brought his picture for you. It does not flatter."

I lighted the gas that she might show me the face of her lover. She unwrapped the photograph with tender pride, and gave it into my hands.

It was a pleasant face; I could not wholly blame her. A dark and pleasant face, with laughing eyes.

"I hope you may be very happy."

That was all that I could say.

She took back the picture, pressed it to her lips, and refolded it in its tissue-paper covering.

When she had done this, she stood there in silence, as if she had fallen into some exquisite dream.

To the hour of my death I shall never forget how she looked standing there. The outlines of her body were long and graceful; the gaslight over her head made soft her features, and cast deeper shadows around her eyes. A tremulous ecstatic smile hovered about her lips. Of a sudden she seemed to me most beautiful—with the beauty of fragility.

"Adele," I cried, "do not stand; you are not strong. Sit down at once."

She came slowly out of her reverie.

"I must go now," she answered. "You wish me well, I know."

With an indefinable impulse, I went close and took her hands.

"I wish you every joy. I hope you may be very happy?"

"Very happy!" she echoed dreamily. "Good-night." And before I realized it, she had gone.

What are premonitions? Are they identical with misgiving, the unwelcome uncanny offspring of experience and distrust?

A week later Adele said to me:

"I pray that I may never have a daughter. I would not chance her being cursed as I have been, by suffering. I would not feel the awful possibility that another woman might live to ask for bread, and get stones, to weep her heart away in tears of blood."

"But you are happy at last," I cried.

"Ah yes!" she melted into a smiling mood. "Perfectly happy."

* * * * * * *

I saw Randall Fielding that evening for the first time. He came to take Adele home. He impressed me as a good-natured soul, and as extremely fond of his betrothed. He did not, however, appear as one capable of intense feeling. It seemed even possible to me that he might be marrying Adele because she was pretty and dainty and loving, and because he wanted a home. For myself, I have little faith in the love part of a man's second marriage. Perhaps I am too cynical.

A fortnight passed. And now I knew the day that they should wed, very quietly—no guests invited—only myself.

The afternoon previous—that last afternoon—Adele came to me for a last little visit.

I could not find any reason for the peculiar tenderness in my heart towards her that day. Tenderness and pity mingled there until I could have wept without the slightest effort. I could not have felt more strangely had I known she would go to her death upon the morrow.

Love or death, where lies the difference, after all? And so a great yearning grew in my heart as we sat side by side in the firelight. And Adele's plaintive voice sounded piteous as a death-song.

She went away at last alone. Fielding did not call for her. They had not so arranged it, I hated to have her go; I held her hand close at parting. It seemed to me we might not meet again.

"Tomorrow," she gave me a parting injunction, "at two. "Come early to help me dress.

And still I detained her.

"You are very happy, Adele?"

"I am happy enough to die."

"Good-bye, then, and may Heaven bless you, dear!"

I watched her disappear in the early darkness of the March evening; watched until I could no longer see anything. Then I went back to my firelight.

"Happy enough to die!" I said to myself. "Do happy people want to die? And all because she is about to fetter herself for life with what? Who is this man, this Randall Fielding, Adele, that you should make an idol of him? Is he so very noble, or great of mind or heart? To me, a very ordinary being, not very tall, and rather stout looking as if his food were easily digested, his nights untroubled.

"What is any man, Adele? Animate clay! Would that you could see as I see but for an instant, and walk for ever after disenchanted."

I had a dream that night. I am a strong believer in dreams. To me a dream of water or of a young child bodes trouble, distress.

I dreamed I saw Adele running with a child in her arms, far off towards a tempestous sea. The wind blew bitterly; the sky was purple with anger. I strove to overtake her, but she fled from sight, and I knew she had plunged into the sea.

I awakened sick at heart. Could there be new trouble in store for her? Oh, merciful God! I prayed, rather let her die!

Nevertheless, I set about preparing to attend her wedding.

The clock had just ceased striking the hour of noon. I was brushing my hair before the mirror, when suddenly—suddenly my arm fell at my side, my heart stood still for a second.

In the mirror I seemed to see the bloodless face of a ghost, who stood be-

Better than She Expected.

"Your letter received. In reply I am happy to say that Parker's Hair Balsam did much more for me than you said it would, or than I expected. My hair has not only stopped falling out, but the bald spots are all covered, and all my hair has grown thicker, softer and more lively than it was before my sickness a year ago. Thank you again and again." Extract from letters of Mrs. R. W. T., West Fifty-third street, New York.

The medical examiner finds that Geo. S. Dunbar, of Pittsfield, Mass., who was found dead in a lonesome street on the night of July 4th, with a pistol having a long string attached to the handle lying by his side, came to his death by his own act. He had lost all his property in Wall street speculations, and his life was insured for $66,000.

The Voice of the People.

The people, as a whole, seldom make mistakes, and the unanimous voice of praise which comes from those who have used Hood's Sarsaparilla, fully justifies the claims of the proprietors of this great medicine. Indeed, these very claims are based entirely on what the people say Hood's Sarsaparilla has done for them. Read the abundant evidence of its curative powers, and give it a fair, honest trial.

The International Yacht Races.

The Genesta's new bowsprit was finished and in position, and the Puritan's mainsail repaired, and both boats in perfect condition for a race, on the evening of the 9th inst. The racing committee of the New York yacht club on the 9th arranged for the races to be sailed as follows: The ocean race, twenty miles to windward and return, on Friday, Sept. 11th; over the club course, on Monday, Sept. 14th; triangular course outside of Sand Hook, if necessary, on Wednesday, Sept. 16th.

State Board of Health Report.

The New Hampshire State Board of Health sent representatives to Montreal recently to investigate the smallpox epidemic there, and has prepared and sent to the national board of health a report based on the evidence secured by those representatives. The report closes as follows:

"While we were present at the meeting in Montreal, by invitation and not authoritatively, we took the opportunity to investigate as thoroughly as possible the exact state of affairs, and it is our opinion that the Canadian authorities cannot handle the epidemic within their borders, much less serve us in any marked degree in keeping the disease out of the New England states. As interstate and international commerce can only be regulated by the national government, we believe it to be the duty of the latter to take immediate action in the matter."

Towns having Canadian residents are desired to notify such of them as go to Canada, that they will not be allowed to return until after being subjected to a rigid quarantine. Railroads are ordered to vaccinate all employes, and doctors are requested, if they find a smallpox patient, to comply with the following:

Notify this board immediately by telegraph.

Notify the health authority of your town or city and see that the case is at once isolated.

Vaccinate immediately all who have been exposed, and take all other precautions that you may deem necessary in the case.

The railroads leading to Canada have entered earnestly into the work of guarding against the disease, by insisting on the vaccination of all employes, and establishing as far as possible a rigid land quarantine.

Naval Constructor Hichborn's Report.

It is stated that the report of Naval Constructor Philip Hichborn, U. S. N., who recently made a very thorough tour of the European dockyards in search of professional information, will soon be presented to the department. It is said to contain much valuable data relating to the vessels now building for foreign navies, as well as numerous plans of dockyards and tools.

The Lasters' Union of Massachusetts, which some time ago attempted to force Mr. Dodge, who has shoe manufactories in Newburyport and this city, to remove the Portsmouth branch of his business back to Newburyport, and at about the same time essayed to drive the business of B. F. Spinney & Co., of Norway, Me., and Lynn, Mass., from Norway to Lynn, overshot the mark in both instances. Mr. Dodge enlarged the Portsmouth branch of his business, and it is now announced that "The town of Norway has acceded to all requirements of B. F. Spinney & Co., of Lynn, and the contract for building a new factory 200x60, three stories, to accommodate that portion of their business now carried on in Lynn, has been made, and the building is to be ready for occupation by the first of November."

Upon the arrival at Boston on the 9th inst. of the bark Furness Abbey, from Iloilo, Capt. J. Touro Marcy and First Mate William J. Wilson were arrested, charged by the crew with cruel and abusive treatment. Counter-complaints were made against James White, Wm. Martin and James Williams for mutiny, and they were also locked up. The men say they were put in irons and triced up from Saturday to Monday, and that the captain and officers frequently struck them while in this condition.

The high temperature at which so many people keep their homes brings colds and coughs. They can not only be prevented, but removed by Red Star Cough Cure, which is prompt, pleasant, pure.

Clear.

MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS.

In Board of Mayor and Aldermen, Sept. 10th, Mayor Eldredge in the chair.

Present the full board.

The records of the last meeting were read and approved.

Dennis Saea was granted leave to open Green street to lay a sewer.

Petition of Daniel Canty and others for two street lights, near the junction of Cate and Creek streets, was referred to the committee on street lights, with power.

Petition of Andrew M. Gardner for widening of Back road, was referred. Also petition of Jos. T. French and others, for culvert on Rogers street, to carry off surface water.

Bills amounting to $2018.30, reported by the committee on accounts, were ordered paid.

The committee on bills on 2d reading reported favorably the ordinance concerning the removal of nightsoil, sent up from the council; report accepted and adopted.

Bond of Wm. H. Seymour as superintendent of the city farm, was approved. Also bond of James McCarthy, as police officer.

Petition of John S. Treat and others, for widening a portion of Creek street, was taken from the table; it was voted that the work be done, provided the petitioners pay the expense, the city to give the land.

Voted to pay Mr. Wood, the lessee of Pest island, $75 for sheep killed by dogs.

Chief Engineer Herbert A. Marden reported the present fire alarm to be inadequate; referred to a special committee, with the mayor and chairman of fire department committee added.

Claim of heirs of Joshua W. Peirce, of $100 for land back of the city stables, was referred to a special committee to confer.

A bill to transfer the money collected from the dog tax, to the payment of charges on account of sheep killing, was read once and referred.

The matter of filling in the extension of Mechanic street was referred to the committee on streets.

Adjourned to eight o'clock Thursday evening, Sept. 24th.

The common council was not in session.

THE THEATRE.

"A Strange Love" was given at Music hall on Thursday evening to a very large audience. To-night "Only a Woman's Heart" will be given. There are but a few chances remaining to see this excellent company.

THE BRIDGE-CHARTER AMENDMENT.

The following was the proposed amendment to the act of the legislature passed June 19th, 1821, chartering a toll-bridge between Portsmouth and Newcastle, which was introduced in the legislature at its late session by Representative Urch of ward three:

And no other bridge or ferry for the transportation of freight or passengers shall be built or maintained within 160 rods of said bridge, nor shall any ferry boat receive passengers for transportation between the aforesaid towns connected by said bridge under penalty of any and all damages that may result to said bridge company.

This act was to have taken effect upon its passage, but it didn't pass, for though it went through the house all right it failed of success in the senate, by a vote of twelve to twelve. This leaves the steamer James Sampson at liberty to run (after she gets her new boiler in, which will not be done in time for her to go on the route again this season) between Newcastle and Portsmouth with passengers two years more if her owners so desire, unless the bill should be passed at the extra session of the legislature which the insurance companies propose to have called early next spring to repeal the "valued policy law."

A QUEER VERDICT.

At Dover, Sept. 9th, the jury brought in a verdict of $5000 against the Boston & Maine railroad, in favor of Andrew T. Frost. In June, 1877, Frost, then a boy seven years old, while playing with other boys on the Portsmouth & Dover railroad turntable, turning it around, was caught between the turntable and the stone edging, and so badly injured that one leg had to be amputated. Recently the boy through his father, Marcellus Frost, entered suit against the Boston & Maine railroad, which now controls the Eastern road and its leased lines, and after a two day's trial the jury rendered a verdict as before stated. The railroad company denied any responsibility, as the boy was engaged in committing a trespass at the time he was hurt, and had no business whatever where he was. The justice of the verdict is not apparent at first sight; it would seem that the person who trespasses on the property of another, should at least be compelled to run his own risks. But fearful and wonderful are the ways of juries, and the common sense of their verdicts often past finding out.

The barque Furness Abbey, of this port, Marcy master, arrived at Boston on the 9th inst. from Iloilo, Philippine islands, April 1st, with sugar to order. She passed Anjier May 3d, Cape of Good Hope June 26th, and crossed the equator July 31st in longitude 32 34; had moderate weather the entire passage, and no trades.

On the invitation of their Worthy Chief Templar, Charles H. Besselievre, Rockingham Lodge of Good Templars sat down to an oyster supper in their hall on Pleasant street on the evening of the 9th inst. Notwithstanding that the weather was stormy a fair number were present, and the entertainment concluded with select readings, recitations and tableaux.

A remarkable reverberation was noticed by many persons on Thursday evening at nine o'clock, the report of the nine o'clock gun on the navy yard being exaggerated and prolonged so as to sound like a very respectable clap of thunder. The sky was clear at the time.

The schooner Lizzie M. Eells, while sailing down river from Concord railroad wharf, Tuesday evening, the 8th inst., ran her bowsprit into Mr. Wm. T. Frye's building on the wharf near Church point, knocking a hole in the building and damaging her own head gear. Next morning she tried it again, and this time came near running down the Gangway rock drill-platform, to avoid doing which she let go her anchor, and fouled the chain of the off-shore mooring buoy at the navy yard, which gave her crew, assisted by a diver and several men from the yard, a number of hours of hard work to clear.

Dan Maguinnis as "Lord Tatters" is booked to appear in Music hall on Thursday evening, the 17th inst., and Mr. Redmond and Mrs. Barry on Monday evening, the 21st.

Smelt fishing has commenced along the wharves, and it is said the fish are running up the river in considerable schools; the heavy rains induce them to the fresh-water streams which empty into Great bay and other wheres in the upper Piscataqua, for spawning.

A remarkably clear atmosphere prevailed on Thursday last, affording fine views seaward and inland. James H. Dow and C. L. Simpson, of Lowell, Mass., now in our city on vacation, while on a ride through Newington had a magnificent view of Mount Washington, and with the aid of a glass the Summit house, signal station and other buildings were distinctly seen. This view was attained from a point in the rear of the church on Newington Plains.

Lost.

A PORTEMONNAIE BOX AND POCKET BOOK both on same ring. The finder will confer a favor on leaving them at No. 2 Court Street.

NAVY YARD ITEMS.

A draft of nine marines, under command of Sergeant J. C. Yates, U. S. M. C., was sent from this navy yard to the Boston yard on Wednesday, the 9th inst.

Chief Engineer Annan reported for duty at the navy yard on Thursday afternoon, the 10th.

Commander Merriman has been ordered to convene a general court martial on the 12th inst.

The steam-heating apparatus of the receiving-ship Constitution has been put in order for the approaching cold weather.

The calkers and painters on the yard are employed on the Galena. This ship was found by the board of inspection to be in much better condition than was anticipated.

WATERTOWN AND BRIGHTON STOCK MARKET.

For week ending Tuesday, Sept. 8th.

Amount of live stock at market: Cattle, 1611; Sheep and Lambs, 9285; Calves, 375; Horses, 176; Swine, 1,350.

Prices of Market Beef—A few choice, $8 75; extra, $8 00 @ $8 50; first quality, $7 00 @ $7 50; second quality, $5 50 @ $6 50; third quality, $4 00 @ $4 50.

Prices of Store Cattle—Working oxen ⅌ pair, from $100 @ $225; Farrow cows, $15 @ $31; Fancy cows, $50 @ $80; Milch cows and calves, $25 @ $48; yearlings, $16 @ $30; two years old, $14 @ $26; three years old, $24 @ $42.

Swine—Western fat, live, 4½ @ 5c ⅌ lb; northern dressed hogs, 5½ @ 5½c ⅌ lb.

Prices of Sheep and Lambs—In lots, $2 50, $3 00 @ $3 50 each; extra, $4 00 @ $4 50; one lot from 2 @ 4½c ⅌ lb; spring lambs, 4½ @ 5 c ⅌ lb.

Veal Calves 2½ @ 6½c ⅌ lb.

Prices of Hides, Tallow and Skins—Brighton hides, 7 @ 7½c ⅌ lb; Brighton tallow, 4½ @ 5c ⅌ lb; country hides, 6½ @ 7c ⅌ lb; country tallow, 2½ @ 3c ⅌ lb; calf skins, 10c ⅌ lb; pelts, 15 @ 25c each; lamb skins, 40 @ 65c each; dairy skins, 50 @ 75c each.

At Watertown Brighton trade was very much behind time, causing a deficiency in measure, in the traffic at the yards. Cattle were selling slowly, but at about last week's prices. The supply being less than the usual number of the fresh meat to be sold, prices only as low figures. We quote the market 25c lower than last week.

Hogs—The market steady, with sales of northern dressed at 5½ @ 5½c.

Veal Calves—Fair in price with a good demand.

Live Poultry—The arrivals, 2½ tons, at 10 @ 12c for mixed lots.

CHOLERA CRAMPS CHILLS

"An ounce of prevention," that is, a dose of SANFORD'S GINGER, "is worth a pound of cure," which, of course, means a doctor. It is absolutely certain that Cholera may be prevented, and, in the majority of cases, successfully treated, with SANFORD'S GINGER, a powerful stimulant, composed of Imported Ginger, choice Aromatics, and the best French Brandy; convenient, speedy and safe; sure to check summer complaint, prevent indigestion, destroy disease germs in water drank, restore the circulation when suspended by a chill, and ward off malarial, contagious, and epidemic influences.

Avoid mercenary dealers who for a few cents extra profit try to force upon you their own or others' when you call for

SANFORD'S GINGER

The Delicious Summer Medicine.

Cramps, Pains, Cholera Morbus, Diarrhœa, and Dysentery, whether produced by unripe fruit, impure water, unwholesome food, or change of climate, food or water, or any little ills of home or travel, such as Colds, Chills, Simple Fevers, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Sea-sickness, Exhaustion, Nervousness, Loss of Sleep, Debility and Dissipation, are instantly relieved by SANFORD'S GINGER, the safest, surest, as best summer medicine and travelling companion.

As a healthful summer drink with water, milk, iced water, lemonade, effervescent draughts and mineral waters, it is the best.

Beware of worthless "gingers," said to be "as good," or "the same," or "as larger," or "cheaper" than SANFORD'S GINGER. Ask for

'Fools Rush in, Where Angels Fear to Tread."

So impetuous youth is often given to folly and indiscretions; and, as a result, nervous, mental and organic debility follow, memory is impaired, self-confidence is lacking; at night bad dreams occur, premature old age seems setting in, ruin is in the track. In confidence, you can, and should write to Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., the author of a treatise for the benefit of that class of patients, and describe your symptoms and sufferings. He can cure you at your home, and will send you full particulars by mail.

The smallpox continues to rage without any signs of abatement in Montreal.

How It Was!

At the battle of Gettysburg I was shot through the left leg and was sent to the hospital. The army surgeons relieved me but pronounced my case incurable. It discharged pieces of bone, and for years I have suffered with a running sore. I tried everything which my limited means would allow, and experienced no relief until I tried Sulphur Bitters. I am now almost well, and shall continue their use.—Old Soldier.

The people of northern Vermont are apprehensive of the smallpox breaking out there at any moment. The dreaded disease has appeared in a Canadian village only twelve miles from Richford, Vt.

Dr. Seth Arnold; My Dear Sir: "The Cough killer you kindly sent me is almost gone, and I want it always in the house. I wish the world knew its value."—Rev. Jefferson Hascall, Medford, Mass.

The Burdock Plant is one of the best diuretics or kidney regulators in the vegetable world, and the compound known as Burdock Blood Bitters, is unsurpassed in all diseases of the kidneys, liver and blood.

Boston is moving energetically to prepare for the smallpox. Over 100 day is the average number now vaccinated at the Chardon street station alone. Extra physicians will be employed as fast as necessary, and the city will provide all facilities for treating any number of applicants.

DISFIGURING HUMORS, Humiliating Eruptions, Itching and Burning Skin Tortures, Loathsome Sores, and every species of Itching, Scaly, Pimply, Inherited, Scrofulous, and Contagious Diseases of the Blood, Skin, and Scalp, with Loss of Hair, from infancy to old age, are positively cured by CUTICURA RESOLVENT, the New Blood Purifier, internally, and CUTICURA, the Great Skin Cure, and CUTICURA SOAP, an exquisite Skin Beautifier, externally.

ECZEMA CURED.

I was afflicted with Eczema on the Scalp, Face, Ears and Neck, which the Druggist, where I got your remedies, pronounced one of the worst cases that had come under his notice. He advised me to try your CUTICURA REMEDIES, and after five days use, my scalp and part of my face were entirely cured, and I hope in another week to have my ears, neck, and the other part of my face cured. HERMAN SLADE,

120 E. 4th St., New York.

SCABS AND SORES.

I have been afflicted since last March with a Skin disease the doctors called Eczema. My face was covered with scabs and sores, and the itching and burning were almost unbearable. Seeing your CUTICURA REMEDIES so highly recommended, concluded to give them a trial. I used CUTICURA and CUTICURA SOAP externally, and RESOLVENT internally, for four months. I call myself cured, in gratitude for which I make this public statement.

Great Dangers.

Three great dangers menace the traveller at every turn. They are climate, food and water. To guard against them requires judgment, abstinence and SANFORD'S GINGER.

This unrivalled household panacea and travelling companion is sure to check any disturbance of the bowels, instantly relieve cramps and pains, prevent indigestion, destroy disease germs in water drank, restore the circulation when suspended by a chill, a frequent cause of cholera morbus, breaks up colds and fevers, and ward off malarial, contagious, and epidemic influences.

SANFORD'S GINGER is a delicious combination of Imported Ginger, Choice Aromatics, and French Brandy, and is the finest extract of ginger ever compounded in the history of medicine. Ask for

SANFORD'S GINGER.

Cholera morbus, cramps, pains, diarrhœa, dysentery, indigestion, colds, chills, simple fevers, exhaustion, nervousness or loss of sleep, whether caused by unripe fruit, impure water, unhealthy climate, unwholesome food, malaria, epidemic or contagious diseases that beset the traveller or household at this season, can have no serious influence on those protected by a timely use of SANFORD'S GINGER.

As a summer drink, with hot or cold water, sweetened, or hot or cold milk, or added to ice water, lemonade, effervescent draughts or mineral waters, SANFORD'S GINGER forms a refreshing and invigorating beverage, unequalled in simplicity and purity, while free from alcoholic reaction. A little should be added to every glass of water drunk.

A Candid Confession.

You ask me, lovely Ethel, why I care for Yourself, and why I long your hand to own.
You're very rich, you know, my dear, and therefore
I love you fondly for your wealth alone.

I know that I should say it is your beauty
That o'er my doting heart a spell has thrown,
But I am frank; I deem it is my duty
To say I love you for your wealth alone.

I ought to swear your eyes had wrought my capture,
That love was wakened by your voice's tone,
That but to gaze upon your face was rapture;
But no; I love you for your wealth alone.

Suppose I said I loved you for your manner,
It might be true; you fascinate, I own;
But I've enlisted under Mammon's banner,
I love you fondly for your wealth alone.

My constancy I claim is thus attested;
Love based on beauty goes when youth has flown;
But if your money is but well invested,
I'll love you always for your wealth alone.

—Rambler.

THE LAST CONTEST.

A soldier, who had won imperishable fame on the battle-fields of his country was confronted by a gaunt stranger clad all in black and wearing an impenetrable mask.

"Who are you that you dare to block my way?" demanded the soldier.

Then the stranger threw aside his mask and the soldier knew that he was Death.

"Have you come for me?" asked the soldier. "If so, I will not go with you; so go your way alone."

But Death held out his bony hand and beckoned to the soldier.

"No," cried the soldier, resolutely; "my time is not come. See, here are the histories I am writing—no hand but mine can finish them—I will go when they are done."

"I have hidden by your side day and night," said Death; "I have hovered about you on a hundred battle-fields, but no sight of me could chill your heart till now, and now I hold you in my power. Come!"

And with these words Death seized upon the soldier and strove to bear him hence, but the soldier struggled so desperately that he prevailed against Death, and the strange phantom departed alone. Then when he had gone the soldier found upon his throat the imprint of Death's cruel fingers—so fierce had been the struggle. And nothing could wash them away, for they were disease, lingering, agonizing, fatal disease. But with quiet valor the soldier returned to his histories, and for many days thereafter he toiled upon them as the last and best work of his noble life.

"How thin and pale the soldier is getting," said the people. "His hair is whitening and his eyes are weary. He should not have undertaken the histories—the labor is killing him."

They did not know of this struggle with Death, nor had they seen the marks upon the soldier's throat. But the physicians who came to him and saw the marks of Death's cruel fingers, shook their heads and said the soldier could not live to complete his work upon which his whole heart was set. And the soldier knew it, too, and many a time he paused in his writing and laid his pen aside and bowed his head upon his hands, and strove for consolation in the thought of the great fame he had already won. So when Death came a second time he found the soldier weak and trembling and emaciated.

"It would be vain for you to struggle with me now," said Death. "My poison is in your veins, and see, my dew is on your brow. But you are a brave man and I will not bear you with me till you have asked one favor, which I will grant."

"Give me an hour to ask the favor," said the soldier. "There are so many things—my histories and all—give me an hour that I may decide what I shall ask?"

And as Death tarried, the soldier communed with himself. Before he closed his eyes forever what boon should he ask of Death? And the soldier's thoughts sped back over the years and his whole life came to him like a lightning flash—the companionship and smiles of kings, the glories of government and political power, the honors of peace, and joys of conquest, the din of battle, the sweets of a quiet home life upon a western prairie, the gentle devotion of a wife, the clamor of noisy boys and the face of a little girl—ah, there his thoughts lingered and clung.

"Time to complete our work—our books—our histories," counseled ambition. "Ask Death for time to do this last and crowning act of our great life."

But the soldier's ears were deaf to the cries of ambition; they heard another voice—the voice of the soldier's heart—and the voice whispered "Nellie—Nellie—Nellie." That was all—no other words but those, and the soldier struggled to his feet, and stretched forth his hands and called to Death, and hearing him calling, Death came to him and stood before him.

"I have made my choice," said the soldier.

"The books?" asked Death with a scornful smile.

"No, not them," said the soldier, "but my little girl—my Nellie! Give me a lease of life till I have held her in these arms, and then come for me and I will go!"

Then Death's hideous aspect was changed; his stern features relaxed and a look of pity came upon them. And Death said, "It shall be so," and saying this he went his way.

Now the soldier's child was far away—many, many leagues from where the soldier lived; beyond a broad, tempestuous ocean. She was not as you might suppose, a little child, although the soldier spoke of her as such. She was a wife and a mother; yet even in her womanhood she was to the soldier's heart the same little girl the soldier had held upon his knee many and many a time while his rough hands weaved prairie flowers in her soft, fair curls. And the soldier called for Nellie now, just as he did then, when she sat on his knee and prattled of her dolls. This is the way of the human heart.

It having been noised about that the soldier was dying and that Nellie had been sent for across the sea, all the people vied with each other in soothing the last moments of the famous man, for he was beloved by all, and all were bound to him by bonds of patriotic gratitude, since he had been so brave a soldier upon the battle-fields of his country. But the soldier did not heed their words of sympathy; the voice of fame, which in the past had stirred a fever in his blood and fallen most pleasantly upon his ears, awakened no emotion in his bosom now. The soldier thought only of Nellie, and he awaited her coming.

An old comrade came and pressed his hand, and talked of the times when they went to the wars together; and the old comrade told of his battle and of that, and how such a victory was won and how such a city was taken. But the soldier's ears heard no sound of battle now, and his eyes could see no flash of sabre or smoke of war.

So the people came and spoke words of veneration and love and hope, and so with quiet fortitude, but with a hungry heart, the soldier waited for Nellie, his little girl.

She came across the broad, tempestuous ocean. The gulls flew far out from land and told the winds, and the winds blew further still and said to the ship: "Speed on, oh ship! speed on in thy swift, straight course, for you are bearing a treasure to a father's heart!"

Then the ship leaped forward in her pathway, and the waves were very still, and the winds kept whispering: "Speed on, O ship," till at last the ship was come to port and the little girl was clasped in the soldier's arms.

Then for a season the soldier seemed quite himself again, and people said: "He will live," and then prayed that he might. But their hopes and prayers were vain. Death's seal was on the soldier and there was no release.

The last days of the soldier's life were the most beautiful of all—but what is stockery of ambition and fame, and all the grand pretentious things of life they were! They were the triumph of a human heart, and what is better or purer or sweeter than that?

No thought of the hundred battle-fields upon which his valor had shown conspicuous came to the soldier now—nor the echo of his eternal fame—nor even yet the murmurs of a sorrowing people. Nellie was by his side, and his hungry, fainting heart fed on her dear love and his soul went back with her to the years long agone.

Away beyond the western horizon upon the prairie stands a little home over which the vines trail. All about it is the tall, waving grass, and over yonder is the swale with a legion of chattering black-birds perched on its swaying reeds and rushes. Bright wild flowers bloom on every side, the quail whistles on the pasture fence, and from his home in the chimney corner the cricket begins to chirrup an echo to the lonely bird's call. In this little prairie home we see a man holding on his knee a little girl, who is telling him of her play as he smooths her fair curls or strokes her tiny velvet hands; or perhaps she is singing him one of her baby songs, or asking him strange questions of the great wide world that is new to her; or perhaps he binds the wild flowers she has brought into a little nosegay for her new gingham dress, or—but we see it all, and so, too, does the soldier, and so does Nellie, and so they hear the black-bird's twitter and the quail's shrill call and the cricket's faint echo, and all about them is the sweet subtle, holy fragrance of memory.

And so at last when Death came and the soldier fell asleep forever, Nellie, his little girl, was holding his hands and whispering to him of those days. Hers were the last words he heard, and by the smile that rested on his face when he was dead you might have thought the soldier was dreaming of a time when Nellie prattled on his knee and bade him weave the wild flowers in her curls.

WATERTOWN AND BRIGHTON STOCK MARKET.

For week ending Tuesday, Sept. 8th.

Amount of live stock at market: Cattle, 1171; Sheep and Lambs, 9295; Calves, 375; Horses, 175; Swine, 17,235.

Prices of Market Beef—A few choice, $8 75; extra, $8 00 @ $8 50; first quality, $7 00 @ $7 50; second quality, $5 50 @ $6 50; third quality, $4 00 @ $4 50.

Prices of Store Cattle—Working oxen ⅋ pair, from $100 @ $225; Farrow cows, $13 @ $31; Fancy cows, $50 @ $80; Milch cows and calves, $25 @ $48; yearlings, $10 @ $20; two years old, $14 @ $30; three years old, $24 @ $42.

Swine—Western fat, live, 4¾ @ 5c ⅋ ℔; northern dressed hogs, 5¼ @ 5¾c ⅋ ℔.

Prices of Sheep and Lambs—In lots, $2 00, $3 00 @ $3 50 each; extra, $4 00 @ $4 50, or from 2 @ 4½c ⅋ ℔; spring lambs, 4¾ @ 5¾c ⅋ ℔.

Veal Calves 2¾ @ 8¾c ⅋ ℔.

Prices of Hides, Tallow and Skins—Brighton hides, 7 @ 7¾c ⅋ ℔; Brighton tallow, 4¼ @ 5c ⅋ ℔; country hides, 6¾ @ 7c ⅋ ℔; country tallow, 2¾ @ 3c ⅋ ℔; calf skins, 10c ⅋ ℔; pelts, 15 @ 25c each; lamb skins, 40 @ 65c each; dairy skins, 50 @ 75c each.

At Watertown a northern train was very much behind time, causing a detention, in a measure, in the traffic in live stock. Cattle were selling slowly, but at about last week's rates. The supply being less was the prime cause of the firmness to the market. Some of the offerings were well fatted, and one or more pairs were fancy.

Milch Cows—The supply holds good. Many of the owners have cows held over from last week. Sales from $25 @ $55 mostly.

The Sheep Call—The supply reached 9295 head, which includes the Canada lambs. The market opened rather moderate, but the good flocks sold generally at 5 @ 5¼c. The common sheep rather hard to place only at low figures. We quote the market ¼c lower than last week.

Hogs—The market steady, with sales of northern dressed at 5¼ @ 5¾c.

Veal Calves—Firm in price with a good demand.

Live Poultry—The arrivals, 5¾ tons; at 10 @ 14c for mixed lots. 12c

Neuralgic paroxysms are often of extreme violence, and brought on by the slightest provocation, such as a draught of cool air. The skin is swollen and inflamed, and even after the attack has abated feels stiff and tender. On the first intimation of such an attack rub with Salvation Oil. 25 cents.

Pittsfield, Mass., is excited, and not without reason, over a case of smallpox. Seymour Patterson, aged fourteen years, son of Ex-Speaker Patterson of the New York assembly, lately arrived in Pittsfield with his mother from Lake George; on the 9th he was playing with other boys, who noticed blotches on his hands, and on the 10th the disease was determined. Every caution is being taken by the authorities.

His Loss was Her Gain.

"Well madam," said a fashionable physician to a wealthy lady patient, "if you don't like my prescriptions, perhaps you had better try Parker's Tonic, or some other quack stuff." "You don't mean it, Docter," she answered, "but your advice may be good for all that. Sometimes what you call 'quack stuff' is the best and most scientific medicine, after all." She got a bottle of Parker's Tonic and it cured her of neuralgia arising from disordered stomach and nerves. She told her friends, and now they all keep a doctor at home in the form of Parker's Tonic.

Why Is It

That the sale of Hood's Sarsaparilla continues at such a rapidly increasing rate? It is,—

1st: Because of the positive curative value of Hood's Sarsaparilla itself.

2d: Because of the conclusive evidence of remarkable cures effected by it, unsurpassed and seldom equalled by any other medicine. Send to C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass., for book containing many statements of cures.

NO RACE YET.

The representative yachts made another attempt to sail the first of their three races, on Friday. In the morning there was a strong breeze, with an ugly easterly sea running, and an exciting contest was anticipated. The Genesta went over the starting line at 11:37:40 A. M., and the Puritan crossed thirteen seconds later. But the promise of the early morning was not kept, the wind gradually going down, making it evident that if either boat won the race it would be more by good luck in taking a fortunate streak of wind, than through superior sailing qualities. Sometimes one yacht was ahead and to windward, and then the other. At 1:30 P. M. they had made about ten miles to windward, and the Genesta was three minutes ahead. At two o'clock the Puritan was reported as having gained a minute and a half on the Genesta; at 2:25 she passed to windward of the cutter, and at 2:38 drew ahead of her; at 2:48 the Genesta recovered the lead, and held it at 3:15, when about fifteen miles of the beat to windward had been made, the Puritan being close by, and the wind dying away all the time. After hanging on as long as there was any possibility of the yachts being able to cover the course within the time limit, the committee declared it no race.

State Appointments.

At a meeting of the governor and council on the 9th inst. the following appointments were made:

State prison, warden, Frank L. Dodge; chaplain, Rev. E. R. Wilkins; physician, Henry M. French, all of Concord.

Board of agriculture, Moses Humphrey of Concord, W. H. H. Mason of Moultonboro.

Trustees of the college of agriculture, Hiram Hitchcock of Hanover, Lyman D. Stevens of Concord.

Bank commissioners, Buel C. Carter of Dover, George E. Gage of Manchester.

Trustees of state normal school, E. B. S. Sanborn of Franklin Falls, Rev. D. C. Roberts of Concord, W. E. Bucks of Manchester, H. W. Parker of Claremont, C. A. Jewell of Plymouth.

State board of heath, Granville P. Conn of Concord, James A. Weston of Manchester.

Charles H. Greenleaf was appointed agent to expend the appropriation for roads and bridges in Franconia notch.

The Insurance Business.

The insurance difficulties are being so widely discussed by various papers both in and out of the state, and the formation of new companies is being projected with such rapidity, that one naturally asks if conducting an insurance company will not call for more practical experience and knowledge than is possessed by the average citizen. We find that the city of Boston was long an insurance centre, and had some twenty-five companies doing a large business, and since the great fire numerous new companies were organized, so that the number has remained about the same. By the commissioner's report for 1885, Boston has now but four stock fire companies, representing $900,000 capital, doing a business in 1884 of $621,721 of receipts against expenditures of $639,552. We also find that since January 1st, 1877, no less than 155 fire companies have given up business or failed, representing over twenty-three millions of capital; and in New Hampshire for fifteen years the companies have paid to the state in losses and expenses ninety-seven per cent of every dollar they have received. These facts were told to the legislators of this state, and yet these solons think they can make New Hampshire an insurance centre; but it will require more capital and brains to make the business a success than is imagined, and the business is by no means all profit.

A woman named Dion, of Biddeford, on the night of the 9th inst. gave birth to twin babes which together weighed but three pounds.

Stephen A. Grant was on the 10th inst. appointed postmaster of Limerick.

George E. Shuffleburg, a fisherman of Kennebunkport, was drowned Sept. 9th off Bunker island, between Cape Porpoise and Kennebunkport, by the sudden swamping of his boat, which was seen to go down by persons on shore. It is supposed the boat suddenly split open, and as he was sinking he was seen to strip off his clothes and swim for the land. A powerful man in a dory pulled to his rescue, arriving at the spot only one minute too late to save him.

Sarah Whitten of Alfred, whose sentence of imprisonment for life has recently been commuted by Gov. Robie to imprisonment for four years, is a young woman somewhat lacking in intellect, and her crime was the drowning of her illegitimate child in the river at Kennebunk several years ago. The feeble-minded, half-responsible creature was convicted of murder in the second degree, and sent to state prison for life,—a punishment as severe, under the law of Maine as it then existed, as could be imposed on the most desperate ruffian for the most brutal and cold-blooded crime.

Mrs. Anne F. Grant, (nee Remick,) wife of Mr. Charles Grant of Kittery, first officer of the transatlantic steamer Westernland, sailed in the steamer Waesland a week ago, with her two little boys, for Antwerp, Belgium, to reside there.

The quickest cable-repairing work ever done has just been accomplished by Capt. Trott with the repair steamer Minia, who left Sydney, Nova Scotia, on the evening of the 6th inst., went out 150 miles to Torbay, picked up the Direct United States cable twice, repaired the breaks, and had the cable in working order at 11:30 o'clock on the night of the 7th.

If it were possible to get the testimony of the multitude who have used HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA for debility, langnor, lassitude, and that general feeling of stupidity, weariness and exhaustion which every one feels during this season, we should be able to present to our readers such an overwhelming mass of commendatory messages, that the few who have not tried it would do so at once. It is a positive fact, and has been so effectually demonstrated that no one to-day denies it, that Hood's Sarsaparilla contains more real medicinal value than any article before the people.

What a Man Did with Kidney Complaint

DRACUT, MASS.
MESSRS. C. I. HOOD & Co., Lowell, Mass.:
Dear Sirs—I have suffered from kidney complaint and billiousness for fifteen years. Have tried everything and never got any good. Last January, before I commenced taking HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA, everything I ate bloated me all up, pain in my chest and arms, headache and dizzy. I could not get up without feeling weary and all fagged out. Many mornings I was obliged to lie down on the lounge. To do any work seemed almost impossible. Have taken two bottles. The backache, dizziness, pain in my chest and arms, and that feeling of intense weariness are all gone. I can eat anything and it does not press me at all. Feel just like work; in fact, like a new man. Can heartily recommend HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA, and hope all who desire to know anything about it will come to me and ask what I think of it. Very truly yours,
JONATHAN J. COBURN.

THE WEATHER.

For New England to-day:—

Slightly warmer, generally fair weather, light and variable winds, lower barometer.

The Thermometer at the CHRONICLE Office, at 4:00 o'clock this morning, indicated 40 degrees above zero.

Clear.

THE THEATRE.

The C. R. Gardiner Dramatic Combination, during its engagement at Music hall this week, has presented highly entertaining and amusing plays, in a very satisfactory manner. Mr. Elliott Barnes, the author of the pieces that have been given, is a thoroughly good "all round" comedian, and the support is better than most high-priced companies offer.

This afternoon "Only a Farmer's Daughter" and this evening "The Deserted Daughter," will be repeated. Where both are so good it is hard to say which is best; but the many hundreds who attended and enjoyed the previous performances of these plays will agree that either one furnishes a big return of pleasure for the trifling outlay called for.

THE FIRE ALARM.

The following is the communication of the chief engineer of the fire department, laid before the board of mayor and aldermen at their late meeting, asking that the fire alarm be so extended as to be made efficient. The position of the Chronicle on this question has been repeatedly defined, and we will only say now that the extension asked for by the chief engineer, or some other and better one if such can be devised, should be made at once, before the advent of winter:

PORTSMOUTH, Sept. 9, 1885.

To the Honorable Board of Mayor and Aldermen:—I would respectfully call your attention to the great need of more alarm in this city in case of fire. The present alarm, that is, the whistles at the one brewery, and the striking of the North bell, has proved itself I think to almost every resident of Portsmouth to be very inadequate.

I would ask you to seriously consider this matter, for it not only affects the efficiency of the department, but the interests of all the citizens of Portsmouth. I do not by any means think disparagingly of the electric alarm, for I think the system is good and works well; and in all our neighboring cities where there is more of it, they speak very highly of it, and what we need here, to make it efficient in all respects, is a little more of it. Therefore I would recommend that the following measures be taken to render our fire alarm what it should be. In my opinion there should be connection with the Portsmouth brewery so we can have the use of their whistle; a connection also with the Portsmouth machine shop for the same purpose. Also a striker on the South bell or else on a gong to be placed there. I would also recommend that an additional alarm box be placed near the corner of Vaughan and Deer streets. Hoping these views may meet your favorable notice, I remain, gentlemen, your obedient servant.

HERBERT A. MARDEN, Chief Eng'r.

POLICE COURT--BATCHELDER J.

FRIDAY, Sept. 11th.

Gilbert Patterson was charged with being a common drunkard; this was bad enough, but the charge was proved, which was worse, and Mr. Patterson was ordered to the county farm for thirty days, and to pay $8.04 costs.

A complaint against Gilbert Patterson, for an assault on Ozro J. Hobbs, was nol. pros'd.

Charles H. Wilds, drunk, fine $3, costs $6.90; Brentwood in default of payment.

John Hessian, drunk, fine $3, costs $6.90; paid.

A number of painters were taken on the navy yard on Friday, the 11th inst.

We learn that Capt. J. Albert Sanborn of this city has received an offer to go to Hungary, to take charge of extensive mining operations there.

A new pool and lunch room, with modern furniture and conveniences, has been opened by George H. Atkins on Islington street, opposite the Kearsarge house. Mr. Atkins went off a year or two ago, to Brockton, Mass, but like a good many others who leave our old city, he was glad to come back again. It is very easy to "go further and fare worse."

William Jones, aged forty-five years, a seaman on board the schooner Mystery, of the port, was drowned in the river five miles below Bangor, Me., Sept. 10th, by being accidentally knocked overboard while attending to his duties.

Several of the young men of the city are about to start a first-class gymnasium in Franklin upper hall.

James McCarthy, having been appointed on the police force, has resigned the foremanship of steam fire engine No. 4, and Mr. J. Frank Shannon has been elected in his place.

Rev. E. E. Colburn of Kittery will preach in the Court street Christian church to-morrow.

The Red Stocking base ball club of this city go to Exeter this afternoon to play a game with the Clippers of that place.

There was quite a heavy white frost visible on the wharves and plank walks in this city on Friday morning.

Capt. George E. Sover arrived in from the Shoals on Thursday last, after sailing the sloop yacht Eliza for the Laighton Bros. for three months and eight days.

The schooner Mary E. Smith, of Gloucester, Capt. Jacob Smith, on Thursday took on board ice at Commercial wharf, for market fishing. She left with Daniel Clark 3000 lbs. of cod and haddock, selling at about three cents a pound.

The gondola H. P. Spinney is being recaulked on the beach at Noble's island. Capt. Cheney expects to bring down 500,000 bricks from the Rose yard at Sturgeon creek, for the new brewery sewer.

The brick schooners Hattie Lewis, G. W. Raitt, Satellite, Estella and Gold Hunter sailed on the 11th inst. for Boston.

Frank Bodwell, one of the Springvale roughs who recently assaulted and nearly killed Deputy Sheriff Roberts of York county, has been spotted by officers in Nebraska, and captured. A York county officer will go to Nebraska for him.

Chief Justice Peters of Maine has expressed his concurrence in the opinion of Judge Virgin that Oscar E. Blaney's sentence for killing Thomas Barrows should be commuted from hanging to imprisonment for life, on the ground that Blaney turned state's evidence against Mrs. Barrows, and the state should not hang its own witness. The opinion of the judges will of course have great weight with the governor and council, and it really looks as if Blaney may save his neck. If Blaney's sentence is commuted, a great pressure will be brought to bear in Mrs. Barrows' favor. A singular interest in her case has been taken by women in different parts of Maine, and they have secured enormous petitions for a commutation of her sentence. A woman in Windham has written Governor Robie that she has 1,000 names on her petition. The governor and council will meet Sept. 22d.

A fight with hard gloves took place on the 8th inst. at South Berwick, between two ruffians, one named Barry, of Portland, and Mike Driscoll, of Lawrence, Mass. Driscoll won in seven rounds, on a foul. A number of sports were present from Portland. Afterwards a match was attempted to be made between James Howard of Portland and Harry Stevens of Newmarket, N. H., but nothing came of it.

"Mac Lute Dancy," pianist and zither player, assisted by Mrs. Frank P. Hoyt of Newington, violinist, and Mr. and Mrs. Littlefield, will give a choice concern of instrumental and vocal music in the Town hall at Greenland on Tuesday evening, Sept. 15th, commencing at 7:30 o'clock; admission twenty-five cents.

"The 'Orinoco' generally arrives at Hamilton on Sunday, and, at every arrival, the curiosity and interest of the natives is as great as may have been on the first occasion of their witnessing this important occurrence."

The "Hamilton" mentioned above will be described by Emil Chas. Pfeiffer, in his lecture, "Bermuda: from Experience," which will be given on Tuesday evening, Sept. 15th, at eight o'clock sharp, in the lecture hall of the Association building (opposite the postoffice) on State street. Tickets at Goodrich's, or at the door on Tuesday evening.

CHOLERA CRAMPS CHILLS

"An ounce of prevention," that is, a dose of SANFORD'S GINGER, "is worth a pound of cure," which, of course, means a doctor. It is absolutely certain that Cholera may be prevented, and, in the majority of cases, successfully treated, with SANFORD'S GINGER, a powerful stimulant, composed of Imported Ginger, choice Aromatics, and the best French Brandy; convenient, speedy and safe; sure to check summer complaint, prevent indigestion, destroy disease germs in water drank, restore the circulation when suspended by a chill, and ward off malarial, contagious, and epidemic influences.

Avoid unnecessary dealers who for a few cents extra profit try to force upon you their own or others' when you call for

SANFORD'S GINGER

The Delicious Summer Medicine.

Cramps, Pains, Cholera Morbus, Diarrhœa, and Dysentery, whether produced by unripe fruit, impure water, unwholesome food, or change of climate, food or water, or any little ills of home or travel, such as Colds, Chills, Simple Fevers, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Sea-sickness, Exhaustion, Nervousness, Loss of Sleep, Debility and Dissipation, are instantly relieved by SANFORD'S GINGER, the safest, surest, an best summer medicine and travelling companion.

As a healthful summer drink with water, milk, iced water, lemonade, effervescent draughts and mineral waters, it is the best.

Beware of worthless "gingers," said to be "as cod," or "the same," or "as larger," or "cheaper" than SANFORD'S GINGER. Ask for

BOY WANTED!

AT THIS OFFICE, to learn the Printer's Trade. Must have a good common school education, be of suitable age and have a desire to learn the business.

J. P. Leedom, Esq., Sergeant-at-Arms of the House of Representatives, says of Red Star Cough Cure that by its purity and freedom from opiates, it supplants cough mixtures which contain narcotics or minerals.

The supreme court of Manitoba, full bench, has disallowed the appeal from the verdict and sentence of the lower court in the case of Louis Riel, and confirmed the sentence of death.

Bed-Bugs, Flies.

Flies, roaches, ants, bed-bugs, rats, mice, gophers, chipmunks, cleared out by "Rough on Rats." 15c.

The soldiers in one of the largest barracks at Madrid attempted a revolt on the 11th inst., but the authorities were prepared, and soon put down the disturbance.

Thin People.

"Wells' Health Renewer" restores health and vigor, cures dyspepsia, impotence, sexual debility. $1.

The half-breeds and French Canadians in the Dominion and Northwest territory are greatly excited over the prospect of Louis Riel being put to death, and threaten to make trouble if it is done.

"Rough on Pain."

Cures colic, cramps, diarrhœa; externally for aches, pains, sprains, headache, neuralgia, rheumatism. For man or beast. 20 and 50c.

Great indignation exists in the Northwest territory over the kidnapping of Brainard by American detectives. Brainard has escaped.

Mothers.

If you are failing; broken, worn out and nervous, use "Wells' Health Renewer." $1. Druggists.

At Muncie, Ind., Sept. 9th, six tramps were let out of the calaboose and made to run the gauntlet of 200 men and boys armed with whips and clubs. The tramps were made to run into the river, which is shallow and was easily crossed by them.

His Ignorance Cost Me $150!

I was sick abed for three months. The doctor said I had Prolapsus Uteri, which was untrue. He didn't try to cure me but wanted to make a $1.50 every day. My uncle is a druggist, and he told me to turn the doctor off, and try Sulphur Bitters. I did so and five dollars worth of Sulphur Bitters cured me of general weakness and debility.—Mrs. S.——, New Haven.

The steamer City of Sydney, at San Francisco on the 7th inst. from Australia, brought $500,000 in Australian sovereigns, on American account.

I have been a periodical sufferer from Hay Fever (a most annoying and loathsome affliction,) since the summer of 1879, and until I used Ely's Cream Balm was never able to find any relief until cold weather. I can truthfully say that Cream Balm cured me. I regard it as of great value and would not be without it during the Hay Fever season.

L. M. Georgia, Binghamton, N. Y.

The British steamer Auckland has collided with the German gunboat Blitz in the North sea, and was sunk. Fifteen of the Auckland's crew were drowned, and only two were saved.

James Pyle's Pearline is considered the best Washing Compound of the day by all who once give it a trial. It cleanses the most delicate fabric without injuring it. Sold by all grocers.

Capt. Bowden, of the British barque Victor, has died of yellow fever at the quarantine station below Savannah, Ga. No danger is apprehended, the quarantine regulations being very strict.

Scott's Emulsion of Pure Cod Liver Oil, with Hypophosphites

In Loss of Appetite and General Debility.

Messrs. Ramsey & Co., of Sharpsburg, Pa., makes the following report: "That they recommended a friend suffering from loss of appetite and general debility, Scott's Emulsion, that after taking half dozen bottles, he reported, that he ate well, feels well, and is in fact a new man, and recommends it highly."

A disastrous storm swept over Lake Michigan on the 8th inst., wrecking many vessels, and it is feared causing great loss of life.

Nervous Debilitated Men.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practioners with whom I have had official intercourse." CHAS. MASON, Commissioner of Patents.

"Inventors cannot employ a person more trustworthy or more capable of securing for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office." EDMUND BURKE, late Commissioner of Patents.

BOSTON, October 19, 1870.

R. H. EDDY, ESQ.—Dear Sir: You procured for me, in 1840, my first patent. Since then you have acted for and advised me in hundreds of cases, and procured many patents, reissues and extensions. I have occasionally employed the best agencies in New York, Philadelphia and Washington, but I still give you almost the whole of my business, in your line, and advise others to employ you. Yours truly, GEORGE DRAPER.

Letters from China represent that France lost 15,000 men in the Tonquin campaign.

Do not suffer from sick headache a moment longer. It is not necessary. Carter's Little Liver Pills will cure you. Dose, one little pill. All druggists sell them.

Two cases of small-pox were detected at the railroad station in Troy, N. Y. on the morning of the 11th inst: Both patients were removed to the pest house. Quite a panic was caused among the incoming passengers when the discovery was made, and they precipitately fled from the depot.

Palpitation of the heart, nervousness, tremblings, nervous headache, cold hands and feet, pain in the back, and other forms of weakness are relieved by Carter's Iron Pills, made especially for the blood, nerves and complexion.

Oakville, Canada, brings forward the champion mean man in a resident to whose dying wife the doctor prescribed wine. Wine could not easily be had, and the doctor furnished some from his private stores. When he sent his bill the sorrowing widower laid an information against him for selling liquor in a prohibition county contrary to the Scott law.

Hay Fever is a type of catarrh having peculiar symptoms. It is attended by an inflamed condition of the lining membrane of the nostrils, tear-ducts and throat, affecting the lungs. An acrid mucus is secreted, the discharge is accompanied with a burning sensation. There are severe spasms of sneezing, frequent attacks of headache, watery and inflamed eyes. Ely's Cream Balm is a remedy founded on a correct diagnosis of this disease and can be depended upon. 50cts. at druggists or by mail. Send for circular. Ely Bros., Druggists, Owego, New York.

A coroner's jury in the Holtz poisoning case at Hoboken, N. J., rendered a verdict that Gretchen and Ella Holtz came to their death by morphine poisoning through criminal carelessness of the druggist, Charles G. Amende, who in preparing a prescription used morphine instead of quinine. Amende is under bonds to await the action of the grand jury on a charge of manslaughter.

His Loss was Her Gain.

"Well madam," said a fashionable physician to a wealthy lady patient, "if you don't like my prescriptions, perhaps you had better try Parker's Tonic, or some other quack stuff." "You don't mean it, Doctor," she answered, "but your advice may be good for all that. Sometimes what you call 'quack stuff' is the best and most scientific medicine, after all." She got a bottle of Parker's Tonic and it cured her of neuralgia arising from disordered stomach and nerves. She told her friends, and now they all keep a doctor at home in the form of Parker's Tonic.

French engineers have succeeded in finding water in the desert country of southern Tunis. At the depth of more than 300 feet they struck a current which rushed forth from the surface with such velocity as to carry huge stones high into the air.

Getting Strong Again.

Fevers and exhausting chronic or acute diseases leave the patient, on his recovery, in a very pitiful state of prostration. Then it is that he needs a tonic upon which he can rely, one which, like Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, will accelerate convalescence, and aid the processes of digestion. That peerless invigorant compensates, as nothing else will, for depleted strength. After using it a short time the quondam invalid feels in every nerve and muscle that he is getting strong again. Appetite increases, there is a gain in weight, color and fullness return to the cheek, the lack-lustre eyes grow brighter, sleep is unbroken and refreshing. These gratifying experiences are renewed with each returning day, until completely restored in health and vigor, he returns to the avocations which his illness interrupted. Use the Bitters in billiousness, dyspepsia, rheumatism and constipation.

Dinners in the Murray Drawing-Room.

Murray was famous for his dinner parties, at which, moreover, however distinguished the guests, the conversation of the host contributed not inconsiderably to the feast of reason and the flow of soul. After an afternoon inspection of "two or three lions of the Quarterly Review in Murray's den"—George Ticknor in rather commercial language generally spoke of the drawing-room in Albemarle street as "Murray's literary exchange"—Washington Irving proceeds to give a report in his diary of "a very pleasant dinner at Murray's" when he had "a long tete-a-tete with old Disraeli," an unfailing guest of the son of his first publisher. "Murray, very merry and loquacious," showed Irving the MS. of the fourth canto of "Childe Harold," the arrival of which no doubt contributed to his elevation of spirits. "Dined with Murray," Ticknor records in his journal, "and had a genuine bookseller's dinner, such as Lintot used to give Hope and Gay and Swift, Dilly to Johnson and Goldsmith." Gifford, Campbell, and the inevitable Isaac Disraeli were the other guests, and the conversation was so entertaining that the American visitor was full of regret when the stroke of midnight broke up the party, "in accordance with English habits." To the testimonies of these two American gentlemen may be added those of a country-woman and countryman of Murray's, both of them distinguished people. "No house in London," writes Mrs. Somerville, "was more hospitable and agreeable than that of the late John Murray in Albemarle street," and she had seen what was best in the intellectual society of the London of her time. "His dinner parties were brilliant with all the poets and literary characters of the day, and Mr. Murray himself was gentleman-like, full of information, and kept up the conversation with spirit." Mrs. Somerville adds, respecting the great work which made her famous, "He generously published the Mechanism of the Heavens at his own risk, which, from its analytical character, could only be read by mathematicians." Then, again, the following still more striking verdict on the impression made by Murray's conversational powers is furnished by Lady Bell as that pronounced by her husband, Sir Charles, the distinguished surgeon, author of the Bridgewater Treatise on The Hand. "On Friday we dined at John Murray's, Albemarle street. A large party was assembled there, among others Tom Moore. I felt as if I had been gazing all night at sky-rockets. There were present Mr. and Mrs. Lockhart, Dr. and Mrs. Somerville, Sir Martin Shea, who led on Moore, Washington Irving, Mr. and Mrs. Murray, and ourselves. The talk was of wit, and Moore gave specimens. Charles thought that our host Murray said the best things that brilliant night." — F. Espinasse, in Harper's Magazine for September.

Notes.—By Bill Nye.

Down near Pitkin, Col., the iron cage of the Slim James mine broke loose while at the top of the shaft and fell on a man named Retire O'Donnell at the bottom of the mine. After some delay the cage was grappled and hauled to the top, when it was found that Retire was flattened out on the bottom.

Life was extinct.

A correspondent asks if it is healthy to sleep in a room with a lamp burning all night. We cannot answer, of course, as to its healthiness or unhealthiness; but a lamp, it would seem, is rather an odd thing to sleep with anyhow.

Not long ago two playful railroaders of the sunny South got into a little discussion in which Charles V. Anderson, one of the discussors, shot Archie Clark, the discussee, smashing his nose and blowing out his eye. Now see what a slight error on the part of Mr. Anderson has resulted. Had he smashed Clark's eye and blown his nose his feelings would not have been outraged.

During a revival in Wyoming not long ago, a converted German announced: "Off der Lort sbare my life der remainder off my days ant I ton't tie pefore dot time already, 'I serf Heem while I liff."

Everybody has expressed a desire to define the dude, and yet there can be no better definition than this, that he is one who should be fined for appearing on the street in men's clothes. He is a result of Oscar Wilde, and is as much the furniture of nature and art as is the slim-necked stork worked in a blue tidy with his hind leg sticking out into the azure atmosphere like the voluptuous hump on a camel. The dude is a growth upon the face of nature like a wart on the nose of a Venus de Medicine. He is like a distorted, modern patent rocker. We sit down on the rocker, and we sit down on the dude.

William Gifford, Editor of the "London Quarterly."

Perfect harmony subsisted from first to last between editor and publisher. Gifford soon became, moreover, and while he lived remained, Murray's chief literary adviser and confidant, whom he consulted on every occasion. Nor was the ex-editor of the Anti-Jacobin and seemingly merciless satirist of the Baviad and Mœviad at all a narrow-minded or an ill-natured man. A few years after the establishment of the Quarterly Review George Ticknor (ætat. 23) arrived in London with letters of introduction to Gifford among others, and the young American thus recorded the contrast between what he thought to have found and what he did find the Aristarch of the Quarterly Review. "Instead," Ticknor writes, "of a tall, handsome man, as I had supposed him to be from his picture, a man of sour and bitter remarks, as I had good reason to believe him for his books, I found him a short, deformed, and ugly little man, with a large head sunk between his shoulders, and one of his eyes turned outward, but withal one of the best-natured, most open, and well-bred gentlemen I have met." Gifford was from a literary point of view the severest and strictest of editors, writing little or nothing himself, but stern and sometimes trying in his revision of his contributors' articles.—F. Espinasse, in Harper's Magazine for September.

Some Superstitions.

At Smithill's hall, near Bolton-le-Moors, there is still to be seen—an object of interest and curiosity to a large number of visitors—the print of a man's foot in the flagstone. It is said to have been produced by George Marsh, who suffered martyrdom during the persecutions of Queen Mary in 1555. When on one occasion the truth of his words was called in question by his enemies he stamped his foot upon the stone on which he stood, which ever afterward bore the ineffaceable impression as a miraculous testimony to his veracity. This story must have been an afterthought to account for what we may suppose to have been a prehistoric Tanist stone. In connection with this modern legend another of a somewhat different character may be related. A good many years ago, at the back of the British Museum, there was a piece of waste ground called Southampton fields, noted as a resort for low characters. There was a tradition connected with it that two brothers in the Monmouth rebellion took opposite sides and engaged each other in fight. Both were killed, and forty impressions of their feet were traceable in the field for years afterward. The field has long been built over, and the precise locality can not now be pointed out. But Southey went to see the curious sight, and has given a graphic description of it in the second series of his "Commonplace Book." The impressions were about three inches deep in the hard soil; no grass ever grew in the terrible hollows, and no cultivation of the soil could obliterate them, for when the ground was plowed they persisted in reappearing. Southey mentions that he saw no reason to doubt the truth of the story, since it had been confirmed by these tokens for more than a hundred years successively. It is probably a fact with a circumstance—the circumstance, to say the least, extremely doubtful. Upon the legend, which was known far and wide, Jane and Anna Maria Porter based one of their popular romances, called "The Field of the Forty Footsteps;" and the Messrs. Mayhew took the same subject for a melodrama.—Blackwood's Magazine.

A colored man died in Chesterfield County last week, "leaving his thirteenth wife to mourn his loss." No better evidence could possibly be afforded of the vitalizing and bracing effects of the salubrious climate of this State. True, the remarkable powers of endurance displayed by the old man appear to have been offset by the poor health of his successive wives; but the wives were probably drawn from North Carolina, just across the line.—Charleston (S. C.) News.

Visitors to Switzerland in the last twenty years have been disappointed to find the glaciers, whose greatness tradition has gilded in, dwindling toward the heads of the valleys, and by their shrinkage uncovering fresh moraines and broad acres of bare rock and gray rubbish not attractive to the general visitor, however interesting to the geologist. Now, however, Science is informed, the shrinkage has come to a halt, and many glaciers seem to have begun a forward advance again, and are likely to recover the ground lost through a series of warm years.

BILIOUSNESS.

Bilious symptoms invariably arise from indigestion, such as furred tongue, vomiting of bile, giddiness, sick headache, irregular bowels. The liver secretes the bile and acts like a filter or sieve, to cleanse impurities of the blood. By irregularity in its action or suspensions of its functions, the bile is liable to overflow into the blood, causing jaundice, sallow complexion, yellow eyes, bilious diarrhœa, a languid, weary feeling and many other distressing symptoms. Biliousness may be properly termed an affection of the liver, and can be thoroughly cured by the grand regulator of the liver and biliary organs, DURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS. Act upon the stomach, bowels and liver, making healthy bile and pure blood, and opens the culverts and sluiceways for the outlet of disease. Sold everywhere and guaranteed to cure.

The Trouble at the Carolines.

Despatches from Madrid say that the Spanish commander at Manila telegraphs that when it was found that the German flag had been hoisted at Yap the governor of the Carolines, Babrilles, visited the commander of the German gunboat, and accused him of piracy and breach of International law. The German commander replied that he had simply obeyed orders. A hot argument ensued, ending in a scuffle, when the German commander retired to his ship. The governor then boarded the Spanish man-of-war San Quentin, and requested the captain to fire on the German gunboat. The captain refused, the governor of the Phillippines having ordered him to avoid a conflict. Babrilles ordered the crew to fire, whereupon the captain drew a revolver and threatened to shoot the first man who obeyed or repeated the order. Babrilles again ordered the men to fire, when the captain shot Babrilles in the shoulder. Babrilles was afterward taken as a prisoner to Manila, where he was put on trial. The Spanish government formally deny that there was an altercation on shore at Yap, but are silent in regard to what occurred on the ship. They admit that Babrilles ordered that the German gunboat be attacked.

The International Yacht Races.

In the race on Friday the Puritan rounded the outer mark at 5:37:56, almost exactly six hours from the start, the Genesta being then nearly two miles to leeward, with not enough wind to fill her sails. As it was manifestly impossible for the Puritan, under any condition of wind, to make the home stretch of twenty miles in an hour, as she would have to do to make the race within the time limit, the committee steamer Luckenbach hooked on to the Genesta and the tug Scandinavian was sent to the Puritan, and the two yachts were towed to anchorage in the Horseshoe. The boats were warned to be ready for another start at 10:20 A. M. on Saturday, the indications late Friday evening being that the light weather would continue through the next day.

The Genesta and Puritan got ready for a race on Saturday, but were not started, owing to the lack of wind. The racing committee concluded that the race on Monday—if the weather was such as to enable a race to take place—should be over the New York club course, from the Narrows around the Sandy Hook lightship and return.

POLITICS IN RYE.

Editor of Gazette: That sooner or later all office holders who are republicans will be removed, to make room for democrats, is what all republicans expect, and all talk from mugwumps to the contrary is simply bosh. It is plain to every one who has taken any interest in the matter, that the change is progressing just as fast as the work can be done, and the first assistant postmaster general makes no bones about his intention to remove all republican 4th class postmasters, and put democrats in their places. That's all right, and no good republican ought to grumble; and if the republican postmasters would only resign it would show their good sense.

Among the list of recent appointments of postmasters in Rockingham county is one for Rye, to take the place of the present postmaster who has only held the office since Jan. 1st, although the office is in the same place as it has been for the past twenty-five years, and which is considered by a large majority of its patrons as being the best place in Rye Center for the office; and when it was found that a petition was being circulated in favor of a change, many democrats prevailed on the present postmaster to circulate a petition requesting the postmaster general to continue him in office. The petition was signed by a majority of those who receive and send their mail from the office, irrespective of party; but of course it had no effect. Neither was it of any use to call attention to the case of the Rye beach postoffice, which has had for a postmaster ever since it was established in 1872, or thereabouts, a democrat, and one who, as is well known, is a very prominent, if not an "offensive" partisan. And not only has he held this office (which pays more than double what the Center one does) under republican administrations up to the 4th of March last, but he was for four years in a good-paying position in Washington, in the house of representatives, which was at that time democratic. Notwithstanding this, he was not molested in his postoffice, although there are good republicans in the immediate vicinity who could have performed its duties, perhaps as well as he; and, taking into consideration all these things, it would seem that it was not necessary for said postmaster to have interested himself so much in this matter of the Center office as report credits him with.

That there are some democrats in Rye who would never tolerate a republican in office if they could help it, is well known, and during the past fifty years there have been but five men, other than democrats, who have held any office in the gift of the voters of Rye. If there is any mistake in this assertion, let some one correct it if it can be done. And in the manning of the life-saving station, if there are any but democrats found there it is not because of indifference on the part of the democratic bosses of Rye.

HOOD'S

SARSAPARILLA

Has "decided" claims upon the public. This is positively proven by the immense good it has done to those who have been cured of diseases from which they have suffered intensely for years, as verified by the published testimonials, every one of which is a positive fact.

CHELSEA, VT., Feb. 24, 1879.

MESSRS. C. I. HOOD & CO., Lowell, MASS.: The 6th day of last June I was taken sick with a swelling on my right foot, and with an awful pain. The swelling went all over me. My face was swelled so that I could with difficulty see out of my eyes, and I broke out over the whole surface of my body; my right foot up to my knee was one raw, itching mass, and my ankle and foot so lame and sore I could not step on it, and it would run so as to wet a bandage through in an hour. In this condition Mr. W. F. Hood of the firm of A. B. Hood & Son, druggists, of this town, handed me a bottle of HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA, and told me to take it. I did so, and by the time I had taken one bottle I found that it was doing me good. I have since taken five bottles more. After I had taken three bottles my soreness began to leave me, and I have been growing better every day, so that to-day I can walk without going lame. I have no soreness in my ankle and it has healed all up, and does not run at all. I owe my recovery to your Sarsaparilla. I write this to let you know that I think it deserves the confidence of the public, especially those who are troubled with humors.

Yours most truly, JOSIAH PITKIN.

P. S. Every person that saw me said that I never would get over my lameness without having a running sore on my ankle; but "thank God I have." J. P.

No other Sarsaparilla has such a sharpening effect upon the appetite. No other preparation tones and strengthens the digestive organs like HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA.

Price one dollar, or six bottles for five dollars. Prepared only by C. I. HOOD & CO., Apothecaries, Lowell, Mass.

"Tropical, indeed, in one sense, these islands (Bermuda) are, for no frost ever visits them. The palm, banana, orange, lemon, paw-paw, India-rubber tree, with a profusion of flowers and vines, only seen in our northern green-houses, flourish here." It can be easily understood from the above that the Bermuda Isles have a very agreeable climate. Emil Chas: Pfeiffer will lecture on "Bermuda: from Experience," in the Lecture hall of the Association building (opposite the post-office) on Tuesday evening, Sept. 15th, at eight o'clock sharp: Tickets at Goodrich's, or at the door Tuesday evening.

HIGH SCHOOL EXERCISES.

We have obtained from Mr. John Pickard, principal of the high school, a programme in detail of the daily exercises at that institution. It may be interesting to our citizens to know what their children are doing in the school. The following table gives a list of the studies pursued at different hours of the day, by different classes, in accordance with the figures to be found at the right hand of each study named. These classes are in charge of the principal, 1st assistant, 2d assistant and third assistant, as indicated by their names over the top of each column of studies.

The principal is Mr. John Pickard, a native of Concord, N. H., a graduate of Dartmouth, class of '83, and recently from Ludlow, Vt., where he had charge of academy. His assistants are Miss Mathes, Miss Hooper and Miss Magraw. Mr. Pickard expresses a desire to see any citizen at the school at any time to see what progress is being made.

BASE BALL.

The game of base ball at Exeter, on Saturday last, between the Red Stockings of this city and the Clippers of Exeter, resulted, after five innings play, in a victory for the Red Stockings by the score of seven to one. The playing of the Portsmouth's was simply perfect, and where all did so well it would be invidious to discriminate; but the battery work of Newton and Trefethen was the strong feature of the game. When the crowd saw that their nine were doomed to defeat, (and it was the the most disorderly crowd ever seen on a ball field, largely composed of students,) they did everything possible to break up the game; and at the end of the fifth inning the captain of the Red Stockings refused to play the Clippers and the crowd too. The members of the Exeter club acted as gentlemen, with the possible exception of Sheehan, their pitcher, whom they had imported from the professional Archers of Manchester, who at times acted a little "fresh." The Red Stockings are in hopes to arrange a game with the same club, to come off on the Plains on Saturday next, the 19th. W.

"LORD TATTERS."

On Thursday evening next, in Music hall, the long-time favorite comedian Dan Maguinnis will appear in the title role of a new play written expressly for him by Charles Gaylor, Esq., and called "Lord Tatters." The synopsis of the play is as follows:

Sir Laftus O'Neil, an Irish patriot, becoming informed that he has been accused of treason, gives a grand dinner to his friends on the night of his intended secret departure for America. While dressing for the reception of his supposed friends, he is surprised by the officers of the law armed with a warrant for his arrest. His faithful servant, Murphy, suggests an exchange of costume to facilitate his escape, which is done, and he leaves with Murphy his coat, in the lining of which is concealed his entire fortune, amounting to one hundred thousand pounds in bank notes. O'Neil gets safely off. This event has transpired prior to the opening of the play. At the opening of the play Murphy appears in the character of a street ballad singer. Ten years have elapsed, during which time Murphy has pursued the calling of a street ballad singer, always wearing the coat in which the money is concealed, and which has become so old and tattered that he has received the cognomen of "Lord Tatters." Old Solomons, a Jew, derives his living from buying old court dresses for the sake of the gold lace thereon, and employs a second-hand clothes dealer by the name of Daddy Blake, to obtain them. Murphy's sister Norah, wishing to make him a birthday present, exchanges the tattered coat for a new one, and in an interview between Norah and Murphy, during which time Solomons is concealed in a clock in Murphy's room, Solomons learns of the treasure in the coat. O'Neil returning unexpectedly, comes for the money, and denounces Murphy when he learns of its loss. Murphy pledges himself to restore it, and finally succeeds in doing so. An under plot of the love of Norah for Jerry, a nephew of Old Blake, runs through the piece, and by the co-operation of Jerry the money is finally restored to O'Neil. The wife of Old Blake, who is an ardent admirer of Lord Tatters, and a sympathizer with Jerry in his love for Norah, contributes her efforts to the successful result, and all ends happily.

There will be a game of polo in the Casino this (Monday) evening, between the Dover and Portsmouth clubs.

Mr. William M. Thayer, formerly of this city and well-known as an editor and proprietor of the Evening Times, but for a dozen years or so past the night editor of the Boston Post, last week severed his connection with that paper, to engage actively in a railroad enterprise in which he has for several years been interested.

FORECLOSURE OF MORTGAGE.

THE subscriber gives notice that on the twenty-sixth day of March, A. D. 1885, he peaceably entered upon and took possession of a certain piece or parcel of land, situate in the town of Rye, in the County of Rockingham and State of New Hamoshire, bounded and described as follows: Northerly on the "South Road," being a road leading from the Sea View House to the sea by said premises; easterly by the sea and land in possession of Frank A. Philbrick, or heirs of J. C. Philbrick; southerly by said Philbrick land and land of Hon. Emmons B. Philbrick; and westerly by land of George G. Lougee; containing about seventeen acres more or less, together with the buildings, house, barn and out buildings, thereon, conveyed to me in mortgage by Albion R. Philbrick, of said Rye, by his deed dated April 5th, 1882, recorded in Rockingham Records of Deeds, Book 487, Page 116, for condition broken and for the purpose of foreclosing the right in equity of said Albion R. Philbrick to redeem the same; and at the same time I publicly declared the purpose and object of said entry and possession. JOHN W. F. HOBBS.

RYE, N. H., July 29th, 1885. eop14,21,28

The laying of bricks for the brewery drain was commenced opposite the westerly end of the Concord railroad station on Friday at noon, and the lower half of some forty feet of the sewer was completed on Saturday evening. Several large veins of water have been struck, and men were at work pumping all Saturday night, Sunday and Sunday night, keeping the deep trench free. The workmen on the lower end of Deer street struck the ledge five feet below the surface, about a hundred feet from the dock.

Sergeant Jackson Durling, U. S. M. C., for many years attached to the marine barracks at this navy yard, and who was long known as a resident of Kittery, has been placed on the retired list, having completed thirty years continuous service. He is at present at the Chelsea, Mass., naval hospital, for treatment of his eyes, the sight of which has nearly been destroyed from injury received in the service. The sergeant before entering the marine corps was in the regular army.

The brick schooners J. Chester Wood, D. K. Ham, Triton and Lillie, arrived from Boston on Saturday, light, and proceeded up river to load.

CHOLERA CRAMPS CHILLS

"An ounce of prevention," that is, a dose of SANFORD'S GINGER, "is worth a pound of cure," which, of course, means a doctor. It is absolutely certain that Cholera may be prevented, and, in the majority of cases, successfully treated, with SANFORD'S GINGER, a powerful stimulant, composed of Imported Ginger, choice Aromatics, and the best French Brandy; convenient, speedy and safe; sure to check summer complaint, prevent indigestion, destroy disease germs in water drank, restore the circulation when suspended by a chill, and ward off malarial, contagious, and epidemic influences.

Avoid mercenary dealers who for a few cents extra profit try to force upon you their own or others' when you call for

SANFORD'S GINGER

The Delicious Summer Medicine.

Cramps, Pains, Cholera Morbus, Diarrhœa, and Dysentery, whether produced by unripe fruit, impure water, unwholesome food, or change of climate, food or water, or any little ills of home or travel, such as Colds, Chills, Simple Fevers, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Sea-sickness, Exhaustion, Nervousness, Loss of Sleep, Debility and Dissipation, are instantly relieved by SANFORD'S GINGER, the safest, surest, an best summer medicine and travelling companion.

As a healthful summer drink with water, milk, iced water, lemonade, effervescent draughts and mineral waters, it is the best.

Beware of worthless "gingers," said to be "as cool," or "the same," or "as ranger," or "cheaper" than SANFORD'S GINGER. Ask for

How It Was!

At the battle of Gettysburg I was shot through the left leg and was sent to the hospital. The army surgeons relieved me but pronounced my case incurable. It discharged pieces of bone, and for years I have suffered with a running sore. I tried everything which my limited means would allow, and experienced no relief until I tried Sulphur Bitters. I am now almost well, and shall continue their use.—Old Soldier.

Getting Strong Again.

Fevers and exhausting chronic or acute diseases leave the patient, on his recovery, in a very pitiful state of prostration. Then it is that he needs a tonic upon which he can rely, one which, like Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, will accelerate convalescence, and aid the processes of digestion. That peerless invigorant compensates, as nothing else will, for depleted strength. After using it a short time the quondam invalid feels in every nerve and muscle that he is getting strong again. Appetite increases, there is a gain in weight, color and fullness return to the cheek, the lack-lustre eyes grow brighter, sleep is unbroken and refreshing. These gratifying experiences are renewed with each returning day, until completely restored in health and vigor, he returns to the avocations which his illness interrupted. Use the Bitters in billiousness, dyspepsia, rheumatism and constipation.

—In playing a game of seven-up with a young lady from St. Paul, a wicked Bismarcker told her that every time she held the jack of trumps, it was a sure sign that her lover was thinking of her. Then he watched her face at each deal, and every time she blushed and looked pleased, led out and caught her jack.

Warden A. A. Brush, of the Sing Sing, New York, State Prison, says Brandreth's Pills are the most valuable cathartic he ever used. He has been a great sufferer from rheumatism and blood poisoning, but obtained very little relief from medicine or doctors until he commenced using Brandreth's Pills. He took fifty pills in ten days. They not only cured him of rheumatism, but gave him a vigorous appetite and purified his blood completely.

—"Is the musical critic in? My name is 'iggins. I 'ave just arrived from Hengland and am about to sing 'ere. I would like to 'ave you mention in your notice my chest notes—" Here the umpire of the concert-room glared at him and growled: "Chestnuts! Oh, you want to see the funny man over in the dark corner there."

Scott's Emulsion of Pure Cod Liver Oil, with Hypophosphites

In Loss of Appetite and General Debility.

Messrs. Ramsey & Co., of Sharpsburg, Pa., makes the following report: "That they recommended a friend suffering from loss of appetite and general debility, Scott's Emulsion, that after taking half dozen bottles, he reported, that he ate well, feels well, and is in fact a new man, and recommends it highly."

Some surprise is expressed at the remark of Edward Everett Hale in his speech at Chatauqua that the style of Gen. Grant's history is the best narrative English that has been produced in this century. But, bating a little exaggeration, the meaning of the remark is entirely true, that the simplest and plainest method of telling a story is the best, when the story itself is one of transcendent importance. Grace of style too often only conceals the want of thought or the feebleness of the theme, while it is merely an obstruction or a disfigurement when the substance is supreme. One of the plainest, and yet one of the most fascinating, works in the English language is Lord Dundonald's "Recollections of a Seaman," and the writer of history would do better to give his days and nights to the study of the diction of Wellington's dispatches than to that of Addison or Macaulay. In this sense the style of Gen. Grant's narrative is a model, and deserves the praise which is given it.—Providence Journal.

Patience.

Have patience, heart!
That were no rose that were not first a closed bud.
How comes the day? Not with the noonday sun o'erhead,
But slowly stealing up the east, in faintest red,
Have patience, heart! Whit so thine own life's dawning good.

Have patience, heart!
Seek not at morn to make the day as bright as noon.
Force not the bud, before its time to be a rose;
How slowly, when we watch the sky, the daylight grows;
And yet, for all, indeed, the sun goes down too soon.

Have patience, heart!
For rain will come; thine own self knows how tear-drops fall.
Seek not to stay the clouds before they've spent their rain,
Or else across the sky the clouds may come again.
Have patience, grieving heart! for good must come to all.

Have patience, heart!
What though no kisses fall upon thy tired eyes,
And love holds not its rose to thee, nor day is fair?
Mourn not: perhaps thy love needs heaven's purer air.
Oh, heart! be sure 'twill wait for thee in Paradise.

—Amy E. Blanchard, in Harper's Weekly.

BILL'S CHILD.

No one ever knew where the child came from, or even its name.

One day a sloop freighted with brick was unloading up town, and a hand on deck was tossing bricks, two by two, to another man on the dock. All of a sudden a wee little chap, not more than 2 years old, came toddling along, got right in the way, and was knocked over by the flying bricks.

Bill Forster, who was handling the load, was a rough man. It had not been exactly his fault that the child had been knocked down, still he felt very sorry for it. The little fellow's head was badly cut, and he was stunned. He was carried into the cabin of the sloop, and there lay quite motionless. The Captain of the sloop sent to the police station, and the surgeon came. The child was carefully examined. The surgeon said the case might be a serious one and that the little boy had better be taken to the hospital. Forster had a sister, who worked in a laundry, and at once he sent for her. Molly Forster hurried down to the wharf, took the child in her lap, and listened breathlessly to what the surgeon said.

The cabin of the brick sloop was not a handsome place to look at. It was dirty and slovenly, hot and close. Molly Forster set about making it tidy. She opened the little windows of the cabin, and kept off the crowd who were swarming in the narrow quarters. She fanned the child, laid it on a coarse pillow, having first spread her clean apron overit, and bathed the poor baby's head, trying to stanch the flow of blood from the wound. "If," said the surgeon, "you could keep the child perfectly quiet for a while it would be all for the better. I am afraid to jolt him in the ambulance. Maybe he will come to after long." It is rather cooler here on the river than in the hot wards of a hospital. Can you take charge of him until I come back? I will see you this evening." Molly had already torn up her handkerchief and bandaged the child's head. Now she followed the surgeon's directions. The doctor was a humane man, for when he left he put a half dollar into Molly's hand and told her to buy some ice to cool the water she was using on the bandages.

Molly Forster fanned and fanned that little sufferer, and bathed its head, and was tender with the child. About sunset the surgeon came again, and just then the child opened his eyes.

"Well, that's a good sign," said the doctor. "Now hadn't you better advertise him since no one has come for him? Somebody will claim him, I suppose. I can arrange for you to keep him if you want to."

Although the accident was reported in two brief lines in all the newspapers, and notwithstanding the efforts of the police to find the parents of the child, no one ever came for it. All that night Molly Forster nursed the child. Occasionally Bill would push his hard-lined and weather-beaten face into the cabin window and look wistfully at the little child. He never went to sleep that night, but kept walking up and down the deck. At daybreak he said to Molly in a hoarse whisper: "Molly, take that kid to your room. It's got to be done."

Bill Forster, who was a man of 40, I have said was rough. I do not know how it happens, but handling bricks seems to make people coarse and rather brutal. Bill would take not only one glass of whisky, but as many as he could drink. Mixing with a crowd of men worse than he was who frequented rumshops, he was much given to fighting, and his face was as often as not disfigured with a black eye or a cut lip. Bill earned about a dollar and a quarter a day, and when the week was up he never had a penny left. Perhaps if Bill had not been a little drowsy and stupid that morning from too much liquor the day before when the little chap got in the way he (Bill) would have been more careful how he threw his bricks.

The week after Molly had taken charge of the child Bill resisted the temptation to go on a spree and gave his sister a dollar and a half. That was the first time for years that he had ever saved a cent. The week after that Bill did even better. There was Molly working as hard as she could at the wash board or the ironing board, earning 70 cents a day, and feeding the child. That shamed Bill. It happened that the little boy's short frock had been stained with blood. Molly had carefully washed it, but still Bill thought he saw stains on it and that worried him sick.

Next week, when he saw his sister, who was waiting on the wharf for him with the little fellow in his arms, he said, "See here, Molly, its kind of hard on you, having to feed this little fellow. Bread and milk and potatoes costs money, and nursing him takes away lots of your time. Anyways, a dressing of that kid would be just ruination to you. Here's a dollar and a half for his keep, and here's a dollar besides, and buy calico or something and make a frock for that child, and mind you burn the one he's got on, and next time I sees him let him be looking prime. Won't you?"

"It's mighty good of you, Bill—and just you wait. I'll rig him out. He isn't a bit of trouble. When I'm at work I take him to the laundry, and he's a real pet there. I used to be afraid he was kind of dazed—but don't you bother, Bill, he's all right, for he takes to playing now. He's only quiet on account of his natural sweetness—all real good children's that way—and I love him, just as if he was my own baby."

On the next trip up the North River Bill Forster pondered a great deal over the child. The fact is, the child, whether he was awake or asleep, was never for a moment out of Bill's mind. He had never thought much about anything before, and it was hard work for him to think at all. Maybe because for more than one-half of life his brain had been muddled by liquor he had never set it working. As the empty sloop floated up the broad river, slowly moving with the tide, Bill sat in the shade of the flapping jib and argued with himself, and the general conclusions he arrived at were by no means flattering to himself.

"The beginning and the ending of this here is rum. I've wasted nigh on to 25 years of my life. Why hasn't the boom of that mainsail knocked the stupid brains out of me before this? What have I got to show for 40 year of life? Just these here ragged and brick-soiled clothes I stands in. Came near murdering a child, did you, you good-for-nothing beast? Didn't have no better sense nor that? A herding with drunken sailors, you big blackguard, and not knowing nothing better? Just fitten to toss bricks from on and off a sloop. That's the best you kin do. You took a drink this morning, and you feel sharp set for another just this blessed minute. You can't get it because you are on the river where grogshops ain't floating round. Ain't you man enough to go to Haverstraw and no matter what happens say Bill Forster, don't you take another drink no matter if another fellow does stand treat? There's lots of things that kid wants. There's a whip, likewise a pair of shoes, and when Winter comes flannel petticoats and wool socks; likewise Christmas presents. Now, you loafer of a Bill Forster, every time you see the bottom of a glass ain't you guzzling down something that little shaver wants? Maybe it's just like you, you white-livered purp; you'll be letting your sister be a taking of the victuals out of her own mouth so as to feed 'em to that child, and it was me as shoved the kid on her. Maybe you'll be hunting around for more babies to knock over with bricks you good-for-nothing lounging Portuguee."

When Bill had called himself a Portuguese he had poured the last drop from his private vial of wrath on his own head. Bill helped to load the sloop with brick at Haverstraw, and although it was a hot, sultry day and the work was heavy, he never took a drink. The other hands might come back, smacking their lips and bantering him, but he stood firm.

Another Dose of "Reform."

The second controller of the treasury is having a beautiful time in trying to prove that Admiral Jouett must pay for all the civilities extended to official guests on the flagship at the opening of the New Orleans Exposition. He declares that the contingent fund cannot be drawn upon to meet any expenses save those that are "at least appropriate and convenient" for the performance of duties required by the department. It will strike the average man that Admiral Jouett would hardly have been performing the duties of his position as representative of the navy if he had not returned civilities shown to him in his official capacity. Next to humiliating the nation's consuls in the eyes of foreigners, about the shabbiest thing this administration has done is to humiliate its naval officers at home.—New York Tribune.

If this peculiar feature of this species of interpretation of the law is sound, it follows that it is not the secretary of the navy or his proper representative who is regarded as capable of judging of the propriety of an expenditure of any part of the contingent fund, but a subordinate officer of another cabinet minister.

This rule carried out would result in the secretary of the navy being compelled to study up not only the voluminous decisions of the late Comptroller Lawrence, but to anticipate the possible notions of the present comptroller before he could send a telegraph dispatch or spend a cent of the contingent fund for any purpose. An administation which is to run upon this one-horse principle is quite capable of ordering the mails sent to Cuba by a schooner, to the utter inconveniences of all business correspondents, or of bringing silver dollars from New Orleans by men-of-war, instead of keeping contracts made in good faith by its predecessors.

The trouble with Mr. Cleveland's men is simply that without any idea of advancing the interests of the country; without a single purpose of doing anything but cutting off every expenditure, which will result in so filling the treasury that a plausible excuse can be found for reducing the tariff—the men now in office constitute themselves a high court of errors to condemn as illegal, and disallow as unnecessary, expenditures made by their predecessors with full knowledge of the then requirements in every instance, concerning which of course, the present regime is incapable of judging. Fancy the administration of President Lincoln stopping in its progressive steps toward putting down the rebellion, to unearth the alleged wrongs committed under President Buchanan's administration!

But the democrats in power will ere long discover that the country wants the vigor of the administration, if it possesses any, exerted in some other direction that in overhauling the acts of its predecessors in the hope of possibly finding something to condemn. It may be that many of the importuning place-hunters can as yet be provided for in no better way, than in this species of employment; but if Mr. Cleveland expects to have his administration turn out anything more than a miserable failure, he must find for his subordinates in office something to do besides endeavoring to discover irregularities which have failed to be developed after the rigid scrutiny of accounting officers of the treasury and the exhaustive labors of congressional investigating committees created by democrats. In the meantime, the lot of the secretary of the navy is not likely to prove a happy one. Between the rigid construction of the second comptroller upon the expenditures of a good Kentucky democrat like Jouett, who must be highly astonished at being brought up with a round turn by one of his own faith, and the possible curiosity of certain republican congressmen who may for some time to come have leisure to discuss, if not to enquire into his mode of administration, the secretary will have to steer his craft with great caution and keep his weather eye wide open.

The International Yacht Races.

After many days and many abortive trials, the Puritan and Genesta on the 14th inst. succeeded in sailing one of the races which are to decide if the America's cup is to remain on this side of the Atlantic a while longer. The race was over what is known as the New York yacht club course, a distance of thirty-eight miles, and the yachts crossed the starting line together at 10:34 A. M. The wind was light, and part of the time the racers were becalmed; but the Puritan crossed the winning line at 4:38 P. M., and the Genesta at 4:47, the sloop winning by nine minutes.

The Genesta has been entered for the Bennett-Douglas cup race, the Brenton's reef race and the Cape May race of the New York yacht club, to be sailed at short intervals as soon as the championship races are over; the Puritan will probably sail in the first-named, and the Priscilla in all three.

—A certain sexton, in making his report of burials, is explicit to a commendable degree. For instance, such entries as this occur: "Died, John Smith; male; aged three days; unmarried."

—A smart girl can make about 3,500 cigarettes in a day. One thousand cigarettes will spoil one smart boy. One smart girl can thus spoil 3 1-2 smart boys per diem, or something over 1,000 smart boys per annum.

News from Genoa is to the effect that the steamer Villa de Malaga, with sixty passengers and a crew of twenty-eight, foundered near Savona. When the vessel, which was supposed to have struck upon a rock, was found to be sinking, a panic ensued among the passengers, and the crew, it is said, availed themselves of the confusion thus created to lower three boats, with which the vessel was provided, and made good their escape from the sinking ship. Forty-four passengers, however, managed to save themselves, the remaining sixteen being drowned.

ASSOCIATIONS.

"The Woodward Underground Telegraph and Telephone Company of New England," was incorporated in this city on Saturday, with a capital of $500,000, to furnish electrical services of all kinds, including electric lights and telephone and telegraph service, by lines laid underground. The company expects to work under the "Woodward patents," so called, and will, it is said, soon commence to lay its lines in this state. David O. Wade of Hull, Mass., is president, and A. T. Woodward of New York city, vice president and general manager.

At the meeting of the Woman's Temperance League last Thursday afternoon, the following officers were chosen:

President, Mrs. A. W. Haven;
1st Vice Pres't, Mrs. James Sanborn;
2d Vice Pres't, Mrs. T. Deverson;
Rec. Sec., Mrs. R. D. Smart;
Cor. Sec., Mrs. Perkins;
Treasurer, Miss Candage;
Asst. Treas., Miss Pickering;
Chaplain, Mrs. Pettigrew.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Carolina Queen Consolidated Mining company was held at the Kearsarge house in this city on the 7th inst., at which time the following-named gentlemen were elected as its board of directors to serve for the ensuing year:

Dr. C. H. Starr, Dr. A. P. Lighthill, C. W. Wellington, N. B. Ingersol, Geo. S. Loring, Thos. E. Smith and H. A. Tarlton.

Subsequently at a directors' meeting the following officers were elected:

Dr. C. H. Starr, president;
Dr. A. P. Lighthill, vice president;
C. W. Wellington, treasurer;
H. A. Tarlton, secretary;
George S. Loring, clerk of directors.

Rev. H. C. Munson of Portland, Grand Worthy Chief Templar of the Grand Lodge of Maine, I. O. G. T., will visit Whipple Lodge at Kittery Village on Wednesday evening, the 15th inst. All Good Templars are invited to be present.

"LORD TATTERS."

Of the first performance of "Lord Tatters," at the Bangor opera house last week, the Commercial says:

Mr. Maguinnis last night met with a most enthusiastic reception. On appearing on the stage he was greeted with loud and continued applause. His songs were applauded again and again. * * The support of the company is very good. Mr. P. J. McCullum, as Solomons, the Jew, is very acceptable. Miss Earle Reimington in the part of Norah is a great actress, and what is equally essential to her part, is a good singer and dancer. The character of Jerry, Norah's lover, was well acted by Mr. William E. Hines, and the other parts were well taken.

At Music hall on Thursday evening, 17th inst. Tickets at Goodrich's; now on sale.

POLICE COURT--BATCHELDER J.

MONDAY, Sept. 14th.

John C. Barrett was before the court in the morning, charged with an assault on Mary Barrett, his sister; the case was continued till afternoon, and then dismissed, the complainant not appearing.

Wm. L. Stackpole of North Hampton was held in $100 to appear before the supreme court to answer to a charge of selling adulterated milk to the Lynn Milk Co. Mr. Stackpole stoutly maintains that he has done nothing of the kind as charged, and at once gave bonds.

OLD-TIME FISHING.

About fifty years ago, when the Nobles were extensively engaged in the fishing business on the island which now bears their name, the outfit of the "pinque" schooners consisted, so far as provisions were concerned, of one barrel of hard bread for each man, plenty of clear salt pork, about a bushel of Indian meal and a small butter firkin of flour; and just before sailing a barrel was sent up to the distillery and filled with New England rum, which was not to be broached until the arrival of the vessel on the fishing grounds. The rum was paid for equally by the crew, which generally consisted of seven men; in addition, each man carried his own private jug, to last him until the barrel was tapped. The routine of meals on these vessels consisted of corned fish for breakfast, cod's head chowder for dinner, and fried cods' heads for supper, with tea; on Sunday morning the flour was used for pancakes; and with this kind of fare the men used to come back from their three months' trip as fat as cubs. The fish caught were generally cured, pressed into drums and shipped to the West Indies at $1.50 per quintal; and if a man cleared $100 for the season he thought he had done a good business. It was all hand-line work then, the trawl and net not coming into use until many years later.

"As Bermuda first appears distinctly above the horizon, one is literally entranced with its beautiful formation and peaceful serenity." "Bermuda: from Experience," is the subject of the lecture which Emil Chas: Pfeiffer will deliver in the Lecture hall of the Association building (opposite postoffice) at eight o'clock this evening. Tickets at Goodrich's, or the door.

It is said that as soon as Mr. Frank Jones had seen the last of the office-seekers, and had reached the broad Atlantic where not even a lighthouse was to be beheld as a reminder of a promise to some applicant for a place under the administration, he began to recuperate his health, and to appreciate the benefits of absence from boredom. But his mantle fell upon the mayor, who was at once besieged for places on the navy yard, a job on the city or a chance at the big sewer. The mayor's office was turned as if by magic into an employment bureau, or rather a place for visitors who sought to obtain a good situation. The strain has proved too much for the physique of the mayor, and he, too, has succumbed, and has sought seclusion in some distant terra incognita, where the tramp of the unemployed does not disturb his quiet meditations, and where requests for a job on the yard are unheard. Thus it seems that to be a leader of the democracy in these days proves no bed of roses. Fortunately the men of influence in the party in our locality are few, though we should not be surprised at any time to learn that the ex-mayor, or whoever is understood to represent the administration during the temporary absence of the recuperating leaders, should in like manner become overwhelmed.

Mr. John O. Downs has bought the house on the westerly corner of Daniel and Linden streets. Mr. John H. Cheever is reported to have bought the house on State street occupied by Dr. A. B. Sherburne. The Barnabee house, so-called, on Chatham street, has been bought by Mr. Leonard Leach.

The legislature having adjourned, the midday train between this city and Concord has been withdrawn, and the sum required to run the train has been invested in stained glass for a window in the rotunda of the new passenger station at Concord.

Mr. J. Horace Jenness will sail on Wednesday, the 16th inst., in the steamer Normandie, from New York for Paris.

The contractor for the big sewer commenced on Monday afternoon to fill in a portion of the trench about thirty feet long, the sewer for that distance having been completed. The bricks are laid with Newark (American) cement, mixed with an equal quantity of sand.

The public library, which was closed during the summer, opened again on Friday evening of last week. It will now be open for the giving out of books on the evenings of Monday, Tuesday, Friday and Saturday, and on Saturday afternoons.

Hon. George M. Robeson left Little Boar's head on Monday for Princeton, N. J. He will return this week, and leave for the season on the 20th inst.

Albert Batchelder, at his house and cottages at Little Boar's head, still has seventy-five guests.

The steamer Appledore will cease running between this city and the Shoals this week, probably on Thursday or Friday.

Miss Lulu Emery, pianist and zither player, assisted by Miss Fannie P. Hoyt of Newington, violinist, and Mr. and Mrs. Littlefield, will give a choice concern of instrumental and vocal music in the Town hall at Greenland this Tuesday evening, Sept. 15th, commencing at 7:30 o'clock; admission twenty-five cents.

Mr. John E. Giddings is putting up a building for a free public library in Tilton, the gift of a liberal lady. Mr. Giddings is also erecting, under contract, a school building for the town of Beverly, Mass.

—A little Norwich girl, to whom the "Amen" which closed her nightly prayer had become a little monotonous, asked her mother why she could not say "A Woman" once in a while. She did not think it ought to be "Amen" all the time.

—The Easton Express doubts whether the confident assertion of Dr. Talmage, that the so-called tobacco used is only "a mixture of colt's foot, lampblack, sawdust, plantain leaves, fuller's earth, lime, salt, alum, and a little tobacco," will discourage a genuine lover of tobacco.

—"Why don't you challenge him, colonel?" "Because duelling is agin the law in this state," replied the colonel; "but if I ever get a chance I'll assassinate him."

Getting Strong Again.

Fevers and exhausting chronic or acute diseases leave the patient, on his recovery, in a very pitiful state of prostration. Then it is that he needs a tonic upon which he can rely, one which, like Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, will accelerate convalescence, and aid the processes of digestion. That peerless invigorant compensates, as nothing else will, for depleted strength. After using it a short time the quondam invalid feels in every nerve and muscle that he is getting strong again. Appetite increases, there is a gain in weight, color and fullness return to the cheek, the lack-lustre eyes grow brighter, sleep is unbroken and refreshing. These gratifying experiences are renewed with each returning day, until completely restored in health and vigor, he returns to the avocations which his illness interrupted. Use the Bitters in billiousness, dyspepsia, rheumatism and constipation.

"Well madam," said a fashionable physician to a wealthy lady patient, "if you don't like my prescriptions, perhaps you had better try Parker's Tonic, or some other quack stuff." "You don't mean it, Docter," she answered, "but your advice may be good for all that. Sometimes what you call 'quack stuff' is the best and most scientific medicine, after all." She got a bottle of Parker's Tonic and it cured her of neuralgia arising from disordered stomach and nerves. She told her friends, and now they all keep a doctor at home in the form of Parker's Tonic.

BILL'S CHILD.

"No use, boys," said Bill. "I did the business for that baby—and once is enough. I have got to take keer of him. It stands to reason. None of you is family men like me.' I kin stand as much running as the best of you, but don't you try and rub it in too steep! I hain't the reputation of being sweet-tempered, and mebbe I kin teach some of you manners."

It must be stated that there really was no necessity for Bill's excited words, for the hands on the sloop seemed to take in the situation at once, and rather respected the way Bill assumed his self-imposed duties.

Down the river Bill was thinking what name the child ought to have. Should it be George Washington, Ulysses Grant, or Moses? He knew all the names of the steamboats going up to Albany, and to call the child "Albany" or "Vibbard" was suggested to him. At last he made up his mind that Molly should have the naming of the child. "She's got most rights to him, anyways." Then he felt kind of melancholy with the idea that somebody might come later and claim the child. Bill had never read a story book in his life, so no romance of a rich father and mother coming in a carriage to demand their lost baby presented itself to his imagination.

Bill became parsimonious, and that week saved almost every cent of his wages. He begrudged himself even the tobacco he chewed. He only kept sufficient money for his most meagre wants. He never took a drink and declined being treated. To Molly he gave his money.

Sure enough, the little boy, when Bill next saw him, had on a new frock, and with what pride Molly exhibited him to her brother!

"He just looks like a daisy, Molly. Isn't he pretty! Kind of sleepy, ain't he, Molly?"

"He does sleep a good deal, but that's natural, Bill. Much you know about babies! But, Bill, what's this pile of money for? I ain't spent all you gave me yet. I don't want it and the child don't. His cost for keep is so little. It's mighty good of you, Bill; and now and then you can give him a bit of clothes. As you say, when Winter comes the poor little lamb will want thicker things, and they cost more money. Here, I ain't going to take this, depriving you of your hardearned wages"—and Molly made a motion as if to return the handful of silver.

"But, Moll, just hold hard a minute. He mayn't want it now. Supposin' work was slack and I didn't earn nothing. You have got to keep the cash for the time the boy grows. He's got to go to school, and has got to look as nice as any other boy. He's to be heddicated—know something more nor handling bricks. Don't he do a lot of sleeping, Molly?" inquired Bill anxiously.

"Oh! don't you keep worrying about him. He's been playing ever so sweet. Maybe he's one of them children what talks late in life, and they, so I hear tell, is always the smartest in the long run. Fact is, Bill, I have a surprise for you. He never said a word before yesterday. I was afraid myself he was kind of dumb."

Bill averted his face and then looked out on the water, for the brother and sister were talking on the dock.

"But—but, to-day, Bill he said 'mad-der' so sweet, and then he said it over and over again, and held out his pretty little mouth to be kissed. Oh, Bill, his senses is coming back to him, slow, but sure;" and Molly cuddled the sleeping child closer to her breast.

Bill kept right on in the good way he had planned for himself, and never swerved a hair's breadth. Molly was his savings bank. Brother and sister contributed to the child's support. In a month Bill was richer than he had ever been in his life. Then he insisted that Molly should rent a better room. The one she lived in, he said, looked out on a dingy, dreary back yard. "Stands to reason," said Bill, "that a baby should see horses and trucks and things a-moving about in the streets. It makes 'em lively."

"Little Bill"—so they called him (Molly insisting that her brother's name should serve for the child)—improved, but too slowly for big Bill. The police surgeon was called in, Bill Forster insisting on paying him a fee. The opinion the doctor gave was a guarded one. "There is manifest improvement—not, perhaps, as rapid as I should wish. You are a capital nurse, ma'am, and I am sure your kindness and attention will help the child. He will come round, I believe."

The cool weather came, and with lowering temperatures the doctor hoped the child would gain strength. The cicatrice on the head had quite healed. Slowly the little boy seemed to acquire new words. Molly wondered at them at times, and thought that she had taught them to the child; but then again the little fellow's adopted mother was startled by words she felt quite certain the child had picked up somewhere else. These new words came to the child at first vaguely. He would repeat them over and over again, at first hesitatingly, then giving them a slight emphasis, as if to fix them on his mind something like a little bird that pipes the first faint tune it has heard.

The child was more awake now. This change delighted Molly. It never was fretful. The child would lay quiet, with its blue eyes wide open for hours, without a whimper.

So it went on for another week or two. Bill, who was always coming and going, when he left New York for a trip up the river, was happy, for the child was bettering fast, so he believed.

It was an October evening when, as the brick sloop was being brought up to the wharf, Bill saw Molly leaning against one of the big wooden posts of the dock. Bill was busy with the hawser, but at once he saw that his sister did not have the child in her arms; more than that, she was crying.

Bill choked down his grief—he seemed to know at once what had happened. One last hope there was. Maybe it was so cool that Molly had been afraid to bring the child with her.

"Bill," said Molly, sobbing, "the poor little fellow has gone to—to heaven. It was last night. He called to me and said: 'Good-night, mud-der; good-night, far-der—now I am going walking in garden—good—good night!' Oh, Bill, he had never spoken so long a string of words before—then he played for a moment with a ring on my finger, and then he added. 'God bless far-der and mud-der, and then he looked so lovingly at me, and around the room as if searching for you—and then he died—so quiet! Bill! Bill! don't you take on so! It was an accident, and God and his little child have no fault to find with you."

DISFIGURING HUMORS, Humiliating Eruptions, Itching and Burning Skin Tortures, Loathsome Sores, and every species of Itching, Scaly, Pimply, Inherited, Scrofulous, and Contagious Diseases of the Blood, Skin, and Scalp, with Loss of Hair, from infancy to old age, are positively cured by CUTICURA RESOLVENT, the New Blood Purifier, internally, and CUTICURA, the Great Skin Cure, and CUTICURA SOAP, an exquisite Skin Beautifier, externally.

ECZEMA CURED.

I was afflicted with Eczema on the Scalp, Face, Ears and Neck, which the Best Druggists, where I got your remedies, pronounced one of the worst cases that had come under his notice. He advised me to try your CUTICURA REMEDIES, and after five days use, my scalp and part of my face were entirely cured, and I hope in another week to have my ears, neck, and the other part of my face cured. HERMAN SLADE, 120 E. 4th St., New York.

SCABS AND SORES.

I have been afflicted since last March with a Skin disease the doctors called Eczema. My face was covered with scabs and sores, and the itching and burning were almost unbearable. Seeing your CUTICURA REMEDIES so highly recommended, concluded to give them a trial, using the CUTICURA and CUTICURA SOAP externally, and RESOLVENT internally, for four months. I call myself cured, in gratitude for which I make this public statement. MRS. CLARA A. FREDERICK, Broad Brook, Conn.

CUTICURA REMEDIES are sold everywhere. Price CUTICURA, 50c.; RESOLVENT, $1.00; SOAP, 25c. Prepared by the POTTER DRUG AND CHEMICAL CO., Boston, Mass.

Great Dangers.

Three great dangers menace the traveller at every turn. They are climate, food and water. To guard against them requires judgment, abstinence and SANFORD'S GINGER.

This unrivalled household panacea and travelling companion is sure to check any disturbance of the bowels, instantly relieve cramps and pains, prevent indigestion, destroy disease germs in water drank, restore the circulation when suspended by a chill, a frequent cause of cholera morbus, ward off colds and fevers, and ward off malarial, contagious, and epidemic influences.

SANFORD'S GINGER is a delicious combination of Jamaica and Ginger, Choice Aromatics, and French Brandy, and is the finest extract of ginger ever compounded in the history of medicine. Ask for

SANFORD'S GINGER.

Cholera morbus, cramps, pains, diarrhœa, dysentery, indigestion, colds, chills, simple fevers, exhaustion, nervousness or loss of sleep, whether caused by unripe fruit, impure water, unhealthy climate, unwholesome food, malaria, epidemic or contagious diseases that beset the traveller or household at this season, can have no serious influence on those protected by a timely use of SANFORD'S GINGER.

As a summer drink, with hot or cold water, sweetened, or hot or cold milk, or added to ice water, lemonade, effervescent draughts or mineral waters, SANFORD'S GINGER forms a refreshing and invigorating beverage, unequalled in simplicity and purity, while free from alcoholic excitation. A little should be added to every glass of water drank.

Commissioners.

Incorporated in 1868 for 25 years by the Legislature for Educational and Charity purposes—with a capital of $1,000,000—to which a reserve fund of over $350,000 has since been added.

By an overwhelming popular vote its franchise was made a part of the present State Constitution adopted December 2d, A. D., 1879.

The only Lottery ever voted on and endorsed by the people of any State.

It never scales or postpones.

Carter's Little Liver Pills will positively cure sick headache and prevent its return. This is not talk, but truth. One pill a dose. To be had of all druggists. See advertisement.

Col. Henry Starfey of Swanzey celebrated his ninetieth birthday Sept. 8th; one hundred decendants were present.

If you are tired taking the large old-fashioned griping pills, and are satisfied that purging yourself till you are weak and sick is not good common sense, then try Carter's Little Liver Pills and learn how easy it is to be free from biliousness, headache, constipation, and all liver troubles. These little pills are smaller, easier to take and give quicker relief than any pill in use. Forty in a vial. One a dose. Price 25 cents.

Tired, Languid, Dull,

Exactly expresses the condition of thousands of people at this season. The depressive effects of warm weather, and the weak condition of the body, can only be corrected by the use of a reliable tonic and blood purifier like Hood's Sarsaparilla. Why suffer longer when a remedy is so close at hand? Take Hood's Sarsaparilla now. It will give you untold wealth in health, strength, and energy.

A Timely Provision.

An instance showing how fortunate for a man's family was a judicious act of life insurance is found in the case of Geo. A. Lockhart of this city, who died on the 12th inst. of fever. Mr. Lockhart was of the class of unexceptionally healthy men who bid fair to live long. His habits were excellent. Of a family of twelve children, all but he now survive. His parents are both living, and a grandmother of eighty summers indicates the longevity of his family.

Mr. Lockhart, unlike very many men, who postpone making suitable provision for their families in case of certain events sooner or later to occur, effected an insurance in the Mutual Life Insurance Co. of New York on the 18th of May, for $1000, semi-endowment, with quarterly payments, making the cost of his insurance comparatively easy to be met. Without this provision Mr. Lockhart's bereaved family, consisting of a widow and two young children, would have been left entirely without pecuniary means. As it is the company will, as is their rule, promptly pay to the widow the amount of the loss upon the presentation of the proper customary proofs.

The case of Mr. Lockhart illustrates the expediency of young men making suitable provision for their families while their years allow insurance at low rates of payment, their physical condition permits their acceptance by the medical examiner, and a habit becomes early adopted of putting something aside for a rainy day,—an anticipated investment, to comply with the requirements of which is developed an honorable incentive. The discharge of this duty increases the self respect, augments the energies, enhances the character, and preserves the morals of a man to a most appreciable extent. The men of this country, of to-day, who are not increasing their wealth in however small degree, by habits of economy and sagacious management of their affairs, little by little fall behind in the race.

The habits which a well devised life insurance necessarily oblige a man to observe, the training which the requirements of regular stated payments compel, the feeling that, if a man is not by nature inclined to be of thrifty habits he yet is doing something to achieve a provision for his family, is one of the most commendable features of life insurance. With the rates of interest declining as the country grows richer, (and we notice that the trustees of one of the large savings banks in New York have voted that after the first day of October next the rate of interest on all real estate mortgages held by the bank is to be four and a half per cent per year,) there can be for very many persons of moderate means and without great expectations no other species of investment so safe and ultimately so satisfactory as an early-issued life insurance policy.

A French family of nine members reside in a four-room tenement in Dover, and take twelve boarders.

Some time ago the Franklin street Congregational society at Manchester gave a loud call to Rev. Geo. B. Spaulding, D. D., then of Dover. The doctor went to Manchester, but now there is difficulty in raising the very large salary promised, and he accepts a call at Syracuse, N. Y., which is loud enough to drown the tone of the Manchester chimes. The Franklin street people rather overdid the thing when they called Dr. Spaulding from Dover. The era of excessively large salaries for clergymen seems to have passed. A decline in church attendance, especially in a place like Manchester, where the worshippers who have mammon go out of town for the season, makes it difficult to have the highest rate of preaching always appreciated.

Mr. Jake Jenkins of Salmon Falls, one of the most pronounced democrats in that hamlet, is bocked for quarterman in the painting department at the Portsmouth navy yard. Jake is no civil service reformer. He believes in the doctrine of "To the victor belongs the spoils"—and don't you forget it. Jake is prominent at all state conventions of the party. He thinks that when Frank Jones gets home from Europe the republicans and independents now kept on the yard will be fired out. Jake expresses the opinion and hope of many democrats in this section.—Dover Democrat.

Jonathan Cartland, of Lee, died Sept. 12th, aged seventy-six years. He was one of the old-guard abolitionists, an uncompromising prohibitory advocate, and a bosom friend and coworker of Wendell Phillips. He held many important town and county offices.

—"Little boy," said the teacher, "tell me why it is that St. Peter and St. Paul are so widely separated?" "Shaw, that's easy. St. Peter is in Rome while St. Paul is in Minnesota." "Fifteen minutes for recess," said the teacher.

HEREDITARY SCROFULA.

ARE you aware that in your blood the taint of scrofula has a prominent place? This is true of every one. It is liable at any time, on the slightest provocation, to develop itself in some loathsome disease. Consumption and many other diseases are outgrowths of this impurity of the blood. HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA has a wonderful power over all scrofulous troubles, as the remarkable testimonials we have received unmistakably prove.

"MESSRS. C. I. HOOD & CO.: Gentlemen—* * * My youngest son has always been troubled with Scrofulous Humor; scarcely is his head discharging from his ears, and a running sore on the back of his ear for two years; the eyelids would foster and ulcerate, discharging so that I was obliged to wash them open every morning, his eyelashes nearly all coming out; he was exceedingly dainty, most of the time eating but two slight meals a day. We were unable to find anything that had the least effect upon him till last spring, 1876, we gave him two bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla. His appetite improved at once. * * The back of his ear healed up without a scar, and not a sore in his head since. Sincerely yours,

MRS. N. C. SANBORN,
No. 108 Merrimack St., Lowell, Mass.

"We do not as a rule allow ourselves to use our editorial columns to speak of any remedy we advertise, but we feel warranted in saying a word for Hood's Sarsaparilla. Sarsaparilla has been known as a remedy, agent for centuries and is recognized by all schools of practice as a valuable blood purifier. It is put up in forms of almost infinite variety, but Messrs. Hood & Co., (Lowell, Mass.) who are thoroughly reliable pharmacists, have hit upon a remedy of unusual value. Certainly they have vouchers of cures which we know to be most extraordinary."—Editors Lowell Weekly Journal.

POLICE COURT--BATCHELDER J.

TUESDAY, Sept. 15th.

George Williams, a colored man, was fined $3, with $6.90 costs, for drunkenness, and paid it.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT, CLARK J.

The September term of this court was held on Tuesday. In case of the libel against schooner Belvidere for injury to the band-stand, Messrs. Frink & Batchelder appeared as proctors for the vessel. The counsel for libellants did not appear, and the claimants were allowed until Thursday of next week in which to file their answer.

ACCIDENTS.

Samuel Gould, engaged in wheeling coal at Sise's wharf on the 15th inst., fell from the brow to the hold of the schooner D. H. Ingraham, a distance of about twenty feet, striking the hatch coamings on the way down, and was severely injured. Mr. Gould has only been in this city about a week, having come here as mate of a schooner.

John Tobin, while shovelling coal in the hold of the steamer Pottsville at the Concord railroad wharf on the same day, was struck on the head, knocked down and cut by a lump of coal which fell from the bucket; he bled considerably, but was able to resume work in a short time.

THE ROCKINGHAM.

The lions in front of the Rockingham house were relieved of their wooden blankets last week, and seemed to gaze about with a look of enquiry, as much as to say—if such kind of beasts ever say anything—"When will this structure behind us be completed?" The walls of the rooms have received the first coating of paint, and much of the finish is in place. The large annex on Warren street has been completed on the exterior. Much of course remains to be done, but the work progresses rapidly. The porticoes over the entrances on State street, which seemed to be so attractive to the workmen during the summer, were again visited last week. These portions of the edifice ought to be well put together, as the sidewalk committee have given it a decidedly careful oversight.

THE THEATRE.

To-morrow evening, at Music hall, Mr. Dan Maguinnis will appear as "Lord Tatters" in the new play of that name written expressly for him, and supported by a strong company. The Portland Press says of the play: "It is well constructed, possesses enough of wit—some very good situations—noticeably the close of the first and second acts and the drunken scene in the second—which added to the fact that the several characters are placed in the hands of competent actors, who play them for all they are worth, caused the play to be so well received. A very strong feature of the drama is Mr. Maguinnis' singing. His songs lighten up the scenes, and the audience like them so well they encore most all of them."

"Rank and Fame" is the name of the drama which will be presented in Music hall on Monday evening, Sept. 21st, by the Redmond & Barry Dramatic Co.

MARITIME NOTES.

The brick schooners J. Chester Wood and Lillie sailed for Boston on the 15th inst. with cargoes, and the G. W. Raitt, Hattie Lewis and Satellite arrived from Boston, light.

Among the arrivals at this port on Monday and Tuesday were the steamer Pottsville and the schooners Adeliza, Wm. H. Shubert, F. W. Chase and George F. Tarbell, with an aggregate of 4477 tons of coal to J. Albert Walker.

The British schooner Belvidere is temporarily hauled up at Randall & Caswell's wharf, her cargo of soft coal from Cape Breton having been bought by the Portsmouth Machine Co., and discharged.

The treasurer of the Old Ladies' Home acknowledges the receipt of a legacy of one hundred dollars, from a lady of this city.

With the New Hampshire Gazette of this week we issue a supplement containing the acts, resolutions, etc., passed by the legislature at its late session.

Timothy Sullivan, one of the two men held in $200 each to answer before the supreme court to a charge of brutally assaulting Percival Downing of Eliot on "circus day," and breaking one of his legs, was on Tuesday surrendered by his bondsman, C. O. Keefe, and was taken in charge by the officers.

The railroad commissioners have been investigating the recent collision between two trains at Dover, and find that the accident was primarily due to the error of W. S. Wait, gate tender; the engineer of the Boston & Maine train, Higgins, being also held somewhat in fault.

Mr. R. Hamilton Perkins, who for some ten years past has successfully filled a prominent position in our public school system, has resigned, to accept the position of superintendent of schools in Chicopee, Mass. His departure will be a loss to the city and its educational interests.

The game of polo at the Casino on Monday evening, between the Portsmouth and Dover clubs, was won by the home club by a score of three to one.

E. C. Stickney, tae champion dumbbell lifter, will start this morning for Manchester, where he will attempt to put up a four-pound bell 50,000 times in three days.

Department Commander M. M. Collis and Adjt. Gen. George E. Hodgdon left town on Tuesday on a two weeks tour of inspection of the Grand Army posts in the upper part of the state.

Joseph H. McDonald, an old resident of Charlestown, Mass., was found dead in bed at his home on the morning of the 12th inst., having died of apoplexy. He was born on this city, but moved to Charlestown when a young man. In 1870 he was a member of the Charlestown common council, and in 1872 was superintendent of streets. He was a Boston fireman in the days of hand engines; was the last surviving charter member of Bay State Division, Sons of Temperance, and was also a prominent Good Templar. His age was sixty-five years.

Mr. Joseph Murray, a respected citizen of Holyoke, Mass., died on Sunday, Sept. 13th. He was born in this city on Feb. 9th, 1818, but early in life went to Massachusetts. He was a stone mason by trade; at one time he was a resident of Boston, and helped build Fort Warren and the custom house. He had lived in Holyoke forty years, and held the office of assessor fifteen consecutive years. In 1879 he was a representative in the Massachusetts legislature. He leaves a widow.

Mark Winthrop Rand, the fifteen-years-old son of W. S. Rand of Columbus avenue, Boston, who died suddenly on the 13th inst., was fatally hurt while playing on the track of the Albany railroad. He and a companion were coupling freight cars, the other boy pushing them while Rand tended the pins, and as two of them came together the deceased raised his head, which was crushed between the bunters.

Capt. J. Touro Marcy and Mate William J. Wilson, of the barque Furness Abbey, have been held in $300 bonds each to answer before the October term of the United States circuit court in Boston, on charges of cruelty to seamen on the high seas.

YORK BEACH, ME., Sept. 12th.

Editor of Gazette: I notice in your last paper that there was a raid of York county officials upon the hotels in York, in seach of intoxicating liquors. There has also been a raid of cranberry thieves on the farmers at York beach; one land owner on "the neck" has lost in this way fifty bushels of cranberries this season, by their being picked or trampled down by trespassers, but notice has now been posted, and any one who is detected after this will get the full extent of the law. One young man was caught a few days ago with his rake, showing that he came prepared for the business. SAUCE.

KITTERY DEPOT, ME., Sept. 14th.

The house of Mr. Berry, near the depot, was broken into on a recent Sunday, while the family were at church, and a revolver, a few dollars in money and some other articles taken. A few nights ago an attempt was made to force an entrance through a side door into the depot master's house. Right or wrong, an impression is growing in this community that one or more of the marines on the navy yard have part in these attempted burglaries and robberies. D. C.

The Ladies' and Young Folks' Sewing circle of South Eliot, to the number of forty-eight, took a pleasant little trip down the river on Thursday, Sept. 3d, having appointed to meet at Major David Urch's. They had a nice day and a splendid time, being handsomely entertained and given a nice dinner, stopped to-tea, and returned home in the evening full of thanks for the unexpected reception. PARTICIPANT.

Mr. Charles Churchill of Eliot has sold all of his Dutch cattle recently. He will visit the agricultural fairs in New York and New England this fall to purchase improved breeds of cattle and swine for his stock farm in Eliot.

CHOLERA CRAMPS CHILLS

"An ounce of prevention," that is, a dose of SANFORD'S GINGER, "is worth a pound of cure," which, of course, means a doctor. It is absolutely certain that Cholera may be prevented, and, in the majority of cases, successfully treated, with SANFORD'S GINGER, a powerful stimulant, composed of Imported Ginger, choice Aromatics, and the best French Brandy; convenient, speedy and safe; sure to check summer complaint, prevent indigestion, destroy disease germs in water drank, restore the circulation when suspended by a chill, and ward off malarial, contagious, and epidemic influences.

Avoid mercenary dealers who for a few cents extra profit try to force upon you their own or others' when you call for

SANFORD'S GINGER

The Delicious Summer Medicine.

Cramps, Pains, Cholera Morbus, Diarrhœa, and Dysentery, whether produced by unripe fruit, impure water, unwholesome food, or change of climate, food or water, or any little ills of home or travel, such as Colds, Chills, Simple Fevers, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Sea-sickness, Exhaustion, Nervousness, Loss of Sleep, Debility and Dissipation, are instantly relieved by SANFORD'S GINGER, the safest, surest, an best summer medicine and travelling companion.

As a healthful summer drink with water, milk, iced water, lemonade, effervescent draughts and mineral waters, it is the best.

Beware of worthless "gingers," said to be "as cool," or "the same," or "as larger," or "cheaper" than SANFORD'S GINGER. Ask for

BROOKLYN, N. Y., March 25th, 1879. Carter Medicine Co.:

Gentlemen—Nearly all my life I have suffered with periodical sick headache of a severe type; had tried very many remedies, but without securing any relief. About a year ago I began taking Carter's Little Liver Pills, and I have not had a sick headache since.

Have been troubled with indigestion very much, and find the Nerve Pills give immediate relief. I take pleasure in recommending them to my friends.

MRS. FOURL.

The cholera is rapidly decreasing in Spain. The deaths reported Sept. 13th numbered 387.

Nervous Debilitated Men.

You are allowed a free trial of thirty days of the use of Dr. Dye's Celebrated Voltaic Belt with Electric Suspensory Appliances, for the speedy relief and permanent cure of Nervous Debility, loss of Vitality and Manhood, and all kindred troubles. Also, for many other diseases. Complete restoration to health, vigor and manhood guaranteed. No risk is incurred. Illustrated pamphlet, with full information, terms, etc., mailed free by addressing Voltaic Belt Co., Marshall, Mich.

Gratification at the Fate of John Cameron and J. Q. Morrison.

Messrs. John Cameron and J. Q. Morrison were the lucky owners of one-fifth of ticket No. 48,054 in The Louisiana State Lottery which drew the $25,000 prize in the Drawing of July 14th. This does away with the reasoning of those crying fraud, because these gentlemen are too well known to admit of a thought that they would lend themselves as parties to deceive the public. The fact is, they held the ticket and it has been promptly cashed and our good friends wear broad smiles because of their good luck.—Wichita Falls (Tex.) Herald, Aug. 8th.

Sale's Honey the great Cough cure, 25c., 50c. & $1. Glenn's Sulphur Soap heals & beautifies, 25c. German Corn Remover kills Corns & Bunions. Hill's Hair and Whisker Dye—Black and Brown, 50c. Pike's Toothache Drops cure in 1 Minute, 25c. Dean's Rheumatic Pills are a sure cure, 60c.

Advice to Mothers.

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? If so, send at once and get a bottle of Mrs Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers, there is no mistake about it. It cures dysentery and diarrhœa, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures wind colic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female nurses and physicians in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. His Ignorance Cost Me $150!

I was sick abed for three months. The doctor said I had Prolapsus Uteri, which was untrue. He didn't try to cure me but wanted to make a $1.50 every day. My uncle is a druggist, and he told me to turn the doctor off, and try Sulphur Bitters. I did so and five dollars worth of Sulphur Bitters cured me of general weakness and debility.—Mrs. S.——, New Haven.

The Old Dinner Horn.

I've heard many a strain that has thrilled me
With joy.
But none, I will say, since the day I was born,
Has pleased me so much as, when a small boy,
I heard, on the farm, the old dinner horn.

The trumpet was tin, a yard or so long.
And was blowed for "the boys" at noon and at morn.
The monotone strain was piercing and strong,
But sweet, for all that, was the old dinner horn.

When building the fence or tossing the hay,
Or reaping the grain or plowing the corn,
With appetite keen, at the noon of the day,
Oh, sweet to my soul was the old dinner horn!

A mother's fond lips pressed the trumpet of tin,
And blew her full soul through the barley and corn.
Oh, I hear even yet the "Welcome, come in,
Come in, my dear boys, to the sound of the horn!"

Those lips are now still, and the bosom is cold,
Which sent to us boys the blast of the horn;
She is waiting in sleep, beneath the dark mold,
The archangel's trump and eternity's morn.

—Joel Swartz, D. D.

THE CABIN-BOY.

On my way across the Sound I fell in with two old sea-captains—John Streeter and Asa Morton—with whom I had some slight acquaintance. Streeter was about three-score, and had followed the sea during most of his life. Morton was considerably younger, but still a seaman of much experience. The subject of the abolition of flogging in our navy came up in course of conversation, and Captain Morton expressed himself very decidedly in favor of keeping up that time-honored institution, the cat-o'-nine-tails.

"I am not prepared to say," remarked Captain Streeter in reply, "that the condition of our men-o'-wars-men will be in every case benefited by the abolition of flogging, though I am sure that it might be so. I mean that the officers have it within their power to do away with nearly all kinds of punishment—that is, of course, for such offenses as are usually punished on shipboard."

"For my part," returned Morton, "I should not care to take command of a ship if the power to punish refractory seamen as I thought proper were taken from me."

"Well," resumed Captain Streeter, "I used to think just so. In fact, there were few masters more passionate or severe than I was. Men used to run away from me, and, on more than one occasion, my very life has been in danger from the vengeance of men whom I had abused. I used the cat and the rope's-end almost as freely as I used my tongue; and I often wondered how it happened that I always had the luck to get such bad men.

"When I was about forty years of age I took command of the ship Petersham. She was an old craft, and had seen full as much service as she was capable of seeing with safety; but her owners were willing to trust a valuable cargo in her, so I would not refuse to trust myself. We were bound to Liverpool, and nothing unusual happened until about the eighth day out, when we ran foul of a small iceberg. It was early in the morning, before sunrise, and not above six or eight feet of the ice was out of the water, it having been nearly all melted away in the warmer water of the Gulf-stream. I did not think that we had sustained any injury, for the shock was very slight; but I was angry, and gave the look-out a severe punishment, without stopping to inquire whether he could have seen the berg in season to escape it.

"My cabin-boy was named Jack Withers. He was fourteen years of age, and this was his first voyage. I had taken him from a widowed mother, and had promised her that I would see him well treated—that was, if he behaved himself. He was a bright, quick, intelligent lad, but I soon made myself believe that he had an awful disposition. I fancied that he was the most stubborn piece of youthful humanity that I had ever come across. I made up my mind that he had never been properly governed, and I forthwith resolved to break him in. I told him I'd curb his temper for him before I had done with him. In reply he told me that I might kill him if I liked; and I flogged him with the end of the mizzen-topgallant halliards till he could hardly stand. I asked him if he had had enough, and he told me that I might flog more if I wished it. I felt a strong temptation to throw the boy overboard, but at that moment he staggered back against the mizzen-mast from absolute weakness, and I left him to himself. When I reasoned calmly about that boy's disposition I was forced to acknowledge that he was one of the smartest and most faithful lads I had ever seen. When I asked him to do anything he would start off like a rocket; but when I roughly ordered him to do it, then came the disposition with which I found fault.

"One day, when it was very near noon, I spoke to him, and told him to go below and bring up my quadrant. He was looking over the quarter-rail, and I knew that he did not hear me, and the next time I spoke I ripped out an oath, and intimated that if he didn't move I'd help him.

"'I didn't hear ye,' he said, with rather an independent tone.

"'No words,' said I.

"'I s'pose I can speak,' he retorted, moving slowly towards the companion-way.

"His look and his words, and the slow, careless manner in which he moved, fired me in a moment, and I grasped him by the collar.

"'Speak to me again like that,' said I, 'and I'll flog you within an inch of your life!'

"'You can flog away,' he replied, as firm and undaunted as a rock.

"And I did flog him. I caught up the end of the first rope that came handy, and beat him till my arm fairly ached. But he never even winced.

"'How's that?' said I.

"'There's a little more life in me yet that you'd better flog out,' was his reply.

"And I beat him again. I beat him till he sank from my hand against the rail; and then I sent one of the men after my quadrant. When it came, and I had adjusted it for my observation, I found that the sun was already past the meridian, and that I was too late. This added fuel to the fire of my madness, and quickly seizing the lad by the collar, I led him to the main hatchway and had the hatch taken off. I then thrust him down, and swore that I would keep him there until his stubbornness was broken. The hatch was then put on, and I went into the cabin. I suffered a good deal that afternoon—not with any compunctions for what I had done, but with my own temper and bitterness. It made me mad to think that I could not conquer that boy—that I could not break down his cool, stern opposition. 'But I will do it,' I said to myself. 'By the heavens above me, I'll starve him into it, or he shall die under the operation!'

"After supper I went to the hatchway and called out to him, but he returned me no answer. So I closed the hatch and went away. At ten o'clock I called again, and again I got no answer. I might have thought the flogging had taken away his senses had not some of the men assured me that they had heard him, not an hour before, talking to himself. I did not trouble him again until the next morning; but I went to the hatchway after breakfast and called out to him once more. I heard nothing from him, nor could I see him; I had not seen him since I put him down there. I called out several times, but he would make me no answer; and yet the same men told me that they had heard him talk that very morning. He seemed to be calling for them to help him. He would ask them for help, but he would not ask me. I meant to break him into it. 'He'll beg before he'll starve,' I thought; and so I determined that he should stay there. I supposed he had crawled forward to the forecastle bulkhead in order to make the sailors hear him. Some of the men asked to be permitted to go down and look after him, but I refused. I threatened to punish the first man who dared to go down.

SCABS AND SORES.

I have been afflicted since last March with a Skin disease the doctors called Eczema. My face was covered with scabs and sores, and the itching and burning were almost unbearable. Seeing your CUTICURA REMEDIES so highly recommended, concluded to give them a trial, using the CUTICURA AND CUTICURA SOAP externally, and RESOLVENT internally, for four months. I call myself cured, in gratitude for which I make this public statement.

MRS. CLARA A. FREDERICK.

Broad Brook, Conn.

CUTICURA REMEDIES are sold everywhere. Price CUTICURA, 50c.; RESOLVENT, $1.00; SOAP, 25c. Prepared by the POTTER DRUG AND CHEMICAL CO., Boston, Mass.

Send for "How to Cure Skin Diseases."

PIMPLES, Blackheads, Skin Blemishes, and Baby Humors, use CUTICURA SOAP.

"CHICK IN THE BACK," stitch in the side, cramps, shooting and sharp pains, rheumatic, neuralgic, and sciatic pains, and every external pain and ache soothed and expelled with wonderful celerity by that new, original, elegant and speedy antidote to pain and inflammation, the CUTICURA PLASTER. Warranted the perfection of elegant external remedies, and vastly superior to all other plasters. At druggists, 25c.; five for $1.00. Mailed free. POTTER DRUG AND CHEMICAL CO., Boston.

Great Dangers.

Three great dangers menace the traveller at every turn. They are climate, food and water. To guard against them requires judgment, abstinence and SANFORD'S GINGER.

This unrivalled household panacea and travelling companion is sure to check any disturbance of the bowels, instantly relieve cramps and pains, prevent indigestion, destroy disease germs in water drank, restore the circulation when suspended by a chill, a frequent cause of cholera morbus, breaks up colds and fevers, and ward off malarial, contagious, and epidemic influences.

SANFORD'S GINGER is a delicious combination of Imported Ginger, Choice Aromatics, and French Brandy, and is the finest extract of ginger ever compounded in the history of medicine. Ask for

SANFORD'S GINGER.

Cholera morbus, cramps, pains, diarrhœa, dysentery, indigestion, colds, chills, simple fevers, exhaustion, nervousness or loss of sleep, whether caused by unripe fruit, impure water, unhealthy climate, unwholesome food, malaria, epidemic or contagious diseases that beset the traveller or resident in this season, can have no serious influence on those protected by a timely use of SANFORD'S GINGER.

As a summer drink, with hot or cold water, sweetened, or hot or cold milk, or added to ice water, lemonade, effervescent draughts or mineral waters, SANFORD'S GINGER forms a refreshing and invigorating beverage, unequalled in simplicity and purity, while free from alcoholic reaction. A little should be added to every glass of water drank.

Carter's Little Liver Pills will positively cure sick headache and prevent its return. This is not talk, but truth. One pill a dose. To be had of all druggists. See advertisement.

The Stratton free library and art gallery, costing $10,000, presented to West Swanzey by G. W. Stratton of Boston, was dedicated Tuesday night, 16th inst., by a concert in City hall, Keene. Stratton's operetta "Genevieve" was given by local talent, assisted by the Germania orchestra and soloists from Boston.

If you are tired taking the large old-fashioned griping pills, and are satisfied that purging yourself till you are weak and sick is not good common sense, then try Carter's Little Liver Pills and learn how easy it is to be free from biliousness, headache, constipation, and all liver troubles. These little pills are smaller, easier to take and give quicker relief than any pill in use. Forty in a vial. One a dose. Price 25 cents.

Is inseparably connected with Hood's Sarsaparilla, and is true of no other medicine. It is an unanswerable argument as to strength and economy, while thousands testify to its superior blood-purifying and strengthening qualities. A bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla contains 100 doses and will last a month, while others will average to last not over a week. Hence, for economy, buy Hood's Sarsaparilla.

The Puritan Wins.

A SPLENDID RACE.

Very Fine Result.

THE SKIMMING-DISH BEATS THE CASE-KNIFE.

The second, and, as it proved, the concluding race, between the British cutter Genesta and the American sloop Puritan, was sailed on Wednesday, the 16th inst., over the outside course, twenty miles to leeward from the Scotland lightship, and return, the result being that the representative British yacht will not carry the "America's cup" across the Atlantic this year.

The wind was blowing sixteen miles an hour from the west-northwest at the start, so the leeward run of twenty miles was to the east-southeast. The Genesta crossed the starting line at 11:04:32,, and the Puritan at 11:05:30; and from this time to the finish the despatches were thick and fast, the contestants keeping so close together that the most intense interest was maintained until the end.

At 11:13 the report was that "the Puritan is gaining;" at 11:45, "the Genesta is leading somewhat;" at 12:05, "the Genesta leads the Puritan about half a mile;" at 1:12, "the Genesta turned the stake-boat at 1:05:20, the Puritan at 1:07:30. The Puritan has had her topsail down for some time; cause not known; may be has carried it away;" at 1:15, "the actual sailing time of the two yachts on the twenty-mile course to the stake-boat at the turn was: Genesta, 2h. 52s., Puritan, 2h. 2m. 2s.; the Puritan to win the race must gain 1m. 45s. on the Genesta's time;" at 1:20, "Puritan has no topsail set; wind blowing twenty-five miles an hour;" at 1:30, "the Puritan has not set her topsail yet; the Genesta is to windward of the Puritan, and gaining on her all the time; there is no doubt the Puritan has been crippled;" at 1:44, "the Genesta is a little to the windward, but the Puritan is gaining on this tack; the wind is blowing thirty-six miles an hour;" at 1:50, "the Puritan is leading the Genesta;" at 2:15, "the Puritan is ahead; she has not set her topsail yet;" at 2:20, "the Puritan is a mile ahead, but it is impossible to tell which is to windward;" at 2:25, "the Puritan is ahead, and has not set her topsail yet;" at 2:30, "the yachts are ten miles east of Sandy Hook lightship, the Puritan to windward and ahead;" at 2:50, "the Puritan is a mile to windward, and ahead;" at 3:05, "the Genesta has every sail set, but for reasons which are unknown the Puritan fails to set her topsails; the crew on the Puritan appear to be making every effort to attain that end;" at 3:10, "the yachts are on the last tack, and about even;" at 3:20, "the yachts are a mile and a half northeast of the lightship; cannot tell which is ahead, but the Puritan is to windward; wind twenty-nine miles an hour;" at 3:44, "yachts near Sandy Hook lightship; Puritan is ahead; if she can hold it she is all right;" at 3:54, "Puritan crosses Genesta's bow a little outside of bar; standing for Scotland lightship; Puritan one-quarter mile ahead;" at 4:15, "Puritan crossed line at 4:09, Genesta at 4:10:15—the closest race on record; a tremendous ovation given to both yachts."

The figures as given by the wires make the Puritan's actual sailing time 5h. 3m. 30s., and the Genesta's 5h. 8m. 43s., the Puritan beating by 2m. 13s. actual time, and by 1m. 42s. corrected time, she having to give the Genesta thirty-one seconds.

It is particularly noticeable that the deep-keel Genesta outsailed the "skimming-dish" Puritan by 1m. 14s. on the twenty-mile run dead to leeward, but was beaten 3m. 27s. in turning to windward twenty miles in more than half a gale of wind, though windward work in heavy weather has been claimed as the best hold of the British cutter, and the suggestion that the Yankee sloop or schooner could match it has been scoffed at.

The reason the Puritan did not carry her topsail was because she couldn't, she having sprung her topmast early in the race; but as it turned out she didn't need it.

At Haverhill, Mass., on Tuesday, the 15th inst., a French Canadian child by the name of Emile Lamyr died of smallpox at its home on Hildate avenue. The nature of the disease was not known until after the child died. Two pupils from this house attend the Wingate primary school, and all the scholars, 120 in number, were vaccinated on the 15th. The board of health have taken prompt measures to prevent the spread of the disease, and the house where the child died has been isolated.

A despatch of Sept. 15th from Ottawa, Ont., says: "Official returns show that ninety-three per cent of the deaths from smallpox at Montreal are of French Canadians, who are opposed to vaccination. Of the 128 deaths from smallpox in that city last week, 118 were French Canadians, and fifty per cent of the death rate is among children from one to five years old."

The cholera has appeared in Japan, and is raging; the disease is very violent, death ensuing in a short time. There were twenty new cases at Nagasaki on Aug. 30th. Associated press despatches from Yokohama state that between Aug. 24th and Sept. 1st there had been over 300 cases of cholera at Nagasaki, and 150 deaths. It was reported at Yokohama that the United States steamer Ossipee had arrived at Kobe from Nagasaki with twelve cases of cholera on board and that three deaths had occurred while the vessel was en route from Nagasaki. The names of the victims were not given.

The resignation of Miss Nellie A. Taylor as teacher of primary school was accepted, to take effect Oct. 1st, and Miss Carrie A. Drake was elected to fill the vacancy.

Miss Annie E. Smart was confirmed as teacher in the 1st division of the Haven grammar school, with salary of $450, same as last year.

Miss Harriet A. Seavey was confirmed as teacher of the lowest primary of the Haven school.

MATTERS IN YORK.

YORK CORNER, ME., Sept. 14th.

The Marshall house at the harbor closed on Tuesday, the 8th.

The provision firm of Junkins & Freeman has been dissolved by mutual consent. Mr. Freeman still continues the business. Success to you, George.

Bro. Goss' reply to our communication left (as dry goods dealers say) "a grand opening" for more, but perhaps silence would be better.

On Saturday we received a pleasant call from one of your reportorial staff, N. K. Raynes, Esq., of your city. Mr. Raynes will doubtless have a large number of items from our town. He is the guest of Mr. Andrew R. Webber. He seemed highly pleased over a recent communication in regard to "tonic" that "looked and smelled like lager."

The baptism of Misses Katie Roberts, Addie Plaisted, Carrie Trafton and Gracie Trafton, took place at York river yesterday, Elder Colburn of Kittery officiating.

Mrs. J. O. Barrett has opened a shop at the village, for cutting and making boys' and misses' garments, of all kinds. Mrs. Barrett is experienced at the business, and is said to do excellent work.

Dr. Stewart has removed his medical stock to his office in the S. S. S. block. The Grant mansion, where he formerly had his office, is to be raised two feet, repaired, and fitted for two families, for the Grant brothers' occupancy.

We learn from good authority that S. A. Grant's commission as postmaster at Limerick has been forwarded. There was a vacancy in this office, and we think the appointment a good one, being personally acquainted with Mr. Grant.

Rev. Mr. Corey, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, gave us a call last week; we find him a very pleasant and affable gentleman, hope he will call again. P.

AFFAIRS IN KITTERY.

KITTERY, ME., Sept. 14th.

The White mountain excursion party which left here the first of the month to drive all the way over the road, returned on Thursday afternoon last. They report a very pleasant trip, with fish and game in abundance, and Meshach Spinney and Elmer Langton kept the camp well supplied with those savory viands. Nothing occurred to mar the pleasure of the company until Meshach Spinney's fiddle fell out of the team and the wheel passed over it, thoroughly demolishing all the music in that camp, except vocal, and Highly Walker had to entertain the evening camp circle with his melodious voice during the remainder of the trip.

Mr. Jesse Patch of the Point had a bone of his left arm fractured Saturday by a plank falling on it while he was engaged in working on the new building for the steam heating apparatus on the navy yard.

Rev. H. C. Munson of Portland, Grand Worthy Chief Templar of the Grand Lodge of Maine, I. O. G. T., will visit Whipple Lodge at Kittery Village on Wednesday evening, the 15th inst. All Good Templars are invited to be present.

Meetings were held five nights last week at the Second Methodist church vestry, and will be held the same this week, under the leadership of the pastor, Rev. Perry Chandler. We understand that there will soon be a series of meetings at the First Methodist church, North Kittery.

Capt. Rashe Trefethen, of the ferry steamer Mystic, left town Monday morning for a short vacation, and will visit Boston, New York and other places before he returns. Capt. Will Locke will run the boat in his absence.

Mr. Daniel Avery and wife, of Portland, are passing a few days very pleasantly at Mr. James D. Plaisted's, North Kittery.

The harvest supper which is to be given by the Good Templars and the 1st Methodist society of North Kittery will occur on Tuesday evening, the 22d inst., instead of Thursday evening, the 24th, as previously stated.

Edward E. Shapleigh returned on Tuesday, the 8th inst., to his studies at Phillips academy, Exeter, N. H.

Mr. John J. Lambert left town Monday for Alfred, to attend the supreme judicial court, having been drawn grand juror from this town.

Stephen Muchmore, son of Geo. W. Muchmore of North Kittery, has entered Bryant & Stratton's Commercial school, Boston. SUB ROSA.

Joshua B. Marston, Charles N. Shannon and William Andrews of this city will attend the reunion of their regiment, the 35th Mass. Vols., at Andover, Mass., the home of their colonel, Sumner Carruth, to-day, the 17th inst.

Work was stopped on the Market street end of the big sewer on the 16th inst., the ledge having been stripped nearly the entire distance from Market to High streets.

We had a very pleasant call one day this week from Capt. Elias S. Holbrook of Peak's island, Me., a native of Newcastle, N. H., and formerly a successful captain in the fishing fleet of the late Thomas Tarlton of that town. Capt. Holbrook has for the past twenty-five years or so been a subscriber to the Gazette, and notwithstanding his years bids fair to enjoy for a long while yet the fruits of the industry and economy of his earlier days.

Alderman Cook's drinking fountain on the Parade, though considerable fun was made of it at first, owing to the height of the drinking trough from the ground, is really one of the best things the city has procured for some time. Oxen cannot drink from it, it is true, but horses can without being unchecked, and the number of teams that drive up to it daily is very great. Ald. Cook is entitled to the credit of getting the fountain placed there, for it was mainly owing to his persistent energy that it was done, and he was chairman of the committee under whose supervision the work was performed.

The name of Mr. Williams Simes, of Boston, was accidentally omitted in the list of contributors to the Cottage Hospital. Mr. Simes gave $30 to the object.

Of the play to be performed at Music hall this evening by Dan Maguinnis and his company, the Portland Argus says: "It is a smoothly moving piece, with but little of the sensational in it, running on its merits alone. It is not an Irish play in the usual acceptatien of the term, there being but two Irish characters in it —Lord Tatters and his sister. * * Dan Maguinnis has the part of a rollicking, drinking, honest Irishman, and his songs and queer sayings at once put the audience in the best of humor. Miss Remington as Norah is pretty, is a good actress and a find singer; she plays her part with a freshness that is pleasing and a quaintness that is charming. The other characters are all in competent hands. The climaxes of the play are well worked up, and each act ends with a laughable scene."

The wild pigeons have been flying more numerously in York this season than for many years previously, having probably been attracted by the large crop of berries. Wild ducks have of late commenced to fly over, frequently alighting in the ponds around; the reports of firearms are beginning to sound familiar in the vicinity of the Nubble.

Hon. E. C. Moody, of York, has cut seven tons of second crop hay on his farm near Long sands; and he has already uncovered 500 bushels of the finest potatoes. He has five yoke of Devon and Durham cattle which girth six feet, besides other stock. Ed. declares his intention to stick to the democratic party, "fodder or no fodder."

It is reported that Mr. S. Preble Young of York will pay a reward of $500 for the detection of the parties who poisoned his fine cattle in their pasture a few days since. Their stomachs have been sent to a chemist for examination. Threats had been previously thrown out.

Zachary Taylor Berry, one of the persons so terribly injured by the dynamite explosion in the house of Stephen Young of Strafford last year, having sued Mr. Young in the court of Dover for $10,000 damages, the jury on the night of the 16th inst. found a verdict for $5000. Berry is a helpless cripple, and cannot recover.

Miss Augusta Miller, youngest daughter of the late General James Miller, the hero of Lundy's Lane, (I'll try, sir,) died very suddenly at the family residence in Temple on Sunday, Sept. 13th, of heart disease, at the age of sixty-seven years.

CHOLERA CRAMPS CHILLS

"An ounce of prevention," that is, a dose of SANFORD'S GINGER, "is worth a pound of cure," which, of course, means a doctor. It is absolutely certain that Cholera may be prevented, and, in the majority of cases, successfully treated, with SANFORD'S GINGER, a powerful stimulant, compposed of Imported Ginger, choice Aromatics, and the best French Brandy; convenient, speedy and safe; sure to check summer complaint, prevent indigestion, destroy disease germs in water drank, restore the circulation when suspended by a chill, and ward off malarial, contagious, and epidemic influences.

Avoid mercenary dealers who for a few cents extra profit try to force upon you their own or others' when you call for

SANFORD'S GINGER

The Delicious Summer Medicine.

Cramps, Pains, Cholera Morbus, Diarrhœa, and Dysentery, whether produced by unripe fruit, impure water, unwholesome food, or change of climate, food or water, or any little ills of home or travel, such as Colds, Chills, Simple Fevers, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Sea-sickness, Exhaustion, Nervousness, Loss of Sleep, Debility and Dissipation, are instantly relieved by SANFORD'S GINGER, the safest, surest, an best summer medicine and travelling companion.

As a healthful summer drink with water, milk, iced water, lemonade, effervescent draughts and mineral waters, it is the best.

Beware of worthless "gingers," said to be "as cool," or "the same," or "as larger," or "cheaper" than SANFORD'S GINGER. Ask for

THE CABIN-BOY.

"At noon I went again, and as ... did not answer me this time, I resolved that he should come to the hatchway and ask for me ere I went any more. The day passed away, and when evening came again I began to be startled. I thought of how many good qualities the boy had; and I thought of his widowed mother. He had been thirty-six hours in the hold, and fully forty hours without food or drink. He must be too weak to cry out now. It was hard for me to give up, but if the boy died there from absolute starvation, it might go harder with me still. So at length I made up my mind to go and see him. It was not quite sundown when I had the hatch taken off, and I jumped down upon the boxes alone. A little way foward I saw a space where Jack might have gone down, and to that point I crawled on my hands and knees. I called out here, but could hear no answer. A short distance farther was a wider space, which I had entirely forgotten, but which I now remembered had been left open on account of a break in the flooring of the hold, which would have let anything that might have been stowed there rest directly on the outer planking of the ship.

"To this place I made my way and looked down. I heard the splashing of water, and thought I could detect a sound like the incoming of a tiny jet or stream. At first I could see nothing, but as soon as I became used to the dim light I could distinguish the faint outlines of the boy at some distance below me. He seemed to be sitting upon the broken floor, with his feet stretched out against a cask. I called out to him, and I thought he looked up.

"'Jack,' I said, 'are you there?'

"And he answered me, in a faint, weary tone:

"'Yes; help me! For Heaven's sake, help me! Bring men, and bring a lantern; the ship has sprunk a leak!'

"I hesitated, and he added in a more eager tone:

"'Make haste; I can hold it till you come back.'

"I waited to hear no more, but hurried on deck as soon as possible, and returned with a lantern, and three men. I leaped down beside the boy, and when I saw it all I could hardly believe the evidence of my own senses. Three of the timbers were completely worm-eaten to the very heart, and one of the outer planks had been broken, and would burst in at any moment the boy might leave it. He sat there, with his back upon it and his feet braced against the cask before him. Half a dozen little jets of water were streaming in about him, and he was wet to the skin. I saw that the plank must burst in the moment the strain was removed from it, so I bade my men brace themselves against it before I lifted him up. Other men were called down with planks and spikes and adzes, and, with much care and more trouble, we finally succeeded in stopping the leak and averting the danger. The plank which had been stove in was six feet long by eight inches wide and would have let in a stream of water of this capacity. It would have been beyond our reach long ere we could have discovered it, and would have sunk us in a very short time. I knew it must be where the iceberg had hit us.

"Jack Withers was taken to the cabin, and there he managed to tell me his story. Shortly after I put him in the hold he crawled forward, and when his eyes became used to the dim glimmer that came through the dead-lights, he looked about for a snug place in which to lie, for his limbs were stiff and sore. He went to sleep, and when he awoke he heard a faint sound, like water streaming through a small hole. He went to the open space in the cargo and looked down, and he was sure that he saw a small jet of water spurting up from the ship's bottom. He leaped down, and in a few moments found that the timbers had given wholly away, and that the stream was increasing in size. He placed his hand upon the plank and found it broken, and also discovered that the pressure of the water without was forcing it inward. He had sense enough to see that if it gained an inch more it must all go, and the ship must be lost, and perhaps all hands perish! And he saw, too, that if he could keep the broken plank in its place he might stop the incoming flood. So he sat himself upon it and braced his feet against the cask; and then he called for help.

"And there he had sat, with his feet thus braced, for four-and-twenty long, dreary hours, with the water spurting in tiny streams all over him, drenching him to the skin. He had thought several times of going to the hatchway and calling for help; but he knew that the broken plank would be forced in if he left it, for he could feel it heave beneath him. His strength was failing him; his limbs were racked with pain; but he would not give up. I asked him if he should not have given up if I had not come as I did. He answered me that he could not have done it while he had life in him. He said he thought not of himself—he was ready to die—but he would save the rest if he could; and he had saved us—surely saved us—from a watery grave.

"That boy lay sick in the cabin for many days—sick almost unto death; but I nursed him with my own hands—nursed him all through his delirium; and when his reason returned, and he could sit up and talk, I bowed myself before him, and humbly asked his pardon for all the wrong I had done him. He threw his arms about my neck, and told me if I would be good to him he would never give me cause for offence; and he added, as he sat up again, 'I am not a coward—I could not be a dog!'

"From that hour I never forgot those words; and from that hour I have never struck a blow on board my ship. I make my men feel that they are men—that I set to regard them, and that I wish to make them as comfortable and happy as possible; and I have not failed to gain their respect and confidence. I give no undue license, but make my crew feel that they have a friend and a superior in the same person. For nine years I sailed in three different ships, and had the very same crew all the while. A man could not be hired to leave me save for an officer's berth.

"And Jack Withers remained with me thirteen years. He was my cabin boy; one of my foremast hands; my second mate; and the last time he sailed with me he refused the command of a new barque because he would not be separated from me. But he is a captain now, and one of the best this country ever afforded. Such, gentlemen, is my experience in government and discipline on shipboard."

Getting Strong Again.

Fevers and exhausting chronic or acute diseases leave the patient, on his recovery, in a very pitiful state of prostration. Then it is that he needs a tonic upon which he can rely, one which, like Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, will accelerate convalescence, and aid the processes of digestion. That peerless invigorant compensates, as nothing else will, for depleted strength. After using it a short time the quondam invalid feels in every nerve and muscle that he is getting strong again. Appetite increases, there is a gain in weight, color and fullness return to the cheek, the lack-lustre eyes grow brighter, sleep is unbroken and refreshing. These gratifying experiences are renewed with each returning day, until completely restored in health and vigor, he returns to the avocations which his illness interrupted. Use the Bitters in billiousness, dyspepsia, rheumatism and constipation.

Comptroller Durham's "Reforms."

The new comptroller, Judge Durham, of Kentucky, has been making a stir in the newspapers of late by pronouncing the Alabama Claims Court an unlawful procedure, or words to that effect. We thought it rather strange that what was done ten years ago, and repeated by the present court, in the way of employing clerks, assistant counsel, etc., has just been found at this late day to be all wrong and illegal. The democratic press say that Durham has "stopped another leak" in the treasury, but we wonder why the democratic house (with Durham in it) didn't pry this out, and get up an investigation long ago. We have also wondered how it happens that two courts, two secretaries of state, as well as attorney generals and others, who are presumed to know what is legal and what isn't, have been blundering all this time, till Durham gets along at this late day to point out that they don't understand the law.

It appears that Judge Harlan has written to Secretary Bayard a full reply to the comptroller's argument. Perhaps we had better wait till this is made public before we condemn a court in whose continuous and uninterrupted labors this community has so large an interest.

Meanwhile, we observe that the comptroller has "tackled" Mr. Creswell, the able and energetic counsel of the United States. Mr. Creswell has replied. We should infer from the letter that Mr. Creswell knows what the law is, and Judge Durham may learn something.

Speaking of sensational statements in the newspapers, Mr. Creswell says: "I do not know from any official source whether my salary has been stopped or not." He mentions the fact that Judge Durham has given him no notice to appear and present his views. He then refers to the act establishing the court, and says that Senator Bayard moved that $8000 should be paid as the salary of the office. By referring to the record of the dockets, Mr. Creswell shows that a literal application of the old act, as contended for by Durham, would give the counsel in docket fees over $73,000 for cases already disposed of, and leave about $25,000 more to be paid him. "Do you think, on this showing, any good could be effected by going back to the original act, long ago discarded by Congress?" asks Mr. Creswell.

The fact is, that the new official's haste to win reputation for "retrenchment and reform" has betrayed him into a serious blunder. It is not a very prudent thing to let the newspapers herald a great "saving" based on a violation of the law, unless there can be no possible question that the illegal conduct can be proved.

Mr. Creswell's straightforward, clear and able letter ought to convince any candid mind that the writer is simply doing his duty in conformity with law. He has organized and carried forward the extensive work of his office, we are told, with signal ability, and to the satisfaction of the attorneys and claimants. Democrats as well as republicans are interested in having the Alabama court go on in its work without being crippled by hostile action from the administration. We believe that the attacks on the court are as groundless and as easily repelled as those on Mr. Creswell. The only sufferers are the claimants themselves, and they as far as heard from, unite to sustain the court, and condemn the attitude taken by the comptroller. Inasmuch as all the expenses really come out of their pockets, and not out of the taxpayers, their wishes in the premises are pretty significant.

An Unfair Statement.

The New York Times, in an article headed "the fire insurance war in New Hampshire," shows an utter ignorance of the provisions of the new law, or else perverts the facts for purposes which seems apparent. The Times says:

The farmers, who compose a majority of the legislature, may not know in how many ways insurance policies are used. Many a New Hampshire merchant will find it difficult to get credit if he cannot show that he insures his goods. The use of policies as collateral for loans must be discontinued. In short, as it now appears, all of the manifold benefits of insurance will be beyond the reach of the inhabitants of the state if the law shall be enforced. Business will become very dull, the number of inhabitants will decrease, and fire losses will fall heavily upon individuals.

If the law encourages over-insurance and prevents a company from getting the benefit of proof of fraud it should be repealed. Even if its good points outweigh its bad ones, its effect will be disastrous upon business in the state. A better remedy for the evils that are said to have aroused the farmers can be devised. The farmers have been short-sighted. In trying to get the best of the "corporations" they have clogged the wheels of business, and reduce the value of real estate. If the companies stick to their decision the advocates of the bill will learn something to their disadvantage.

As the valued policy law relates only to insurance upon real estate, (as doubtless the writer who assumes to treat of the subject ought to know, for no one could suppose such a law could apply to a stock of goods in a merchant's store,) the apprehensions of the Times as to the credit of the New Hampshire merchant are entirely gratuitous. The insurance strikers regard New Hampshire as a small state, and seek to have the contest between themselves and the persons whom a learned judge in our state once defined as those "facetiously denominated the assured," made in a region where they can afford to lose business for the sake of carrying their point. The law must in its effects discourage over-insurance, and if the withdrawn companies are not willing to have their agents sufficiently examine the buildings upon which they are to write policies, in order to be safe in the amount of risks assumed, it will be for the interest of New Hampshire people to waive the manifold benefits of insurance [resulting so much more frequently to the companies] and seek indemnity where the contracts can be understood, and will be properly carried out. Policies as collaterals for loans on personal estate may be used in New York, but the merchants among the Granite Hills are not obliged to resort to such means of security to enhance their credit.

The Manchester Union inquires, "If insurance business is so dangerous, how does it happen that the stock of the New Hampshire Insurance Company sells for from $140 to $150 per share, and none in the market at that, and how has it been able to pay eight per cent. dividends, and at the same time secure a two hundred thousand dollar surplus? Will the Mirror explain to the public why other strong stock companies cannot be established in the state, and succeed with good management as well as the New Hampshire, or as well as those established in Connecticut, Massachusetts or New York? Haven't we the money and men of sufficient ability, or did the New Hampshire Insurance Company exhaust all of both? To our mind the person that is so busy trying to prevent any arrangements that will protect the property of this state by proper inside insurance has but one desire, and that is to force an absolute surrender to the insurance combination that has left the state in a lurch."

GOOD TEMPLARS' REUNION.

A company of about 125 Good Templars met with Whipple lodge, No. 99, of Kittery village, on Wednesday evening, the 16th inst., the party consisting of delegations from Pepperell lodge of Kittery Point, Morrill lodge of North Kittery, Old York lodge of York, Harmony lodge of South Berwick, Neguatque: lodge of North Berwick, and Rockingham lodge of Portsmouth, the occasion being the visit of the Grand Worthy Chief Templar of Maine, Rev. H. C. Munson of Portland.

After the initiation of two candidates, interesting remarks were made by Charles W. Murphy of South Berwick, Willis G. Moulton of York, Frank C. Eaton, A. H. Adams and Rev. C. C. Colburn of Kittery; and an eloquent address was made by the Grand Worthy Templar, which was attentively listened to by all.

The evening's exercises were interspersed with choice selections of vocal music by Misses Mary J. and Lizzie A. Hill and the Pettigrew sisters; and the meeting as a whole was very interesting.

The Chief Templar will probably visit Morrill lodge on Friday evening, the 18th. S. R.

THE SPECIAL POSTAL DELIVERY.

Postmaster Gerrish has received official notice of the adoption by the post-office department of the "Immediate Delivery System," with instructions for his guidance, and lists of the post-offices (about 550 in number) in the country at which letters may be specially delivered under the new system. The following is a technical description of the new immediate delivery stamp:

A line engraving on steel, oblong in form, dimensions 13-16 by 1 7-16 inches, color dark blue. Design: On the left an arched panel, bearing the figure of a mail messenger boy on a run and surmounted by the words "United States." On the right an oblong tablet ornamented with a wreath of oak and laurel surrounding the words, "Secures immediate delivery at a special delivery office." Across the top of the tablet is the legend, "Special postal delivery," and at the bottom the words, "Ten cents," separated by a small shield bearing the numeral "10."

The price of this special stamp is ten cents; and when affixed to a letter, in addition to the regular postage stamp, it entitles the missive to an immediate delivery at the office of destination, by a messenger specially employed for this work, at any hour from seven o'clock A. M. up to the hour of closing the post-office. The system applies to drop letters, and by its operation any person in a city having a delivery system can give to one of the carriers, or otherwise send to the postoffice, a letter bearing one of the special delivery stamps, when it will be at once dispatched to any point within the city limits, for a distance of one mile from the office. Locally, this will prove of great service, for by its operations any one can secure the immediate delivery of a letter, anywhere within the city, at the cost of twelve cents.

The person receiving the letter is to sign its receipt in a book, and an account of the letters so delivered is to be kept by the postmasters. For the payment of the carriers, it is provided that the postmasters keep a record of the letters bearing the ten-cent stamp received, and pay to the carriers an amount not exceeding eighty per cent of the face value of all such stamps (eight cents per letter) received during the month—provided that in no case the compensation exceed thirty dollars a month, and that nothing in the act shall interfere with the prompt delivery of letters as now provided by law or regulation.

Postmasters are directed to open all mails the moment they arrive, and sort out the special delivery letters and put on the receiving stamp of the office, showing name of the office and date and hour of arrival. The letters are to be next numbered and entered in the delivery books of the messengers, who are to be dispatched at once. Postmasters are directed to employ after October 1st, as many messenger boys as they deem sufficient. The postoffice department does not require that the messengers be uniformed.

PRESENTATION.

At a meeting of Storer Post, G. A. R., held Wednesday evening, Sept. 16th, the following resolutions were adopted by the Post. The resolutions need no explanation, as the occasion of their adoption is stated in the preamble.

Whereas, our Comrade Col. J. Horace Kent has presented to this Post with appropriate conditions, forty beautiful etchings illustrative of the life scenes of the armies of the Union during the war of the Rebellion, and

Whereas, this Post fully appreciating the great value of this gift, which so vividly recalls the stirring memories of the past, have selected the undersigned committee to accept the same, and to return to the donor a resolution expressive of the grateful thanks of his comrades. Therefore,

Resolved, that Comrade Kent is entitled to the lasting gratitude of this Post for his generous contribution of the memorials of the late war, which so clearly portray its realities and delineate its unwritten history. That these engravings be properly framed and placed upon the walls of the Post room, there to remain until Post 1, of the department of New Hampshire, Grand Army of the Republic shall cease to exist, and then to be delivered to the trustees of the Public Library of the city of Portsmouth, in accordance with the conditions of the gift.

(Signed) CHAS. H. BESSELIEVRE.
WILLIAM Y. EVANS.
GEORGE E. HODGDON,
OLIVER M. KNIGHT.
LORENZO T. BURNHAM.

Voted that the foregoing resolutions be endorsed by the Post, and that copies be furnished the city press for publication; to Col. J. H. Kent, and spread upon the records of this Post.

Comrade J. Wesley Young presented the Post with an elegant oil painting, representing the fight between the Kearsarge and Alabama, for which a vote of thanks was tendered him by the Post. The picture was painted especially for Mr. Young by a Boston artist, and is said to be the finest ever made. It is a very valuable gift, and will undoubtedly be highly appreciated by the Post.

The ship Paul Jones cleared at the custom house in Boston on the 15th inst. for Melbourne, Australia, for which port she has been loaded in Peabody's line. Capt. Gerrish intended to resume the command of the Paul Jones for this voyage, but by reason of ill health will not do so, and Capt. Winn is to command in his place. The ship hauled into the stream on the 15th, with the intention of going to sea on the 17th.

Capt. Richard H. Seaward, of the schooner Grace K. Green of this port, was in town on Tuesday, the 16th, having left the schooner discharging in Boston, from which port he expected to sail on the 17th, for the Kennebec to load ice for a coal port.

The brick schooners J. Chester Wood and Lillie, from this port; also the schooners John & Frank, Rockaway and Nautilus, from York, the Ocean Eagle, from Wells, and the Sharon, from Port Maddock, arrived at Boston on the 16th inst.

The steamer James Sampson has been towed to Newmarket to have her new boiler put in.

The floating stage and brow of the steamboat landing at Appledore island were towed in from the Shoals on the 15th inst. by the steamer Appledore, and will be laid up in their usual winter quarters. The old schooner E. A. Creed, Haley master, belonging to the Laighton Bros., was also towed in on the 15th, and will lie up at Fletcher's wharf, near Liberty bridge, in her old bed where she has lain for several winters past.

CHOLERA CRAMPS CHILLS

"An ounce of prevention," that is, a dose of SANFORD'S GINGER, "is worth a pound of cure," which, of course, means a doctor. It is absolutely certain that Cholera may be prevented, and, in the majority of cases, successfully treated, with SANFORD'S GINGER, a powerful stimulant, composed of Imported Ginger, choice Aromatics, and the best French Brandy; convenient, speedy and safe; sure to check summer complaint, prevent indigestion, destroy disease germs in water drank, restore the circulation when suspended by a chill, and ward off malarial, contagious, and epidemic influences.

Avoid mercenary dealers who for a few cents extra profit try to force upon you their own or others' when you call for

SANFORD'S GINGER

The Delicious Summer Medicine.

Cramps, Pains, Cholera Morbus, Diarrhœa, and Dysentery, whether produced by unripe fruit, impure water, unwholesome food, or change of climate, food or water, or any little ills of home or travel, such as Colds, Chills, Simple Fevers, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Sea-sickness, Exhaustion, Nervousness, Loss of Sleep, Debility and Dissipation, are instantly relieved by SANFORD'S GINGER, the safest, surest, an best summer medicine and travelling companion.

As a healthful summer drink with water, milk, iced water, lemonade, effervescent draughts and mineral waters, it is the best.

Beware of worthless "gingers," said to be "as cod," or "the same," or "as larger," or "cheaper" than SANFORD'S GINGER. Ask for

SANFORD'S GINGER

Sold by Druggists, Grocers & Dealers.
